

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

VOL. XXVI.—NO. 5.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1895.

TERMS—$2.00 A YEAR

Stylish Garments,
Elegant Furs.
Extraordinary Values.

THE FASHIONABLE
CLOAK HOUSE
OF SPRINGER BROTHERS,

500 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

Headquarters for CLOAKS AND FURS.

503 Washington Street,
BOSTON.

FINE DRESS SUITS A SPECIALTY.

WALTER C. BROOKS & Co.

.... Importing
.. Tailors ..

15 MILK ST., BOSTON.

IRTHPLACE OF FRANKLIN
OPP. OLD SOUTH CHURCH.

Goods Delivered Free in the Newtons.

STOVES

and every variety
of .

HOUSEHOLD : : GOODS

—AT—

BENT'S FURNITURE ROOMS,
64 Main St., Watertown.

Brackett's Market Company.
Established 1851. Incorporated 1892.
Telephone No. 10-3.

Commencing Oct. 1st we will sell
Sirloin Roasts at 25 cts. per lb.
"Steak at - 25"
Rump " at - 25"

LARGE STOCK TO SELECT FROM.
7 and 8 Cole's Block,
WASHINGTON near CENTRE ST., NEWTON.

EMPLOYMENT OFFICE.
Miss N. L. DOHERTY,
370 Washington St., opp. Thornton,
NEWTON, MASS.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gowdy Baker.
Water Colors .
Classes for Children and older People
Studio Opp Public Library.

ACCIDENT
cases and claims of all kinds investigated and adjusted promptly if placed with READ'S LEGAL AGENCY, 20 Devonshire
St.,

MONSIEUR DE BOISSONS,

OF PARIS

Professor of the

FRENCH LANGUAGE.

Is READY TO RECEIVE PUPILS.

MAPLE CIRCLE, NEWTON.

PROF. BACHIMONT, Ph. D.,

Of the University of Paris,

Is now forming classes in French in Newton.

Gouin method, a psychological system enabling students to speak fluently in the shortest time.

Trial lesson free. Address, 62 Boylston Street,

Boston.

Shirts
MADE TO ORDER.

A Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Best Material.

First-Class Work.

Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2.00.

Will call on customers at such time and place

as will suit their convenience.

Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.

New Bosons, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands,

15c.; Cuffs, 30c.; Collars, 25c.; Centre

Plaits, 25c.

Badly fitting Shirt made to fit well.

E. B. BLACKWELL,

43 Thornton St., Newton, Mass.

H. P. GAMBLE,

Late of Hollander's,

274 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON.

Reception, Tailor and Evening

Gowns, Top Coats and Riding Habits.

$15 AND UPWARDS.

NEWTON.

—Pianos, Farley, 433 Washington St., N.

—Frank Briggs has taken a position in Haverhill.

—The 18th anniversary of the Y. M. C. O.

A. will be observed Nov. 10th.

—Pitt F. Parker has returned from a trip to Pawtucket.

—Mrs. A. D. Babcock of Syracuse, N. Y.,

is spending this week at the Hunnewell.

—Mrs. Orrin Whipple has gone to Brooklyn, N. Y., to spend the winter.

—Roofers have been at work, the past week, placing a new tar roof on French's block.

—William Briggs of Washington street has taken a position in the circulation department of the Boston Standard.

—The novel way of removing the trees on Washington street by the aid of the steam roller, has attracted a large crowd of interested spectators the past week.

—Miss Anna L. Meeson, 37 Wesley street, will give an exhibition of oil, water color and china painting, Nov. 6th and 7th from 2 to 10 p. m.

—Dr. Abbott begins a course of very interesting discourses in Grace church on Sunday night. The topic of the first one is

"Heredity."

—Grace church Sunday school had an entertainment on Thursday night in the parish house. They are invited to another next month by the Choir Guild.

—There will be a special service of song in Grace church on Sunday night. Two of H. W. Parker's anthems will be sung and an anthem by Mendelssohn.

—Mr. George C. Wilkins is in the list of those who have received a renewal and increase of his pension, in the dispatches sent from Washington.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of the

Eliot church held their monthly meeting

Friday evening. Among the business transacted was the election of several new members.

—The vacancy left by the resignation of W. S. Gordon, superintendent of the Newton branch of the Metropolitan Life

Insurance Co., has been filled by the appointment of J. J. Agnew.

—Mrs. Annie Williams, wife of Howard

N. Williams, who resided in the Newtons for many years, died in Boston last week.

She has left many friends in the Newtons, who will remember her, as a true and loving mother, and one who was always ready and happy to do a kindness to those around her.

—Music in Grace church Sunday night:

Processional, "Fight the good fight."

Magnificat. H. B. Day

Nine Ditties. H. B. Day

Antiphon, "Show me thy ways." Dr. Roberts

Antiphon, "Blessed are the men who fear

Him." Mendelssohn

Antiphon, "Give unto the Lord." H. W. Parker

Recessional, "On our way rejoicing."

All seats free.

—The six men chosen at the regular drill of Co. C., Monday evening to perform duty on the Gatling gun are Sergt. Alexis

E. Prado are Carl Forsane, John F. Gaha-gher, Charles Benyon, Stanley Whitney,

Arthur Reid and Bert Stearns. Lieut.

Davis of Battery A will soon commence instructing the men, who will be exempt from infantry drill and have charge of the gun at muster or on field days.

—Sergeant Clay and a squad of officers raided the house of Anthony Kioles,

Bridge street, Sunday morning, and seized a small quantity of whiskey. There is a case now pending against Kioles, which is to come up in the present term of the superior court. His place was raided a few months ago and in the Newton police court he was convicted of maintaining a liquor nuisance. He was fined $100, and sentenced to three months in the house of correction, East Cambridge, but appealed.

—Responsibility for the collision at Newton on Thursday of last week when four freight cars were wrecked, has been placed by the Boston & Albany Railroad management with the switchman of the freight.

The switch had been left open on track three, permitting the accommodation to cross over on track three and come in collision with the freight train. The switch was once closed by one of the brakeman, but the switchman, not knowing it had been changed, again threw it over and signalled for the accommodation to come along, indicating, of course, a clear track.

—Miss Lois Page of Boyd street is visiting friends in New Hampshire.

—Crysanthemums next week at Morey's conservatories only $1. per dozen.

—Mrs. Seales and Miss Seales have returned after spending several weeks in

New Jersey.

—Mr. Wm. B. Livingstone has moved into Albert Brackett's house, 18 Baldwin street.

—Mr. Hiram Simmons will soon move into the new building on the corner of Copley street and Hunnewell avenue.

—Rev. Geo. E. Merrill was elected president of the Northern Baptist Educational Society, at the annual meeting in Fitchburg, this week.

—The GRAPHIC office will be removed to its new building on Centre place, just above the Newton railroad station, about

Nov. 15th.

—Rev. Dillon Bronson has been housed the past week by a severe cold. He is out today for the first time, and expects to be in his pulpit on Sunday morning.

—At the meeting of the State Baptist

Sunday School Association in Fitchburg, yesterday, Mr. Stephen Moore was elected president and Mr. F. W. Peavey of Newton

Centre, financial secretary.

—Rev. George E. Merrill will preach in Immanuel church next Sunday morning.

Subject, "God the Just Justifier." In the evening the discourse will be upon "What Church Membership Means."

—Ladies or misses desirous of entering the gymnasium classes can meet Miss Wilson at Gymnasium Hall, before or after lessons (on the mornings of Tuesdays and Saturdays or Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

—Music at Eliot church, Sunday:

Organ prelude. Smart

Hymn, "O bread to pilgrims given." Goodrich

Organ postlude. Lemmings

Organ prelude. Gounod

Antiphon, "The Lord is exalted." West

Tenor solo, "In heavenly love abiding." Cheney

Antiphon, "O peace be peace eternal." Grieg

Organ postlude. Salome

—Wednesday evening an alarm was rung

in box 14 for a fire in the unoccupied house,

418 Washington street. The fire, which is of incendiary origin, was set in the attic and burned a considerable part of the roofs and roof, when it was discovered.

After the prompt arrival of the department the blaze was soon extinguished.

Loss $400.

—Mrs. L. E. Coffin and the Misses Barker gave an afternoon whist party, Thursday, at Mrs. Coffin's residence on Bellvue street. There were fifteen tables filled with players, and the rooms were handsomely decorated in pink, giving a very pretty effect. The flowers were pink chrysanthemums, the favors were pink and the pink color prevailed in the ices that were served after the game.

—The Misses Parker of the Newton

Bazar, having occupied a store in Warner block a quarter of a century, have leased

the store in Brackett's block, formerly occupied by Dr. Connelley, and will open with a new stock of novelties and Christmas cards, the first week in November.

Thanking the public for their generous support in the past, they hope to merit a continuance of the same.

—The death of Miss Helen L. Leeds of Bennington street has brought sorrow to a large circle of friends, as she was an unusually popular young lady and much believed for her sweetness of disposition. She had a severe illness about a year ago, from which she never has recovered. She will be greatly missed, especially among the young people of Eliot church, and much sympathy has been expressed for her believed family.

—The anniversary meeting of the Newton Young Men's Christian Association will be held on Sunday evening, Nov. 10, at 7:30 o'clock in the Eliot church. Rev.

Reuben Thomas, D. D., of Brookline will preach. Music will be furnished by the Beethoven Male Quartet and a delegation from the boy choir of Grace church, under the direction of Mr. Harry B. Day, choir master. An interesting occasion is expected and a full attendance desired.

—One of a party of boys who were setting fire to a pile of leaves on Park street

Friday afternoon, came near being seriously if not fatally burned. He, like the other boys, was jumping over the flames when his foot caught on a stick, enabling them to throw in the fire, and he fell headlong into the blaze. Mr. H. W. Crowell, Jr.,

To the People of Newton.

We, the undersigned, residents of the City of Newton, appeal to the men and women in behalf of municipal suffrage for women.

It is the growing opinion of many thoughtful men and women, that this measure is absolutely necessary and it is our solemn conviction that many of the evils of our day will never be remedied till women vote in municipal affairs.

We urge all registered women to go to the polls on election day, Nov. 5, and vote "Yes" on the question submitted by the last legislature; "Is it expedient that Municipal Suffrage be granted to women?"

And we ask all men voters to seriously consider that while Massachusetts is now governed by an aristocracy based strictly on sex, it is possible by voting in the affirmative under this law, to ensure "A GOVERNMENT OF THE (WHOLE) PEOPLE, BY THE (WHOLE) PEOPLE, FOR THE (WHOLE) PEOPLE."

NEWTON.

Mr. & Mrs. Henry W. Wellington

Hon. & Mrs. Gorham D. Gilman

Rev. & Mrs. Wolcott Calkins

Miss Mary W. Calkins

Mr. & Mrs. Dexter D. Bowman

Mrs. Olea Bull Vaughan

CITY GOVERNMENT.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENTS. MULTIPLE-SUGGESTIONS TO WIDEN MARGIN STREET—WAVERLEY AVENUE PRO-POSED AS A CONNECTING ROUTE TO OAK SQUARE.

Both branches of the city council met Monday evening. The board of mayor and aldermen held a special session.

The election officers appointed by the mayor at the preceding meeting, to fill vacancies, were confirmed.

Orders were adopted appropriating $75 for the registration of highway department laborers, under the civil service requirement; $500 for settlement of damages on account of the laying out of the Cheesecake brook boulevard; $515 for new water mains on River, Bradford, Fuller and Gardner streets; authorizing the highway committee and committee on Washington street awards to make settlements with all parties claiming damages on account of the seizure of land for the laying out of Commonwealth avenue and the widening of Washington street.

A petition of Austin R. Mitchell and 16 others, requesting the laying out of Walnut street to a width of 60 feet, from Newtonville square southerly, was referred to the highway committee.

A hearing was given on the petition of Henry F. King, et al., for the widening and laying out of Margin street, in connection with the proposed widening of Washington street, from Lincoln Park to Germain street. Mr. King appeared to speak in behalf of the plan. He exhibited a map, showing the lines of the streets as proposed by the combination widening and improvement scheme. The city's plan only provides for the widening of Washington street. Mr. King explained his proposition at some length. His idea was to straighten the tracks of the Boston & Albany railroad through West Newton, by moving them northward, occupying the territory now known as Davis street. The land comprised in Davis street he proposed to exchange with the Boston & Albany Railroad Company for sufficient land south, representing the present roadbed, to widen Margin street. The Unitarian church, he suggested moving back on the lot where it now stands, bringing it nearer to the B. & A. tracks.

The plan proposed to continue Margin street to Austin street, giving a continuous thoroughfare about 100 feet in width from Newton Falls to Newton.

Mr. King expressed confidence that the Boston & Albany Railroad Company would agree to the scheme, as it would enable it to get rid of an objectionable curve in West Newton and to better carry out the idea of a depressed road bed with sloping walls, in accord with the general desire of the citizens in carrying out the plan of separating the grades.

Mr. King went on to say that the other buildings could also be moved. If the city sold Davis street to the railroad the sum realized, he said, would go quite a way toward paying for the cost.

Mr. James T. Allen was the next speaker called upon. He said that Mr. King's plan was an excellent one. If the railroad company, he went on to say, deprecates the tracks at Margin street, there will be room for a slope. Otherwise, at this foot of Putnam street, it seems to me that to do this thing right, the widening of Margin street and Washington street should be done in conjunction. It is the ideal way and deserves careful consideration.

Rev. Mr. Lisle followed Mr. Allen. He said Newton, the Garden City, was surpassed for fine residences, but it had few wide streets. Even Washington street, he continued, is narrow. In order to make the expenditures on the boulevard uniform with those in other parts of the city, Washington street should be widened. As to the cost, he thought that those owning fine residences would injure themselves by opposing the plan for fear of an increase of taxes. He would like to suggest that the liberal widening at Chestnut street be carried out also. He endorsed Mr. King's plan.

Rev. H. J. Patrick, D. D., said that if the improvement was made in the center of the village it would be enjoyed by a much greater number of persons than if it was made between West Newton and Newtonville or West Newton and Auburndale. One standing at Cate's stable and looking up the street, he went on to say, could at once see the need of a change and the improvement it would make. Newton Centre was said to possess the finest square in the city, but if the plan proposed by Mr. King was carried out West Newton would also have a fine one.

Mr. W. E. Sheldon said that the widening of Margin street in conjunction with Washington street would be a great improvement. The former street, being so near the railroad tracks, was very dangerous. If the railroad tracks were moved 50 feet to the north it would settle the whole matter. As a friend of improvement, 30 years ago, he had drawn up a plan for widening Washington street, but it had not been carried out, as it would have cost $100,000. It would now cost to do the same thing several times that sum.

Capt. Howard, another friend of the King plan, spoke in favor of its receiving the attention of the city authorities. He thought that the Boston & Albany railroad would be glad to confer with the city in regard to the matter. Mr. King's plan, he said, would widen Margin street, change the course of the railroad and Washington street and improve Putnam street. It deserved consideration. Several other speakers followed, among them being Mr. Walton, Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Metcalf and Mr. John L. Langford. They all favored Mr. King's suggestion. The hearing was closed.

Other hearings were given on the petition of C. S. Avery for permission to erect a stable on Chestnut street, no one appearing in opposition, the petition was granted; on the widening of Washington street from Germain street to Lincoln park, also on the petition of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company for pole locations on Highland and Parker streets.

Communications were received from the city of Boston, (water department), relative to the construction of sidewalks on Bowdoin street and Hillside road; from the Newton & Watertown Gas Light Company accepting certain locations, C. A. Ford and others remonstrating against the widening of Tremont street; from the inspector of buildings relative to the petition of G. R. Fisher for permission to construct a barn at the corner of California and Dabry streets, in the rear of his house. They were referred to appropriate committees.

In the common council, the session opened with a hearing on the proposed widening of Tremont, Park and Washington streets. It was rehearsed last week at the meeting of the mayor and aldermen.

Mr. S. L. Powers, representing Mr. Abram Byfield, chairman of the standing committee of the Channing church, was the first speaker. He called the attention of the council to the objection previously referred to at the meeting of the aldermen, that of the decision of the church property by proceeding to widen by the lines laid out by the city engineer. He appeared, he said, not to oppose the general plan of improvement, but rather to offer a suggestion. The plan proposed, he went on to say, provides for an irregular line, leaving a small portion of the church lot at the corner of Park and Vernon streets. There is a great objection to leaving this piece of land, as it will be practically useless to the church. It leaves a jog in the church property and will prevent the carrying out of a contemplated plan to erect a parsonage. If the improvement is made, the church people greatly prefer that the street should be widened on a straight line to Vernon street. From a public point of view, too, I believe that the proposed line of the street should be straightened. The sentiment of residents on that point, I may add, is apparently unanimously in favor of a straight line.

Mr. Byfield was called upon. He said: If you take the land as proposed, it leaves only a space of 60 feet at the corner of Park and Vernon streets. It would seem almost ridiculous to do that. It would appear that a straight line to Vernon street would be so far preferable that it would require little argument to convince one of the advantage to be gained.

Mr. J. B. Goodrich—In the interests of some 15 or 20 gentlemen, whose estates are interested in this proposed improvement, I appear here to present some objections to the proposed route through Tremont and Park streets. It is a very important public improvement, I may add, one of the most important that has been undertaken this year. It involves, too, a large outlay of money. I desire to say that the estimate of damage made by the highway committee is, in my judgment, ridiculously low. Of course, it is well known that there is a very general dissatisfaction with the awards.

Now, all that the gentlemen ask, whom I represent, is that you give this matter very careful consideration. The only call, as I understand it, for the widening of the street is the fact that it is a narrow street with Oak Square by means of an electric street railway. Nothing has yet been said regarding an alternative route. It is our wish, therefore, to have the council consider whether or not the city's and the public interests would not be just as well served by laying the electric tracks through Tremont and Waverley avenue to Washington street. Would it not in some ways be a better route? Tremont street between Waverley avenue and Park street is very narrow and the houses are now pretty close to the street line. Then, too, the lot is a small one. It holds true with regard to the north side of Tremont street and both sides of Park street along the route of the proposed widening. The houses are numerous also. On the other hand, there are few houses along the line of the suggested Waverley avenue route and the lots are all large ones. It would seem, therefore, that the expense would be less to run the tracks down Tremont street and over Waverley avenue.

In favor of the latter scheme, I might allude to the fact that Waverley avenue is 50 feet wide already. The land for the most part is vacant. There is only one house that would be disturbed in the least and that stands on a large lot of land, so that there would be no necessity of bringing the dwelling too near the street line. The damages, I think, would be as near the minimum as possible. The damages would be comparatively small and, all things considered, it appears to be the better route. The street railway location could be provided without the necessity of taking land from very small house lots and without cutting through houses.

It may be that the increased value of land on Washington street will interpose an obstacle. It is possible that you may be required to pay a large price for land on that thoroughfare. It should be remembered, however, that the same difficulty is likely to confront you by widening by the proposed route. The value of land in the immediate vicinity of Washington street has also risen in value. I have already stated that the awards made for land by the proposed route are inadequate and will not, in my judgment, cover the expense. The city may be obliged to pay a high figure for land taken for the widening improvement on Park and Tremont streets.

The question for the city council to consider is simply, which route is the better? It has been said that one great obstacle in the way of the Waverley avenue route is that of the high grade of Washington street from the proposed terminus of the street railroad to Waverley street. That may possibly enter into the decision of the question. It is my opinion, however, that so far as the West End Railroad is concerned, it would have no strong preference for one route above the other.

The Waverley avenue location would give more opportunity, I think, for real estate development. The city's route, it cannot be denied, would be a great hardship on many property owners on Park and Tremont streets. It is a question, I submit, that should be very carefully considered before a final decision is made.

Mr. Goodrich at this point presented a remonstrance from owners of property on Park and Tremont streets, who objected to the city's route. It was signed by Charles C. Lord, Amasa B. Huff, Geo. W. Crosby, E. P. Burnham, E. T. Fearling and several others.

Attorney Brown appeared for Asa T. Pierce, residing at 17 Park street. He opposed the city's proposed route for sentimental reasons. He said that Mr. Pierce had bought the estate on Park street on account of its quiet location and in the interests of his wife's health. She was subject to violent headaches, he went on to say, and the location of a noisy street railway close to her home would be a source of great annoyance, and besides be hardly conducive to furnish the quiet necessary for the alleviation of her sufferings. If the location was decided upon through Park street, it would be necessary for Mr. Pierce to move elsewhere. It would compel him to dispose of his estate upon which he had expended quite a large sum of money. I hope, said the speaker in conclusion, that the suggestion offered by Mr. Goodrich will be adopted and that the provision for an electric car route will be made by way of Waverley avenue.

Mr. S. L. Powers—I desire to say a few words in reply to Mr. Goodrich. There are several objections to the Waverley avenue route. I think that it is one that has developed since the awards were announced last week. There was certainly no opposition to the general plan of widening Tremont and Park streets at the hearing before the board of aldermen. The only thing to be considered in this matter, it seems to me, is which plan will best promote the greatest good for the greatest number, at the smallest possible outlay of money. The original plan was through Tremont street and for years, whenever this proposed improvement has been mentioned, no other route has ever been thought of or suggested. It would cost more, I think, to widen by the Waverley avenue route. There are two expensive houses at the corner of Washington street and besides a number of valuable estates that will be affected. The grade difficulty, in my judgment, is a serious one. I just believe the West End Railroad will consent to run cars to Washington street up Waverley avenue. It would probably be necessary to sand the tracks continuously during the winter time.

Of course, we are all aware that it will cost quite a sum to widen the street. The land damages will be considerable of an item. It is to be expected that the city will pay liberally for the property taken for that purpose, given up by citizens not because they want to, but because they are obliged to. It is to be hoped, therefore, that the city will fairly and equitably estimate the value of the property taken for that purpose, and that the Waverley avenue route would prove the more expensive one and that it would not accommodate the public as well.

There is another matter to be considered. If there is a controversy over the route, it may result in retarding the improvement. We want this improvement carried out as soon as possible. We don't want to wait for other city governments, who may inaugurate a policy of retrenchment and thus, perhaps, put the matter off for a long time. It is to be hoped that the board will put through the plan at once, practically as proposed, bearing in mind the suggestion favoring a straight line to Vernon street and the carrying out of the policy of a fair compensation to those whose land will be affected by the change in the street lines.

Mr. Goodrich—The statement to the effect that all the citizens are in favor of the Park and Tremont street routes, I think, should not go unchallenged. It seems to me that there is a fairly divided sentiment in the matter. I think that the suggestion made by the remonstrants is a pertinent one. I don't apprehend any trouble from a reform city government. It seems to me that the change is bound to come in one shape or another.

Mr. W. J. Follett—The question to be considered in this case is—Which route is the most feasible? There can only be one answer, I think, to that question. The Tremont and Park street route is the natural route, following a natural, easy grade. The idea of going up and down a hill seems to me to be a ridiculous one. It has been suggested that we delay in this matter. Delays are always costly to the city. There has been too much delay in the past in carrying forward important and necessary improvements and the result has been an increase in expense whatever the route. The work was finally commenced and completed. What we desire and what the proposed improvement will give us is a quick connection with Boston by electric cars. It is an improvement that will be of great benefit to the people and a wise outlay of money, whatever the route. There is only one sentiment in regard to the route outside of the men directly affected and that sentiment is in favor of following the natural grade. As has been said, delay is likely to breed agitation. I think what the city council should do at once, settling fairly with the people whose property interests are affected.

Councilman Ober asked Mr. Goodrich for information regarding the length of the two routes.

Mr. Goodrich—The Waverley avenue route, I think, is a trifle shorter. The City Engineer Woods was called upon, in response to a request of Mr. Crosby, to furnish information upon this point. He said that there was a difference of 50 feet in favor of the Park street route. In answer to further inquiries, he stated that the widening on Tremont street would be mostly on the north side and that the widest taking from house lots on the other side would be only three feet.

Mr. Follett at this point introduced the figures on the assessed valuation of property. The Park and Tremont street route, he said, would cost $407,300. The Waverley avenue and Washington street route would cost $467,300.

Mr. Goodrich—in giving those figures, Mr. Follett, you might have added that the area of land was vastly greater on the line of Waverley avenue and Washington street than in the lots along Park and Tremont street.

The hearing was closed.

In concurrence, a big batch of papers were acted upon by the common council. By invitation, the lower branch joined with the aldermen at the hearing given on the petition of Mr. Henry F. King, et al., for the widening of Margin street and the straightening of the tracks of the Boston & Albany Railroad through West Newton in connection with the Washington street improvement.

How's This!
We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm.
WEST & THAX, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
WALDING, KINMAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Made all the Difference.
(From Town Topics.)
"I hate to see pay day come around."
"Are you crazy?"
"Very near it. I've lost my job."

Stranger (sarcastically)—"I hear you use a knife in partaking of your water here."
Chicago man (with dignity)—"Possibly some of the lower classes use a knife, but everybody who is anybody uses a fork, sir!"—Detroit Tribune.

Removal.

After November 15th,

Newton Graphic

will be located in its own building, at

16 Centre Place,

just above the NEWTON
RAILROAD STATION

Centre Place connects with Washington street through the tunnel, which will be convenient for passengers coming by the electric cars, and its nearness to the Railroad Station, will be handy for the people who patronize the steam cars.

The new building will give nearly 600 square feet additional floor space which is needed for our large

JOB PRINTING

Department. It has been conveniently arranged for work, and will be fitted up with all the modern improvements. Patrons will bear in mind the change of location after Nov. 15th, to 16 CENTRE PLACE.

TEETH EXTRACTED
WITHOUT PAIN

By our new method. A simple application to the gums. You don't lose consciousness, and are dangerous to those having heart trouble.

FULL SET
OF TEETH, $6

Best quality. Extraction Painless. Warranted 5 years.
All Kinds of Fillings.....75c. up Solid Gold Crowns or teeth without plates.....$5.00
All work warranted and kept in repair
free of charge.
Largest and finest Dental Parlors in New England.
Hundreds of teeth extracted daily by our painless process; no bad results, no months or after-treatment.

BOSTON DENTAL
PARLORS Under Entirely
New Management.
681 Washington St., Boston.
Cor. Lagrange St., opp. Cobb, Bates & Yerx.
HOURS, 8 A. M. to 8 P. M. SUNDAYS 10 to 2.

FRANCIS MURDOCK.
INSURANCE AGENT,
Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT
placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies.
Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord Mass.

Member of the Master Builders' Association,
166 Devonshire Street.
(Established 1836.) (Incorporated 1894.)
(Connected by Telephone.)

JOHN FARQUHAR'S SONS,
INCORPORATED.

Roofers, Metal Workers,

Slate, Copper, Tin, Zinc and Composition Roofing. Galvanized Iron Work. Dealers in all Roofing Materials.

20 and 22 East Street, Boston.

Special attention given to Repairs of all kinds of Roofing.

Samuel Farquhar, Pres.; David Farquhar, Secy and Treas.; Joseph Farquhar, Supt.; Rollin Farquhar; Frank C. Farquhar, Directors.

PURE MILK

SUPPLIED DAILY FROM

Prospect Valley Farm

One cow's milk supplied when desired

H. COLDWELL & SON,
Waltham, Mass.

Livery Stables.
DANIEL'S
Nonantum Stables.

HENRY C. DANIELS, Proprietor.

Patrons will find at these Stables the best of Horses and Carriages for hire.
Landaus and Hackes, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Sales and elable horses for ladies to drive.

BOARDING
Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses.
Clean and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt attention.
Telephone 271-3.

GEO. W. BUSH,
Livery, Hack & Boarding
STABLE.

Particular attention paid to Boarding Horses.
Hacks at depot or the conveyance of passengers to any part of the city. Horses and carriages to let for business or pleasure.

ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.
Telep. Lone Connection.

Livery, Hack, Established Barges, City of Newton Garden City. & Boat Sleigh, Snow Bird.

F. GATE
W. Newton. Boarding Stable.

Ranges, Furnaces,
Water Heaters,
Steam Boilers,
AT FACTORY STORE OF

Walker & Pratt Mfg. Co.,

GALEN STREET, WATERTOWN, MASS.

Telephone No. 130, Newton.

Furnaces, Ranges Cleaned and Repaired

L. H. CRANITCH,
House, Sign, and Ornamental
PAINTER.

Paper Hangings in great variety and work promptly done.

Walnut St., - Newtonville.
2nd door from Central Block.

Howard Ice Co.,

Successors to Howard Bros.

ORDERS FOR

ICE RECEIVED AT

T. L. MASON'S, 390 Centre Street

P. O. Address, Box 65, Newton.

A. L. HOWARD. E. E. HOWARD.

Telephone 13-3 Newton.

Newton and Watertown
Gas Light Company

All orders for Gas or Electric Lighting left at their office, 421 Centre St., will receive prompt attention.

C. A. HARRINGTON

LUMBER,

Lime, Cement, Plaster, &c

Crafts St., Newtonville, Mass.

ephone 5248-7 Newton

J. H. LOOKER,

French Cleansing and Dyeing

Dry Cleansing and Repairing a Specialty.

Particular attention paid to

Blankets, Lace Curtains, Fine
Linens and Hand Laundry

Work of all kinds.

No. 21 Carleton Street.

NEWTON, MASS.

BOOK

—AND—

JOB PRINTING

Of Every Description

Promptly Executed at the

Newton Graphic

..OFFICE..

285 Washington Street,

NEWTON.

Plumbers.

HEWITT & THOMAS,
Practical Plumbers.
And Sanitary Engineers.
247 WASHINGTON ST.,
Nonantum Block, Newton.

M. C. HIGGINS,
Practical Plumber
—AND—
SANITARY ENGINEER.

Plumbing Work in all its branches.

Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city, perfect satisfaction is guaranteed.

Summer's Block, Newton.

ESTABLISHED IN 1895.

T. J. HARTNETT,

Plumber and Sanitary Engineer.

IRON DRAINAGE & VENTILATION A SPECIALTY.

JOBING

PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

375 Centre Street, - Newton.

Carpenters and Builders.

S. K. MacLEOD,

Carpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed. Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumber's

Work a Specialty.

SHOP: CENTRE PL., Opp. PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Residence: Boyd Street, near Jewett.

Mrs. E. A. SMITH,

Millinery.

202 Moody Street,

Opp. Walnut,

Waltham, Mass.

JUVENE

FALL and WINTER

MILLINERY.

E. JUVENE ROBBINS

Eliot Block, Newton.

J. HENRY BACON,

Dry Goods

and Notions

Ladies' and Gents'

Furnishing Goods

OIL AND STRAW CARPETS

Trunks, Bags, Etc.

279, 281 Washington St., Newton.

NEWTON COAL CO.,

—DEALERS IN—

Coal and Wood.

Family Orders a Specialty.

OFFICE, - ELIOT BLOCK.

—BRANCH OFFICE—

J. F. Payne's Drug Store Newtonville.

CHICAGO SCORED.

0 0 NEWTON CEMETER

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY
285 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.

All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable to EDWARD D. BALDWIN,
Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO. 338-2.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.

ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

THE CAMPAIGN.

The election next Tuesday will end one of the quietest campaigns Newton has ever had. Not a political rally has been held within the city limits, and the campaigners have given us a wide berth.
Evidently Newton's position is considered so certain that it was not thought worth while to waste time here. Still, when the political speeches are reported so fully in the daily papers, and every voter reads one or more, there is really not much use of campaign rallies to inform the voters upon campaign issues.

Whatever ripple has appeared above the surface in Newton has been due to the active efforts of the believers in woman suffrage, who have held many meetings and conducted a lively campaign, with the purpose of inducing voters to register. Their efforts have not been in vain, as the number of women qualified to vote has been largely increased.

As far as the general campaign is concerned, Newton will give Governor Greenhalge a large majority, probably several hundred larger than usual.

The only other positions about which there is any special interest are the Senatorship and the representatives.
The non-partisan candidate for Senator,
Mr. Lawrence Bond, has an especial interest for Newton people, as he has served the city well in the city council, and has been a faithful member of the school board. He ought to receive a large vote here for these reasons, and also because he is in every way better qualified for the office than his opponent, Dr. Niles of Watertown, the A. P. A. candidate. Judging from the comments heard about the city, Mr. Bond will receive a large majority of the Republican vote, as Newton voters believe in electing the best man to office, and are opposed to the policy of prescription, bigotry, and race and religious prejudice which Dr. Niles stands for. Newton men believe in having a bona-fide American candidate, instead of one who is such only in name.

In regard to representatives, the Republicans have renominated Messrs.
Hollis and Woodward, and the Democrats Mr. P. C. Bridgman of Newtonville, and this effort appears to have exhausted both parties, as neither of them have done anything since. The Republican candidates are probably sure of election, although the fact that the Democrats have only one candidate may cut down their majority somewhat.

SOME of the property owners on Tremont and Park streets sprung a new scheme, Monday evening, on the city council, by engaging Mr. J. B. Goodrich as counsel to present the advantages of having the West End street railway branch off Tremont street at Waverley avenue, and reach Nonantum Square by way of Washington street. Mr. Goodrich made a very plausible showing of the advantages of this route, its greater cheapness and desirability, and there was a large crowd present to hear him.
Some of them enjoyed his remarks, but those owning property on Waverley avenue and the threatened portion of Washington street did not. It was not so many years ago that all the residents of Washington street on the Hill, as far as the Boston line, signed a petition to have the street railway pass along the street, but times have changed evidently, and they now would rather have it run past their back doors, on Tremont street. The latter street has no valuable estates save near the corner of Washington street, to be affected, while Washington street from Park street to Waverley avenue has some of the finest residences in the city. Park street itself has a few good houses, but most of them are not of great value, and as a street railway always depreciates abutting property, for residential purposes, the city government has to consider by what route the least damage would be inflicted.
The awards made by the committee on Park street have caused a good deal of amusement, and if founded on the assessors' books the property owners can not complain of any excessive valuation as far as they are concerned.

HON. J. R. LEESON had an interesting interview in the Boston Advertiser, last week, on the Consular service, in which he spoke very highly of the American Consuls whom he met on his recent trip abroad. He emphasized the importance of having adopted a thorough reform in the service, by taking the appointments out of politics, and having men appointed who are fitted by training and character for the delicate and important duties that devolve upon them. Our commerce depends in a great measure upon these officials, who are often called upon to make reports on matters involving much labor, and demanding keenness of insight and good judgment. He recalled several cases of this nature. The salaries now paid are inadequate, and much less than other nations pay, so that the American official are at a disadvantage in this respect. Mr. Leeson thinks a thorough and impartial investigation of the needs of this service should be made, by competent men, to be followed by legislation by Congress, to completely reorganize the service to meet the demands of the existing and prospective conditions in our commercial life. There is no doubt that the spoils system has done us great injury in the past, and any measures to put an end to it would be welcomed by all thoughtful people.

The ordinance forbidding the burning of leaves in the public streets does not seem to be enforced, as fires have been noticed on several streets this week, and the smoke nuisance has been almost unbearable. Part of it is due to fires in backyards, but a great cloud of smoke has laid over the city, and smarting eyes and throats have been universal. The doctors say that the epidemic of colds now so prevalent is due in great measure to the smoke nuisance. The law in regard to the street fires should be more strictly enforced and there ought to be some way to reach those who keep fires burning on their grounds. The burning of leaves is such an unbearable nuisance every fall, that many think it would be much better to cut down all the shade trees, and so have no leaves to burn.
That would be one way to end the ever-recurring trouble. There are many people all over the city made ill by the smoke, and even a heavy fall of snow would be welcome, as that would clear the air for a time.

The plan proposed by Mr. King and others for the widening of Washington street at West Newton is conceived on a magnificent basis, and if there was money enough in the city treasury it might have some prospect of being adopted. But all the other villages would be jealous if so much money was expended there. Outsiders are saying that there is no objection to West Newton people making any improvements they desire, provided they pay for them out of their own pockets, but it is hardly fair to ask to have such a heavy burden foisted upon the city. We have a one-sided street, most of the distance on Washington street, but it would not be wise policy to make any unnecessary additions to such an unprofitable condition of things.

It is a rather interesting fact that not a paper in this district is supporting Senator Niles. The Waltham Free Press, in spite of its being generally ready to swallow anything labelled Republican, does not seem to know there is such a candidate. The Waltham News, which is Republican in its tendencies, openly bolts and supports Mr. Lawrence Bond.
The Watertown Enterprise has not said a word in favor of its local Senator, but prints appeals for Mr. Bond. All the papers in fact that have not openly endorsed Mr. Bond, are showing by their silence that they hope he will be elected, and the local papers generally reflect pretty accurately the state of public opinion.

THE Newton Street Railway will not take up its tracks during the widening of Washington street, although they will have to relocate them temporarily in several places, during the general upheaval of the street, during the coming year or so. The company is really doing good service, in spite of the numerous difficulties caused by the moving of houses, and intends to keep as near their regular running time as possible, in spite of all obstacles.

LAST week's Journal announced that a prominent Republican politician would run against Mayor Bothfield, at the coming city election. He must be a very bold man, whoever he is, to lead such a forlorn hope, but we hope the information is correct. The old-fashioned campaigns made things lively in Newton, and woke up the voters to a serious interest in local affairs, at least for a few weeks.

BEGINNING next Sunday, the Boston
Sunday Herald will print regularly a sermon for Herald readers, aimed especially at those who are not regular at-tendents at church. Among the preachers will be Bishop Lawrence, Rev. E. E.
Hale, Rev. Robert Collier, Rev. E. A.
Horton, Rev. F. W. Gunsaulus, and other equally well known divines.

A SPECIAL committee of the city council, comprising Aldermen White and Green, Councilmen Parker, Roberts and Briston went to Montreal this week to inspect a garbage furnace. Agent Brimblecom of the board of health accompanied the party. The board of health enjoyed the same excursion a few months ago.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

HON. J. R. LEESON had an interesting interview in the Boston Advertiser, last week, on the Consular service, in which he spoke very highly of the American Consuls whom he met on his recent trip abroad. He emphasized the importance of having adopted a thorough reform in the service, by taking the appointments out of

The state election is not yet over but the board of registration have an advertisement in another column, announcing the dates for registration of men and women for the city election.

WABAN.

—We are glad to hear that Miss Kendrick is rapidly recovering from her sprain.
—Mr. C. J. Butum is confined to his house with a severe attack of rheumatism.
—The Waban trolley system is an assured success. Work has already begun on the car house on Windsor road.

—Mr. A. S. Barnes has returned from a short visit in the country. Mrs. Barnes will continue her visit for a few days longer.

—W. C. Strong is building two houses on Windsor road. Mr. W. S. Carr, formerly of Newtonville, is also building a house on the same street.

—Mr. Louis H. Harlow, the artist, is shortly to give an exhibition of his work at Williams & Everett's. The pictures which are the watercolors and pastels, include views of Santa Barbara, Cal., and Mexico.

—The electric light poles on Windsor road have been replaced, the past week, by heavier poles, in order to support the additional wires for telephones and the new fire alarm box on the hill.

—The hall was not leased by the Waban Improvement Society as announced last week by a contemporary. A committee was appointed to consider the matter and action will be taken at the next meeting.

—The church services are to be particularly interesting this winter. A series of discourses has been announced by Dr.
Twombly and everyone should make special effort to attend. Seats are free and there is plenty of room.

Y. M. C. A. Gym.

"It was great!"
"It was very nicely carried out!"
"The showing made by the young men was excellent!"

These are a few of the remarks called forth from an appreciative audience who gathered in the Young Men's Christian Association gymnasium last Tuesday to see the first public exhibition of Dr.
Howard's gymnastics. It was "Ladies' night" and a good proportion of the gentler sex were present.

President Shapleigh welcomed the visitors and introduced Dr. Howard, who spoke briefly on the aims of the Y. M. C. A.
Gymnasium. He said "the Y. M. C. A.
does not seek to train men for circus performers, but to build bodies and give health to weak men."

The exercises of the evening consisted of class work on the pulley weights, back, parallel bars, vaulting box, mats, and bar and dumb bell drills by both the junior and senior classes.
Dr. Howard concluded the program of the evening by delighting the visitors with several graceful yet difficult movements on the parallel bars. Everyone was pleased with the appointment of the new gym, and the fine showing made by the boys.

Other exhibitions will be given later, but the public may know what is being accomplished by this valuable organization for the young men of our city.

In using Ayer's Hygienic Coffee, don't make it too strong. Grocers sell it.

Attention is called to the advertisement of E. H. Kingman & Co., 108-110 Fanueil Hall Market, Boston, which shows trading in Boston should read.

Tonight
If your liver is out of order, causing Biliousness, Sick Headache, Heartburn or Constipation, take a dose of Hood's Pills on retiring, and tomorrow your digestive organs will be regulated and you will be bright, active and ready for any kind of work. This has been the experience of others; it will be yours. Sold by all druggists, 25 cents.

RECITAL
Miss Mary Lewis Speare, Reader,
Miss Estelle T. Andrews, Pianist,
Elliot Church, Tuesday, November 5, 1895,
At 8 O'CLOCK P. M.
Admission 50 Cts.
Tickets for Sale at Hubbard's Drug Store.

Wedding Decorations, ARTISTIC DESIGNS
Cut Flowers and Plants.
E. T. MOREY,
Washington and Tremont Sts., near Newton Line.

MARRIED.
NEWELL-PHELPS—At Newton, Oct. 24, by Rev. Geo. E. Merrill, Walter C. Newell and Florence Phelps.
COLON-WARD—At Newton Centre, Oct. 29, by Rev. E. H. Hughes, Moses Colon and Mary Ward.
HAMMETT-CAMPBELL—At Newton, Oct. 29,
James A. Hammett and Bridget Campbell.
DOUGLAS-McINNES—At Newton, Oct. 23,
John Stuart Douglas and Maggie McInnes.
SAUNDERS-McINTOSH—At Waltham, Nova Scotia, Oct. 16, Wm. B. Saunders of Newton and Annie McIntosh.
KNOWLTON-McLELLAN—At Newton, Oct. 22,
William Knowlton and Annie McLellan.
CONNORNEY-KNEELAND—At Newton Centre,
Oct. 24, Henry M. Connorney and Amelia
B. Kneeland.

DIED.
ESTABROOK—At Auburndale, Oct. 31, Emily E.
Estabrook, 42 yrs. 1 mo. Funeral private.
JONES—At Nonantum, Oct. 30, Thomas Jones, 7 mos.
NEWTON—At Newtonville, Oct. 28, Frank A.
Newton, 43 yrs.
BALDES—At Newton Centre, Oct. 28, Louis
Baldes, 67 yrs.
DEAGAL—At Newtonville, Oct. 28, Joseph
Deagal, 19 yrs.
FAHEY—At Newton Hospital, Oct. 26, Kate
Fahey of Watertown, 2 yrs.
LEEDS—At Newton, Oct. 31st, Helen Hues
Leeds, daughter of Benj. J. Leeds, aged 26 yrs. 1 mo. 16 yrs. Funeral services at her home, Sunday, Nov. 3rd, 9 o'clock p. m. Burial private.

CONCERT
AT IMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH,
NEWTON.

Wednesday, Nov. 6, 1895,
At 7.45 P. M.
In Aid of the House Fund of the Young Women's Mission Club.

MRS. ELEANOR FOX ALLEN, Soprano.
MRS. GEORGE E. MERRILL, Contralto.
MR. WULF FRICKS, Violoncellist.
MR. W. R. WHITTEMORE, Violinist.
MRS. ABBIE CLARK FORD, Pianist.

Cards of Admission 50 Cts.
At Hubbard's Drug Store, or at the Door.

HOWARD B. COFFIN,
DEALER IN
Fine Teas, Best Coffees.
AND NEWTON AGENT FOR
Deerfoot Farm Products.
363, 361 CENTRE ST. 4, 6 HALL ST
Cole's Block, Newton.

Beware of Drugs

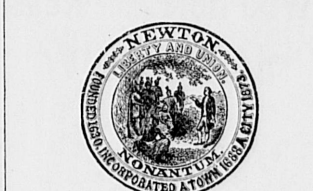

To Take Your Doctor's Advice is a good rule to follow. His advice however, and the prescription
he gives are worthless unless pure drugs are taken.
The quality of the medicine is as important as the care with which they are compounded at—

ARTHUR HUDSON,
380 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

Try the Lord Roseberry Cigar.

CITY OF NEWTON.

REGISTRARS OF VOTERS,
1895.

City Election, Tuesday, December 3rd

Registration of Women.

Notice is hereby given that the Registrars of Voters, commencing Wednesday, November 6th, 1895, will hold sessions for the registration of voters, including women duly qualified, and to correct and revise the Ward Lists at the City Clerk's office, City Hall, daily from 8.30 A. M. to 12 M.; except Wednesday, November 13th, as hereinafter stated; and from 2 P. M. to 5 P. M.; except Saturday, November 9th, when the hours are from 8.30 A. M. to 12 M.; also At City Hall, Wednesday, November 8th, 7.30 to 9 o'clock P. M.
Newton Centre—Associates' Hall, Pleasant street, Saturday, November 9, 3 to 5 o'clock P. M. and 7.30 to 9.30 o'clock P. M.
At City Hall, Wednesday, November 13, from 12 M. to 10 o'clock P. M., which is the last session of the Registrars preceding the Election of December 3, 1895, and after 10 o'clock P. M. of said November 13, 1895, the Registrars will not, before the Election, add any names to the Register, except the names of voters examined as to their qualifications since the preceding thirtieth day of April.

Every male person whose name is not on the Voting List must, in order to be registered as a voter, appear in person before the Registrars of Voters on either of the days above mentioned; presenting a certificate from the assessors or tax bill or notice from the collector of taxes showing that he has been assessed for a poll tax as a resident of the city or town on the preceding first day of May.—Chap. 61, Acts 1895.
All naturalized citizens must present their final papers when they register.

If the father of an applicant was naturalized before he (the son) became 21 years of age, the son is naturalized thereby, and must present the father's naturalization papers.

Every male citizen of 21 years of age and upwards, who has resided in the State one year, and in the City of Newton six months next preceding December 3, 1895, and who shall be able to read and write, shall have the right to vote at the City election to be held December 3, 1895.

All women whose names are not on the lists and who wish to register must appear in person before the Registrars of Voters, to be qualified as required by law.

GEORGE E. BRIDGES,
GEORGE H. GOUNIE,
AMOS L. HALE,
ISAAC F. KINGSBURY,

Registrars
of Voters.
City Hall, Newton, November 1, 1895.

Real Estate,
Mortgages,
Insurance

Special Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.

Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.

J. C. FULLER, Newtonville. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington St., Boston.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX SS. In Supreme Judicial Court.

In Equity.

In the matter of Jonathan A. Lane et al, Petitioners to quiet title of real estate.

To the Honorable, the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, hold in within and for the County of Middlesex in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

RESPECTFULLY REPRESENT the petitioners, Jonathan A. Lane of Boston in the County of Suffolk and said Commonwealth, and George W. Morse and John W. Weeks, both of Newton in said County of Middlesex, as they are trustees of the Newton Land and Improvement Company under the provisions of a certain Indenture dated July second in 1894, and rec'd in the Registry of Deeds for the South District of said Middlesex, libro 228, folio 507:

1. That by deed dated May twenty-fourth 1851 and recorded in said Registry, libro 68, folio 562, said A. Locke of Watertown i. said County of Middlesex, and Charles C. Harrington of said
Newton conveyed to William A. Harris of said Newton certain real property therein described as follows: to wit:—"A certain tract or parcel of land situated in said Newton near Newtonville with buildings thereon standing being lot No. ten
(10) on a plan of building lots drawn by G. A.
Hale, March 1850 and bounded as follows, viz: on the N. and E. by Forest streets about four hundred and forty-nine (449) feet, on lot number eleven (11) on said plan about two hundred and ninety-three (293) feet, on lot number nine (9) on said plan about two hundred and two (202) feet; containing fifty eight thousand, eight hundred and forty-five (58,845) feet of land. That in said deed from said Locke and Harrington, at the end of said description of said property, it was recited as follows: "This conveyance is made subject to a certain condition, that no buildings shall be erected on said land, except a dwelling house with three sided chimneys and no buildings nearer Hull or Walnut streets than thirty (30) feet, and none nearer Forest Street than twenty (20) feet."
That said condition or restriction was inserted in and imposed by said deed from said Locke and Harrington for the benefit of certain land shown on said plan, and at the date of said deed owned by the grantors therein.

That since the date of said deed the trustees of the Newton Land and Improvement Company aforesaid, became and were the owners at the same time of said real property described in and conveyed by said deed from said Locke and Harrington, and also of all the other land shown on said plan aforesaid, and that the right to enforce said restriction upon said real property conveyed by said deed from said Locke and Harrington thereby became merged and extinguished in the ownership of said real property and said land by the trustees of the Newton Land and Improvement Company aforesaid, and said condition or restriction, and all rights to enforce the same aforesaid, have also otherwise been wholly waived and abandoned by all parties interested or concerned therein.

That the petitioners, being the owners and persons in possession of said real property conveyed by said deed from said Locke and Harrington, claiming and entitled to an estate of freelhold therein, to wit: the entire ownership of the same in fee simple absolute, executed to one Samuel Trimble of Brooklyn in the state of New York, a certain deed dated April thirtieth in 1885, and recorded in said Registry, libro 2361, folio 22, of said real property conveyed by said deed from said Locke and Harrington and other land, and the terms of said deed to said Trimble it was among other things provided that the petitioners, as trustees aforesaid and not personally, thereby for themselves and their successors, covenanted with the grantee therein, and his heirs and assigns, that the granted property should be free from all incumbrances except certain incumbrances therein specified, and that the petitioners could, and their successors should warrant and defend the same to said Trimble and his heirs and assigns, forever against the lawful claims and demands of all persons.

4. That the petitioners have been informed and suppose that said Jesse A. Locke has deceased, but are ignorant as to who the heirs-at-law, devisees, or legal representatives of said Jesse A. Locke may be, or where they reside, or where said Locke resides if he be still living.

That said Charles C. Harrington is a resident of said Newton.

5. That the record title of said real property conveyed by said deed from said Locke and Harrington is clouded by an adverse claim, or by the possibility of such claim, upon an under said restriction or condition, on account of which the petition is brought in accordance with the provisions of chapter 340 of the acts of the Legislature of this Commonwealth for 1893, and the devisions of law in that behalf made and provided, and that the petitioners, by force of the covenants in said deed to said Samuel Trimble, may be liable to damages if such adverse claim should be sustained.

6. That the possible adverse claimants under such adverse claim, so far as known to the petitioners, are the said Jesse A. Locke, or his heirs, devisees, or legal representatives, and said Charles C. Harrington.

Wherefore, the petitioners pray:

1. That said Jesse A. Locke, the heirs, de-visees and legal representatives of said Jesse A.
Locke, and said Charles C. Harrington, and all other possible adverse claimants to the benefit of said condition or restriction may be summoned to show cause why they should not bring an action, or actions, to try their claims, if any they have, as aforesaid.

2. That by order of this Honorable Court notice may be given to the supposed claimants aforesaid, to appear in this cause, within a time limited, and try their claim or claims aforesaid.

3. That a decree may be entered by this Honorable Court, that the supposed claimants aforesaid be forever debarred and estopped from having or enforcing any such claim, as aforesaid, adversely, to the petitioners, or to the successors, heirs, or assigns of the petitioners, in or to the premises herebefore described, to wit: the real property conveyed by said deed from said Locke and Harrington.

4. And that the petitioners may have such other relief as justice and equity and the nature of the case may require, and to this Honorable Court shall seem meet.

Jonathan A. Lane,
George W. Morse,
John W. Weeks.

By their attorneys and solicitors,
Geo. W. Morse,
Morse & Lane.

Of counsel for the above named petitioners,
Geo. W. Morse,
John C. Lane.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX SS. In Supreme Judicial Court.

Oct. 22, A. D. 1895.

UPON THE petition aforesaid, it is ordered by the Hon. Oliver W. Holmes, a Justice of said Court, that the petitioners notify said Charles C.
Harrington, and the said Jesse A. Locke or his heirs and legal representatives found within the Commonwealth, to appear before our Justices of said Court, to be holden at Cambridge in said County, on the first Monday of April next, by causing an attested copy of said petition and of the order of the Court (hereon, to be served upon them fourteen days at least before said last mentioned day, and by causing said attested copy of the petition and order to be published in the Newton Graphic a newspaper published in Newton in the County of Middlesex once in a month for six months the last publication to be the thirty days at least before the said last mentioned day, that they may then and there show cause, if any they have, why the prayer in said petition set forth should not be granted.

THEO. C. HURD, Clerk.

A true copy of the petition and the order of the court thereon.

Attest,

C. W. BUNTING,

Fish Market.

FISH, OYSTERS, FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.

Telephone Connection.

COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON, MASS.

Newton,
Newtonville,
West Newton,
Auburndale

Special Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.

Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.

J. C. FULLER, Newtonville. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington St., Boston.

BUSINESS NOTICES

RATES—50 cents first insertion for not exceeding 5 lines, and 25 cents each time thereafter, in advance.

Wants.

DRESSMAKER—Would like engagements to go out by the day. References given. Address Miss Lilla Boyden, 117 Salem street, Newton.
5 ct

WANTED—A bright business man to lease a store in Stuart's block, Nonantum. A fine stand for either a grocery or fish and provision business. Apply to 141 Pearl street. 5t

DRESSMAKER—Would like few more engagements to go out by the day. Call or address Miss Rooney, 38 Prospect street, Newton.
4 ct

HORSES boarded for the winter, best of care and attention given to all horses. An inspection of the premises solicited. Address John Cain, Wellesley Hills, Box 119. 2, 13t

(This article was received two weeks ago, and it is not the editor's fault that it was delayed till the last week of the campaign.)

How Ought We to Vote.

To the Editor of the Graphic:

To the multitude who never raise this question, but keep on voting the same ticket, year after year, from habit, I have nothing to say.

To the many who consult their brains and their consciences on this subject, I have something to say.

1. Do not vote with the Republicans this year, for two reasons. First, because they put foremost in their platform the system of protection, thereby building on a corner stone of class-legislation, and setting the selfish interest of the few against the true interest of the whole. Their contention that the Democratic congress failed to provide sufficient revenue is an error; it was the Supreme Court, by its defeat of the Income Tax, not the Democrats, that opened the way for a deficit. Second, because the party is facing both ways on the question of sectionalism in politics; baiting its hook with promises for the American Protective Association, and repudiating any alliance therewith in quarters where it is unpopular. Vote on the square, friends: vote against all class-legislation, which is never more noxious than when clothed in the garb of religion.

2. Do not vote with the Democrats, for two reasons. First, because under the guise of home rule for cities, they are making every effort to surrender again to Boston exclusive control over matters which are as vital to the state as to the metropolis; and thus to uphold the great city in poisoning the moral health of the people. Bad as is the present condition, such a step would be a step backward, which would bring aid and comfort to the saloons, brothels, and gambling-hells.

The second reason is that the Democratic party denies its name by throwing its influence against the enfranchisement of half the people. With the elevation of woman to equality with man, in the church, in society, in education, and even in business, which is progressing so fast, there is doubtless coming political equality for that half of humanity, but when it comes, it will be in spite of Democratic opposition.

3. Vote with the Prohibitionists, for two reasons. First, because whether a Prohibitionist yourself or not, you are interested in securing to every citizen his right to the suffrage. By the scandalous class-legislation of politicians, every obstacle is thrown in the way of men who desire simply the right of expressing their principles at the ballot-box. The causes are railroaded and the last legislature are so mysterious that no one has yet interpreted them into consistency. It may be that we Prohibitionists are not "a party within the meaning of the statute" until we cast three per cent. of the total vote for governor. Failing by the merest trifle to secure that proportion last year, we have to resort to the expensive and humiliating method of petition to obtain the privileges of freemen of this commonwealth. What we ask of thoughtful men who want to see fair play is to vote this time for our candidate for governor (that grand man, Edward Kendall of Cambridge) and so put an end to this injustice.

Second, because the drink question is the greatest question before the people, and Prohibition is the only way to settle it right. The Empire state is being shaken to its foundations on this issue, and one thing New York city has done is to give the lie to that old body that Prohibition cannot be enforced against a hostile local sentiment. A single man that dared to use the power of law has succeeded where friend and foe alike predicted failure. Think it over! New York with a quiet, clean Sunday, the workmen's wages going to their wives instead of to the grog-shops, the Sunday carnival of crime checked by a prohibitory law, and Massachusetts crying still and saying, "it can't be done."

Local option has been tried here for the last twenty years, and we are as badly in the ruts as before. Prohibition will stop the whole nefarious business, when the people elect men that mean it. The licensed liquor power constitutes a privileged class to prey on the prosperity of the state. The Prohibition party is the party of the people; its motto is, "a class-legislation."

I am about to cast my twelfth annual vote for the straight Prohibition ticket, in full confidence that the reasons which led me to break off from my old associations will in time convince my neighbors also.

WILLIAM H. COBB.

Newton Centre, Oct. 16, 1895.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

CASTLE SQUARE THEATRE.—The Boston papers are unanimous in their praise of "Billie Taylor" at the Castle Square theatre this week. Here are a few extracts: "It was one of the most enjoyable of the operas in the long and varied repertoire of the Castle Square opera company. Lovers of comic opera should not fail to avail themselves of the few opportunities remaining to see this meritorious presentation, as its stay is limited to one week, with the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees. Of the many revivals of once familiar operas that have been put on by the Castle Square company, none has been brighter, breezier or more pleasing. The chorus is equally deserving of praise in this respect, and one of the leading bits of last night's production was made by the girls in their recital of 'Phoebe's Precepts.' The work of the chorus was commendable. The voices are not only musical, but evidently well drilled. The stage settings and accessories were in good taste. The men, as well as the girls, of the chorus secured a hit. It would be hard to find a more attractive set of sailor lads than those who massed for the sailor chorus. The girls appeared in the short homespun skirts of charity school girls, and later masqueraded in 'fetching' white duck suits. Next week 'Olivette' will be the opera. It will be interesting for those outside the state to know that the 200th performance of the season will be reached next Monday night. Comic, light and grand operas are produced with a change of bill every week, in 'the most magnificent theatre in America,' at 25c, and 50c, for all seats. The company is first class in every respect. Scenery and costumes are made new at the theatre for each production. The patronage is first class and steadily to capacity.

The healing properties of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve are well known. It cures eczema, skin affections and is a perfect remedy for piles. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Horn, Auburn-dale.

INDIFFERENCE.

Dear, I can bear your anger patiently, And all the little pangs that it begets; There lurks no meaning in your thoughtless threats;

They wound but slightly, though unduly they be.

I can but wait your sunny self to see Returned, and mourn meanwhile when care besets.

You do not find for all your woes and frets A better exerciser in love and me.

But, dear, I cannot bear your coldness, no! The cruel line of silent, tight closed lips, And unlit eyes, as fixed as a stone;

How they do torture me none, none can show. I drift unheeded of all passing ships Upon a bitter sea, unloved, alone.

—Edward W. Barnard in Kate Field's Washington.

APARTMENTS TO LET

It must be said that Anatole Pluchin was on the eve of getting married. These things may happen to anybody, and I don't mention the fact in order to ask your pity on his behalf, because his intended was a charming girl. Her name was Andree—delightful name! She was blond—agreeable color. She was 20 years and 7 months old—attractive age. She belonged to a family that was worthy of all respect, a fact to be considered.

That rogue Anatole! He knew the young girl was in love with him—madly in love with him. Had she not confessed to him that she would die rather than marry another? I know well that these things are often said and rarely executed. But in this case, although Andree was a blond, she was the owner of an energetic and decided character. Ah! mais oui. When she said things like this, her blue eyes darted terrible lightning.

Doubtless it was this strong temperament that prevented her parents from making any objections and placing any obstacles in her way. There was no good talking to Andree!

"You know, mamma," she had repeated again and again, "I want this matter to be finished quickly."

"But, my dear child, there are certain delays and certain formalities!"

"The delays can be hurried."

"That is true."

"And the formalities can be simplified."

"I have no objections, dear, if it will give you pleasure."

"Then, mamma, let us consider the engagement as settled."

"Settled! Your lover has only exchanged a very few words with your father."

"You know that my father does what you wish."

"My daughter, you exaggerate."

"It is understood; let us waste no more time discussing it. I shall be married on the 10th of next month!"

"We shall see."

"Not the 11th—the 10th. It falls on a Saturday. I have already looked in the almanac."

"You have thought of everything."

"I'm thinking only of him."

"Well, he is a happy man to be able to inspire such an affection."

"When you were married didn't you have the same feeling?"

"The very same, my child. But perhaps my thermometer—that is the register of my feelings—was not quite so high as yours is."

"Well, now, mamma, let us start the campaign?"

"Start the campaign? What do you mean?"

"Find an apartment."

"Is it possible?"

"You do not wish us to live in the street, I suppose?"

"No; but—"

"Tomorrow morning then we will start out."

"The—"

"Tomorrow, directly after breakfast, for apartments are sometimes difficult to find. Now, mamma, let me give you a kiss, you are so good."

She spoke the truth. Her mother was an excellent creature, and Anatole Pluchin was—well, his mother, her future mother-in-law, was of the kind that are nowadays seldom to be found.

The day following at the appointed hour Andree was ready to attack Paris and ransack it from end to end in her endeavors to find the nest—that is, the apartments—of her dreams. Her valiant mother was prepared to accompany her. The poor old woman had burned her throat with her coffee and had nearly choked herself over the sugar at the bottom of the cup.

"Forward march! En avant!" cried the joyous voice of Andree.

Young and inexperienced, she little knew what a terrible thing it is to hunt for rooms in Paris; to climb up dozens and dozens of steps and to undergo the searching questioning of zealous concierges and indiscreet portieres.

After an hour and a half of this exercise the unfortunate girl was exhausted. And her mother! She followed her daughter puffing like a grampus and dragging her legs after her as if they were logs of heavy timber! "Ouf! Ouf! Ouf!"

Then at length, "Mamma, look at that pretty house!"

"So it is."

"With a view from the back windows over the gardens."

"And a sign out!"

"Precisely. 'Apartment to let. Inquire within.'"

"Let us ask the price. I have an idea that it will be just the thing."

The price was just what the girl had judged reasonable for herself and her future husband.

"Let us go up stairs," cried Andree, who was delighted. "We can see over it, can we not?" she asked the concierge.

"Certainly, mademoiselle."

"Is any one living here now?" asked the mother.

"Yes, madame."

"Who?"

There was a second's almost imperceptible hesitation on the part of the concierge.

"A young widow, madame."

"Ah!" remarked the mother, "and doubtless she wishes to leave a house that has painful memories for her."

A flashily dressed girl opened the door in answer to their ring.

"These ladies desire to see the apartment," explained the concierge.

The girl made a remark in a low voice that escaped the other's ears. It was accompanied by an expressive shrug of the shoulders.

"Entrez," she said aloud.

Andree and her mother walked in. Everything most comfortable, ma foi, in this apartment. Quite a discovery, in fact. The furniture was commodious and elegant and placed each piece in the corner where it best belonged. And the appointments! And the cupboards! And the kitchen! And the arrangement of the light! The visitors were completely charmed.

As they turned a corner of the corridor the mother looked in the direction of Andree, who stood behind her, and said:

"Andree, I think it must be your good star that guided us here."

But she stopped suddenly.

"Why, where are you, Andree? Where can she have gone to? Andree!"

A distant and sorrowful cry came in answer.

"Andree. Mon Dieu! what's the matter?" cried her mother, alarmed.

This was what had happened: Andree, inquisitive little girl that she was, had turned down a passage and suddenly opened a door. She was curious to see what the room was like.

The door, it so happened, was that of a private boudoir. Inside, as she stood, pretty as a fairy, in the doorway, she saw a velvet sofa. On the sofa she saw, half reclining, a very pretty young widow with black eyes and a demurely sweet face. Kneeling on the soft Turkish rug beside her, with his hand upon his heart and an expression of eternal love upon his face, was a young man.

Andree heard no words, but the noise of opening the door caused the young man to spring to his feet and face her.

"Ah! Mon Dieu! Andree!"

It was indeed Anatole.

Andree possessed a resolute character, as we know. She never saw Anatole again, and the amount the courts granted her for breach of promise of marriage is not exactly known.

In this way a mother-in-law who was anxious to do all she could for her son-in-law only succeeded in bringing about results that were a hundred times worse than the most bitter hostilities.

Such is the irony of fate, and doubtless it was best for the happiness of la belle Andree.—From the French.

Rubinstein Not a Happy Man.

Though his life was full of work and he was ever faithful to duty, Rubinstein was not a happy man. With each succeeding year he grew more and more pessimistic. Life failed to give him the amount of enjoyment he craved outside his art, and except in the society of women he did not seem even commonly happy. But for the fair sex he had ever a joke and a smile. It amused him to shock their feelings, and when they opened their eyes widely at his audacity he never failed to enjoy it. He believed that a knowledge of woman was necessary to an artist, and if a young aspirant to any artistic calling asked his advice his first question was, "Have you loved yet?"

For he believed that a man who could not love was incapable of becoming an artist. He himself could not be accused of any failing in this case, for his loves were almost as many and various as his days. He had all the faults and all the virtues of his artistic calling, and in every sense of the word lived for his art and his fancy regardless of all things. His was a true bohemian nature.

There was a certain roughness, want of tact and even brutality in his nature that made itself disagreeably felt at times. His was not a temper to be tried. Up to a certain point he could hold it in check admirably, but anything beyond this caused an explosion of wrath that was terrible. As in his physiognomy, so in his temper there was much of the lion. Those who did not know him consequently feared him, for his personality was one that awed, especially in the latter years of his life.—Alexander McArthur in Century.

Polite Lies.

Soon after Rowland Hill became secretary of the British postoffice he summoned together some of his subordinates—the surveyors, as they are officially called—to consider a paper of instructions on some important matter which he was about sending out. He read it to them to make sure that it covered the ground. One of them was Anthony Trollope, afterward famous as a novelist.

When the reading was finished, Trollope, naturally desirous, as a young man, to show that he had a head upon his shoulders, challenged not the scope and tenor of the instructions, but the literary composition. That, however, was not what the secretary desired to hear.

"I think, Mr. Hill," Trollope is reported to have said, "that the language of paragraph so and so, literally construed, may be held to mean what you do not intend."

Rowland Hill was not a man who loved correction of that sort, and he answered with great slowness and deliberation:

"You must be aware, Mr. Trollope, that a phrase is not always intended to bear a literal construction. For instance, when I write to one of you gentlemen, I end my letter with the words, 'I am, sir, your obedient servant,' whereas you know I am nothing of the sort."

YOUTH'S COMPANION.

Secrets Will Out.

"Now, you must not let this go any farther," said Watts to McDavid after retelling a choice bit of scandal.

"Oh, certainly not," said McDavid.

"How did you happen to hear it?"

"My wife told me. She is just like any woman—can't keep a secret, of course."—Tit-Bits.

THE SOCIABLE GAME.

BOSTON SOCIETY'S RADICAL INNOVATIONS AT POKER.

Decks of Sixty Cards and "Ringdoodles" Among the New Features—Sympathy For Losers and Luncheon With "A Wee Nip" For All—The Little Kitty.

Could the late Minister Schenck, who gave to the world during his diplomatic life a treatise on the fascinating American game, attend a modern poker party he would certainly declare that the world has moved backward, in one respect at least.

Very few people outside certain circles of the Back Bay have any conception of the extent to which poker playing is carried in that section. The whole locality is divided into "sets," and it is customary for each one to hold a session at his or her house nearly every night in the week.

The usual hour for beginning play is 8 o'clock, and it is customary for the ladies to dress for the occasion, while the gentlemen not infrequently array themselves in full evening costume.

The standard limit is 10 cents, one reason for making it so small being that the conscientious shall not feel that they are gambling. It is frequently remarked by this one and that one that they have not come out for the purpose of making anything—only to have a social time. This statement appears somewhat incongruous when placed side by side with the look of satisfaction that is noticeable when a good sized jackpot is taken in.

Another feature of society poker is the great amount of sympathy expressed for the players when the cards are running badly and they have been called upon to interview the bank for the fifth or sixth time. The heaviest dealers in sympathy are those who have the largest stack of chips before them. It does not cost anything, and it is believed by the ones who peddle it out that it will impress the others with a belief that they are real generous. But a careful observer will notice as the game progresses that the unlucky one is always raised by those who believe they have the best hands, notwithstanding the size of their stacks.

This is called poker table sympathy and is as shallow and meaningless as much of the talk heard among society people.

Generally there are three hours of play, after which the hostess asks her guests to a light repast, consisting of sardines, crackers, cheese and sweetmeats. Bottled beer is the favorite beverage, but there are instances on record where something stronger has been indulged in. A great many society people of both sexes drink rum punch, lemonade dashed with whisky and plain gin.

The usual time devoted to refreshments is 15 minutes, as all are anxious to get at the cards again.

Now the peculiar features of society poker, which are contrary to the "formula" presented by the lamented Schenck, are novel and numerous, and while they are readily accepted by nine-tenths of those who play just for the fun of the thing, yet the other tenth is unalterably opposed to them, but, acting in accordance with the principle that the majority should rule, all efforts to have the game rid of them have been abortive.

The most pain that the small minority experiences in playing the evolved game is when the 60 card decks are brought in. It frequently happens that seven and eight players are present at a sitting, and when everybody "stays" the cards fall short, which necessitates gathering up the "dead wood" and filling out the hands from it. There is a well grounded superstition that these discarded have been robbed of everything of value, and that to draw from them is equivalent to throwing the chips into a red-hot stove. To in a measure meet these exigencies 11 and 12 spot cards have been added, making the pack consist of 60 cards instead of 52. Those who have been accustomed to play at the clubs, where the game still retains all its Schenckian purity, have a chill when they find these obtrusive cards are to confront them.

Another innovation is the "ringdoodle." Where the word originated is a mystery fully as deep as the practice it designates.

A ringdoodle is declared when a hand has been called and fours are shown. Then follows a round of jack pots, the holder of the winning hand starting them. Blue chips are put up to correspond with the number of players. Of course this makes a heavy drain on the stacks which have been lowered through the evening by ill luck, and if the owner of one of these happens to be an opponent of the ringdoodle, he goes off on a long dissertation on how the game was once played. Of course a round of jack pots would be equivalent to a ringdoodle, but it comes easier to some players to pay on the installment plan.

It has now become the custom to make a discount of one red chip for every jack pot. Although this is a pretty heavy rake off, yet it all comes back to the players just before the wind up for the evening.

When time has crept on toward midnight, the keeper of the kitty announces that a round of consolation jacks will be played. The chips are divided into a number of piles corresponding with the number of players, and the extras are placed in the center of the table with the individual contributions.

When society plays poker, there is always a big supply of cards on hand. If luck runs badly for a player a new pack is demanded, but it is rarely fortune changes her plans. She names the unfortunate ones before the game starts, and no form of device will bring about an alteration in her programme.—Boston Herald.

A strenuous soul hates cheap success. It is the order of the assailant that makes the vigor of the defendant.—Emerson.

NO SECRET

IN THIS WOMAN'S CASE.

Mrs. Campbell Wishes Her Letter Published so that the Truth May Be Known.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.] Of the thousands of letters received from women all over the world by Mrs. Pinkham, not one is given to the public unless by the wish of the writer. This absolute confidence is established between Mrs. Pinkham and her army of patients; and she freely solicits a letter from any woman rich or poor, who is in ill health or ailing.

In the case of Mary E. Campbell, of Albion, Noble Co., Ind., her suffering was so severe, her relief so suddenly realized, and her gratitude so great, that she wishes the circumstances published, in the hope that others may be benefited thereby. She says:—

"My physician told me I had dropsy and falling of the womb. My stomach and bowels were so bloated I could not get a full breath. My face and hands were bloated badly. I had that dreadful bearing-down pain, backache, palpitation of the heart, and nervousness."

"One of my physicians told me I had something growing in my stomach; and the medicine that I took gave me relief only for a short time. I thought I must die. I then took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it worked like a charm. After taking the first bottle I could walk across the street, now I am well. I advise all my friends to take it."

—MARY E. CAMPBELL, Albion, Noble Co.

Expressmen.

CHAMBERLAIN'S NEWTONVILLE AND BOSTON EXPRESS

Newtonville Office: Tailor's, 280 Walnut St. Boston Office: 105 Arch. 48 Chatham St. Leave Newtonville 9.30 A. M., Boston 2.30 P. M.

HOLMES' Baggage Express.

You can always find one of Holmes' Express men at their stand, Newton Baggage Room, from 6.30 A. M. to 8 P. M. where a call may be left, or leave orders at O. F. Atkins' Grocery, or by Telephone Call at Hubbard & Procter's Apothecary.

Furniture and Piano Moving, also Crockery and Pictures carefully packed for transportation.

General Jobbing: any description promptly attended to.

Residence: 15 Ames Street, Newton, Mass. 48

PEARSON'S Newton and Boston Express.

Boston Office: 91 Kilby St., 105 Arch St., 33 Court sq.; Order Box, 91 Faneuil Hall Market. Newton Office: H. B. Coffin's; Order Boxes: Post Office and Blanchard & Atkins.

Leave Newton, 9.30 A. M. Leave Boston, 3 P. M.

NEWCOMB & SNYDER, Newton and Boston Express.

Leave Newton, 7.30 and 9.30 a.m.; leave Boston, 12 m. and 3 p.m. Newton Office: 234 Centre St. Order Box: Newton City Market, between O. F. and 15 Devonshire St., 174 Washington St., 34 Court sq., 25 Merchants Row, 67 Franklin St., 11 Harrison Ave., Extension. N. O. Box 422, Newton. Personal attention given all orders. Tel. 279-2.

JOHN J. HORGAN, MONUMENTS

Headstones, Tablets, Posts, Markers and Statues. Fine stock at Manufacturers' Prices.

46-53 MAIN STREET, CAMBRIDGEPORT.

Newton and Watertown cars stop at the door.

F. IVERS & SON, BUILDERS OF High Grade Road Wagons.

Rubber Tires and Ball Bearing Axles applied to Carriages.

Carriage Repairing a Specialty.

1953-1963 Massachusetts Ave., No. Cambridge.

Newton National Bank, NEWTON, MASS.

BUSINESS HOURS: From 9 A. M., to 12 M., and from 2 to 4 P. M. On Saturdays, from 9 A. M., to 12 M.

JOSEPH N. BAON, President

BANKER BAON, Cashier.

CarpetsCleaned.

Prepared to fill all orders for the Taking Up, Cleaning and Relaying of Carpets,

at short notice and in the best manner.

PETER S. WHITE, TREMONT LOCK, Newtonville, Mass.

Legal Notices.

NOTICE OF STATE ELECTION

November 5, 1895.

City of Newton.

Railroads.

WEST END STREET RAILWAY COMPANY

TIME TABLE.

Subject to change without notice.

Newton to Bowdoin Square

Huron Ave. to Bowdoin Square, via

Concord Ave and Garden St,
Time—First car 6.00, 6.26 a. m., and every 26

minutes to 11.06 p. m. Return 35 minutes later.

Sunday—First car 8 06 a. m., and every 20 min. utes to 11 06 P. M.; last car

Mount Auburn to Bowdoin Square.

Time—First car 5.36, 5.55 a. m., then 4.03, and 20 minutes to 5.43 p. m. Return 33 minutes later

CALENDAR. Newton Centre
Agent of the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand-bills and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Ivers and Pond pianos, Parley Newton.
—Mr. James Gammon's son is visiting here from New York city.
—Mr. and Mrs. D. Frank Young are enjoying very fine weather at San Francisco.
—Mrs. John W. Fogler is visiting friends at Skowhegan, Me.
—No candidate for governor in Newton Centre this year.
—Vote early and for Governor Green-halge.
—William Bright of Centre street is quite seriously ill.
—Thomas Armstrong of Nova Scotia is here visiting his son, Alfred Armstrong.
—Mr. E. L. Allen and family are occupying their new house on Montvale road.
—Mr. Cole of Cypress street, who has been ill, was out and about again this week.
—Mr. E. O. Silver has given up his house on Crescent street and has leased Prof.
Brown's house on Parker street.

—Mr. George Linn has removed from White's block to Bray's house on Beacon street known as the Woodbridge house.
—Come and have your corn popped for you while you wait at the Indian Fair, Nov. 6th and 7th. Corn balls a specialty.
—The wedding of Miss Mary Rogers of Chesnut Hill was being indefinitely postponed, owing to the severe illness of her father, Mrs. Marks Hoy of New York.
—Mr. M. M. Russell of Ward street has marketed about three thousand bushels of pears this season. He had on his own trees 74 bushels of one very fine variety.
—A concert was given in the Baptist church, Thompsonville last Sunday evening.
An interesting program was provided.
—The new bridge completing the walk across the playground is, in its way, a beauty. Many thanks to its projectors.
—From the quick way he went off his horse at the railroad bridge the other morning it is supposed that one, at least, of the professors on the hill is in favor of rapid transit.

—At the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday the pastor, Rev. Edwin H. Hughes, will preach morning and evening. The evening solo will be by Mrs. Lewis R.
Spear.

—A large number of Newton Centre people attended the Baptist church on Sunday this week. Rev. George Bullen was elected recording secretary of the Northern Baptist Educational Society.

—At the entertainment and sale at Associates Hall, next Wednesday and Thursday, for the benefit of the Indian Libraries and Industries, there will be fine music and other attractions.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Stearns have the sympathy of their many friends in the loss of their little granddaughter, Helen Louise Chapman, who died at her home in Watertown, aged 2 years 8 months, after only a few days illness.

—A. H. Roffe's wagon came into collision with an electric car on Beacon street,
Wednesday morning, and the driver, James Welch, was thrown off and received a bad shaking up. He was not, however, seriously injured. The wagon suffered some damage.

—Unitarian Society—Service at 10.30, conducted by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. Communion service at 3 o'clock.
All are cordially invited. At 7.30 Mr. A.
A. Wordell, Sup't. Parker Memorial, will speak to the Hale Union on work among the poor. All are welcome.

—Mrs. Bird announces the following artists to assist her in her concert. Mrs.
Henrietta Hascall, Miss Alice Clement, soprano; Miss Lena Twombly, reader, Wulf Fries, violinist, and Mrs. B. B.
Lauz, piano. Mrs. Bird is also in hopes to secure the services of Signor Tirindelli, violin.

—Newton A. A. lines up against Hyde Park's crack eleven, Saturday afternoon.
The game is called at 3.30 o'clock and promises to be one of the notable football events of the season in this vicinity. The Hyde Park team won the championship of the Suburban League last year. The second eleven of the N. A. A. will play at Worcester.

—An executive committee meeting of the Newton Centre Improvement Association held Tuesday evening, the location of tracks on Institution avenue and Union street to a point in front of the station, as asked for by the Newton Centre Improvement Association, was strongly opposed, as being entirely unnecessary as far as the convenience of prospective patrons of the road is concerned, and would result in blocking to a great extent the approach to the station. The Newton & Boston road now stop at the drinking fountain in the square, and this is the proper terminus for all roads, only two minutes from the station. The question of granting the franchise will be up Nov. 18th at the City Hall.

—It is delightful to see the interest that is being manifested by the ladies in the coming fair that has for its object assistance to the Newton Centre Improvement Association in the purchase of the land at the corner of Centre and Bowen streets, to be added to the playground. It has always been admitted that this plot of ground naturally belonged to the park and now that certain public spirited men have secured it with that object in view it remains for the people to approve the plan by their help. The responses to the suggestion have been prompt, hearty and generous, and so much so as to greatly encourage the committee of ladies having the matter in charge. Offers of personal help and of articles for sale have been made without stint and there is a strong under current of pleasure at the prospect of having something to do to further the object in mind.
The fair will be held in Newton Centre on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Dec.
3, 4 and 5, and the committee are planning many features to make it interesting and enjoyable to young and old. With the entire village at work it must be a success.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Mr. G. L. Avery, the painter, is taking time to paint his own house.
—The Fekkes house on Forest street has been painted, and it looks nice.
—Attention is called to an adv. among the business notices of a cow for sale.
—Mr. C. H. Newhall, who has been ill for several weeks, is out again.
—The next meeting of the Monday Club will be with Mrs. Brown.

—Mr. H. M. Beal is moving into one of his houses on Dickerman road.
—Mrs. Kendall of Hyde street, who has been quite ill, is now improving.

—Mr. Charles Ogden has been drawn as a jurymen and has gone to attend court at Lewell.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Masters have an addition to their family by the birth of a daughter.

—The Congregational Sewing Circle sent a barrel of clothing, this week, to a Home Missionary in Minnesota.

—Mrs. Moore, who has been ill for two or three weeks, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Shumway, is now out again.

—The second son of Mr. C. M. Bacon, who was injured at football, a week ago, is reported to be improving.

—The West End Club will meet with Mrs. William Burr, Lake avenue, on Monday, Nov. 4th.

—The Hillsdale Duplicate Whist Club met on Monday evening with Mr. E. E. Ever-wood, and Mr. David Bates and Miss Kate Manson took the prize.

—The sale of tickets for the Highland Club Course of entertainments will commence at Club House hall on Saturday evening, Nov. 2d.

—The house on Columbus street lately vacated by Mrs. Burnett, has been let to a party from Newtonville who will occupy immediately.

—The Chautauqua Circle will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Richards. A prompt attendance is desired, as business of importance is to be transacted.

—Mr. H. M. Beal, the builder, has sold one of his houses to Miss Chisholm, and it will be occupied by Mr. F. A. Snow, her brother-in-law.

—The ladies of the Methodist Society are making extensive preparations for a fair, to be held in Lincoln hall, Dec. 10th, 11th and 12th.

—Mr. J. H. Green, the druggist, was married to Miss M. T. Rose at her home at Natick, on Tuesday, and they are now on their wedding trip, and will visit the Atlanta exposition.

—Services at the Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday, as usual. The pastor will occupy the pulpit. Morning subject, "The Church in Hyattia." Evening subject,
"The Parable of the Great Supper."

—The Unitarian service for the winter of 1895-6 will commence Sunday, Nov. 3 in Stevens' hall. Messrs. Elberfeld and Woodward of Harvard Divinity School will be in charge. Services at 10.30; Sunday school at 12.

—The wedding of Miss Cora S. Locke of this place and Mr. Edward Mullen of Mt.
Vernon street will take place quietly on Monday evening, Nov. 23, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Whitcomb, 72 Gardner street, Allston, after which a large reception will be held.

—An apron and neck tie party was held on Tuesday evening, in Lincoln hall, under the auspices of the Daughters of Rebecca for a charitable object, at which a large number were in attendance. A large number took part in the dance until 12 o'clock.
Refreshments were served in Stevens hall.

—The supper and sale given by the Unitarian Ladies' Aid Society in Lincoln Hall, Wednesday evening, was a very pleasant affair. In many homes in this village many supper tables were left desolate while their respective owners held themselves to the hall and partook of the dainty viands there served. Thanks are due those firms and outsiders whose interest in the affair took the form of donations which had much to do with its success.

—A very beautiful and enjoyable afternoon tea was given by Mrs. A. F. Hayward on Wednesday evening. The spacious rooms of her elegant home were thronged with the many friends of the hostess, who received in the parlor, assisted by Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Warren White. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers, plants and lamps, the dining-room being a symphony in pink. The table was trimmed with pink tinted crepe tissue paper, with bunches of huge chrysanthemums, and banners of the paper festooned the banquet lamp, whose pink paper shade was loaded with chrysanthemums.
Mrs. Edward Forbes of Cambridge, Mrs.
Chas. Peter Clark, Mrs. Elliott J. Hyde and Mrs. Frank C. Hyde presided over the table and chocolate ices. Misses Whitcomb and Nelson served frappe in the hall, while Miss Jenkins and Miss Logan served lemonade in the reception room. Mrs.
Logan, Mrs. Whitcomb, Mrs. Moore, Miss Stone, Miss Manson, Miss Fieckman and Miss Maud Taylor assisted in entertaining the guests. And Misses Hardwick, Taylor, Treadwell and Conner, served in the dining-room. Many very lovely costumes were worn, and everyone present declared the event to be delightful in every respect. The many friends of Mrs. Gilbert were glad to see her present in restored health and vitality.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—There was an unusually large number of visitors to the Bridge Sunday.
—P. Tree's machine shop will close next Saturday for the semi-annual stock taking.

—Albert Temperly is able to be out again after a serious attack of typhoid fever.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Joseph Cheney, Vincent Henry, William Miller and Mr. Water.

—William Dyson has purchased the Hale estate corner of Spring and Winter streets.

—Part of the sheds used for the shelter of teams at the Methodist church are being removed.

—The first grand levee given by the Iron Moulder's Union in Wade Hall, Friday evening, proved a social as well as a financial success.

—Mrs. Albright, who has been confined at the Newton hospital with a serious illness, is so far recovered as to be able to return to her home.

—At the Christian Endeavor meeting held in the Methodist church, Wednesday evening, the society was addressed by Rev.
W. T. Perrin of South Boston, who took for his subject, "Obedience to God—What does it involve?"

—The first of Rev. Nathan Fellows sermons on "Religious Progress" was delivered by him in the Methodist church last Sunday, his topic being "Add to your faith, virtue." The following sermons will be delivered each Sunday at 10.30, "Add to virtue, knowledge," "Add to knowledge, temperance," "Add to temperance, patience," "Add to patience godliness," "Add godliness, brotherly charity," "Add to brotherly kindness charity."

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Arthur Humphrey left for Washington, D. C., this week where he is to attend college.

—Division 25, A. O. H., will hold their first levee at Freeman Hall next Friday evening.

—River street has been much improved by being widened and having a plank walk laid where water congregated after each rain storm.

—The mills are having quite a little trouble by leaves coming down the river and decreasing the water power by gathering about the flumes.

—Billings & Clapp now have the whole force of their tablet department transferred from Boston to their laboratory here.

NONANTUM.

—Harold Carns is suffering from typhoid pneumonia.

—To-night marks the first of a series of Friday evening entertainments to be given by the Nonantum club.

—James Grace of Pearl street is having his house elevated five feet and a new granite foundation placed underneath.

—In the police court Tuesday morning, Thomas Fitzpatrick was fined $3 for the larceny of a dog from Edward McCruden.

—A new fence has been placed on the land adjoining Boyd's pond on the Morse street side and the old dam has been removed.

—The St. Elmo division, Sons of Temperance, will pay a fraternal visit to the Golden Star Lodge of Everett, Tuesday evening.

—The King's Daughters of the North Evangelical church met Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Goldie Roy on Bridge street.

—The Barker Starch Company have commenced the erection of a new store house on California street, and a new building to be used for manufacturing purposes on the adjoining lot. The dimensions of the former are 100x22 feet and the latter 80x40 feet.

—Last Sunday's meeting at the Buelah Mission was addressed by Elder Rockwell of Watertown, who was listened to by an audience of over fifty persons. Next Sunday the meeting will be held by Arthur Smith and George B. Moor of the Beth Eden Mission, Waltham.

—The premises of Anthony Gildea on Bridge street, were raided Sunday by Sergeant Clay and Officers Davis, Mullen, Lynch and Burke, and a small quantity of whiskey seized. He appeared in court Wednesday, and his case was continued until to-morrow.

—Alford Bros. & Co. have sold for H.
G. Ruhe to E. S. Chester a lot of land on the southerly side of Devon road, Newton Centre, containing 13,160 feet with 120 feet frontage on the street. It is the intention of the new owner to build a house for his own occupancy. The same house has been leased to Mr. E. O. Silver of Silver, Burdett & Co., Prof. C. R.
Brown's house on the corner of Parker street and Browning road, Newton Centre. Mr. Silver and his family have already moved in.

FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

AN INTERESTING MEETING HELD AT
MRS. WHITING'S LAST EVENING.

A large audience was present last evening at the meeting of the Suffrage Association of Newton, held at the home of Mrs. Mary B. Whiting. Prior to the speaking arranged for the evening, Mrs.
E. N. L. Walton read the following extracts from a letter from Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Ward:

"I was a very young woman when I first sent in my name to the Suffrage Association, which has numbered so many wise than among its members. And I have never for an hour faltered in my loyalty to a cause generalised by Lucy Stanton, Mary A. Livermore, and Julia Ward Howe, and which drew in such men as Whittier and Phillips Brooks among its friends."

It is well for us to remember sometimes that a long list of KNIGHTLY MEN have believed in the franchise for women, and have manfully said so.
The long list of history, our past, John G. Claffin, Gov. Long, Senator Hoar,
the Garisons.

When I contrast these names with those at the head of the Appeal for Man Suffrage. I do not think we need feel alarmed.

Men meeting on State Street and Beacon street have their usefulness, one gains nothing by degrading any form of values; to say the least of it they have not done a chivalrous thing, but it is left to us to do the womanly one, to forgive them. There are principalities and powers above them and their world, and in the long run of history, our past, John G. Claffin, Gov. Long, Senator Hoar,
the Garisons.

I have no kind of fear that any permanent interruption to the movement for enfranchising half the human race can come from any men or class of men who are capable of exerting themselves to take away from women the hope which events have so far justified in us of obtaining our right to the ballot box in the near future.

Very truly yours,
Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Ward.

Whenever women want anything badly
I believe in letting them have it, if only to keep them quiet, and I imagine women will never be still in Massachusetts until they experiment at the polls.

I sincerely wish you all success.
HERBERT D. WARD.

Mrs. Walton also read a note from ex-
Gov. Claffin as follows:
"Mrs. Claffin and myself cordially endorse and authorize you to add our names to the list."

"Newton has always taken a high position regarding human progress and I confidently believe she will not be behind in this expression of opinion."

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM CLAFFIN.

Prof. Helen L. Webster of Wellesley College made an excellent address, speaking of the men and women who oppose suffrage, and those who favor it, and concluded by saying that the suffrage for women is the only right thing for her whether she wants it or not.

Mr. Henry B. Blackwell followed with one of his characteristic addresses, and was warmly received by the audience.

Mr. H. C. Haddon spoke in opposition to the suffrage movement, to which Mr.
Blackwell replied.

At the conclusion of the speaking, as well as between the speeches, Miss Libbey of Boston played with her usual skill several marvellous selections upon the harp, and the evening's program was closed with an hour spent in conversation, during which refreshments were served.

Awards on Park and Tremont Streets.
There is a great deal of dissatisfaction with the awards made for land taken for the widening of Park and Tremont streets, and comparisons are made with the larger sums on Washington street.
Some of the parties think that the committee put them so low, that they might have a chance to come up. Most of the dissatisfaction is reported from Park street, where the line runs through houses, and will necessitate their removal. The sums were as follows:

P. A. Murray, $25; heirs of John Warner, $68; James Moore, $63; A. F. Allen, $57; Channing Regl. Society, $60; A. L.
E. Huff, $1157; Annie E. Burnham, $180;
Martha P. Haley, $1879; Mary C. Peake, Nettie F. Mosher, $65; Eliza M. Smith,
$64; Edward T. Fearing, $88; Charles E.
Lord, $2250; Charles B. Galland, $3139;
A. T. Pierce, $2080.

On Tremont street the following awards were made:
E. T. Fearing, $40; E. W. Atkins, $34;
F. J. Moore, $13; S. C. Rawson, $3150;
M. F. Ellison, $768; A. A. Lord, $689; M.

G. Burk, $46; M. M. Gay, $1474; F. F.
Hunt, $7; J. P. Lovett, $40; H. E. Hibbard, $60; C. A. Ross, $1; B. B. Newhall, $2575; A. M. Pope, $2813; E. B. Bates, $56; Emma Bixby, $48; C. T. White-more, $1370.

Beecham's pills for constipation 10¢ and 25¢. Get the book at your druggist's and go by it.

Annual sales more than 6,000,000 boxes.

E. H. Kingman & Co.,
103-110 FANUEL HALL MARKET.
BOSTON.

Choice Fruits
AND Vegetables.

Oranges, New Figs, Grape Fruit,
Mushrooms, Olives in Bulk,
Brussels Sprouts, Boston
Market Celery.

The best market offers in our line, at reasonable prices. Family trade solicited.
Telephone, Haymarket 671.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
MIDDLESEX SS. In Equity.

In the matter of George W. Morse et al, petitioners to quiet title of real estate.
To the Honorable, the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, holden within and for the County of Middlesex in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts:

RESPECTFULLY REPRESENT the petitioners, George W. Morse and John W. Weeks of Newton in said County of Middlesex, and Jonathan A. Lane of Boston in the County of Suffolk, and said Commonwealth, as they are trustees of the Newton Land and Improvement Company
under the provisions of a certain Indenture between July second in 1894, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the South District of said
Middlesex, libro 2289, folio 507:

1. That by deed dated July twenty-third in 1885 and recorded in said Registry, libro 718, to said Jesse A. Locke of Newton in said County of Middlesex and Albert F. Chandler of West
Barnstable in the County of Barnstable and said Commonwealth conveyed to Albert F. Chandler of said Newton certain real property therein described as follows, to-wit:—a certain lot or parcel of land situated in said town of Newton in the part of the town called Newtonville bounded and described as follows viz: north by forest street,
East by Walnut Street, south by lot number thirteen on a plan of building lots surveyed and drawn by G. A. Hyde and recorded with Middlesex Registry of Deeds, west by land of James Blake being lot number twelve (12) on above mentioned plan containing sixty six thousand one hundred and thirty feet (66,130) more or less.

2. That said deed was made in common with other owners of lots on said plan to the free use of the streets on said plan and also a right in common to enter upon said plan and at the date of the purpose of sailing, fishing or bathing. That in said deed said Locke and Chandler, at the end of said description of said property, was recited as follows: "This conveyance is made upon the condition that no building except dwelling houses with the necessary out, buildings are to be erected thereon and none nearer Forest Street than twenty feet and none nearer Walnut Street than thirty feet."

3. That said condition or restriction was inserted in and imposed by said deed from said Locke and Chandler for the benefit of certain other land shown on said plan and at the date of said deed owned by the grant is therein.

4. That the petitioners have been informed and suppose that said Jesse A. Locke has deceased, but are ignorant as to who the heirs at law, devisees, or legal representatives of said Jesse A. Locke may be, or where they reside, or where said Locke resides if he be still living.

5. That said Albert F. Chandler deceased on the twenty-ninth day of March in 1888, intestate, leaving as his only heir-at-law and next of kin
Sarah F. Pierce of said Boston.

6. That the recited deed of said real property conveyed by said deed from said Locke and Chandler is clouded by an adverse claim, or by the possession of such claim, upon and under said restriction or condition, on account of which this petition is brought in accordance with the provisions of chapter 440 of the acts of the Legislature of this Commonwealth for 1884, and the other provisions of law in that behalf made and provided.

7. That the possible adverse claimants under such adverse claim, so far as known to the petitioners, are the said Jesse A. Locke, or his heirs at law, or legal representatives, and said Sarah F. Pierce.

Wherefore the petitioners pray:
1. That said Jesse A. Locke, the heirs, devi-sees and legal representatives of said Jesse A.
Locke, and said Sarah F. Pierce, and all other adverse claimants to the benefit of said deed, condition or restriction may be summoned to show cause why they should not bring an action, as aforesaid, to try their claims, if any they have,
as aforesaid.

2. That by order of this Honorable Court notice may be given to the supposed claimants aforesaid in this cause within a month, or limit, and try their claim or claims aforesaid.

3. That a decree may be entered by this Honorable Court that the supposed claimants aforesaid be forever debarred and estopped from having or enforcing any such claim, as aforesaid, adversely to the petitioners, or the successors,
heirs or assigns of the petitioners, in or to the premises hereinbefore described, to-wit: the real property conveyed by said deed from said Locke and Chandler.

4. And that the petitioners may have such other and further relief in and concerning the premises as justice and equity and the nature of the case may require, and to this Honorable
Court shall seem meet.

Given under my hand and seal of office, this fourth day of October, 1895.
JOSEPH W. MORSE,
John W. Weeks,
Jonathan A. Lane,
By their attorneys and solicitors,
Geo. W. Morse,
John C. Lane.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
MIDDLESEX SS. In Supreme Judicial Court,
October 22, 1895.

UPON THE petition aforesaid, it is ordered by the Hon. Oliver W. Holmes, a Justice of the Court, that the petitioners notify the said Sarah F. Pierce, and the said Jesse A. Locke, or his heirs at law, legal representatives if found within this Commonwealth to appear before the Justices of said Court, to be holden at Cambridge in said County, on the first Monday of April next, for the purpose of showing cause why they should not be bound by the terms of the order of the Court thereon, to be served upon them fourteen days at least before said last mentioned day, and by causing said attested copy of the petition and order to be published in the Newton Graphic a newspaper published in Newton in the County of Middlesex once in a month for six months the last publication to be thirty days at least before the said last mentioned day, that they may then and there show cause, if any they have, why the prayer in said petition set forth should not be granted.

A true copy of the petition and of the order of the Court thereon.
Attest: THEO. C. HURD, Clerk.

Choice Fruits
AND Vegetables.

Oranges, New Figs, Grape Fruit,
Mushrooms, Olives in Bulk,
Brussels Sprouts, Boston
Market Celery.

The best market offers in our line, at reasonable prices. Family trade solicited.
Telephone, Haymarket 671.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
MIDDLESEX SS. In Equity.

In the matter of George W. Morse et al, petitioners to quiet title of real estate.
To the Honorable, the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, holden within and for the County of Middlesex in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts:

RESPECTFULLY REPRESENT the petitioners, George W. Morse and John W. Weeks of Newton in said County of Middlesex, and Jonathan A. Lane of Boston in the County of Suffolk, and said Commonwealth, as they are trustees of
the Newton Land and Improvement Company
under the provisions of a certain Indenture between July second in 1894, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the South District of said
Middlesex, libro 2289, folio 507:

1. That by deed dated July twenty-third in 1885 and recorded in said Registry, libro 718, to said Jesse A. Locke of Newton in said County
of Middlesex and Albert F. Chandler of West
Barnstable in the County of Barnstable and said Commonwealth conveyed to Albert F. Chandler of said Newton certain real property therein described as follows, to-wit:—a certain lot or parcel of land situated in said town of Newton in the part of the town called Newtonville bounded and described as follows viz: north by forest street,
East by Walnut Street, south by lot number thirteen on a plan of building lots surveyed and drawn by G. A. Hyde and recorded with Middlesex Registry of Deeds, west by land of James Blake being lot number twelve (12) on above mentioned plan containing sixty six thousand one hundred and thirty

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

Reading Room

VOL. XXVI.—NO. 6.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1895.

TERMS—$2.00 A YEAR

Stylish Garments,
Elegant Furs.
Extraordinary Values.

THE FASHIONABLE
CLOAK HOUSE

OF SPRINGER BROTHERS,

500 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

Headquarters for CLOAKS AND FURS.

THE FESTIVAL of LANTERNS

AND

SALE . . .

To be given by the Women's Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A.,

WILL OPEN IN

NONANTUM HALL,

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1895

WITH A

TABLE-D'HOTE SUPPER (50 CTS.)

And continued Afternoon and Evening of Wednesday, November 13. A Gymnasium Drill each evening.

ADMISSION, . . . 25 CENTS.

WALTER C. BROOKS & Co.

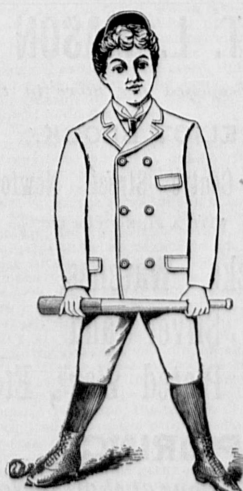

Importing
Tailors . .

15 MILK ST., BOSTON.

IRTHPLACE OF FRANKLIN
OPP. OLD SOUTH CHURCH.

Goods Delivered Free in the Newtons.

HURCHILL AND BEAN
Tailors
503 Washington Street,
BOSTON.
FINE DRESS SUITS A SPECIALTY.

Boy's Knockabout Suits
$5.00.

SIZES 4 TO 16.

This serviceable, STRICTLY ALL-WOOL School and Play Suit is in every respect what its name implies, a KNOCKABOUT SUIT.
The fabric has been selected, and the COLORS in their NON-SOLLING essentials have been chosen with a view to combining in a boy's suit all those attributes of strength, neatness of appearance, and wear-resisting qualities which are so sought after by parents to stand the test of real hard wear, which the average wide-awake boy gives his clothes.
The Trousers are fitted with our patent "Cavalry" or double cloth knee, and extra pieces and buttons accompany each suit.

$5.00

The name KNOCKABOUT is original with us, being our own idea and copyright, and the suits are of our own exclusive manufacture.

A. SHUMAN & CO.,

Shuman Corner
BOSTON.

NEWTON.

—Citizens' Caucus, Wednesday evening,
Nov. 13, 7.30 p. m., Ward 1, Armory Hall;
Ward 7, Eliot Lower Hall.

—Pianos, Farley, 433 Washington St., N.
—Prescriptions a specialty at Hahn's.

—Mr. A. R. Atkins of Thornton street is seriously ill at his home.

—Miss Edith Gaffield is in Brooklyn for a visit of several weeks.

—Mr. J. H. Dearborn has removed to Provincetown.

—Mr. Joseph Melbor is recovering from his recent serious illness.

—Edward Nolan has left the employ of C. O. Tucker.

—H. W. Crowell has purchased a handsome pair of bay horses.

—Joseph Weasel, who has been quite ill,
is able to be out again.

—Miss Holmes of Calais, Maine, is the guest of the Misses Ricker of Boyd street.

—Mr. Peterson, brother of the late Swan Peterson, returned this week to his home in the west.

—Mr. and Mrs. Moses Ricker of Boyd street have returned from their visit in Maine.

—The Garden City Wheelmen will soon occupy their new quarters in Lancaster's block.

—Mr. Samuel Franklin of Washington street, who was stricken with apoplexy a week ago, is improving.

—Mr. W. W. Wood, formerly connected with the GRAPHIC, is ill at his home on Thornton Place.

—The Monday Evening Club will hold its first meeting of the season next Monday evening at the home of Mr. George T.
Coppins.

—Dr. Reid's family has returned from North Scituate beach, his little daughter having recovered from a protracted attack of scarlet fever.

—In Immanuel church next Sunday morning, the Rev. T. W. Bishop of A. & burial will preach in exchange with the pastor.

—The unsightly sign boards advertising shoes, patent medicines, etc., which have so long disfigured the banks of the Charles near Faneuil, have been removed during the past week, as the result of correspondence between Mr. Lawson, the President of the Hunnewell Hill Improvement Society and the Metropolitan Park Commissioners.

—The performance of Gounod's St.
Cecilia service, which is to be given at the Eliot church on the evening of Sunday, Nov. 17th, will be a rare musical treat for the people of this community. The choir will be augmented, and will also have the assistance of the New England Conservatory String Quartet, Mr. Emil Maba, first violin, Mr. Charles McLaughlin, second violin, Mr. Daniel Kuntz, viola, and Mr.
Leo Schulz, violoncello.

—The Ladies Society of the Methodist church gave an "Everybody's Birthday Party," in the church parlors, Wednesday evening, when every visitor was expected to pay a penny for each year of his age, and the total mounted up, so that the ladies will net $20. Mrs. L. L. Tower and Mrs. Hiram Leonard had charge of the party, and it proved a very pleasant affair.
Refreshments were served, one of the features being a cornucopia of music by the Breckton Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar Club; a cornet solo by Miss Mae Park, a violin solo by Mr. Brown of Newtonville and songs by Mrs. George Barber.

—Mrs. Emma E. Hornbroke, who is well known not only in connection with religious movements in Paris, but from her literary work, will present the interests of Miss Ada Leigh's Mission Homes in Paris, in Channing church on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 10, at four o'clock. These homes are especially for English and American young women seeking employment in one of the most dangerous cities to which they can go without protection. Many an American girl, hundreds of whom are to be found in the gay French capital to whose needs Mrs. Hornbroke has ministered as a voluntary helper, have been heartily and hospitably welcomed and comforted in one of these "homes." It is hoped that the cause which she represents, as well as the interesting character of her recitals, will secure for Mrs. Hornbroke a large hearing.

—Mrs. N. P. Cutler will give a reception on Monday, Nov. 12, from 4 to 6, at her residence, Cheesey will furnish the music.

—Mr. H. W. Wellington and family leave early in December for California, where they will spend the winter.

—After next Monday the GRAPHIC will be located in its new building on Centre place, just above the Newton station.

—Mr. Bigelow and family, formerly of Highland Park, Newtonville, have taken a house on Tremont street.

—Mr. Frank H. Howes of Billings Park is taking a short trip through New England, for the benefit of his health.

—Chester Wood of Hahn's drug store is taking a three years' course at the Mass.
College of Pharmacy.

—The GRAPHIC office will be removed on Monday next to 16 Centre Place, just above the Newton railroad station.

—The paintings by Miss Meeson, 37 Wesley street, which have been much admired, will by next week, continue on exhibition the remainder of the week.

—The Ladies' Matinee Whist Club met with the president, Mrs. E. H. Hames of Walnut Park, Monday afternoon. Five tables were filled, and as usual it was a very pleasant affair.

—Mr. George W. Hills has returned from a year's business trip in Europe, and expects soon to open a branch of his New York house in Boston.

—James Fitzgerald, who was caught stealing milk cans by Officer Elwell, Monday morning, was fined $15 by Judge Kennedy in the police court.

—The Newton Federation will meet at Bray's Hall, Newton Centre, Nov. 13, at 2.30 p. m. The Social Science Club meeting omitted on that day.

—Mrs. W. H. Wellington will give a dance for her daughter, at the Newtonville Club house, this evening. Cheesey's orchestra will play.

—Patrons of the West End greatly appreciate the new equipment of "Eighteen wheeler" as the riding is made much easier.

—The funeral of Miss Helen Leeds was held Sunday afternoon from the residence
of her parents on Bennington street.
Rev. Dr. Calkins officiating.

—A party of fourteen from the Morse's Field Scientific Club, enjoyed Monday evening's performance of "Burnham," at the Boston Theatre.

—Saturday afternoon a freight car which was being shifted in the Church street freight yard, became suddenly derailed and collided with an express wagon, badly damaging the latter.

—Mr. E. C. Fitch has taken rooms for his family at the Vendome for the winter.
Mrs. Fitch, Miss Helen and Master Charles have recently returned from Europe.

—The Rev. Dr. Abbott delivered his first sermon in the special course to a very large congregation in Grace church on last Sunday night. His topic next Sunday is "Environment," or "How we are moulded by our surroundings."

—Music in Grace church Sunday night:
Processional, "H. B. Day"
Anthem, "Blessed are the merciful," Hills
"The pillars of the earth," Tours
"Ere was the evening hymn."
Retrospectional.

All seats free.

—The Newtonian Cycle Club held its monthly meeting and semi-annual election of officers, Wednesday evening. The same board, who served so faithfully last year, were re-elected, with the exception of treasurer, Mr. H. Cates filling the vacancy left by the resignation of Mr. Walter Mars.

—At the exhibition of Early American portraits at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, Mr. Walter U. Lawson of this city loans Thomas Lewis Lawton's paintings of Daniel Webster, from which the famous full-length engraving of Webster was made. Webster himself, when asked which of all the portraits of him self was the best likeness, is said to have pointed out this one, saying, "That is the face I shave."

—The concert in aid of the Young Men's Mission Club of Immanuel church, Wednesday evening, was a gratifying success. There was a large attendance and the artists appeared at their best. The duet, "Songs of the Birds" from Rubenstein, by Mrs. Eleanor Fox Allen and Mrs.
G. E. Merrill was particularly enjoyed, as were the "Cello solos by that long time favorite, Mr. Wolf Fries. A neat sum will be netted for the Immanuel house fund.

—Monday afternoon while two ladies accompanying by two little children were driving along Washington street near Adams, in a Godard buggy, one of the children accidentally fell between the wheels, the rear wheel passing over its body. Officer Davis, who happened to be standing near by, picked up the little one while Officer Lucy stopped the horse. The child was taken in the buggy by its mother, who refused the officer's offer to summon medical assistance, and the party drove on. The child was apparently badly hurt.

—The funeral of William Leonard, who was accidentally killed by falling down a flight of stairs in the Fitchburg depot at Waltham, last week, was held Saturday morning from the Church of Our Lady.
He had been a resident of Newton for over a quarter of a century, and had been employed on the water department for nearly the same length of time.
He served in the war and was a member of Chas. Ward Post 62, G. A. R., a delegation of which was present at the funeral. A wife, four sons and one daughter survive him.

—A pair of horses attached to a large farm wagon and belonging to H. A. Crawford of Watertown ran away on Centre street, Wednesday morning. The team was coming down Centre street and when near Sargent one of the whiffle tree chains suddenly broke and struck one of the horses. This frightened both animals and they started at a rapid gait down the hill.
They collided with a tree in the Methodist church yard and freed themselves from the wagon. The animals dashed through the square to Watertown, where one of the horses fell down and both were captured.
The driver, a very narrow escape, was saved himself by jumping before the wagon struck the tree.

—The recitals by Miss Speare and Miss Andrews in Eliot church parlors, Tuesday evening, were of a high order of quiet grace and power, just the qualities in which it is so desirable our young people should be trained. Miss Speare's selections showed great versatility in the pathetic and comic, with admirable rendering of Negro, Scotch dances, etc. Of the graver, "The Funeral" by Carleton and the classic
"Cleobis and Biton" by Eudora Dean Proctor, were marked instances of fine understanding. Miss Andrews, a pupil of Prof. Baerman, showed herself a rare pupil of a rare master in her delicacy of touch and feeling. Many fathers in the audience doubtless appreciated one of the closing pieces, the early morning experiences of
it. Nothing so dangerous if allowed to continue. One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief. Arthur Hudson, Newton;
Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls;
Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

—Nothing so distressing as a hacking cough. Nothing so foolish as to suffer from
it. Nothing so dangerous if allowed to continue. One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief. Arthur Hudson, Newton;
Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls;
Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertainment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

—The second in the series of Saturday
night entertainments for club members
was held in the Newton clubhouse
Saturday evening. The entertain-
ment feature was an informal whist
tournament, in which 24 pairs contested.
The prizes were awarded as follows:
F. Lunt and H. D. Kneebury, first;
E. Cobb and W. H. Coolidge, second;
T. Kidder and D. B. Harding, third;
H. Potter and R. W. Buntin, fourth.
Lunch was served in the gentlemen's
club after the tournament.

Get a warm weather hair cut at Burns'.
Cole's block; three barbers.

—A serious accident, in which two boys had an extremely narrow escape from being maimed, or perhaps, fatally injured, occurred at noon yesterday, on Vernon street. The two little chaps were Samuel Farquhar and Cloyes King, sons of Mr.
David Farquhar and Mr. Moses King.
They were playing and chasing each other.
The pair started across Vernon street from the Unitarian church yard, the King boy ahead. At the time Atwood & Prentiss's delivery wagon came along, James Galli-agher driving. The Farquhar boy went directly against the wheel of the wagon, before realizing his danger, and the King boy bumped into him. Both were knocked down and Driver Gallagher thought the wheels passed over them. They were side by side when he stopped the horse and went to ascertain the extent of their injuries. Blood was streaming down their faces and they were covered with dirt, presented a very distressing sight. Gallagher took the boys to Dr. Hudson's pharmacy, where an examination was made by Dr.
Hudson. It was ascertained that they were not badly hurt as it was at first feared. There were indications of a slight fracture of the nose in the case of the King boy, whose wounds and bruises were seemingly more extensive than those of his little companion. The wheel had apparently grazed both boys, nearly passing over their heads. There were no indications that they had passed over their bodies. Each had several teeth knocked out and the Farquhar's boys shoulder was hurt. After being rendered as comfortable and presentable as possible, the little fellows were taken to their respective homes and attended by the family physicians. It was learned today that they were getting along nicely. The circumstances were such that no blame attaches to the driver, who did apparently all one could under the conditions.

—The Newton Federation will meet at Bray's Hall, Newton Centre, Nov. 13, at 2.30 p. m. The Social Science Club meeting omitted on that day.

—Mrs. W. H. Wellington will give a dance for her daughter, at the Newtonville
Club house, this evening. Cheesey's
orchestra will play.

—Patrons of the West End greatly appreciate the new equipment of "Eighteen wheeler" as the riding is made much easier.

—The funeral of Miss Helen Leeds was held Sunday afternoon from the residence
of her parents on Bennington street.
Rev. Dr. Calkins officiating.

—A party of fourteen from the Morse's Field Scientific Club, enjoyed Monday
evening

AN UNEXCITING ELECTION.

Republicans Carry Newton by the Usual Majority.

Mr. Lawrence Bond Cut$ Down Dr. Niles' Vote.

Newton Gives 635 Against Woman Suffrage.

Wards:—	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Precincts:—	1	2	1	2	1	2	1	Total
GOVERNOR.
Brown, Peoples.	1	1	2	2	1	1	5	2—19
Greenhalge, Rep.	69	167	141	203	125	213	206	201—2312
Kendall, Prohib.	3	5	4	5	7	6	13	9—70
Ruther, Soc. Labor. . . .	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1—8
Williams, Dem.	121	88	164	57	125	58	86	35—988
Blanks.	5	2	11	5	13	2	11	6—70
FOR LEUTENANT GOVERNOR.
Buddington, Peoples. . .	2	1	4	1	1	8	1	3—25
Grinnell, Dem.	111	34	147	47	117	43	75	35—884
O'Neil, Labor.	4	1	2	3	5	3	1	3—54
Rogers, Prohib.	2	5	4	6	8	8	9	3—61
Wolcott, Rep.	76	106	143	206	119	222	199	45—2311
Blanks.	5	7	23	9	23	6	18	7—130
FOR SECRETARY.
Flynn, Dem.	115	33	145	40	118	37	69	35—822
Maloney, Soc. Lab. . . .	1	1	1	1	1	1	3	5—31
Nash, Peoples.	3	1	1	4	3	2	3	4—22
Oliver, Rep.	69	172	141	205	122	225	219	42—2304
Wylie, Prohib.	2	6	5	7	8	6	9	2—67
Blanks.	12	2	31	15	21	9	19	5—136
FOR TREASURER.
Moran, Peoples.	4	4	4	2	3	6	1	3—37
Purrinton, Pro.	1	5	5	9	7	6	16	1—74
Shaw, Rep.	69	166	138	289	116	211	200	43—2270
Stevens, Dem.	109	36	140	46	118	47	83	33—882
Wentworth, Soc. Lab. . .	2	2	1	1	2	1	2	1—17
Blanks.	15	5	35	17	27	13	17	6—184
AUDITOR.
Kimball, Rep.	67	163	135	285	115	210	206	42—2278
Nagler, Labor.	2	3	1	2	4	1	2	1—10
Taton, Peoples.	2	4	4	5	7	5	11	1—63
Regnell, Prohib.	112	36	148	51	120	45	77	35—888
Whitney, Dem.	10	8	32	18	23	19	22	6—96
Blanks.	10	5	7	10	12	7	14	1—85
ATTORNEY GENERAL.
Forbush, Prohib.	2	5	7	10	12	7	14	1—84
Hurlbut, Dem.	108	30	145	44	120	42	73	34—876
Knowlton, Rep.	67	168	134	291	112	217	210	43—2275
Putney, Soc. Lab.	2	4	1	1	3	1	2	1—10
Reno, Peoples.	1	2	1	2	1	2	3	1—20
Blanks.	20	9	32	14	24	12	21	6—207
COUNCILLOR.
Grace, Dem.	118	34	159	65	128	54	83	32—976
Raymond, Rep.	58	171	134	279	117	211	211	44—2264
Blanks.	24	9	30	18	27	15	28	8—125
SENATOR.
Bond, Ind. & Dem.	131	64	181	125	182	143	126	37—1450
Niles, Rep.	47	140	113	216	79	129	172	37—1823
Blanks.	22	10	29	21	11	8	23	10—189
REPRESENTATIVES.
Bridgman, Dem.	117	38	154	80	137	55	86	35—1006
Conant, Prohib.	4	8	12	9	15	9	17	1—132
Harwood, Rep.	68	152	126	258	109	200	198	45—2151
Hollis, Rep.	73	154	130	255	101	194	196	35—2184
Iuman, Prohib.	3	5	6	13	18	21	15	3—88
Blanks.	135	71	218	109	164	81	132	40—1457
DISTRICT ATTORNEY.
Hunt, D-m.	118	38	154	80	137	54	87	36—990
Wier, Rep.	59	165	134	276	116	208	211	39—2225
Blanks.	23	11	35	23	24	18	24	9—220
COUNTY COMMISSIONER.
Bigelow, Rep.	64	168	136	282	110	220	211	41—2282
Fay, Dem.	108	34	144	50	126	41	74	33—876
Blanks.	28	12	43	30	36	19	37	10—276
SPECIAL COUNTY COMMISSIONER.
Dike, Rep.	56	158	125	275	102	200	197	37—2107
Gately, Dem.	99	28	124	45	120	35	71	27—715
Thompson, Rep.	58	147	129	255	99	191	193	36—2022
Trowbridge, Dem.	87	25	112	41	101	41	61	23—1201
Blanks.	100	70	156	108	122	93	122	45—843
SHERIFF.
Cushing, Rep.	63	171	137	287	126	216	215	42—2194
Simonds, Dem.	117	33	152	47	120	47	76	34—817
Blanks.	20	10	34	28	26	17	31	8—267
WOMAN SUFFRAGE.
Men. Yes.	32	64	65	121	64	113	101	16—993
Men. No.	131	121	189	187	149	139	164	56—2145
Blanks.	37	29	69	54	59	28	57	12—325
Women. Yes.	7	22	23	35	36	72	27	14—363
Women. No.	2	2	1	2	3	14	2	9—11

CITY GOVERNMENT.

LITTLE INTEREST IN ELECTION RETURNS—APPLETON STREET HEARING—JOHN JOYCE'S STABLE—A LONG LIST OF HEARINGS.

The board of aldermen met Tuesday night to receive election returns and transact other business. There was no crowd around City Hall to watch returns, and apparently no one felt any doubt about the result. The reading of the returns occupied several hours and it was so late before the meeting was over that all the cars had stopped running and the members had to be sent home in carriages.

APPLETON STREET HEARING.

The first hearing was on the laying out of Appleton street, between Austin street and Otis street, and a very lively opposition to the plans of the city was developed.

Mrs. D. C. Heath, who has done so much to get Appleton street changed from a lane into a street wide enough for a thoroughfare, was the first speaker, and read her protest, in which she described the great amount of work by private individuals, who had contributed time and money to secure a handsome avenue, the only one not blocked by street cars between Centre and Chestnut streets, leading from the North side of the tracks to the new boulevard. Citizens had given land, and also money to secure the improvement. From Austin street to Highland avenue, the city had made a change in the plan to accommodate Mr. Chase's cowshed, and this change leaves a strip of land 10 feet wide, next to Mr. Merrill, which the citizens have paid for, and which Mr. Merrill does not want, and it will be of no use to any one.

Mr. Francis A. Dunson said the change was an unwarranted one, and the strip on the east side would be of no use to any one. The improvement was one of the greatest ever undertaken in Ward Two, as it changed the old lane known as Murray street into a broad thoroughfare. He sympathized with Mr. and Mrs. Chapman and Mr. Upham, but the greatest good to the greatest number was the principle to be considered in making public improvements, and the rights of private individuals must give way. The street ought to be laid out in a straight line.

Mr. Chapman said it seemed to him that an autopsy was being held on the action taken a year ago. He was interested in the Louise A. Chapman estate, and they did not wish the throng of people who were expected on the street to pass right under their windows. It was the first street the city had ever built, as before streets were accepted it was usual for them to be built and ready to use before being accepted. They should claim heavy damages, if their land was touched, and the widening was not needed now and would not be for ten years. Not three teams a day, aside from city carts and grocery wagons, passed through the street, and they should claim three times what the land was worth for damages.

Mr. Appleton represented Mr. Chase, and said the latter had filed a claim for trial by jury, in time to save his rights. Mr. Chase was an easy man to settle with, and when the street was carried over the tracks to Lowell street there would have to be a curve, and it might as well be at this place as at any other. The park planned there was not of much account and it might be done away with.

Mrs. Heath said that Worcester street could not be abandoned on account of the costly improvements in the street in the way of sewers, pipes and drains. Lowell street was a 50 foot street, and Appleton street ought to be made the same. By the change there was a useless strip in front of the Merrill, Matthews and Chase estates. She also gave the list of some of the contributions to the improvement and said that it was impossible to move Appleton street to the westward.

Mr. Chapman thought his land and Mr. Chase's might remain as they were for the present. The city had expended $11,000 in construction of the street and still more was needed. The whole scheme was promised would cost the city only $10,000 and now they have only got as far as Otis street.

Mrs. Chapman thought a little curve would answer every purpose and would not injure the street. The hearing, after more desultory remarks from all sides, was closed.

MR. JOYCE'S STABLE.

A hearing was given on the application of John Joyce to build a stable 17x15 feet on his lot on Thornton street.

Mr. S. L. Powers represented Mr. Joyce and gave the history of Mr. Joyce's famous struggle with the board of health, which set out to prevent his keeping more than four horses, the number allowed by law, in his stable, which has accommodations for more than a dozen. He bought the place 10 years ago, which has an acre and a half of land. The board of health gave him the contract to remove ashes, put him under bonds to do the work, and knew he would need a large number of horses and had to keep them in this stable, and then turns round and tells him that he can not have a license to keep more than four horses; has him in court on a complaint, and when he appealed the higher court tells him the board of health is supreme under the law of 1890. When he appeals from this to test the constitutionality of the law, he wishes to do something to protect the horses from the weather, which he can not do in the stable, and as the result of the appeal will probably not be known for six months anyway, he wishes to observe the law and hence applies to you for license to build a stable on his land. Only one person objects and his houses are on another street, which he can not do in the stable for the stable from all the other residents in the vicinity. The doctors say the stable is not a nuisance, that no sickness is caused by it, and the board of health does not touch another stable within a stone's throw that keeps 150 horses. He thought the main trouble was that the board of health was not on cordial, visiting relations, with Mr. Joyce and some friction resulted from this.

He exhibited a plan of the land and stable.

Dr. Curtis of the board of health said that the board had only taken action in response to complaints. If the law was decided to be unconstitutional there would be no need of the extra stable.

Mr. Powers thought that the horses now kept in the open shed would have to suffer all winter if they waited for that.

The hearing then closed.

OTHER HEARINGS.

No one appeared at the hearing on concrete walk on Edinboro street; on the laying out of Commonwealth avenue near Seaverns street; on taking land for sewer on Birch Hill; on sewer on private way of Edinboro street.

Kendall & Stevens asked for license to build a stable for Stephen Greene on Centre street and hearing was set for Nov. 18.

Ellen Canfield claimed $65 for damages from negligence of the sewer department which flooded her cellar. Referred to chairman of sewer committee.

The N. E. Telephone Co. accepted the location granted them on Lake street and Myrtle avenue.

Mary E. Howard called attention to the use of land by the city without her consent, for which she would hold city responsible. Referred to street committee.

John S. Cole petitioned for repayment to him of overcharges for connecting his house on Langley road with the sewer.

The Y. M. C. A. asked for license to attach sign boards to trees in Newtonville and Newton Centre. Granted, provided posts are used in place of trees.

Harley A. Smith and Frank A. Chamberlain were granted an honorable discharge from the fire department.

H. W. Williams and Wilfred Rackemann were appointed as special policemen for duty at Hemlock George.

Alderman Degen was appointed on the public property committee to succeed Alderman Bullard, resigned.

The N. & W. Gas Company asked for permit for poles and wires on Suffolk road and Kingsbury street, and a hearing was granted for Nov. 18 at 8.30 p. m.

Nancy Bailey was granted leave to withdraw on claim for damages.

The order for the city election was passed.

An order was passed releasing land of Mary R. Dennison taken for widening Washington street, some 38 sq. ft.

F. W. Emerson and others asked for concrete walks on Bowdoin street.

A concrete crosswalk was asked for on Central street.

An order was passed for concrete walk on Hyde street, in front of premises of L. A. Bay et al.

An order was passed discontinuing a portion of Murray street.

An order was passed for the laying out and acceptance of Claremont street under the betterment act.

The sewer committee reported favorably on the construction of a sewer east side of Laundry block, ne. 13 at 8.30 p. m.

An order passed authorizing the construction of sewers in Cypress, Washington and Prince streets.

A petition of the patrolmen of the city asked for increase to $1.35 per day in salary for all members of that department who have served three years or more was referred to the police committee.

A hearing was appointed for Dec. 3 on the petition of the Commonwealth Avenue Street Railway Company for permit to lay tracks for a location on Centre as far as Beacon street.

The property of S. E. Abbott held on account of Newtonville drain assessment was released, the city treasurer having acknowledged receipt of amount due, $43.95.

The order passed Oct. 15, fixing the amount of assessments for betterments on account of the laying out of Commonwealth avenue, between Washington and Valentine streets, was rescinded and an amended order adopted, changing the total assessment from $112,000 to $117,000.

It was then voted to adjourn.

"Nothing venture, nothing have." Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement. "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Pres. Church, Helena, Mont.

It is the medicine above all others for catarrh, and is worth its weight in gold. I can use Ely's Cream Balm with safety and it does all that is claimed for it.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

The bald and gray will find a sure remedy in Hall's Hair Renewer.

Removal

After

November 8th,

Newton Graphic

will be located in its own building, at

16 Centre Place,

just above the NEWTON RAILROAD STATION

Centre Place connects with Washington street through the tunnel, which will be convenient for passengers coming by the electric cars, and its nearness to the Railroad Station, will be handy for the people who patronize the steam cars.

The new building will give nearly 600 square feet additional floor space which is needed for our large

JOB PRINTING Department. It has been conveniently arranged for work, and will be fitted up with all the modern improvements. Patrons will bear in mind the change of location after Nov. 15th, to 16 CENTRE PLACE.

TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN

By our new method. A simple application to the gums. You don't lose consciousness. Is not dangerous to those having heart trouble.

FULL SET OF TEETH, $6

Best quality. Extraction Painless. Warranted 5 years.

All Kinds of Fillings..... 75c. up

Solid Gold Crowns or teeth without plates..... $5.00

All work warranted and kept in repair free of charge.

Largest and finest Dental Parlors in New England.

Hundreds of teeth extracted daily by our painless process; no bad results, sore mouths or after-effect.

BOSTON DENTAL PARLORS

Under Entirely New Management.

681 Washington St., Boston.

Cor. Lagrange st., opp. Cobb, Bates & Yerxa.

HOURS, 8 A. M. to 8 P. M. SUNDAYS 10 to 2.

FRANCIS MURDOCK,
INSURANCE AGENT,
Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies Sole Agent for Newton of the Middle

A Few Reasons Why Gymnasiums are a Necessity With Growing Civilization.

A paper read by Miss M. Caroline Wilson before the Waterbury Woman's Club, October 7, 1895.

All the evidence we have of primitive man implies a constant struggle with natural forces, and wild beasts, and savage foes that must have severely taxed his physical strength and endurance.

Within historic times, the progress of civilization has always depended upon the overcoming of material obstacles. Force met force, and the energy and strength required in clearing forests, breaking up ground, laying out roads and in building up towns and cities, with their myriad trades and industries, have given energy and strength to the masses in return for their efforts. The pioneers of a new country are invariably a hardy people and few suffer for want of physical activity. As the country becomes settled, division of labor sends some to the fields, others to the workshop, others to the office and desk, and so on through all the diverse methods of employment, until we find men scarcely using muscles enough to keep them in a healthy condition.

These are some of the circumstances and changes of environment which have led to variations from the normal physique in the past and will lead to still further variations in the future. Under such a regime, the muscles become atrophied or wasted away, the vital organs become enfeebled and man enters upon a state of physical deterioration.

This is exactly what is taking place today in our great cities and among a certain portion of our rural communities. The only remedy is a more intimate contact with nature, a return to simpler modes of life, or the universal establishment of artificial methods of physical training. Older civilizations have recognized this need; the Greeks, the Romans, the Egyptians all had their gymnasiums and athletic sports.

The Spartan woman was not allowed to marry until she had given evidence of her proficiency in gymnastics. In speaking of a man, we use the term in the universal sense, including woman.

As history has shown us that man attains the highest state of physical development in the primitive manner of living, where his environment forced him in his struggle for existence to keep all his muscles in constant use, so Doctor Sargent, in looking over the records of the college students he had examined, found those who had been accustomed to walk long distances to school and to spend portions of the year doing manual labor, generally showed a superior physique, unless the work had been excessive and begun at too early a period. The doctor then devised a system of exercises in the gymnasium, resembling actual labor, to accomplish the same results, and in this way supplement the deficiencies of one's occupation and to develop him where he is weak.

I have referred to Doctor Sargent's methods because they seem to be best adapted to the American temperament, while this matter has received attention from educational men from the time of Benjamin Franklin to the present time.

Professor Harris, a commissioner of the National Board of Education, says: "If Doctor Sargent's work were expunged from the field of gymnastics, it would be found that America's original contributions to the cause of physical training have been lamentably few. But with his inventions, America is able to make a very respectable showing of originality. His 'chest weights,' in their various forms, and his other machines in the American gymnasium give it an individuality and a national character that it would otherwise lack."

A glance at some of the physiological workings of the body confirms the previous observations. The blood carries the nourishment and oxygen to all the tissues of the body, the circulation also picks up the waste and eliminates it through the skin, lungs, renal organs and part of the intestinal system. The lungs, while in a state of rest, breathe with but a small part of their breathing surface, work with their entire surface as soon as the chest is expanded, and the change of gas becomes the greater, the oftener we breathe in the same space of time. Thus the breathing capacity of the lungs while the muscles are active is employed may be twelve, fifteen, and even twenty times greater than when they are in a state of rest.

As a rule only about one half of the oxygen which adheres to the red blood corpuscles that circulate in our veins is consumed while the organs are in a state of rest. The heart, too, increases its activity in a double manner. It carries a greater circulation of the blood by increasing the contraction in a given time to its highest limits, and by pressing a greater quantity of blood into the arteries at every contraction.

The muscle consists of fine fibres, each fibre is wrapped in a network of fine blood capillaries; when the muscle tissue is in a state of rest for too long a period, these fibres waste away and other parts suffer in consequence. If contracted regularly and forcibly, the blood circulates more quickly through it bringing a larger amount of nutrition and oxygen. The chemical change or oxidation which takes place in active muscle is a breaking down of old tissue and building up new in larger quantities. Therefore it is necessary that the muscles should be regularly and forcibly contracted, in order that the blood, which is the collection and delivery vehicle of the body, may be enabled to make more trips carrying larger quantities of building material and removing more thoroughly the waste matter of the body, and that the muscle by work, may increase its power to do the work.

Many people say that they do not care for muscular strength, but want to strengthen the heart, lungs, and vital organs, unmindful of the fact that the only way we can influence these organs is through the action of the muscles.

Physical training is most important during the growing period, as the muscles and vital organs do not grow in size or structure much after that time. In the years between twelve and sixteen no organ shows such proportionate growth as the heart and lungs. If these organs do not receive the proper attention at this time it necessarily follows that the general development and power of resistance of the body will be imperfect throughout life. What is neglected in these years can not be made good later. Then, too, the tension of the will, required to perform properly the requirements of school discipline and instruction is such as to withdraw the nervous energy from those great centres of secretion and circulation, of the stomach, the heart, the kidneys, the liver, the lungs, sowing seeds of indigestion, renal weakness, liver complaint, and constipation. To remedy these evils a system of artificial exercise is necessary.

Another serious evil met with in the school room is the ill-fitted chair and desk. A pupil is seated according to his per cent. or deportment, regardless of whether the chair is too high or too low for him, the seat too long or too short, the desk too near, too high, or too low. The great amount of writing required with faulty positions and ill-fitting furniture combine to produce lateral curvature, imperfect vision, and a serious cramping of the vital organs. With all these serious tendencies of the school room, we wonder the girl does not develop into the rugged young woman of our grandmothers' day. The wonder is that she develops at all.

A move is being made in the right direction, however. Vertical scrips being adopted, and a chair and desk have been devised, by the Germans and French, which is adjustable to a child of any height. The Boston school board have already begun this change of school furniture.

The gymnasium is quite as necessary to supplement the social life of the young lady who fills her time with social duties, interspersed with fatiguing hours of practice and those accomplishments which tax the nerves to the utmost and leave no time for those recreations which build up and restore the wasted energy. The same is true of the older woman. Her cares are increased and with advancing years there is more or less sluggishness of the system. She needs gentle muscular stimulation to overcome these tendencies and renew her youth. The wash-tub, sweeping, cleaning paint and washing floors are in the most beneficial part of the domestic work. The head of the family, however, has neither time nor strength for such laborious work, but she keeps the care and nervous strain of the family, housekeeping and social duties; therefore she should go to the gymnasium for a homeopathic dose of the wash-tub exercise. The result of which is an exhilarated, rested feeling, with a good muscular force to support the nervous strain.

You may hear people say that such and such a person lives in a very unhygienic manner, works hard, yet is well and vigorous. This person has simply inherited from her ancestors a large bank account of nerve and muscular force, from which she can draw at libitum without overdrawing her account. But a large part of the community having a smaller bank account, must replace the nerve and muscular force as soon as expended.

These are a few reasons, and many more could be given if time permitted, but enough has been said to show that the exercising of the body is an imperative necessity of modern times.

A. G. Bartley of Mazie, Pa., writes: I feel it a duty of mine to inform you and the public that De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me a very bad case of eczema. It also cured my boy of a running sore on his leg. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

LONDON SQUARES.

Some of the quaint breathing spots in the English Metropolis.

Some of these are quaint and charming enough, being mostly laid out in the Dutch fashion. Golden square, near Regent street; Red Lion and Queen squares, in Bloomsbury, are capital specimens. The first, though so close to Regent street, might be a dozen miles away. There is a welcome unkemptness; the grass is rank and wild; there are old trees ranged round its border in a symmetrical way. The houses round are picturesque, because each is distinct. It is given over to commission agents, merchants and trade generally, yet within but a few years it was a place of genteel residence, like a usual square, and we find the late Cardinal Wiseman living in a substantial mansion here.

Dickens, it will be remembered, placed Ralph Nickleby's house here, which is described on the occasion of the party to Sir Frederick and Sir Mulberry as having almost palatial apartments and the richest furniture. As we wander round, we are struck with the melancholy tone of the inclosure, yet everything seems brisk enough, but it belongs to the old world.

The square itself is very attractive and original, with a sort of Dutch or foreign air. We note the fine trees which shelter it all round in symmetrical lines and the Roman warrior sort of statue in the center, arrayed in full armor and representing George II. The grass and walks are laid out with a certain free and easy carelessness that is very acceptable and contrasts with the trim, shaven, soulless treatment of modern squares. Altogether a visit to Golden square will interest.

Berkeley square every one knows. Yet it has an extraordinary sympathetic attraction from its grass and fine shading old trees. No one, we may be sure, has noted that these leafy patriarchs seem to range in two rows down the middle, like an avenue. The fact is, it was the demesne of the lawn in front of the old Berkeley House, which stood at the back of Devonshire House. The mansions round are very fine, and the iron work, railings, etc., are all admired and to be admired. There are some queer things to be told about squares, for instance, that there was a General Strode who had a mania for setting up statues in squares at his own expense. We have seen equestrian statues in Leicester square propped up with a broomstick, with portions broken away. —Gentleman's Magazine.

People who refuse to pay their taxes in Burma are promptly dealt with by the revenue officials. In the Pegu district the local tax collector arrests the defaulting householder and family and carries them off to dranceville in his house until the taxes are forthcoming.

The rain falls upon the just and the unjust alike. The unjust, however, are quicker to steal umbrellas, and generally fare best in a shower. —Picaune.

The healing properties of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve are well known. It cures eczema, skin affections and is simply a perfect remedy for piles. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

SUBSTITUTES FOR CHRISTIANITY.

REV. GEORGE W. SHINN, D.D., COMMENCES A SERIES OF LECTURES IN CAMBRIDGE.

Rev. George W. Shinn, rector of Grace church, this city, began last Sunday evening in St. James' church, Massachusetts avenue, Cambridge, a series of sermons on "Modern Substitutes for Christianity."

I propose, said he, in the course of these addresses, to consider the systems known under the names of Socialism, Christian Science, Theosophy and Spiritualism, for all these systems have a bearing upon the religious life. We hear, he continued, the Socialist declaring that the Christian church is not the friend of the workingman, at the same time that the Christian Scientist dismisses the physician and determines to rely on mental healing, while the Theosophist claims that he has something older and grander than Christianity, and the Spiritualist tells us of revelations of an unseen world. There are undoubtedly excellent features in all these four movements. Socialism represents one phase of Christian brotherhood; Christian Science stands for the superiority of the soul over the body; Theosophy suggests, even where it does not teach, some of the fundamental facts of the Divine existence, and Spiritualism reminds us that the dead are still living in another sphere.

Socialism, again, is a protest against the selfishness of modern society; Christian Science, Theosophy and Spiritualism are also protests against the materialism of the age. Still, I claim that any good element which is in any one of them, and all good elements which are in all of them, are found in Christianity. It is true that there are serious minds among those who have been led away from Christianity by these systems, yet there are also impressionable people in their following—persons who rush from one "ism" to another, always in search of something new, never knowing quite what they are seeking and never staying long anywhere. Then there are people who are making use of the credulity of others for their own profit—tricksters, for whom I have a great contempt. And there is still another class for whom I have nothing but pity—those who are turning away from the church, and finding in these "isms" something more satisfactory than the answers which God himself has vouchsafed to give on these great problems.

Some of the changes proposed by Socialism are very desirable, but others are of questionable value, while still others are subversive of all order. There is no likelihood, for example, that society can ever be reconstituted upon a basis other than that of the family. Community life destroys the family, and the removal of all control from the church, as a blow to efforts at improvement. To carry paternalism to its legitimate consequences would put a premium upon laziness and inefficiency.

Dr. Shinn deplored the antagonistic attitude of many Socialists to the Christian church, urging that there was no more powerful agency for bringing about reforms than that church. He also condemned the luxurious lives and expenditures of rich people, often made possible at the price of the laborer's degradation and suffering, and resulting in the finger of scorn being pointed at the church. His closing word was to urge that men should model their lives on that of Christ.

Acts at once, never fails. One Minute Cough Cure. A remedy for asthma, and that feverish condition which accompanies a severe cold. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

Newton & Needham Street Railroad. Newton Centre, Nov. 6, 1895. To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:—

As there seems to be some opposition to the proposed line of the Newton & Needham Street Railway Co. through Paul street and over the Cypress or Institution avenue bridges, why could not the line go straight to Newton Centre by way of Centre street? Grade crossings are against the state law; then make the street railroad put up an iron framework over the Albany's track for their line. The rest of the traffic could keep at grade as at present. I understand it is to be a one track road and for a small amount, I am not an engineer, but should say four or five thousand dollars or less, we could build a good substantial viaduct.

Then, we have a straight line from Needham Plains to Newton Centre, and ending where the present electric line begins. The Parker and Paul street folks don't want the road, so they wouldn't have it. The Improvement Society would not object to this route and the Needham folks would make better time to Newton Centre.

What this would cost the street railroad would be made up in time by the reduction in operating expenses. I suppose the city would have a right to permit the electric line to build an iron viaduct. This certainly would be a objectionable to the residents as there are coal sheds on one side and ice houses on the other. J. W. PAUL.

ONE PACKAGE OF I-O Equals in nutritive digestible qualities 3 PACKAGES of any other Oatmeal

The Senatorial Vote.

The following table gives the vote for Senator in this district, which is usually considered safe for a 2,500 Republican majority. Dr. Niles secured 878 more votes than Mr. Bond, and was scratched in all parts of the district:

	Bond	Niles
Concord	261	330
Lexington	162	208
Belmont	146	173
Watertown	570	556
Lincoln	52	66
Waltham	1,332	1,543
Newton	1,450	1,823
	3,913	4,789

There are many good reasons why you should use One Minute Cough Cure. There are no reasons why you should not, if in need of help. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

Say, why don't you try De Witt's Little Early Risers? These little pills cure headache, indigestion and constipation. They're small, but do the work. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

That Plate Means Columbia

THE BEST BICYCLE.

On the steering-head of every Columbia bicycle of this year's make that name-plate appears. It is unique, handsome, and indicates much—satisfaction and highest enjoyment to the rider. No other bicycle has ever equalled a Columbia. No other bicycle ever shall equal a Columbia. The greatest bicycle factory in the world says so.

New Price $100

HARTFORD Bicycles, next best, $80 $60.

$50 for Boys' and Girls' sizes.

An Art Catalogue of these famous wheels free at any Columbia Agency, or will be mailed for two 2-cent stamps.

BRANCH STORES: Boston, New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Providence, Buffalo.

JOHN S. SUMNER, Agent for Columbia and Hartford Bicycles, 352 Centre St. Newton.

GENUINE BARGAINS

always to be obtained by those who are in want of

STRICTLY ALL WOOL FABRICS.

Suitable for Ladies', Gents', Youths' or Children's wear, by calling on us, where they may be found in all weights and the latest shades and styles. Full line of

WHITE BED BLANKETS.

All sizes and prices. Also

Horse Blankets for Street and Stable Use!

Remnants and Imperfect Goods Made at The Assabet Mills are sold by us and at the lowest prices. Call and examine them.

The People's Dry Goods Company,

MAYNARD, MASS.

The Salesroom is open until 6 p. m., except Saturdays; closes Saturday at 12 o'clock. Positively open as above until further notice in this paper.

Used and endorsed by Adams Express Co.

TUTTLE'S ELIXIR,

The Great Cure for Man and Beast.

$100 Reward (if not cured) for every case of Colic, Contracted and Knotted Cords, Curbs, Splint Shoe Boils (when first started), and Callosities of all kinds. Never fails to relieve Spavins, Ringbone, or Cockle Joints.

Read following from a letter dated Boston, Aug. 5, 1892:—

"TUTTLE'S ELIXIR, diluted with water and applied externally, in connection with TUTTLE'S CONDITION POWDERS, cured my horse Dandy of a sore of 6 months' standing. It also proved a success as applied to bleeding wounds on my cow's teats; a severe case of Rheumatism from which my man was suffering, was relieved at once."

Yours truly,

Tuttle's Family Elixir

Cures Rheumatism, Coughs, Colds, Lame Back, Sprains, Sore Throat, La Grippe and Pneumonia. Sample bottle FREE, or sent at any address on receipt of 2 2-cent stamps to

S. A. TUTTLE, 27 Beverly St., Boston. J. N. DANFORTH, Brighton, Agent.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

Real Estate and Insurance.

ESTABLISHED 1850. TELEPHONE 2892

HYDE'S

Real Estate Agency

31 MILK ST., ROOM 205, BOSTON, MASS.

Auctioneer, Mortgages Negotiated.

Newton Office:

JOHN A. EVANS, Agent, 67 Elmwood Street, Newton Property a Specialty.

N. Highlands Office:

Newhall's Block, Lincoln Street, Newton Highlands Property a Specialty.

ELLIOTT J. HYDE.

Established 1857.

F. G. BARNES & SON

Real Estate, Mortgage and Insurance BROKERS.

Auctioneers for Real and Personal Property, FOR SALE AND FOR RENT. A large line of desirable property throughout Newton and vicinity.

Offices: 27 State St., Boston; Brackets' Block, NEWTON.

WILEY S. & FRANK EDMANDS

178 Devonshire St., Boston.

Insurance Agents and Brokers. MORTGAGES WANTED. Newton Real Estate a Specialty.

Houses For Sale, $3000 and upwards. To Let, $25 to $100. Furnished, $35 to $250. Choice Building Lots, 10 cents to 50 cents.

For Buying and Selling

Real Estate

and placing of Mortgages

and

Fire Insurance

in every part of NEWTON apply to

Bowker & Wills,

113 Devonshire St., Boston. Members of Real Estate Exchange. Telephone No. 325.

ALVORD BROS & CO.

113 Devonshire Street, Boston

★

NEWTON REAL ESTATE, MORTGAGES AND INSURANCE.

Artistic new houses, every modern device for comfort and luxury, generous lots, aristocratic neighborhood, near station, from $6000 up. Extraordinary value for the money. Building lots near new Boulevard and in 11 other localities at lowest price. Desirable houses to rent. CIRCUIT PROPERTY A SPECIALTY.

Are You Looking For

a first class, new, modern 13 room house, in one of the most convenient, select neighborhoods in town for $13,000? If so, see us. It will please you. How about a daisy on West Newton Hill, with stable, 16,465 ft. land, magnificent view; $12,000, terms to suit. New modern houses, Hunnewell Hill, $10,500, $8,500, $7,000, $6,000, $5,000. Choice house lots, near new Hunnewell Hill Club House; others, Mt. Ida, West Newton Hills. Houses to let. Money to loan on mortgage.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,

53 State St., Boston. Elliot's Block, Newton.

Newton Land Improvement.

A. S. N. ESTES,

Landscape Engineer.

Room 503 Sears Building, 199 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON, MASS

NEWTON PROPERTY.

HOUSE AT AUBURDALE.

3 rooms, bath, 16,000 feet of land, fruit trees; near boulevard. Low price.

NEW HOUSE AT WABAN.

11 rooms, finely finished, 17,000 feet of land; for sale or to let.

HOUSE ON WEST NEWTON HILL.

11 rooms, 7,000 feet of land. Price low

FINE RESIDENCE.

10 rooms, bath, laundry, 33,000 feet of land, large shade and fruit trees; 5 minutes from station, very desirable. Price low.

OTHER HOUSES.

for sale or to let. Fine building lots, low prices, terms easy.

FRANK A. CHILDS,

27 School St., Boston, Mass.

BERKELEY SCHOOL,

Boylston, cor. Berkeley St., Boston.

Co-educational. Certificates of the school received at Smith, Wellesley, Etc. Special students for Institute, Harvard and Boston University, Law and Medical schools, etc. Catalogue mailed. ST. TAYLOR, DUMERILLE & HAGER.

WOOD FOR SALE

—AT THE—

00 NLWTON CEMETERY.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

285 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable toEDWARD D. BALDWIN,
Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

MAYOR BOTTFELD DECLINES.

None but expressions of regret are heard that Mayor Bothfeld has declined to accept a renomination. While it is wise for him to decide that his health is a matter of the first importance, it is a misfortune to the city to be deprived of the services of so able, independent and conscientious an official. The confidence felt in him has been so great, that the city council has loyally supported him in every question that has come up, and the responsibility has been an unusually heavy one during the past year, and the important improvements that were before the council demanded the closest attention and watchfulness on the part of the Mayor. His private business has also demanded a share of his attention and his health was not able to stand both burdens. His physicians have warned him that he was working too hard, and last week he had to give up and has since been confined to his bed.

He has contemplated declining a renomination for some months, but the remonstrances of those citizens who heard of it were so urgent that he let his own desires be overruled, until last Saturday, when the necessity for getting rid of some of his burdens was made so apparent that he could no longer hesitate.

Mayor Bothfeld's six years in the city government have been marked by matters of great importance that came up for decision, and his record is an unusually brilliant one. While in the common council he led the fight against the unjust system of sewer assessments that Alderman Harbach had sought to fasten on the city, and was successful in having it repealed and a fair and equitable system substituted. The election that took place when this fight was on will long be remembered for its exciting nature, and the emphatic way in which the old system was condemned.

Another measure of great importance was the Commonwealth avenue boulevard, which came up while Mr. Bothfeld was alderman and was successfully carried through.

Most important of all were the schemes for abolishing grade crossings and widening Washington street, which had been halting along under several administrations, but no practical way to settle all the problems involved was found until Mayor Bothfeld took hold of it and succeeded in getting it into such shape that the railroad and the city could agree on a plan, and begin the work. The labor involved was enormous, but the scheme is now in such shape that the end of the year will see all the details settled and the agreements signed.

Mayor Bothfeld's withdrawal now will not endanger the completion of the work, and he has certainly earned the respect and confidence of all citizens by his manly course while in office. He leaves a record that will be worthy of imitation by his successors, and all will hope that a relief from duties may bring back to him health and ability to enjoy the many great improvements he has helped to carry through. The question of his successor is likely to prove one of the most troublesome ones that a city election has had before it for some years.

A CHANGE NEEDED.

For the past few years we have tried what has been called a reform method of selecting candidates for the city council, that is, a committee of citizens get together and decide upon the candidates, and owing to the political power of the committee, they have succeeded in having only one ticket in the field. This has worked admirably as far as the mayor is concerned, but has not been a conspicuous success as regards the city council.

Opposition is an excellent thing, as it brings out the best there is in men, and what some people call "the mush of unanimity" is not a good thing in a legislative body. The plan was an excellent thing in theory, but in practice it has been a lamentable failure.

It is reported that the Republicans intend to put up a straight Republican ticket this fall, and if so the Citizens should do likewise. Let each party realize that they must put up their best men in order to win, and there will be some interest in the nominations, and better men can be secured. When a member of the city council has a unanimous nomination, and feels sure of another if he desires it, he has no incentive to put forth his best efforts, as he knows that no one is watching him, and he lacks a feeling of responsibility.

In the days of our old-fashioned campaigned the most prominent men in the city were willing to accept a nomination, as there was a good deal of excitement in the fight that ensued, and a lively interest in city politics. A nomination was not then considered equivalent to an election and the honor of winning was worth having.

Under the new plan that has been tried the past few years, there was no special honor about it, and the offices have gone begging. This ought to prove to this "non-partisan committee" that their method is a mistake, and that the old system is the better one. Let the Republicans make their straight party nominations as they are said to be contemplating and then the Citizens can correct their errors, and if they follow old traditions, put up better men, and the city will be the gainer. Holding office in such a city as Newton is an honor that is well worth fighting for.

The search for a Mayor is now the chief topic of interest, and the availability of different men is being discussed on all sides. Among the names mentioned are Mr. E. B. Haskell, who would make an excellent Mayor if he could be persuaded to run, as he has the time to attend to the duties; another gentleman whose name is looked upon with great favor is Mr. Henry E. Cobb, who represents Newton's successful business men, and whose selection would ensure a business like administration.

Mr. Cobb has the advantage of having had experience in the city council, and he is one of the few native Newtonians, which is greatly in his favor. Mr. James W. French is also spoken of by those who remember his excellent service in the city council a few years ago. He is an expert in real estate matters, which would be of great advantage to a Mayor the coming year, and he has every qualification for the office. He has a business like way of pushing things along, which would be of great importance in meetings of the board of aldermen, which are apt to stretch out to midnight unless the Mayor is decided and keeps things going. Mayors Bothfeld, Fenno and Hibbard had this quality, and the board has been kept right down to business of late years. There are many others who might be mentioned, but so far no special boom for any one candidate has been developed. The office has so many duties, and involves so much labor and responsibility, that it will be hard work to induce the right men to accept a nomination, and a good deal of pressure suitably applied will probably have to be resorted to.

MOLLY ELLIOT SEAWELL in an article in Harper's Bazar, on the arguments against woman suffrage, makes an amusing mistake in speaking of the referendum contest in Massachusetts. She says it is a contest over "woman suffrage in school affairs," when women in this state have enjoyed that privilege for years. The error can hardly be attributed solely to the feminine mind, as male writers have made much worse mistakes. Miss Seawell calls attention to the enormous property privileges women have over men, and asks the suffragists if they are willing to sacrifice these in order to have the ballot. She argues that if women gain perfect equality with men, they will lose these privileges, as equality and privileges cannot exist side by side. One of these privileges is that a wife's property can not be touched for her husband's debts, even though debtors know that the property was his in the first place, and the debts were incurred as much for her benefit as for his. The fact that some men have taken advantage of this has not caused any repeal of the law, as Miss Seawell points out that the law takes a man's estate and administers it for the benefit of his wife and family, and experience proves that it is a wise provision, as it makes a tolerably certain provision for the family.

MR. LAWRENCE BOND can well feel proud of his vote for Senator. In this city where the great majority of voters only look for the Republican tag in marking their ticket, he was able to come within 373 votes of the Republican candidate, while the party majority on the rest of the ticket was over 1300. This result was reached without any campaign work to speak of, save what was done by the newspapers. In Dr. Niles' own home, Mr. Bond was ahead by some 14 votes, which is rather striking when compared with Mr. Bond's vote in his home ward, where he received a majority of 117, although Ward Three gave a large majority for the other Republican candidate. Mr. Bond ran ahead of his ticket all through the district, but it is so strongly Republican that it could probably be carried by an even more unpopular candidate than Dr. Niles.

The early morning slumbers of many people are broken by the factory bells and whistles, in the Nonantum district, which begin their noise between five and six, and keep it up until seven. The noise not only awakens the factory people, but it is heard all over Mt. Ida, and when the wind is favorable can be heard for two miles. In these days of cheap alarm clocks factory whistles are not only unnecessary but a nuisance to a whole city, and so many complaints are made that something will have to be done about it. Newton is a residential city, and the factories on the outskirts should not make themselves any more objectionable than is absolutely necessary. Perhaps if the attention of the managers of the factories was called to these complaints the nuisance would be abated.

GOVERNOR GREENHALGE has won his re-election handsomely, and all the votes he lost by his manly and conscientious vetoes of legislative bills were more than made up to him by independent votes. His success ought to teach a lesson to political trimmers, that a fearless discharge of duty pays better than the other course. Here in Newton he received 2,312 votes to 2,254 last year. The total vote was 3,473, compared with 3,306 in 1894. Mr. Williams received 988 to 937 for John E. Russell, so that the Democrats can console themselves with the thought that their party is growing slowly. If it keeps on it will be able to carry Newton in the course of the next century or so.

The latest news about the mayoralty is that Mr. Henry E. Cobb has been persuaded to accept the nomination, having been visited by several hundred prominent citizens, the last few days. His name will be presented at the Republican convention, and there is no doubt of his nomination. Mr. Cobb's position as the head of the firm of Brewster, Cobb & Estabrooke, has given him a very wide experience in financial affairs, and this knowledge will be of great benefit to the city during the coming year when so much money will have to be provided, and there seems to be general satisfaction that such an admirably equipped candidate has consented to accept the office.

THE WALTHAM FREE PRESS the day after election has this suggestive paragraph:

Some of our friends—editorial and otherwise—have done us the honor to remark that they presumed we would support the devil (some call him Meibhistopheles, but they mean the same fellow) if he was running for an office on the Republican ticket. We say honor, for it is an honor to have confidence enough in a man to believe he will stick to his friends through thick and thin. We undoubtedly have our failings—we are not a saint—but when we form a friendship, whether social or political, it is not easily shaken off.

The Free Press seems to be in great haste to claim social and political friendship with this distinguished personage.

It is reported that the Republican Ward and City Committee will present a printed ticket in each ward caucus, to save the voters the trouble of doing anything but vote for it. The ticket will contain the names of the delegates to the city convention, names of councilmen, and it is also stated that the names of all the nominees have already been decided upon. Some people think the committee has taken a good deal upon itself, in thus deciding everything before the caucuses meet, and there are rumors of a good deal of opposition.

The monthly report of the board of health gives the death rate for October as 18.68, about the same as last year. There were 43 deaths, of which 7 were of persons over 80 years, and 7 over 70. Eleven were of children under one year, and 7 between 1 and 5 years. During the month 17 cases of diphtheria were reported, 15 of scarlet fever, 9 of typhoid fever, and 4 of measles.

Now that the election is over, it will do no harm to admit that all that Mr. Williams said about the corporation influence at the State House is true, and that there is urgent need of reform is a fact that no one disputes. Massachusetts is fast going the way of New York, Connecticut and the other states where the corporations control the legislatures.

The women of Newton gave 363 votes in favor of woman suffrage and 48 against, while the men gave a majority of 952 against it, many of them being instructed to vote by the "She that must be obeyed" by them.

It is reported that Mr. John T. Langford will succeed Alderman Hamilton as the representative from Ward One, Dr. Hamilton having refused to accept another term.

This weather will answer very well for our Indian summer.

Festival of Lanterns.

The Festival of Lanterns and sale to be given by the Women's Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. will open in Nonantum Hall, Tuesday, Nov. 12, with a table d'hôte supper, at 50 cents, and continued afternoon and evening of Wednesday. A gymnasium drill will be given each evening. It is expected to be a very attractive affair, as the ladies have been making their preparations for several weeks, and no one can afford to miss it. Admission 25 cents.

Knockabout suits for boys are just the thing for the average wide awake boy. A. Shuman & Co. sell them. See adv.

It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs a cure is the best. De Witt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform a cure, and are the best. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorne, Auburndale.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

AUCTION SALE.

Fine Corner, Chestnut St., Corner of Berkeley St., opposite Neighborhood Club, West Newton, Saturday, Nov. 9, '95,

At 3.45 o'clock P. M. on the Premises, or immediately after the sale of the River Street Estate.

Will be sold this exceptionally desirable lot of 22,600 square feet of land on the corner of Chestnut Street and Berkeley Street, with a frontage on Chestnut Street of about 200 feet, and about 100 feet on Berkeley Street containing in all about 22,600 square feet of land, surrounded by fine trees. Best location on the Hill. This lot is restricted to a residence costing not less than $10,000. $200 to be paid at time of sale. Further particulars of the auctioneer.

Edward Hatch, Auctioneer.
22 Devonshire Street, Boston.

Auction Sale.

CORNER ESTATE Mansion House

With 7,400 Square Feet of Land
River St., Corner of Henshaw St., West Newton.

Saturday, Nov. 9,

At 3 o'clock P. M. on the premises.

Will be offered this pleasantly situated, old-fashioned house of ten rooms, on a corner lot, with a total frontage on the streets of about 170 feet, containing in all about 7,400 square feet. Property near the station, and location in an established neighborhood. $200 to be paid at time of sale. Further particulars of the auctioneer.

Edward Hatch, Auctioneer,
22 Devonshire Street, Boston.

BLUE BOOK

OF NEWTON.

For 1896 and 1897.

Alphabetical and Street Lists of the Principal residents.

Street Directory, Map, Societies, Clubs, etc.

Bound in Cloth, Gold Edge, will soon be ready for Subscribers.

PRICE $1.00.

E. A. Jones, 115 Congress St., Boston.

Publishers of all Suburban Blue Books, Directories, etc.

H. P. GAMBLE,

Late of Hollander's,
274 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON.

Reception, Tailor and Evening Gowns. Top Coats and Riding Habits.

$15 AND UPWARDS.

Wedding Decorations, ARTISTIC DESIGNS

Cut Flowers and Plants.

E. T. MOREY,
Washington and Tremont Sts., near Newton Line.

MARRIED.

MCLEAN—CORKUM—At Newton Upper Falls, Nov. 3, by Rev. N. Fellows, Isaac C. McLean and Blanche A. Corkum, both of Hudson.

O'BRIEN—KINSELLA—At West Newton, Oct. 20, by Rev. L. J. O'Toole, Jeremiah O'Brien and Mary Kinsella.

PICK—JACKSON—At St. Stephen's church, Boston, Oct. 20, Samuel Clark Peck and Jane Elizabeth Jackson.

WATMOUGH—DAVIDSON—At Newton, Oct. 20, by Rev. C. A. Capen of Watertown, William Watmough and Lucy Davidson.

THOMPSON—JOUBERT—At Boston, Oct. 30, by Rev. W. S. Kelsey, James Gilbert Thompson and Emma Jeanette Joubert.

RUSSELL—MACDONALD—At West Newton, Nov. 4, by Rev. Edwin P. Burr, Samuel Russell and Marguerite Elizabeth MacDonald.

JENNISON—DOUGLASS—At West Newton, Oct. 20, by Rev. Henry J. Patrick, William Douglass and Katherine Maria Douglass.

KEANY—HART—At West Newton, Oct. 20, by Rev. L. J. O'Toole, Thomas Joseph Keany and Catherine Agnes Hart.

SMITH—ROSS—At West Newton, Nov. 3, by Rev. Jacob Birt, Edward James Smith and Mary Jane Ross.

DIED.

REAGAN—At Newton Highlands, Nov. 2, Thomas Reagan, 1 yr. 4 mo. and 19 days.

KING—At Newton, Nov. 3, James Everett King, 5 yrs. 28 days.

DEVROY—At Nonantum, Nov. 5, Elizabeth Devroy, 4 yrs.

LOWRY—At Newton, Nov. 6th, Miss Esther Lowry in her 71st year.

WOOD—At West Newton, Nov. 5, Martial F. H. Wood, Funeral at the Unitarian church, West Newton, Friday, at 2.15 p. m. Train leaves Boston, B. & A. R. R., at 1.30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Burial private. (New York papers please copy.)

Real Estate, Mortgages, Insurance

Special Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.

Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.

—OFFICES—
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington St., Boston.

HOWARD B. COFFIN,

DEALER IN
Fine Teas, Best Coffees.

AND NEWTON AGENT FOR
Deerfoot Farm Products.

363, 361 CENTRE ST. 4, 6 HALL ST
Cole's Block, Newton.

C. W. BUNTING,

Fish Market.

FISH, OYSTERS, FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.

Telephone Connection.

COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON, MASS.

Beware of Drugs

To Take Your Doctor's Advice is a good rule to follow. His advice however, and the prescription he gives are worthless unless pure drugs are taken. There is no doubt about the quality of our drugs or the care with which they are compounded at—

ARTHUR HUDSON,
380 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

Try the Lord Roseberry Cigar.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX SS. PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Eliza O'Connor late of Newton in said County, deceased. Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for probate, by Jane Corrigan who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-sixth day of November A. D. 1895, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper published in Newton the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-ninth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

STOVES

and every variety of

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

—AT—
BENT'S FURNITURE ROOMS,
64 Main St., Watertown.

Brackett's Market Company.

Established 1851. Incorporated 1892.

Telephone No. 10-3.

Commencing Oct. 1st we will sell

Sirloin Roasts at 25 cts. per lb.

" Steak at - 25 "

Rump " at - 25 "

LARGE STOCK TO SELECT FROM.

7 and 8 Cole's Block,
WASHINGTON near CENTRE ST., NEWTON.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gowdy Baker.

Water Colors.

Classes for Children and older People

Studio Opp Public Library.

ACCIDENT

cases and claims of all kinds investigated and adjusted promptly if aided with READ'S LEGAL AGENCY, 29 Devonshire St.,

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale

Special Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.

Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.

—OFFICES—
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington St., Boston.

HOWARD B. COFFIN,

DEALER IN
Fine Teas, Best Coffees.

AND NEWTON AGENT FOR
Deerfoot Farm Products.

363, 361 CENTRE ST. 4, 6 HALL ST
Cole's Block, Newton.

C. W. BUNTING,

Fish Market.

FISH, OYSTERS, FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.

Telephone Connection.

COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON, MASS.

Beware of Drugs

To Take Your Doctor's Advice is a good rule to follow. His advice however, and the prescription he gives are worthless unless pure drugs are taken. There is no doubt about the quality of our drugs or the care with which they are compounded at—

ARTHUR HUDSON,
380 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

Try the Lord Roseberry Cigar.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX SS. PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Eliza O'Connor late of Newton in said County, deceased. Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for probate, by Jane Corrigan who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-sixth day of November A. D. 1895, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper published in Newton the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-ninth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

STOVES

and every variety of

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

—AT—
BENT'S FURNITURE ROOMS,
64 Main St., Watertown.

Brackett's Market Company.

Established 1851. Incorporated 1892.

Telephone No. 10-3.

Commencing Oct. 1st we will sell

Sirloin Roasts at 25 cts. per lb.

" Steak at - 25 "

Rump " at - 25 "

LARGE STOCK TO SELECT FROM.

7 and 8 Cole's Block,
WASHINGTON near CENTRE ST., NEWTON.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gowdy Baker.

Water Colors.

Classes for Children and older People

Studio Opp Public Library.

ACCIDENT

cases and claims of all kinds investigated and adjusted promptly if aided with READ'S LEGAL AGENCY, 29 Devonshire St.,

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale

Special Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.

Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.

—OFFICES—
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington St., Boston.

NEWTONVILLE.

—Citizens' Caucus, Wednesday evening, Nov. 13, 7.30 p. m., Ward 2, Tremont Hall.

—Pianos rented and tuned, Farley, Newton.

—Miss Winifred Pulsifer is at Manchester, N. H., for a short stay.

—Mrs. Edward M. Rumery is in New York for a short stay.

—Mr. W. H. Andrews has leased the Wadsworth house, Highland avenue.

—Higgins & Nickerson have commenced work on a new house for the Misses Upton, Brookside avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Brookside avenue spent several days with friends in Fitchburg this week.

—The GRAPHIC office will be removed on Monday next to 16 Centre Place, just above the Newton railroad station.

—Miss Maggie Cummings of Appleton street has returned from a three weeks visit to Kingston, Mass.

—Mr. John Weiss of San Francisco was in town this week visiting relatives. He left Wednesday for New York City.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Quincy Cole of Old street have returned to Boston where they will occupy apartments at 9 Ashburton Place for the winter.

—Mr. W. L. Heath and daughter of Manchester, N. H., were the guests last week of Miss Clara Woodman of Newtonville avenue.

—It has been discovered that boys have been amusing themselves by smashing the windows in the old Congregational church on Washington street.

—Mr. Vieta and family, who occupied the house at the corner of Lowell and Washington streets, have removed to Concord.

—Mrs. George H. Shapley of Nevada street has returned from Atlanta, Ga., where she has been visiting the exposition.

—The "Guild Whist," to be given at the home of Mrs. Geo. Morse, will be postponed until Nov. 20. Tickets can be secured by calling upon Mrs. J. F. Bancher, Newtonville avenue.

—The trees on Washington street, above and below the square, that are an obstacle in the widening process, are being transplanted; that is, most of them. A few are being sacrificed to the woodman's axe.

—Dr. Stoddard removes from Washington street to the house occupied, until recently, by Dr. Newton on Newtonville avenue. The doctor has been ill, but has recovered and is out and about again.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Eliza Anderson, Mary E. Collins, William Curran, Cox & Pray, Paul Faber, Miss H. E. Higgins, Mrs. James Murphy, Ellen Margaret Shapley, E. Sparrit, Mrs. W. White and Ida Whitney.

—Five of the new cars have arrived for the Commonwealth Avenue Street Railway. They are beauties, vestibule pattern, and fitted with the Westinghouse motor. At present, these cars are stored in the car house of the Newton & Boston Company.

—The "Treble Clef" in a musical interpretation of some of Longfellow's poems will be the attraction at the Newton Club matinee, Tuesday, Dec. 10. Miss Alice M. Longfellow will personally direct the literary details of the program.

—Geo. Safford, formerly of this place, who is now in business in St. Louis, has been passing a few days here with relatives and friends. Geo. has a song that runs a bit like this: "The West is the place for me," etc. He lets it go at every performance, including the matinees.

—The front of the new building of the Associates on the Dennison lot will be an attractive one. Cream colored bricks will be used with a handsome cornice. There will be a hall with entrance on the second story, providing a want that the removal of the old Tremont building will render a greater necessity than ever.

—Mrs. Jean Paul Selinger, whose beautiful flower paintings are so well known, will lecture before the Newtonville Women's Guild, Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 3 p. m. in the hall of the New church, Highland avenue. Subject, "Artists Haunts in Europe." The subscription ticket of the Guild is postponed to Nov. 20. Tickets can be obtained of Mrs. J. F. Bancher, Newtonville avenue.

—Services at the M. E. church next Sunday morning at 10.45, preaching by Rev. Luther Freeman of Waltham. Evening service at 7.30. The pastor, Franklin Hamilton, will give the fourth of his popular evening talks on travel to young people. Subject, "Cape Breton's Great Salt Lake and New Brunswick's Unique River." Singing led by organ. All seats free. Come early to get a seat.

—The Congregational church Sunday evening was well filled with an appreciative congregation to listen to the harvest vesper service rendered by the male quartet of the church, assisted by Miss Julia Page, soprano, and Miss Josephine Martin, alto. A soprano and alto duet was finely rendered and the mixed quartet was very enjoyable as were also the male quartet selections.

—One couple in this ward went to the polling place together. After the lady had emerged from the booth, she went to another booth, occupied at the time by her husband, and peered over his shoulder. The warden hastened to the lady and with blushing face, and a slight tremor of voice, assured her that it was all right. She only smiled and walked away, remarking: "Why, it's all right; he is going to vote against me, anyway."

—The Boston Ideal Banjo, Guitar and Mandolin Club will give one of its pleasing concerts of popular and standard music in the Methodist church, Tuesday evening, Nov. 19. A varied program will be rendered, including the trick banjo solo by Mr. A. D. Grover. The club will also be ably assisted by Mrs. Winifred Woodside Metcalf, reader, a graduate of the Emerson College of Oratory.

—A temperance rally was held in the Methodist church Sunday evening. It attracted a large number who listened to a very entertaining and instructive address by Rev. Franklin Hamilton, who handled the subject in an able manner, impressing and receiving the close attention of his auditors. The Good Templars were in evidence and most of those present wore the "Templar" badge. The musical selections were rendered by the Loyalty quartet, comprising Miss Eva Pluta, soprano; Mrs. M. E. Beardsley, alto; M. E. Beardsley, tenor; W. H. Rand, bass.

—The announcement made by Mayor Bothfield that he will not run again has set the politicians in quite a commotion and the question of nomination for the selecting a man to succeed him, is one that affords opportunity for no end of discussion and comment. The fellow "in de political swim" who is willing to settle the matter and can find a man, provided no opposition develops from other parts of the city. But there's the rub, what suits one ward, you can gamble will not suit another. The chief lesson in political warfare in Newton is taught along the line of kicking on general principles. The problem just now is who to put up for mayor. "W. A. Mague is clamoring for ex-Mayor Kimball, but they say, too, that he has been just as much in evidence in his opposition to him, if not just now, not long since. It is opined by those who know the ex-Mayor best that he won't be, for even his bitterest political enemies admit that he possesses no small degree of sagacity and diplomacy. Ex-Alderman Rumery is talked of a good deal by Newtonville people. It looks now very much like a contest. The Republicans can be counted on to make their almost annual mistake of nominating a straight party ticket and getting in their efforts, the customary recognition of their return, a first-class thrashing at the poles.

—Mrs. J. Lyford and daughter have returned to Bridgeport, Ct., accompanied by Mrs. Lyford's mother, Mrs. Mary Jones.

—Mrs. George Morse of Newton will give a whist party on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 13, for the Newtonville Women's Guild.

—The voting was positively dull in this ward Tuesday. The best turnout of voters was in precinct 2, where 364 men and 35 women cast their ballots.

—The Waltham High school team defeated the Newton, '95 team, yesterday afternoon at Waltham, 10 to 0.

—Charles Ward Post 62, G. A. R., was inspected last night by Capt. W. B. Sears of Post 92 of Brighton. After the inspection the post, with its guests from Brighton and Brighton adjourned to the upper hall and sat down to an elaborate spread.

—In these days of changes we are not surprised to hear of anything. Therefore when we learn that a new block of stores to be opened for two days only at the Universalist church parlors, Washington Park, Newtonville, every one will be crowded to avail themselves of the "bargains." Call on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 21 and 22 at the above place and you will learn further particulars.

—Waban lodge 136, I. O. O. F., held a smoke talk in Tremont hall, last evening. The guests of the evening were members of Prospect lodge, which was accompanied by a drum corps, Gov. Gore lodge of the same city, Newton lodge of Newton, Home lodge of Newton Highlands and La Fayette lodge of Watertown. About 300 sat down to the chowder supper. Past Grand Irving T. Fitch, Alex. Griswold and Butler B. B. of the San Fernando lodge of San Fernando, California, were among the principal guests.

—An aged lady had a narrow escape from a frightful death at the Walnut street crossing, Tuesday evening. She crawled under a car just as the car was passing. There was another train at the station at the time. The express brushed the woman's garments as it sped past her over the iron. Gatekeeper Johnson rushed to her assistance and dragged her back. She had become so confused and frightened that she had started to again cross the tracks in front of the outboard passenger train then under way.

—The Newtonville Cycle Club held its annual meeting last Wednesday and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Franklin Bancher; vice-president, George F. Williams; Treasurer, George W. Brown; secretary, Mrs. George W. Brown; captain, Edward H. Kennedy; 1st Lieut., Francis H. Doane; color bearer, William J. McClellan. A committee on entertainment was appointed. The club is to hold several dances, a whist tournament, etc., during the winter months. The entertainments given by this club are of the highest order, enjoyed by members and friends. A successful season is assured.

—The first fall meeting of the Ladies Aid connected with the Unitarian Society was held Monday afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. C. J. Jaynes presented the society with a handsome copy of Andre del Sarto's Madonna. Tea was served at the close of the business meeting.

—Mrs. Dunbar will give a paper on "Symbolism in Art" at the meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club this afternoon. "Summer outings" which was to be the subject will be postponed until a later date.

—At the meeting of the Newton Veterans Firemen's Association on Wednesday evening, a committee was chosen to make arrangements for the sixth anniversary and ladies night, which will be held Dec. 11th. Capt. John Exley, who has been ill for a long time, was present and made a few remarks.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Angus Boyd, Rev. Henry Blanchard, Miss Annie M. Bond, (care Geo. H. Bond), George Bennett, Miss M. M. Rayley, Mr. G. W. Cole, (7) Miss Mary Carter, Mr. C. E. Gleason, Mrs. C. C. A. Hatch, Mrs. Ed Lane, Miss Mary A. McDonald, Mr. John Murphy, Miss Emily Neilson, Mrs. G. W. Pratt, Miss Mary Quinn, Dr. Fred W. Small, Mrs. E. Sanders, Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, Miss E. V. (2) E. Y. Whiston, (2) Miss E. M. Williams.

—Mr. Martial F. H. Wood died Tuesday at his home on Regent street after a protracted illness. Deceased was 45 years of age and was a well known Boston merchant. The funeral services were held this afternoon in the Unitarian church. Rev. J. C. Jaynes officiated at the services and the Herbert Johnson Quartet of Boston rendered several appropriate selections. The interment was in Newton cemetery.

—The West Newton Book Club met last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Pratt on Highland street. The subject under discussion was "Modern Dutch Painters."

—Mrs. David Merceer (Miss Katherine Lawrence), who has been living in Gosport, England, since her marriage, 20 years ago, sailed for America on Wednesday, with her father, Major Wm. F. Lawrence, for a few months' visit.

—At a regular meeting of Loyalty lodge, I. O. G. T. on Wednesday evening, the following officers were installed by Mr. J. F. Morton, Jr., D. G. C. of Boston: C. T. Geo. E. Massey, V. T. Chas. Chapman; Chap. Alice DeLacy; sec., Cleon Hadley; P. C. T. Geo. F. Guilford; F. S. Ida Gammons; treas., C. M. McLannan; A. S. Louise Rand; M. Henry Dow; D. M. Hattie Gunther; G. May Fogwill; S. Bertha Chapman; S. J. T. Mrs. Belle F. Wiggin.

—The latest report concerning the actual working of Woman Suffrage in Colorado comes direct from the Governor, in a letter elicited by inquiries, addressed to him by a lady of West Newton, Governor McIntire says, under date of October 29th, 1895: "You ask how the woman's vote has made itself most felt in Colorado. I think the correct answer is, through its effect upon nominations. I see nothing to indicate that your second question should have any thing but a negative reply. I see nothing to indicate that woman suffrage has resulted in unhappy or neglected homes. Replying to your third question, a very large proportion of women have voted so far. The disreputable element among women, answering your fourth question, seemed to participate less in voting than the respectable element."

—The annual meeting of the Ladies Alliance connected with the Unitarian society was held Thursday forenoon in the church parlors. The following officers were elected: Pres., Miss Mary Rogers; vice pres., Mrs. F. E. Raymond; cor. sec., Mrs. Henry Bond; sec. sec., Mrs. George Davis; treas., Mrs. Theodore Fine. The alliance begins a new line of work this season taking up the ordinary topics of daily life and denational work. The subject under discussion for the morning was "Why are people so indifferent to Unitarianism," the leading paper was read by Mrs. Henry Bond. The topic at the next meeting will be "How shall we interest our young people in the work of the church. The "Norwegian Bill" and the influence of the Sunday papers for good or bad will be discussed during the winter and any other live topics in the interest of the church work which may come up.

—Those who were so fortunate as to receive invitations to Mr. H. A. Gane's conservatory, this week, saw a very beautiful display of chrysanthemums. Besides the old friends among the flowers, there were a number of new ones, which attracted a good deal of admiration. The finest is a seedling which Mr. Gane has named "West Newton," remarkable for its bright yellow color and for its pleasant fragrance, something new in these flowers. Mr. Gane took two first prizes on this seedling at the great flower show, last week, and it promises to be a very popular variety. Another new seedling, is an anemone flowered chrysanthemum "Martha Jones," which also took a special prize at the Boston show. Some beautiful specimens of the "Picche and Manda" variety, yellow shading into white, are shown, and there are a number of white, red and of yellow varieties which seem perfect in their way. The fine weather and the sun shining directly on the flowers enables one to see them to the best effect. It is worthy of mention that a number of Mr. Gane's seedlings of former years have become popular with growers, and were represented in the prize winners at the Boston show.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Emery of Auburn, N. H., passed a week with Mrs. F. W. French of Henshaw court.

—Mr. Farrell and family of Cherry street have removed to Boston.

—St. Bernard's aid society will give a coffee party in City Hall, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 19.

—The Eschylus club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George A. Walton on Chestnut street next Monday evening.

—Mr. W. H. French and Mrs. F. W. French will pass several days with Mr. French's mother at Fall River.

—The best man at the Alden-Smith wedding at Middleboro last week was Mr. Harry S. Wells of Webster park.

—Mrs. J. C. Burrage formerly of Boston has moved into her new home.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Pettigrew entertained Mrs. Albert Moore of Fitchburg for a week.

—Miss Alice K. Thompson of Middleboro is the guest of friends here.

—Loyalty lodge, I. O. G. T., will hold a social in Good Templars hall, Saturday evening.

—A socialable meeting of the meeting of the Ladies Sewing Circle in the vestry of the Baptist church last Wednesday evening. Games were participated in by the young people and a pleasing program presented.

—Mrs. Ham, formerly of Washington street, has removed to Brockton.

—Mr. A. P. Slocum and family of New Britain, Conn., have been the guests of Mrs. W. J. Fiske of Washington street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bennett of Lincoln park are expected home next Sunday. They have been in Europe for the past six weeks.

—Mr. E. E. Burdon of Webster street is enjoying a short hunting trip in the woods of Maine.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Tracey of Temple street have the sympathy of their many friends in their recent bereavement.

—One of the plate glass windows in A. Freeman Fisher's store was broken Monday morning by a runaway horse owned by Dr. Bishop.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barry, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barry of Auburn, Maine, have returned to their home in Providence, R. I.

—W. J. Farshaw reported to the Newton police yesterday afternoon, that his grocery store on Chestnut street was broken into Wednesday night. Entrance was obtained by the office window. The cash drawer, containing about $5 in change, was stolen, but nothing else was disturbed.

—Last Wednesday evening a number of gentlemen connected with the Congregational church met at the residence of the pastor, Rev. T. P. Prudden, D. D., to form a workers committee to help in the work of the church. A number of them are at the near future to discuss and plan the winter work.

—The first fall meeting of the Ladies Aid connected with the Unitarian Society was held Monday afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. C. J. Jaynes presented the society with a handsome copy of Andre del Sarto's Madonna. Tea was served at the close of the business meeting.

—Mrs. Dunbar will give a paper on "Symbolism in Art" at the meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club this afternoon. "Summer outings" which was to be the subject will be postponed until a later date.

—At the meeting of the Newton Veterans Firemen's Association on Wednesday evening, a committee was chosen to make arrangements for the sixth anniversary and ladies night, which will be held Dec. 11th. Capt. John Exley, who has been ill for a long time, was present and made a few remarks.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Angus Boyd, Rev. Henry Blanchard, Miss Annie M. Bond, (care Geo. H. Bond), George Bennett, Miss M. M. Rayley, Mr. G. W. Cole, (7) Miss Mary Carter, Mr. C. E. Gleason, Mrs. C. C. A. Hatch, Mrs. Ed Lane, Miss Mary A. McDonald, Mr. John Murphy, Miss Emily Neilson, Mrs. G. W. Pratt, Miss Mary Quinn, Dr. Fred W. Small, Mrs. E. Sanders, Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, Miss E. V. (2) E. Y. Whiston, (2) Miss E. M. Williams.

—Mr. Martial F. H. Wood died Tuesday at his home on Regent street after a protracted illness. Deceased was 45 years of age and was a well known Boston merchant. The funeral services were held this afternoon in the Unitarian church. Rev. J. C. Jaynes officiated at the services and the Herbert Johnson Quartet of Boston rendered several appropriate selections. The interment was in Newton cemetery.

—The West Newton Book Club met last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Pratt on Highland street. The subject under discussion was "Modern Dutch Painters."

—Mrs. David Merceer (Miss Katherine Lawrence), who has been living in Gosport, England, since her marriage, 20 years ago, sailed for America on Wednesday, with her father, Major Wm. F. Lawrence, for a few months' visit.

—At a regular meeting of Loyalty lodge, I. O. G. T. on Wednesday evening, the following officers were installed by Mr. J. F. Morton, Jr., D. G. C. of Boston: C. T. Geo. E. Massey, V. T. Chas. Chapman; Chap. Alice DeLacy; sec., Cleon Hadley; P. C. T. Geo. F. Guilford; F. S. Ida Gammons; treas., C. M. McLannan; A. S. Louise Rand; M. Henry Dow; D. M. Hattie Gunther; G. May Fogwill; S. Bertha Chapman; S. J. T. Mrs. Belle F. Wiggin.

—Mr. and Mrs. George D. Harvey and family are spending a few weeks in New York.

—Mrs. E. M. Bunker has returned from Maine.

—Miss Taylor entertained a small company of friends on Wednesday at a dainty lunch in her charming cottage.

—The Evening Club meets on Tuesday next.

—The GRAPHIC office will be removed on Monday next to 16 Centre Place, just above the Newton railroad station.

—Mr. Ehrick R. Jones has returned to Brunswick, Va.

—W. H. H. Davis and Miss Florence Blake of Boston and Mrs. Henry E. Johnson of Amherst are guests of Geo. L. Johnson this week.

—Rev. Mr. Bishop will next Sunday preach at the Emmanuel church, Newton, and Rev. Mr. Merrill will occupy his pulpit here.

—Mr. Arthur Standish has returned from his hunting trip in Maine and reports excellent luck, bringing home a handsome deer as a specimen of it.

—Just 364 votes were cast in this precinct Tuesday. Forty were women voters and fourteen of those voted "no" on the referendum.

—A large delegation from this place attended the public installation of Meridian Lodge A. F. and A. M. at Natick, Wednesday evening.

—Miss Gertrude Cross, who has been the guest of the Misses Sawyer of Seminary avenue, has returned to Boston to resume her studies in the Normal Art School.

—Miss Harriet Cutler, recently returned from Spain, has given some very interesting addresses, describing the work in Mrs. Alice Gordon's Gulek's school in San Sebastian. On Wednesday she addressed the Women's Missionary Association in Park Street church.

—Prof. Horatio W. Parker of Yale University has returned from Atlanta where he made the awards for musical instruments, books and compositions. A silver medal was given for an aluminum violin.

—The Rev. Geo. E. Merrill, D. D., pastor of the Baptist church, Newton, author of "The Story of the Manuscripts" and "The Reasonable Christ," will preach at the Methodist church on exchange with the pastor next Sunday morning.

—There are letters at the post office for R. Mitchell, Geo. S. Roberts, George Williams, Miss Eliza Berry, Mrs. W. B. Davis, Mrs. C. F. Hammond, Mrs. Amy Johnson, Emma Newhall, Mrs. W. S. Ross, Miss Lillie Williams and Mrs. Margaret Hamrahan.

—Tuesday morning Officer John Quilty had three boys, names respectively Henry Ferriek, aged fourteen, Thomas Ferriek, aged thirteen, and Thomas Cullen, aged twelve, in the police court, for cruelty to dumb animals. It appears that the three boys were passing the horse of Mrs. Page on Melrose street, Tuesday afternoon of last week when a cat, belonging to Mrs. Page, ran across the lawn. Something possessed the youths and they at once began brutally stoning it. Judge Kennedy, after listening to their story, and those of witnesses produced by Officer Quilty, found them guilty and imposed the following fines: Henry Ferriek, $5; Thomas Ferriek, $2; Thomas Cullen, $4.

—Monday, Nov. 4th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Jones on Lake street, Waltham, Miss Bessie Bosworth, daughter of Officer Bosworth, of Auburndale, and George Percy Newton of Worcester were united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Weeks, also of Worcester. The best man was Harry Stoddard, an intimate friend of the groom, the maid of honor, Miss Millie Newton, sister of the groom. The bridesmaids were Misses Ethel Jones, Ethel Wentworth, Abbie Marsh and Helen Bosworth. At seven o'clock the wedding march was rendered by Miss Mary Flint, the groom and best man entered at one door and awaited the bride, who, dressed in white Swiss muslin and orange blossoms, preceded by the small bridesmaids and the maid of honor, entered at the opposite door. After the ceremony, followed the congratulations of the many friends present, after which refreshments were served by Caterer Farmer. The house was decorated with evergreen, ferns and cut flowers and there were a number of both useful and ornamental presents. Mr. and Mrs. Newton started on their wedding trip, leaving at 10 o'clock for Concord, N. H. They will spend a few days at Norwich, Conn., after which they will reside at Worcester. Mrs. Newton will be missed by her friends, as she was a favorite among them.

—Miss Anna Culver's Thursday evening lecture on "The Carmen Sylva, the Poetess of Rumania," was listened to with interest by the school and a considerable number of outside friends, who came despite the rainy weather.

—On Saturday the usual party attended the symphony concert in the evening.

—On Sunday morning parties attended the services of various Boston churches, Trinity, Rugles Street, the Cathedral, and Church of the Advent.

—Mr. Bragdon took a number of the students to Prospect Hill on Monday afternoon, and in the evening another party to hear Gen. Jno. B. Gordon speak on "The Last Days of the Confederacy."

—Miss Call began on Tuesday her class-work in concentration.

—On Tuesday evening Mr. Bragdon took a few of the students to hear a recital at Newtonville. A party of sixty heard Melba on Thursday evening.

—Prof. Comstock is a guest of Miss Mason's on Hancock street.

—Mr. Charles Ring is suffering with an attack of malaria.

—Mrs. John Frost is under the doctor's care and is reported quite ill.

—Mr. H. W. Dwight and family are at Pittsfield.

—Mrs. C. C. Drake, Mrs. S. Drake and Miss Annie Washburn have removed to Waltham.

—The Review Club will meet at Mrs. Fisher's, Tuesday, November 12th, at 10 o'clock.

—Mr. L. Bertis Bell, who has been visiting here during the summer months, has returned to his home in Ashland.

—Mrs. Howard Crandell has been confined to the house with illness, but is now recovering.

—Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Butler will give a reception in aid of the Deaconess Home Hospital, on Tuesday, Nov. 12, from 10 o'clock, at their residence, corner of Woodland road and Vista avenue. Guests will be provided with little bags in which they are requested to number their years with pennies, or if they are too modest for that, a dollar or two will do as well.

—A pleasant social event last Saturday evening was the 25th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Almy of Woodbine street. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Almy held an informal reception, and received the congratulations of more than 250 friends from the Newtons and Boston. They were assisted in receiving their guests by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Almy of Portsmouth, N. H., and Mr. George Almy of Newton. The receiving party stood in a recess in the main parlor, decorated by a grouping of palms and rubber plants. In the adjoining refreshment room the tea and coffee were served by Mrs. Wm. W. Cutler of Auburndale and Miss Winifred Jenison of West Newton.

KEEP OUT THE COLD

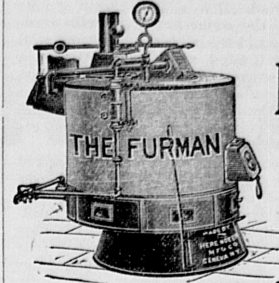

Outside or Storm Windows.

E. W. BAILEY & CO., 22 and 24 Kneeland St., Boston, Mass.

DOORS, WINDOWS AND BLINDS.

SEND FOR PRICES.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

Wolcott & Pratt, Practical Plumbers Heating Engineers.

SOLE AGENTS

MAGEE FURNACES and RANGES. NEWTONVILLE.

MINER ROBINSON ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

12 Pearl St., Room 27, Boston. Order Office, 421 Centre St., Newton.

ELECTRIC LIGHT

Boston, 3311. TELEPHONES—W. Newton, *234.

NEWTON *255-2.

SIMPSON BROTHERS, CONTRACTORS FOR

Concrete Walks, Driveways,

Asphalt Floors and Artificial Stone Walks.

We have been awarded the Sidewalk Contract for the City of Newton for 1895, and are ready to receive orders or give estimates for work in private grounds.

P. O. Address, Newton, or Boston Office, Room 58 Telephone 1155 Boston. 166 Devonshire St. REFERS TO 20 YEARS WORK IN NEWTON.

ATWOOD'S MARKET.

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Fine Fruit, Vegetables, The Choicest Fish and Meats.

Mr. Atwood's long experience gives him unusual facilities for securing the best things in the market.

371 CENTRE ST., NEWTON. Telephone 122-2.

FRED A. HUBBARD.

Pharmacist

P. O. Block, NEWTON.

SUNDAY CLOSING HOURS:

From 10.30 A. M. to 12 M.: 2 P. M. to 4 P. M.

WINTER BOARD FOR HORSES.

Hosmer Farm, Concord, Mass.

Terms, $2.50 and $3 per week.

Newton and Boston references furnished.

ADDRESS

GEO. M. BAKER, 2d, Proprietor, Telephone, Concord 9-3 CONCORD, MASS.

AYER'S HYGIENIC COFFEE.

A Health Drink, Nerve and Brain Food.

A vegetable and cereal compound; contains all the elements one's system requires.

Prepared by J. M. AYER, of Boston. A Vegetarian for many years.

Price 20 Cts. per Pound, or by mail 40 Cts.

DIRECTIONS: Prepare the same as Coffee, using not more than two-thirds as much for same amount of water, or one tablespoon to a pint.

Follow the directions and you will use no other.

A SUBJECT RACE.

They knew not whence the tyrant came;
They did not even know his name.
Yet he compelled them one and all
To bow in bondage to his thrall.
And from their lips allegiance wrung,
Although a stranger to their tongue.

Whilst he was wrapped in royal state
Their hours of toil were long and late
No moment could they call their own
Within the precincts of the throne,
And when they dreamed their work was o'er
He only made them slave the more.

Although the conquering king was he
Of people who had once been free,
No word of praise or promise fell
From him his subjects served so well,
And none of those who crowned him lord
Received a shadow of reward.

Obedience to his behest
Destroyed their peace, disturbed their rest.
Yet when his drowsy eyes grew dim
No mortal dared to wake him.
They stole about with stealthy tread—
"The baby is asleep," they said.
—Ellen T. Fowler in Longman's Magazine.

THE MILK WHITE DOE

The sound was so faint that only the ears of the skilled huntsman might hear it.

It came from hundreds of tiny hoofs, snuffed by the grass in the mountain park.

"Antelope!"
Together we lay face downward, I and my Indian guide, with our long rifles at easy rest, and awaited the coming of the band. It dashed over a hogs-back and into full view, a wildly leaping, straggling, undulating mass of reddish brown, white tufted bodies stretched to the fullest speed.

Nervous? Yes, for in a moment more the band would pass us within easy range.

We lay with forefingers on the triggers as the timid animals, wild with fear, skimmed along as if wafted by the spirit of the wind. Now they are directly opposite. We will never have such another shot.

Onward they dash and pass so closely by that it seems we can hear their heartbeats. Their great, liquid eyes are wild with terror.

Another moment and the herd has swept by us; only the hindmost are in view. Now they are out of hearing and presently are lost to sight.

Absolute silence, save for the rustle of the brown grass as the cooling autumn wind stirs it.

Not a shot was fired. My finger was upon the trigger, my arm certain, but I lacked the power even for the gentle pressure necessary to send a bullet straight into the herd. I was under a spell.

I looked at Pablo. His dark face seemed almost pale; his eyes betrayed excitement, not the excitement of anger or fear, but of a tender sympathy.

The same power that had staid my finger when it would have pressed the trigger had a like effect upon him.

"Senor," he said, "it is the milk white doe that none may slay."

It was overpowering curiosity that had rendered my forefinger inflexible, for at the head of the band was the most beautiful animal I had ever seen—a milk white doe. She seemed fleetest, more timid, and of more graceful contour than any of the herd. She was the perfection of animal grace and beauty.

I fancied I heard a soft, sad moan as she passed before the muzzle of my rifle. I was lost briefly in pathetic contemplation, and the herd was gone.

"Come, Pablo, it is almost dusk, but we must follow. Come, stir yourself, you unenthusiastic son of Montezuma, and let us be gone."

"Senor," said Pablo, in his calm and imperturbable manner, yet with a solemn impressiveness, "it is death to all who follow the milk white doe."

"Nonsense; I must have her. Let us follow quick."

"Have patience, senor, and tonight when we smoke by the campfire I will tell you the legend of the milk white doe."

And this is the legend he told me:

Before the white man knew there was a western continent, before the Spaniards came, even before the reign of the ancient Quetzalcoatl, lord of the Seven Caves of Navatlahues and king of the Seven Nations, out of which arose the splendor of the Montezuman empire, the powerful tribes lived in the north. They were as the sands of the shore washed by the great ocean of the rising sun, and the numbers of their arrows were greater than the twigs in the forest.

Their queen was Maxtella. Her skin was as white as the snow on yonder mountain peak, her lips were as scarlet as the flaming loco blossom, her eyes were as blue as the chalchuites in the Minas de las Perdidas, and from their liquid depths beamed truth and purity of soul.

She was a virgin queen. Her courtiers wooed her in vain. The richest of them all laid his wealth of chalchuites and beautiful shells at her feet. The mightiest hunter brought her trophies of the chase. To all she spoke words of wisdom and beauty, but her love was for no one man; it was for all her people. Her virtue and her beauty were the marvels of those days.

Her counselors were wise beyond their generation. Many things they knew that were unknown to the subjects of Queen Maxtella. They knew of the eastern ocean, of a great country beyond to which their ancestors had gone years before.

The northern hordes were at peace. So powerful were they that the tribes in the south did not dare to make war with them, nor would the queen suffer her subjects to make war upon those weaker hordes who dwelt in rocks and caves, high up in the cliffs that bordered on the green canyons.

There was a vassal chief, Azul, of lowly birth and evil ways. He saw the beautiful Maxtella, and the sight of her touched his black heart. He loved Maxtella not for her virtue nor her wisdom. He loved her that he might rule the land, and that from his blood and hers might come a race of savage kings, and that the northern hordes might make war upon the tribes of the south and despoil them of their treasure.

Azul knew the black magic art. He brought his richest treasure to Maxtella's court. He used his black art that he might appear pleasing in her sight. His arms and throat were bare. On his head was a snowy white helmet, and his dress was of green feathers. His breast-plate of feather work gleamed like jewels when the sun shone upon it. Tall and straight was this vassal chief and mighty was his stride. Great blue and blood red stones shone in the middle of his sword.

But the counselors were wise men. They could see his black heart and read his evil mind, and they spurned him with scorn. They would have driven him from the court. The vassal chief held in his hand a wand, sharp pointed like a knife, by which he worked his magic art.

When the queen appeared, he looked at her and turned pale. Azul's eyes pierced her, but his magic was not strong enough to make her love him. Until then she knew not fear, but now the evil spell was upon her. All of Azul's power was exerted to subdue her gentle heart.

When she went to walk, a wolf sprang up in her path, sharp stones cut through the deerskin and wounded her feet.

Near by was a spring of healing water, but when Maxtella went to drink of it a foul odor of poisonous gases arose.

She sought her couch, but Azul had driven sleep away. When she was alone, the black hearted vassal chief would suddenly appear and with thongs of the deer would beat her white body until his savage lashes drew drops of blood.

All things could he make Maxtella do but love him. False words she spoke to her counselors and did unholy deeds that made her courtiers bow their heads in shame. No more was Maxtella just or merciful. Cruelty, pitiless cruelty, turned her love of her subjects to hate.

Of her attendants who remained faithful none was more so than a little page, a boy of not more than a score of years. These two sat one eye within the palace. The dusky shadows were gathering without, but the night could only bring added wretchedness to Maxtella. The boy sang to her, and as his song died away a black shape entered the room. It was Azul.

"Thy song is sad," he said to the page. "Why do you not weep, Maxtella?"

The rivers of Maxtella's eyes were dried up.

"Now I will teach you how to weep," and he struck her with his cruel thong.

Maxtella turned upon him her timid, pleading eyes. With a mighty bound the youth leaped toward the chief and seized the magic wand. Its possession gave him the strength of many men. He struck the wretch a blow and pinned him to the floor. Azul writhed in pain, and the blood dyed his dress of feathers crimson. None but a wizard might ever loose him. With the blow the spell he had wrought on Maxtella was broken, and all her gentleness and purity returned. It was this that caused her to pity the bleeding wretch, squirming in agony, yet furious with rage. She reached down her delicate hand to withdraw the wand if it were possible, when Azul seized her by the arm and buried his sharp, gleaming teeth into the hand extended in mercy.

Maxtella, unable to release herself, shrieked in pain, for the bite of the sorcerer was as deadly as the poison of the snake with the castanets in his tail.

"Now is thy blood mingled with mine!" hissed Azul, "and of thy own free will! Now are we one forever. By my living hate and the mingling of our blood I have supremest power over thee. Coward thou hast ever been; coward thou shalt ever be. Thy spirit shall pass from thee in the form of the creature thou most resemblest—a doe, timid of heart, fleet of foot and spotlessly white. None may slay thee, yet thou wilt ever long for the dart that would release the spell. Thy spell shall shame the fleetest of the herd, and thy matchless beauty shall ever lure the hunter to his death."

And with these words a milk white doe darted from the palace walls, trembling with fright. It hides in brakes and canyons and flees when no hunter is nigh.

Hundreds have seen it, and many have been lured to pursue it. The fallen rocks from canyon walls hide the course of many a hunter who sought to slay the milk white doe. None has ever returned to tell the story of those chases. And those who escaped the canyon's dangers—their bones lie bleaching in eternal snow.—Chicago Times-Herald.

From Minerals, Vegetables.

It has long been a dream of the evolutionist that the vegetable kingdom has evolved from the mineral, as he believes that the animal has evolved from the vegetable, and it may be that in the fairy figures on our window panes we are witnessing, as it were, the efforts of nature to effect this transformation. We are taught that the earth was once too hot to support the life of plants, but that after the surface had cooled, trees, shrubs and mosses sprang up. Whence did they come?

A frosted window pane shows us the strange phenomenon of inorganic matter assuming the shapes of ferns and leaves and fronds, and may perhaps represent to our eyes in miniature a process which went on on a large scale during the pre-vegetable era of our earth's history. This idea is as old as the Jewish Cabala, where we read, "The breath became a stone, the stone a plant, the plant an animal, the animal a man, the man a spirit, the spirit a god."—London Spectator.

Enlightening Her.

She—Before we were married you used to think the world of me, but now you do not care for me at all.

He—But you should remember that we are one now, and self love, you know, is distinctively bad form.—Boston Transcript.

HELPING HIM ALONG.

One time a bashful suitor said:
He'd ask the maiden of his choice
If she—Just here his courage fled,
And quavers trembled in his voice.
Still once again he went to work
To indicate his longings vain
And said, "I fear I'm like a cork
That holds some brilliant champagne."
"Ah," laughed the maid with rosy hue,
As passion brought him to a stop,
"I understand you fully. You Must be drawn out before you'll pop."
—Lippincott's.

ZETTE.

Upon the posters which hung on the outside of the carriage she was styled "Mlle. Antonia, Somnambule Extralucide."

Her mother called her Zette—her real name was Suzanne.

She was a pretty girl, not very large, with fair complexion and long black hair that she let float about her during her consultations, though ordinarily she wore it in a loose coil upon the nape of a neck that was perfect.

Never having done much work, her hands were delicate and well shaped. She was enough of a coquette to wish to keep them so. She had a finely modeled form, and to have seen her simply dressed in some quiet color, with the gait of a wise little workwoman, one would never have suspected her strange calling.

Her mother, Mme. Flourey was as little like others of her class as her daughter. About her there was nothing in common with the shrews who frequent fairs in red dresses and soiled skirts.

She had the air of a little merchant who was good and proper, with a winning, honest smile, and people stopped before the carriage and even entered there (without thinking of the charlatanism on the posters) in order to see the interior of this small dwelling that smelled so sweet.

The vehicle was painted brown, with a thread of gold running the lengths of the plinths. There was a tiny balcony in front of it, and this balcony convolvulus and nasturtium vines, planted in boxes, twined about wires up to the roof, where they clustered in bright hued bunches.

Along the route persons stared in amazement at this queer coach all covered with garlands of flowers.

The two women were always together, but associated very little with their neighbors. They were not proud, and having the best of hearts were the first to offer to care for a sick child or to give to others in distress. Indeed the foreigners who knew them well loved them sincerely, even though they did feel somewhat oppressed by what they termed "their grand manners."

There was, however, some one who was all devotion to Zette and her mother.

It was a young gymnast of two and twenty in a large traveling circus that had very nearly the same itinerary as Mme. Flourey. His name was Jacques, but on the playbills they spelled it Jack.

He was exceedingly handsome and of no common type. There was fire in his eyes and much intelligence in his smile.

There was, too, much tenderness in this same smile, especially when he spoke to Zette. His love for this pretty brunette—so unlike any other woman he had seen about him in his wandering life—was very sincere.

Near her he felt himself quite another man to what he was in the circus. There was such an atmosphere of honesty surrounding Zette that his own manners, when with her, were altogether different from what they had been, and he was astonished at how well they became him.

Then, too, he had dreamed of being loved by this sweet girl and of never being separated from her. Their positions accorded admirably. His salary was good, and some day perhaps he might enter one of the great circuses of Lyons or Paris. It would be charming to find so sweet a little wife awaiting his coming after his work was done.

He had often spoken to Zette of these plans. He loved her so dearly that it could not be possible she did not love him at least a little.

Zette always listened silently, visibly touched by what she heard, and he thought each time she would say "Yes," but when he had finished by asking, with such pleading in his eyes, "Will you be my wife, Zette?" she replied very gravely, "No."

Then Jacques would be astonished. Why not? Could it be that she did not believe him when he said he loved her; that she had no confidence in him; that she did not love him?

"Yes, I love you," Zette answered sweetly, "but I do not wish to marry you."

And she would never say why.

One day, however, Mme. Flourey blamed her for refusing the hand of this brave lad.

"Listen, mother," she said. "I adore Jacques, and I believe I shall always remain single because I do not wish to marry him. Do you remember the day when we went together to the circus? I saw as we entered how all the women who were there turned their longnettes toward him, and afterward they smiled and talked about him and tried to attract his attention by applauding him. I ought perhaps to have been proud to think that this man whom they all wanted loved me, and that I had only to say the word to be his wife. Ah, well, in my heart there was nothing but jealousy. I wanted to tear the longnettes away from those women. From what I suffered that evening I understood how much more I might suffer if we were married. No, that cannot be. He is too handsome. See? Suppose some day, when he had grown tired of me, one of those women should take him from me. I would die surely. You know now, mother, why I cannot say yes."

But notwithstanding this obstinate refusal, which he could not explain, Jacques came every day. He no longer mentioned the subject to Zette, understanding that he was contending against a fixed resolve, except once when he said to her: "You will not have me, Zette, and I do not wish any other woman. Some day, though, you may change your mind, and then you need only hold out your hand and say to me, 'Let us be married, and it will make me happy.'"

So after thus simply settling the affair Jacques was like a brother in the house. It was he who in the springtime planted the seeds in the boxes upon the little balcony. It was he who twined the tendrils about the wires, and it was he who at all seasons furnished the gilded porcelain vases that held the flowers.

These flowers were a great luxury to Zette.

This state of things did not long continue, however. The young girl was now 20 and Jacques 26. One evening he presented his friends with tickets to the circus. It was the last day of a long continued fair, and Zette and her mother had nothing to do. So they decided themselves in their best and went early.

Mme. Flourey was much amused with the horses, the rope dancers, the clowns, the trained dogs. Zette thought only of Jacques, whose name on the programme occupied a line to itself, and whose apparatus was hanging up at the top of the high tent. The latter consisted of bars, with copper balls that shone, a maze of trapezes, ropes and pulleys, and the young girl, a little frightened, inquired if it all was secure.

At last the first part of the performance was over, and keeping time to a slow waltz Jacques appeared. He was as beautiful as a god in his silk tights, that displayed to advantage his superbly molded form, and for the rest, his costume consisted of a black satin caleçon, spangled with gold.

After having responded by a bow to the applause of the crowd and by a smile to Zette's smile, he darted up a rope to his trapeze.

The preliminaries were gone through with amid prolonged bravos, for the handsome gymnast was a favorite, and it was truly a pleasure to see him act—the supple body so pliant, yet so marvelously exact in its movements.

Then there came silence—even the orchestra was still.

It was to be the hit of the evening and a new feat that was to give an added glory to the circus. He was to leap from one trapeze to another, with his face and head covered, then suddenly drop from this giddy height upon a net stretched below him. The two trapezes were swinging with a regular movement.

Jacques, standing on a little board, his head enveloped in a black velvet bag, put forth his hand blindly. The crowd held its breath. The man was going to jump—he had jumped!

A piercing cry rent the air.

Missing the second trapeze, which had been badly regulated, Jacques fell to the net, but it proved too frail to support his weight, and striking upon the seats he rolled to the ground, where he lay motionless.

With a cry of horror, Zette sprang to her feet, rigid and pale, her eyes fixed upon the spot where the men were now carrying away the apparently lifeless body of her friend.

Then suddenly seizing her mother's arm, "Come," she said in a hollow voice.

Breaking through the crowd, the two women reached the stables, but were refused admission. For a long while they remained at the entrance, listening to what was said around them, but no one knew anything. Finally Mme. Flourey saw a clown whom she recognized as one of Jacques' friends. He was just coming out of the refreshment room when she called him.

"The net broke the force of the fall," said the man, whose face looked troubled, even under the paint. "The doctor says he will be lame for life, and that this ends for him his profession as a gymnast. Poor fellow! But he has something laid up for a rainy day."

Mme. Flourey looked at Zette. She was very pale, and her eyes were fixed upon the man as he spoke as though trying to find if he lied. At last she said, "Let us go."

And thanking the clown by a gesture she left the circus.

The two women did not speak as they traversed the grounds of the fair, and they were still silent as they ascended their own little stairway. But when Mme. Flourey had lighted the candle she saw Zette sitting beside the bed, with a strange smile on her lips. She felt frightened for her and went to her.

"Of what are you thinking, little daughter?" she asked, trying to reassure herself.

Then Zette laid her head upon her mother's shoulder, with a childlike gesture.

"I think—that now I can marry Jacques," she told her.—From the French in Romance.

Their Trilby Club.

They were a party of gushing young girls.

"Oh, say," began the one in blue ribbons, "I've a splendid idea. Let's organize a Trilby club."

"Oh, yes," chimed in the others, "that would be delightful. How shall we manage?"

"Why," said the first speaker, "we'll all wear Trilby hats, and Trilby shoes, and Trilby gowns, and we'll sing Trilby songs and jabber French phrases along with our English, the way Trilby did, and—"

The prim girl at the edge of the group listened eagerly at first, but as the plan unfolded an expression of disgust and horror crept over her face. She could now contain herself no longer and interrupted with:

"Dress just like Trilby! Indeed I won't, and I'm astonished that any of you should propose such a thing. Is it possible that you are all ambitious to become living pictures?"—Buffalo Express.

She Knew Him.

"He will turn the tables on you if you are not careful," said one woman to another, who was berating her husband.

"Turn nothing!" she exclaimed. "He's so lazy he wouldn't turn a table if it was on rollers."—Detroit Free Press.

MERITED REWARD.

SALES OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

Unequalled in the History of Medicine. Honesty, Excellence, Faithfulness Fully Rewarded.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Never in the history of medicine has the demand for one particular remedy for female diseases equalled that attained by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and never in the history of it is today.

From Maine to California, from the Gulf to the St. Lawrence, come the glad tidings of woman's suffering relieved by it; and thousands upon thousands of letters are pouring in from grateful women, saying that it will and does positively cure those painful

Just for Health, Lydia E. Pinkham

Ailments of Women.

It will cure the worst forms of female complaints, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb, and consequent spinal weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the change of life.

Every time it will cure Barkache.

It has cured more cases of leucorrhoea, removing the cause, than any remedy the world has ever known; it is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills work in unison with the Compound, and are a sure cure for constipation and sick-headache. Mrs. Pinkham's Sanative Wash is frequently found of great value for local application. Correspondence is freely solicited by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., and the strictest confidence assured. All druggists sell the Pinkham's remedies. The Vegetable Compound in three forms. — Liquid, Pills, and Lozenges.

Expressmen.

CHAMBERLAIN'S NEWTONVILLE AND BOSTON EXPRESS

Newtonville Office: Tainter's, 286 Walnut St. Boston Office: 105 Arch. 45 Chatham St. Leave Newtonville 9:30 A. M. Leave Boston 2:30 P. M.

HOLMES'

Baggage Express.

You can always find one of Holmes' Express men at their stand, Newton Baggage Room from 6:30 A. M., to 8 P. M., where a call may be left, or leave orders at G. P. Atkins' Garage, or by Telephone Call at Hubbard & Froster's Apothecary.

Furniture and Piano Moving, also Crochery and Pictures carefully packed for transportation.

General Jobbing every description promptly attended to.

Residence: 15 Adams Street, Newton, Mass.

PEARSON'S

Newton and Boston Express.

Boston Office: 91 Kilby St., 105 Arch St., 33 Court St., Order Box, 91 Faneuil Hall Market. Newton Office: H. B. Coffin's; Order Boxes: Post Office and Blanchard & Atkins'. Leave Newton, 9:30 A. M. Leave Boston, 3 P. M.

NEWCOMB & SNYDER,

Newton and Boston Express.

Leave Newton, 7:30 and 9:30 A. M.; leave Boston, 12 M. and 3 P. M. Newton Office: 334 Centre St. Order Box: Newton City Market. Boston Office: 15 Devonshire St., 174 Washington St., 34 Court St., 25 Merchants Row, 67 Franklin St., 11 Harrison Ave. Extension. P. O. Box 420, Newton. Personal attention given all orders. Tel. 279-2.

JOHN J. HORGAN,

MONUMENTS

Headstones, Tablets, Posts, Markers and Statues. Fine work at Manufacturer's Prices.

45-63 MAIN STREET, CAMBRIDGEPORT. Newton and Watertown cars stop at the door.

F. IVERS & SON,

BUILDERS OF High Grade Road Wagons.

Rubber Tires and Ball Bearings Axles applied to Carriages.

Carriage Repairing a Specialty.

1953-1963 Massachusetts Ave., No. Cambridge.

Newton National Bank, NEWTON, MASS.

BUSINESS HOURS: From 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 4 P. M. On Saturdays, from 9 A. M., to 12 M.

JOSEPH N. BACON, President. HANKLIN HADON, Cashier.

If your DOOR TRIMMINGS look old and dingy they give a caller a bad impression. Just call at

BARBER BROTHERS and see some of the New patterns.

Legal Notices.

CITY OF NEWTON.

REGISTRARS OF VOTERS,

1895.

City Election, Tuesday, December 3rd

Registration of Women.

Notice is hereby given that the Registrars of Voters, commencing Wednesday, November 6th, 1895, will hold sessions for the registration of Voters, including women fully qualified, and to correct and revise the Ward Lists at the City Clerk's office, City Hall, daily from 8:30 A. M. to 12 M.; except Wednesday, November 13th, as hereinafter stated; and from 2 P. M. to 5 P. M.; except Saturday, November 17th, when the hours are from 8:30 A. M. to 12 M.; also

At City Hall, Friday, November 8th, 7:30 to 9 o'clock P. M.

Newton Centre-Associates' Hall, Pleasant street, Saturday, November 9, 3 to 5 o'clock P. M. and 7:30 to 9 o'clock P. M.

At City Hall, Wednesday, November 13, from 12 M. to 10 o'clock P. M., which is the last session of the Registrars preceding the Election of December 3, 1895, and after 10 o'clock P. M. of said November 13, 1895, the Registrars will not, before the Election, add any names to the Register, except the names of voters examined as to their qualifications since the preceding thirtieth day of April.

RAILROADS.

WEST END STREET
RAILWAY COMPANY

TIME TABLE.

Subject to change without notice.

Newton to Bowdoin Square

Run Ave. to Bowdoin Square, via Concord Ave. and Garden St.
Time—First car, 6:00 a. m., and every 20 minutes to 11:06 p. m. Return 35 minutes later.
Sunday—First car, 8:05 a. m., and every 20 minutes to 11:06 p. m., last car.
Mount Auburn to Bowdoin Square.
Time—First car, 5:36 a. m., then 4:03, and 20 minutes to 5:43 p. m. Return 35 minutes later.
Newton and Watertown to Bowdoin Sq. (Via Mt. Auburn St., and Harvard Sq.)
Time—First car leaves Newton, 5:57 a. m., 6:12 and every 15 minutes to 12:27, 12:45 and 10 minutes to 9:25, 9:42, 9:57, 10:10 p. m., and 20 minutes to 10:50 p. m., last car.
Return, leave Bowdoin Sq., 53 minutes later.
First cars from Bowdoin Square at 6:08, 6:28, 6:40 a. m., last at 11:42 p. m.
Sunday—7:27, and 15 minutes to 8:42, 8:55 and every 10 minutes to 7:15, 7:27 and 15 minutes to 9:27, 10:10, 10:30, 10:50, p. m., last car.
First car from Bowdoin Sq., 8:13 a. m., last car 11:41 p. m.

C. S. SERGEANT
General Manager

SPRINGFIELD LINE

—BETWEEN—

Boston and New York.

Trains leave either city at 9:00 A. M., except Sunday, 11:00 A. M., except Sunday, 12:00 noon, except Sunday, 14:00 P. M., daily, 11:00 P. M., daily.
Drawing room cars on all day trains and sleeping cars on night trains.
The new train between Boston and New York, leaves either city at 13 hours, and makes the run in five and one half hours. No excess fare.

A. S. HANSON, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Boston, Mass.

FITCHBURG RAILROAD.

SUPERIOR EQUIPMENT, EXCELLENT TRAIN SERVICE, FAST TIME, AND COURTEOUS EMPLOYEES MAKE THE

Hoosac Tunnel Route

THE FAVORITE LINE from Boston to Troy, Albany, Saratoga, Lake George, Adirondack and Catskill Mountains, Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Erie, Cleveland, Detroit, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, and St. Paul West, Southwest, and Northwest.

Fast Express Trains

With elegant Pullman Parlor and Sleeping Cars to and from

BOSTON

AND CHICAGO

BOSTON

AND ST. LOUIS

WITHOUT CHANGE.

Lake - Champlain - Route

For all points in Northern New York, Vermont, and Canada.

THE ONLY LINE running through cars, with change, from Boston to Rutland, Brandon, Middlebury, Vergennes, Burlington, St. Albans, St. Johnsbury, Montpelier.

ELEGANT PALACE PARLOR CARS to and from

BOSTON AND MONTREAL

WITHOUT CHANGE.

For Time-Tables, Parlor and Sleeping Car accommodations, or for further information, apply to any agent of the Fitchburg Railroad or at

250 Washington Street,

Fitchburg Railroad Passenger Station, Boston.

J. R. WATSON, General Pass. Agent

T. F. GLENNAN

Carriage Trimming

and Harness Making.

BLANKETS, ROBES, WHIPS, ETC.

Washington St., - Newton.

EVERY FAMILY SHOULD KNOW THAT

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER

IS A VERY REMARKABLE REMEDY, BOTH FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL USE, AND WONDERFUL IN ITS QUICK ACTION TO RELIEVE DISTRESS.

Pain-Killer is a cure for Sore Throat, Croup, Whooping Cough, Cholera, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cramps, Backache, Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

Pain-Killer is the BEST REMEDY known for Sea Sickness, Stomach Distress, Pain in the Back or Side, Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

Pain-Killer is unquestionably the BEST REMEDY for RHEUMATISM, GRAVEL, GOUT, BRUISES, CUTS, SCALDS, SPRAINS, and all cases of Bruises, Cuts, Sprains, Severe Burns.

Pain-Killer is the well tried and trusted friend of the sufferer, and in fact all classes want a medicine always at hand, and one to use internally or externally with certainty of relief.

IS RECOMMENDED BY Physicians, by Ministers, by Ministers, by Mechanics, by Nurses in Hospitals, BY EVERYBODY.

Pain-Killer is a Medicine Chest in itself, and no family can afford to be without this invaluable remedy in the house. Its price brings it within the reach of all, and it will annually save many times its cost in doctors' bills.

Beware of imitations. Take none but the genuine "PERRY DAVIS'."

THE GREAT

Family Medicine of the Age.

Taken Internally, It Cures

Diarrhoea, Cramp, and Pain in the Stomach, Sore Throat, Sudden Colds, Coughs, &c., &c.

Used Externally, It Cures

Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sprains, Toothache, Pain in the Face, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Frosted Feet.

No article ever attained to such unbounded popularity as Perry-Davis' Pain-Killer.

We can bear testimony to the efficacy of the Pain-Killer. We have seen its magic effects in soothing the severest pain, and know it to be a good article—Gleanings of Europe.

A speedy cure for pain—no family should be without it—Mother's Friend.

Nothing has yet surpassed the Pain-Killer, which is the most valuable family medicine now in use—True Origin.

It has real merit as a means of removing pain, no medicine has acquired reputation equal to Perry Davis' Pain-Killer—Newport (Ky.) Daily News.

It is really a valuable medicine—it is used by many Physicians, and is the genuine made by PERRY DAVIS. Sold everywhere, large bottles, 50 and 100.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

- Burnett, Francis Hodgson. Two Little Pilgrims Progress; a Story of the City Beautiful. 66,764
- Cornish, C. J. The Isle of Wight. (Portfolio Monograph.) 57,346
- Crockett, Samuel Rutherford. The Men of the Moss-Hags; being a History of Adventure taken from the Papers of Wm. Gordon, of Earlston in Galloway. 64,1561
- Davidson, John, ed. Pictures of Rustic Landscape, by Birket Foster; with Passages in Prose and Verse selected by John Davidson. 37,323
- Quotations from Richard Jefferies, Stevenson, Hamerton, Carlyle, Lamb, Wordsworth, and others, with engravings from Birket Foster's pictures. 55,529
- Dog Stories from The Spectator. Anecdotes of the intelligence, reasoning power, affection and sympathy of dogs. 107,281
- Gibson, William Hamilton. Our Edible Foodstuffs and Mushrooms, and how to distinguish them. A selection of thirty native food varieties, easily recognizable by their marked individualities, with simple rules for the identification of poisonous species. 103,675
- Graham, P. Anderson. Country Pastimes for Boys. The author seeks to "arouse the love of open-air life and habit of observation." 64,1555
- Grant, Robert. The Bachelor's Christmas and other Stories. 64,984
- Gueber, H. A. Stories of the Wagner Opera. A free rendering of the myths and traditions which underlie the eleven most celebrated operas of Wagner. 96,600
- Holden, Edwin Singleton. The Mogul Emperors of Hindustan, A. D. 1398-1707. Brief accounts of the kings who ruled India for three centuries at this time. Presenting views of the chief personages involved in an intelligent reader might wish to carry away. 64,1528
- Holmes, F. M. Hugh Melville's Quest; or, The Adventures in the Days of the Armada. 77,260
- Johnson, Rosier, and others. Campfires and Battlefield: an Illustration of the History of the Campaigns and Conduct of the Great Civil War. 105,349
- Kmialy, J. H. An Elementary Text-Book on Steam Engines and Boilers. 103,677
- Macpherson, H. A. and others. The Pheasant. (Fur and Feather Ser.) Contents. Natural History, by H. A. Macpherson. Shooting, by J. Stuart-Wortley. Cookery, by A. I. Shand. 65,798
- Newton, William Wilberforce, Philip MacGregor. J. J. Stuart-Wortley. Cookery, by A. I. Shand. 55,224
- Pike, Zebulon Montgomery. Expeditions to Head-Waters of the Mississippi River through Louisiana Territory and in New Spain, 1805-7. 3 vols. 37,322
- Tiffany, Francis. This Goodly Frame of the Earth. Strange impressions of scenes, incidents and persons in a journey touching Japan, China, Egypt, Palestine and Greece. 33,463
- Trevett, Edward. Electricity for Students. The object is to explain, in brief and simple language; the theory and practical application of electricity up to date. Intended as a popular treatise only. 101,743
- Walker, Hugh. The Greater Victorian Poets. The author proposes to attempt a critical estimate of Tennyson, Browning, and Matthew Arnold, as the greatest and best representatives of Victorian poetry. 56,393
- Nov. 6, 1895.

An Important Office.

To properly fill its office and functions, it is important that the blood be pure. When it is in such a condition, the body is almost certain to be healthy. A complaint at this time is catarrh of the blood. A slight cold develops the disease in the head. Dropping of corruption passing into the lungs bring on consumption. The only way to cure this disease is to purify the blood. The most obstinate cases of catarrh yield to the medicinal powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla as if by magic, simply because it reaches the seat of the disease, and by purifying and vitalizing the blood, removes the cause. Not only does Hood's Sarsaparilla do this but it gives renewed vigor to the whole system, making it possible for good health to reign supreme.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

HARPER'S.

The centerpiece in the November number is Mr. Howell's "Literary Boston Thirty Years Ago," with its numerous portraits and views, of which we hope to speak further. There are four other handsomely illustrated articles: Mr. Brander Matthews' story of "Men, Women, and Horses," a romance of the horse fair; Mr. Poulton Bigelow's continuation of "The German Struggle for Liberty," with its echoes and fitting glimpses of Napoleon and his campaigns; Owen Wister's frontier tale of "A Pilgrim on the Gila," a lively picture of Indian adventure; and Edwin Lord Weeks' "Recent Impressions of Anglo-Indian Life," as it shows an Indian of another kind, with vivid pictures and descriptions of the marvelous beauty of the Far East. Then, beside the continued "Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc," there is a Central American sketch, by Richard Harding Davis, entitled "Out of the World at Corinto," and a dialect story, by Julian Ralph, recounting "Plumblossom Beebe's Adventures." In the Editor's Study Mr. Warner tells us of some of his rambles in Southwest England.

SCHIDNER'S.

The November number is rich in illustrations, of which the most striking are "Some Thanksgiving-Time Fancies," and those accompanying Mr. Royal Cortissoz's article descriptive of "Manhattan." President Andrews's continued "History of the Last Quarter-Century in the United States," and Mr. Will H. Low's paper on Frederick Macmonnies, the sculptor. There is a biographical sketch of Helmholtz, with a portrait; a final paper on "The Art of Living," by Robert Grant; a portrait of Scott, engraved by Florian from a painting by Wilkie, hitherto unoccupied; an account of the engraver Florian himself; a continuation of George Meredith's novel, "The Amazing Marriage," and other contributions by Andrew Lang, Harry Perry Robinson, Ethelwynn Wetherell, Archibald Lampman, Joseph Jastrow, and H. C. Bunner complete the number.

Catarrh can be successfully treated only by purifying the blood, and the one true blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Out Door Musings.

Pacing back and forth in the evening, a bright sparkle of moonlight on a blade of grass arrested attention to its message from the "Great Central," millions of miles away.

A ray of light, it seems, had started about eight minutes before from the sun, now below the horizon, and having reached the moon overhead, took new orders and sped to the earth, and here it is! radiant with a precious thought, personal to one who receives it, that the most insignificant, if he will, may reflect the image of Him who is over all, and in all, and by whom all things consist.

"Even in my spirit may His spirit shine As shines the sunbeam in a drop of dew." Away from the beaten paths, when all the physical surroundings are harmoniously adjusted, winged thoughts will come, flitting from the unseen, "strange bright birds bearing rich hues on their pinions."

Such a one, in his summer retirement, may confess to hours of restful enjoyment in the society of insects, watching their ceaseless errands to and fro, seeking to penetrate the motive of so much motion, and envying their life of bliss, coupled with no memories or fears, and no thirst for unattainable knowledge. Under matted grass and fallen leaves another world appears of perfect beings filling up with apparent zest their sunless existence. Rightly placed they are, in their endowments and environment. But the stars are not more remote than the varied life which surrounds us. With all the researches of the ages, past and present, man has not yet mastered the simple mechanical mystery, how a winged insect suspends itself in the air, or darts so swiftly. Millions of treasure to him who first lifts the veil and discloses the secret, so near, and yet so far off.

The spider, whose feats Bruce witnessed and chronicled, was not more noticeable than creeping a pet of hourly summer acquaintance.

"The man to solitude accustomed long Perceives in every thing that lives a tongue: He spells them true by intuition's light, And needs no glossary to set him right."

One would like the gift of metempsychosis, of which many notable instances are given in the sacred writings, that he might lay off at will the house he lives in, and make some excursions into other realms of being. One could then make that call on the ant, which Solomon recommended, and the honeybee, and others of the Brahmin families, and thus find out how much they all know, and what are their limitations.

Idle week serenity for idle heads, but an author of celebrity remarks, "it is sometimes pleasant to imagine one's self going to the ant for wisdom. Time spent in the study of these sagacious little creatures is not lost. Books have been filled to the glory of their industry and intelligence."

The absorbing pages of Huber, and the researches of Sir John Lubbock are of interest alike to the naturalist and the philosopher. Huber it was, who made the astounding discovery, that the ants keep slaves, carrying off by main force an entire population of prisoners of war, and make some excursions into other realms of being. One could then make that call on the ant, which Solomon recommended, and the honeybee, and others of the Brahmin families, and thus find out how much they all know, and what are their limitations.

Men enjoying for many years ample incomes, and living up to or beyond, find in their declining days, that every life has four seasons, spring, summer, autumn and winter. This they seem to forget, but the ant in its busy, busy day never forgets. One of the saddest spectacle, and how often we witness it, (the procession is even now passing by) is that of a man richly endowed with every accomplishment except common sense, a permanent tadpole, just a little better fitted for life's duties than the babe whose carriage he is wheeling along the path. By and bye, with silvered locks, and halting gait, he will moan to himself and the partner of his errors, "the harvest is past, and the summer is ended."

Bar, coin, bin, and wallet will be empty, with nothing to fall back upon, but some semi-eleemosynary employment or retreat for such cases made and provided.

This is no fancy sketch. Every year chronicles the giving out, one by one, of heavily loaded men, who fall prematurely by the wayside and perish, wearied with the march of life, and their self-imposed baggage. He that is wise, is wise for himself, and he that is wise, he alone must bear it.

Just then, an almost invisible insect, (bearing very likely a long Greek name) whose whole body might be covered with the point of a needle, crossed the sheet on foot with amazing swiftness. What a marvel of mechanical force in so small a compass. One cannot deny him intellect, for he knows where he is going, and what he is going for, and how much more we can only conjecture.

Proportioned to the size of brain, its will power transcends "those fiery spirits who make men mad by their contagion." As motion inevitably consumes energy, how in such a speck can so much force be packed away, and by what process of chemical chemistry is the incessant drain upon it sustained?

Far below this minute perplexity, in the descending scale of wonder, the microscope reveals a carnivorous animal raving through a drop of water, with all the airs of a monster of the deep sea, driving and slaughtering the smaller fry.

Size in Nature is merely relative, not absolute. Small and great are only words invented by us to express comparative measurements from our standpoint of observation in the scale of being. For the sake of illustration, conceive of such an animal endowed with reasoning faculties. Having thus endowed him, it would be edifying to know what he would necessarily be thinking about. If he was obliged to think, and keep on thinking, as we are, there would be moods of musing, when the world in which he lived and raved would seem but a drop inside of some concentric something, too vast for his limited faculties to grasp, or comprehend, and he would be right.

This is just the mental condition of the man of science, whom astronomy has overwhelmed. He feels in his inmost soul, the nesting of worlds, one within another, the earth a part of the Milky Way, and all that is visible to the naked or telescopic eye, a portion still of some unthinkable vastness, for which there is no name, no centre, and no circumference.

The Best Family Cathartic.

"My little daughter was very much pleased with the paper dolls which were sent her for a birthday mark from Hood's Pills and ten cents in stamps. I use Hood's Pills in my family and think they are far ahead of any others. I recommend them as the best family cathartic. Mrs. C. A. Buxton, Box 810, Reading, Mass."

Hood's Pills act harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

BOSTON MUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE—The season at the Grand Opera House begins next Monday evening with a permanent stock company of unsurpassed strength and excellence. A play new to America, but a three years' success in England, Ireland and Scotland, will be the opening attraction. Its title is "The Lucky Star," and it is a melodrama which promises powers that are sure to win the admiration of theatre patrons in great numbers. The new company includes the following people who have achieved successes upon the stage: Arthur Forrests will fill the position of leading man; Miss Sadie Martinot will essay leading juvenile roles; Miss Annie Clarke will play leading grand dames' characters; Miss Laura Burt will play prominent parts; Miss Kate Ryan has also come in the company. In light comedy characters John Flood will be seen; Robert G. Wilson is to take first old man and character parts, while William Cullington will also play character roles. For heavy character parts William S. Craven has been engaged. Others in the company are Sidney Price, the English actor, John R. Farling, John E. Ince, son of the well known comedian, John Ince, Fannie Bloodgood, in soubrette roles, Rosie Tiffany and Vivian Edsall. Only the best melodramas, comedies and tragedies will be given upon the stage at the Grand Opera House, and the theatre will be conducted in first-class manner.

CASTLE SQUARE THEATRE—The Castle Square Theatre Company, now in its third century of performances, will add a new opera to its repertoire next week, Sir Julius Benedict's "The Lily of Killarney." This is a musical version of the drama, "The Colleen Bawn," whose thrilling and yet simple story is adapted admirably to the operatic expression. The cast follows: Eily O'Connor, the Colleen Bawn, Miss Clara Lane; Mrs. Cregan, Miss Kate Davis; Seelash, Miss Cora Deane; Miss Ann Chute, the heiress, Miss Edith Mason; Hardress Cregan, Mr. Thomas H. Perse; Myles na Coppelane, Mr. J. K. Murray; Mr. Corrigan, Mr. John Reid; Father Tom, Mr. Arthur Woolley; Donny Mann, Mr. William Wolff. This opera is practically new to Boston theatre goers. Its plot is most romantic and fascinating. The picturesque story of the Irish peasantry, whose love story it is, furnishes a delightful charm. The company has been rehearsing the opera for two weeks, a longer period than usual, and an exceedingly fine production is promised. It goes without saying that nothing will be lacking in the matters of costumes and scenery.

PALACE THEATRE—There will be a revival of the living pictures at the Palace Theatre next week in connection with Sattler's Gaiety Burlesque Company, and patron will have an opportunity to see a production fully the equal of the celebrated Kilany pictures which created such a furor in New York last season. The pictures will be reproductions of famous paintings and works of art, and they will be costumed in an artistic and enterprising manner. The costumes will be exact copies of those represented in the originals. The living pictures will form but a small portion of the long and varied entertainment which will be presented. There will be two lively and laughable burlesques which will open and close the show. The first entitled "Le Petit Faust" and "The Artist's Studio."

Literary Notes.

An Edition de Luxe of Uncle Remus, with Mr. A. B. Frost's remarkable illustrations, is to be published shortly by D. Appleton & Co. The author, Joel Chandler Harris, has signed each of the 250 copies.

It is only as a sumptuous Edition de Luxe that the illustrated Maxman will be issued. At his home in the Isle of Man, Mr. Hall Caine has carefully selected photographs of the actual scenes, churches, and castles described in his famous romance, and these photographs, over 100 in number, have been most carefully reproduced for the illustration of this Edition de Luxe. The author has written an introduction for this edition, and has signed each of the 250 copies. The binding is in white vellum, with a special design stamped in gold.

One of the interesting literary questions of the day is whether dialogue is to be the prevailing form of fiction. Sir Walter Besant predicts that novels will shortly be written in a dialogue, and that descriptions will be almost entirely done away with. He cites Miss Violet Hunt and Anthony Hope as two of the most successful users of dialogue, and his argument is re-enforced by the brilliancy of Mr. Hunt's new work of fiction, "A Hard Woman," published in America by D. Appleton & Co.

How's This!

We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm. WEST & TRUAX, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

W. L. CARR, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Rich
Red Blood

Is the Foundation of the Wonderful Cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

That is Why the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla are CURES.

That is Why Hood's Sarsaparilla cures the severest cases of Scrofula, Salt Rheum and other blood diseases.

That is Why it overcomes That Tired Feeling, strengthens the nerves, gives energy in place of exhaustion.

That is Why the sales of Hood's Sarsaparilla have increased year after year, until now it requires the largest Laboratory in the world.

That is Why

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the Only True Blood Purifier prominently in the public eye today.

Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., U.S.A.

Hood's Pills act harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

WALLPAPER. Newton Centre Agent of the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand-bills and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Citizens' Caucus, Wednesday evening, Nov. 13, 7.30 p. m., Ward 6, Associates Small Hall.

—Ivers & Pond planes, Farley Newton.

—Mr. E. C. Armstrong has resigned his position with O. I. English & Son.

—Last Friday evening the indoor tennis courts in Bray's Hall were opened.

—Mr. C. E. Beal and family are in Lawrence, where they will reside permanently.

—Mrs. Danforth of Langley road will enjoy a winter's trip in California.

—Mrs. George Griggs is entertaining Miss Emma Holland this week.

—Mr. Joseph Walther is passing the week at Holden.

—Miss Alice Frost is passing some time at Brooklyn, N. Y.

—Mr. S. U. Dyer and family have moved to Warren street.

—Master Robert Beck is ill with scarlet fever at his home on Boylston street.

—There was a slight fire at W. F. Woodman's, Sunday evening, damage trifling. No alarm given.

—William Munroe of Centre street is at the hospital ill with typhoid fever.

—The election returns were received by Mr. B. B. Buck at his store last Tuesday evening.

—Mr. George Barrows has removed to Orange, having given up his store here, and also the one at the Highlands.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Green of Langley road are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

—Rev. Mr. Martin of Dorchester occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church last Sunday.

—A good number attended the first meeting of the singers' club last Saturday evening in Bray's Hall.

—Miss Mary Keating, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Keating, is ill at her home on Langley road.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hunter are enjoying a several weeks trip through the western states.

—Mr. Avery L. Rand leaves this month for Alleston, Alabama, where he will go into the iron business.

—The GRAPHIC office will be removed on Monday next to 16 Centre place, just above the Newton railroad station.

—Miss Lottie Tyler has returned to her home in Brockton, after a pleasant visit among friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Walker of Mount Vale road are at home, having passed some time in Vermont.

—Messrs. Fred Stanley and William Munroe, who are ill with typhoid fever at the Newton Hospital, are reported as doing well.

—At the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday, the evening solo will be by Mr. E. E. Holden, tenor of the Weber quartet of Boston.

—In the GRAPHIC last week the death of Louis Bales, was recorded as 67 years. He was 77.

—Sessions at the Rice school house, (afternoon) begin at 1.30 o'clock instead of 2 until further notice.

—Mr. G. F. Richardson exhibits this week some extraordinary large apples of native growth. Some of those shown are, at least, four inches in diameter.

—The Thompsonville school house has been closed temporarily on account of the prevalence of scarlet fever and diphtheria in the district.

—The election returns, Tuesday night, were received by special service at Noble's drug store. They suited exactly the fancy of every Republican in town.

—Mrs. Chester S. Sprague of Brooklyn, N. Y., is in town this week visiting relatives.

—It is rumored that there has been an increase in rents in this ward. That seems to be the tendency in the several wards of the city.

—Election day was a dull one here. The Republicans turned out fairly well and the vote, as usual, indicated a rather feeble Democratic opposition. It promises to be livelier next month when the ballots are cast for city officials, provided candidates are named by both the Republican and Citizens' movement.

—A waiting room for the accommodation of patrons of the Newton & Boston street railway is rapidly approaching completion. The building is located near the terminus of the road, within the grounds of the Mason school.

—Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Stone are planning to get back to Newton Centre to reside. Mrs. Stone has been here for some weeks selling medicines and extracts, with headquarters at Mrs. Dr. Dodge's.

—The game between Hyde Park and five Hyde Park men, putting in an appearance. Arrangements were made to have a game this week.

—Unitarian Society—Service at 10.30, sermon, "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." Sunday school at 12. Officers, Nov. 13, 7.30. Subject, "Some noted American women, Margaret Fuller, Charlotte Cushman, Dorothea Dix, Clara Barton. Chorus rehearsal, Saturday 7.30. Parish supper, Friday at 6.

—There are letters remaining in the post office for Mrs. Geo. D. Boardman, Miss Beckman, Miss Mary Desmond, Miss Dewing, Edith Eames, Margaret F. Hurst, Mary Mullany, Mrs. Margaret Sanderson, H. O. Smith and Mrs. Nesty Taylor.

—The Newton A. A. play Hyde Park tomorrow on the Cedar street grounds, at 3.30. This is a championship game and another will be played Thanksgiving day. If the Newton Club wins both games they secure the championship of the suburban league.

—The fair in Associates Hall, gotten up by Miss F. C. Sparhawk to help the Indian cause, closed last evening, (Thursday) and was quite a success. The sales were good. The music of a high order, and the recitations by Miss Frances R. Burnham of Boston were well received.

—The fair to be held by the Improvement Association for the benefit of the Play Ground has been postponed to Dec. 10, 11 and 12 on account of the city election, which falls on Tuesday, Dec. 3. The enthusiasm which is being manifested by the ladies who are working so earnestly for its success shows how much the people are interested in securing this additional piece of land. We hear of many ventures which are novel and money making that promise a good deal of pleasure.

—The Newton Centre branch of the Woman's Indian Aid Association opened a fair in aid of the department of Indian libraries and industries in Associates Hall, Wednesday afternoon. More than 300 persons were present, and a considerable sum was added to the funds of the association. The affair was continued Thursday, and several new entertainment features were introduced. The success of the fair is due largely to Miss Francis Sparhawk, the organizer of the society, who was assisted by the following ladies at the tables: Mrs. D. B. Harding, Mrs. D. T. Kidder, Mrs.

Charles Kelsey, fancy articles; Mrs. Harry W. Mason, Miss Flora Thomas, candy; Miss Ethel Reed, pop corn; Miss F. A. Foster, Miss Juppincott, Miss Boston, and Mrs. G. F. Meyers, Mrs. Perry, Miss Perry, Indian articles.

—At the meeting of the Paper Trade Association in Boston, Wednesday evening, Col. E. H. Haskell spoke in favor of the Torrey bill as opposed to the Bailey bill. He also touched upon the needs of Boston harbor, and the improvements desired to further the city's commercial interests. The paper trade was deeply interested in such improvements. Boston had never received, he was sure, proper recognition from the national government in proportion to its commercial importance. He thought the coming meeting of the Merchants Association promised much good in that direction.

NEWTON HIGHLAND DS.

—Citizens' Caucus, Wednesday evening, Nov. 13, 7.30 p. m., Ward 5, Old Prospect School House.

—The Chautauqua will hold their next meeting with Mrs. Hayward.

—The next meeting of the Monday Club will be with Mrs. Cobb, Forest street.

—Mr. G. B. Lapham, who has been ill for two weeks past, is now improving.

—Mr. W. A. Moore of Cook street has been ill for the past few days.

—Miss Gertrude Nelson is spending a few days with her grandfather at Melrose.

—Mr. Jacob Green and wife are expected home from their wedding trip the first of the week.

—The GRAPHIC office will be removed on Monday next to 16 Centre place, just above the Newton railroad station.

—A concrete walk is to be laid on Hyde street on the west side from Lake avenue to Walnut street.

—The Girls Friendly Society of St. Paul's church will observe their second anniversary on Thursday evening.

—Miss May Gillette is at Weirs among relatives and is having a nice time and expects to be there two or three weeks.

—The West End Literary Club will meet Nov. 11, with Mrs. Waterhouse, Walnut street.

—Three hundred and fifty five names were on the voting list in this precinct, of which 277 ballots were cast; fifteen women registered, all of which voted.

—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has returned to her home in Brooklyn.

—Mr. J. H. Wentworth has started a cellar for a house on Lincoln street near the corner of Woodward street, on land of the Cole estate recently purchased by him.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Brickett have gone to Newton Centre and will make their home with his parents on Glen avenue for the present.

—A cellar for a house is being made ready on the Winchester Farm on a new street. Mr. W. F. Heal, carpenter and builder, has the contract.

—Rev. F. J. Marsh from Newtonville has taken the house on Columbus street, lately vacated by Mrs. Burnett, next the residence of Mr. Putney.

—Mr. Soule will have a double house built on the Foster land on Boylston road opposite the residence of Mr. Haskins. Mr. John P. Keating has the contract for the cellar.

—The pastor will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist Episcopal church the coming Sunday, and will preach in the morning on "What is Truth?" The evening service at 7 o'clock will be in commemoration of Martin Luther whose birthday comes on Nov. 10. An address appropriate to the occasion will be delivered. All are welcome.

—Mrs. Crafts, with her daughter, Mrs. Manson, and granddaughter, Miss Nellie Crafts, have gone to Atlanta and will visit Mr. G. H. Crafts who has resided there for several years. They will remain there for several weeks and will be able to visit the exposition at their pleasure.

—If you are thinking of buying anything this winter, or if you have decided what to give your friends for Christmas presents, just whisper the name of such articles in the ear of some good Methodist, and you will be sure to find what you want at the fair in December. Try it. Give your orders early.

—A sociable was held at the chapel of the Congregational church to which all the members of the congregation were invited on Wednesday. A beautiful supper was served in the dining room which was well patronized. The entertainment which followed was by the Peck brothers and was much enjoyed by a large audience.

WABAN.

—If the camera craze continues to grow here, why not start a club?

—Mr. and Mrs. Fish will entertain the Whist Club at its next meeting.

—Miss Maude Kendrick is again able to be out after her severe accident.

—The Benevolent Society met last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Rand.

—Mr. Dana of Longwood has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Comer, for a short visit.

—Ground has been broken for a new house on Windsor road between the residences of Mr. Davidson and Mr. Willis.

—Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Thatcher of Middleboro, Mass., were the guests of Mrs. J. H. Robinson the past week.

—The new house on Mont Clair avenue is taking to itself the color of a "down Easter" on his first visit to the city.

—The fountain for the triangle has arrived, but has not yet been placed in position.

—Waban rejoices that in the next election it will have a polling place of its own. Residents are now obliged to resort to other towns in order to vote.

—The Benevolent Society is to give a Ladies Matinee Whist party in Village Hall, Monday afternoon, Nov. 18. The proceeds of the affair will be donated to the Improvement Society.

—The Village Hall has been leased by a syndicate of Waban gentlemen, for the season of '95-'96. The rate per evening will probably remain the same as in previous years.

—Again we say, go in on the 7.28 a. m. There are some who walk a good distance to catch that train and then get left. If you would solve this paradox get up early some morning and try it.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Harlow returned Sunday from New York. They stopped over Saturday in Princeton, New Jersey, in order to witness the Harvard-Princeton football game.

—The Waban school for boys has been obliged to extend its habitation and has acquired the Frederick Collins estate for dormitories. Waban is to be congratulated on the addition of the principal of the school and his charming wife to its society.

—Mr. and Mrs. Campbell entertained the Whist Club at their charming home on Waban avenue last Tuesday evening. As usual whist constituted the evening's enjoyment, followed by refreshments. The prize winners were Mrs. Barns and Mr. C. J. Buffum.

—HOOD'S PILLS cure Liver ill, Biliousness, Indigestion, Headache, A pleasant laxative. All Druggists.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Citizens' Caucus, Wednesday evening, Nov. 13, 7.30 p. m., Ward 5, Old Prospect School House.

—Mrs. C. W. Billings is visiting friends in Medford.

—Popular John Brennan has purchased a handsome new trotting horse.

—There were 246 votes cast in Precinct 1, Ward 5, Tuesday, four of which were polled by women.

—Mr. and Mrs. Reagan have the sympathy of friends in the loss of their infant daughter.

—Miss L. A. Greene entertained a party of friends at her home on Elliot street, Tuesday afternoon and evening.

—The Newton Rubber Mill will be closed today and Saturday during the completion of some necessary repairs.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Maggie Coggins, Carrey Grant, J. J. Hector, P. O'Connor, E. C. Rand and Catherine Slavin.

—Mr. Flynn, the landscape gardener, has been at work the past week beautifying the grounds about the residence of Mr. Bernard Billings on High street.

—Employees of the Gamewell Fire Alarm Co., held a dance at Newton Centre, Friday evening. A special electric carried the party back and forth.

—Mr. Fred Stockman has returned from a visit to his stock farm in Kentucky. He expects to remain here all the winter and conduct his business here in the near future.

—The alarm from box 621, Thursday noon, was for a fire in an overheated chimney on Gilbert Bros. Chemical works. The blaze was extinguished by Hose 1. Damage $100.

—Charles Chambers met with a slight accident riding his bicycle, Tuesday afternoon. A sudden puncture of the tire threw him from the wheel, sustaining from his fall some bad bruises.

—Five of the new cars for the Commonwealth avenue boulevard line arrived at the freight yards, in this place last week, and were removed to the car house at Newtonville. The cars are very handsome and finely appointed.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Citizens' Caucus, Wednesday evening, Nov. 13, 7.30 p. m., Ward 4, Auburn Hall.

—Mr. John Norton has completed a contract of newly shingling the Ball house.

—Mr. Gilbert Taylor and wife left for Nova Scotia Thursday where they will reside in the future.

—Mr. C. F. Ford has sold out the dry goods business he was interested in at Watertown to his partner, Mr. Ensign, and is associated with his brother in the manufacture of a popular patented temperance beverage.

—The services at St. Mary's Protestant Episcopal church at the Falls will be of unusual interest next Sunday. Bishop Lawrence makes his visitation in the morning and will preach and administer confirmation to candidates to be presented.

—The balloting for governor at this precinct, Tuesday, resulted in 47 votes for Greenhalge and 35 votes for Williams. Sixteen voted for the suffrage referendum for women while 52 opposed the clause, only one-fourth of the women registered to vote took the opportunity.

—An electric car got away last Monday evening through some defect in the motor and ran "wild" as far as Hogerty's block near from the Harvard, where it was captured by motormen who chased it with another car. It was quite an interesting sight for spectators and had gained considerable speed when stopped.

NONANTUM.

—Mrs. Longbottom of California street is ill with bronchitis.

—Edward La Croix has purchased a new horse.

—The Plymouth Rock Co., have closed out their business on Watertown street.

—Extensive repairs have been made on Stuart's block on Watertown street.

—Mrs. Priestly of Pleasant street, Bemis, has removed to California street, Nonantum.

—The meeting at the Beulah mission next Sunday will be led by Mr. Samuel Miller.

—Mrs. Shorten of California street suffered a stroke of paralysis, Tuesday morning.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of the North Evangelical church held an enjoyable social, Tuesday evening.

—In Precinct 1 Ward 1, there were 207 votes cast Tuesday. Seven of these were polled by women voters.

—Monday afternoon a barrel of paper in the store of Wm. Brosnahan became ignited, but was extinguished before much damage was caused.

—Harold Walker, aged 16 years, who resides with his parents on Dalby street, is reported to have left home Tuesday and has not been seen since.

—Tuesday night a party of twenty-five made up of members of the St. Elmo and Howard lodges, Sons of Temperance, paid a fraternal visit to the Golden Star Lodge of Everett.

—Friday in the police court, Dennis Mahoney was sentenced to 5 months at Bridgewater. Monday, John Kennedy for a life licence was given one year at the same institution.

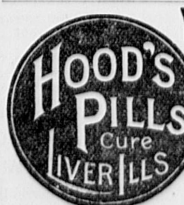

—Officer Burke shot a dog belonging to Lawrence Barry, last week, at the request of the owner, as it had been bitten by the alleged mad dog that ran rampant here some weeks ago.

—Jaffrey Perry, who has been wanted by the police for some time for soliciting alms, was arrested Wednesday by Officer Burke. In court Thursday his case was continued.

—The store corner of Adams and Watertown streets, formerly occupied by J. E. Campbell will be re-opened this week by Frank Bonahan, who will conduct a first-class grocery and provision business.

—Mrs. Devoy, a life long resident of this place, died at her home on West street, Tuesday morning. The deceased leaves a husband and five children. The funeral was held from the Church of Our Lady, Thursday morning.

—The Pleasant Sunday afternoon service held at the North Evangelical church last Sunday was addressed by Rev. Dr. Patrick on "How to meet atheistical objections to the Bible." Messrs. Redmund and Whitehead rendered some very pleasing solos. Next Sunday Rev. George W. Shinn will deliver his famous sermon on "What is Socialism." Meeting begins at 1.45 o'clock. All men invited.

Is out of order if you have bitter taste, offensive breath, sick headache, slight fever, weight or fullness in the stomach, heartburn, or nausea. Hood's Pills restore the liver, cure biliousness, restore proper digestion, expel accumulated impurities, cure constipation. 25 cents. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

jections to the Bible." Messrs. Redmund and Whitehead rendered some very pleasing solos. Next Sunday Rev. George W. Shinn will deliver his famous sermon on "What is Socialism." Meeting begins at 1.45 o'clock. All men invited.

A Card to the Public.

C. C. Clapp, boot and shoe dealer, formerly located in Associates Block, Newtonville, wishes to inform the people of the Newtons and vicinity that he is now located at 66 Summer street, Boston, selling the Montello Co-operative Shoe Co. shoes for gentlemen, direct from the factory, in all the different styles, at popular prices, from $3.00 to $4.00, and believes that his reputation as a shoe man and for honest goods is sufficient guarantee in this vicinity for those in want of good shoes to call upon him. Special orders and measurement taken for single pairs at prices way below those usually charged. A full stock of all the different styles and widths in shoes that are sure to please the most fastidious and equal to higher priced shoes in style, fit and wear. Yours respectfully, C. C. CLAPP.

66 Summer St., Cor. Otis St., Boston.

Beecham's pills for constipation 10¢ and 25¢. Get the book at your druggist's and go by it.

Annual sales more than 6,000,000 boxes.

CarpetsCleaned.

—I am prepared to fill all orders for the—Taking Up, Cleaning and Relaying of Carpets,
at short notice and in the best manner.

PETER S. WHITE,
TREMONT LOCK,
Newtonville, Mass.

E. H. Kingman & Co.,
108-110 FAHUEL HALL MARKET.
BOSTON.

Choice Fruits
AND Vegetables.

Oranges, New Figs, Grape Fruit,
Mushrooms, Olives in Bulk,
Brussels Sprouts, Boston
Market Celery.

The best the market offers in our line, at reasonable prices. Family Trade Solicited.
Telephone, Haymarket 677.

City Election, December 3, 1895. NOMINATIONS.

Certificates of nominations for candidates for the Common Council, made in caucus, and certificates of nominations made in delegate convention for Mayor, Aldermen and School Committee, must be filed in the office of the city clerk on or before 5 o'clock P. M.,

Wednesday, Nov. 20.

Nomination papers must be filed at the same office on or before 5 o'clock P. M., Friday, November 22.

ISAAC F. KINGBURY,
City Clerk.

PROF. BACHIMONT, Ph. D.,

Is now forming classes in French in Newton, Gouin method, a psychological system enabling students to speak fluently in the shortest time. Trial lesson free. Address, 62 Boylston Street, Boston.

Shirts

MADE TO ORDER.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Best Material. First-Class Work. Superior Shirts, $2.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2.00. Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience. Repairing in Done Neatly and Promptly. New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands, 15c.; Collars, 35c.; Collars, 25c.; Centre Plaids, 25c.

Bodily fitting Shirts made to fit well.
E. B. BLACKWELL,
43 Thornton St., Newton, Mass.

EBZ Tailor
149 Tremont St., BOSTON.

Fine Woolens at Moderate Prices.

PEARMAIN & BROOKS Members of..... Boston Stock Exchange
Stock and Bond Brokers.
Orders by Mail Promptly Executed. Good Bonds and Mortgages on hand for immediate delivery.
Correspondence Solicited.
Stock Exchange Building, 53 State St., Boston.
SUMNER B. PEARMAIN. L. LORING BROOKS

WILL ADD TEN YEARS TO YOUR LIFE.
RUBBER TIRES.
I am prepared to apply Rubber Tires of the most approved pattern to carriages, at the following low prices:
3.4 in. tread, set of 4 wheels $35.00 Renewed for $23.00
7.8 " " " " 40.00 " " 25.00
1 " " " " 45.00 " " 30.00
11.8 " " " " 50.00 " " 35.00
11.4 " " " " 65.00 " " 40.00
13.8 " " " " 75.00 " " 50.00
11.2 " " " " 85.00 " " 60.00
P. A. MURRAY,
CARRIAGE BUILDER
200 to 210 Washington St., Newton.

Water Bugs and Roaches.
CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR EXTERM NATOR
No dust. No trouble to use.
Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.
BARNARD & CO.,
7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.
FOR SALE BY BARBER BROS., NEWTON.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY

WHITE'S NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COM'Y.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters; 8 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. New Carpets made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE,
P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street

REPUBLICAN CAUCUSES.

The Republicans of Newton are requested to meet on Thursday, Nov. 14, 1895
At 8 o'clock P. M.,

In their respective wards, as follows:

Ward 1, Armory Hall
Ward 2, Room 8, Claffin Block.
Ward 3, City Hall,
Ward 4, Auburn Hall.
Ward 5, Stevens' Hall.
Ward 6, Associates' small Hall.
Ward 7, Elliot Lower Hall.

For the following purposes, viz:

To nominate in each ward two candidates for the Common Council, and to choose in each ward five delegates to a City Convention which is hereby called to meet at City Hall,
Thursday, November 21, 1895,
At 8 o'clock P. M.

to nominate a candidate for Mayor, seven Aldermen, one from each ward, and five members of the School Committee, two from Ward 5, two from Ward 6, and one from Ward 7, for the term of three years from January 1st, 1896. The Caucuses are held in accordance with the provisions of the acts of 1895, Chapter 489; and are to be called as follows, Ward 1 by Reuben Forknall.

Ward 2 by Edward Sands.
Ward 3 by George P. Staples.
Ward 4 by Joseph Henstis.
Ward 5 by A. H. Putney.
Ward 6 by Adams Claffin.
Ward 7 by A. R. Weed.

Also to transact any other business that may properly come before the caucuses.

Per order of the Republican Ward and City Committee of Newton, Edward Sands, Chairman,
Charles E. Hatfield, Secretary.

FRUIT JARS.

Having received a large shipment of Jars, we are able to offer Jars, Jelly Tumblers, Etc., at BOSTON PRICES.

Butter fresh from the creamery in Prints, 5 lb. Boxes, Tubs, Etc., to suit the trade. Prices less by the rub.

Call for what you wish. We have a large stock.

W. O. KNAPP & CO.,

NEWTON CENTRE.

Telephone 22-3.

Richardson's Market,

BRAY'S BLOCK

Newton Centre, - - Mass.,

Everything may be found that ought to be in a First Class Market.

Beef, Lamb, Veal, Pork,

Turkeys, Chickens,

Wild Game.

Oysters, Clams,

10 kinds of Fish,

Eggs, Butter, Cheese,

Fruit, Canned Goods.

Telepho glands.

GEORGE PROUDFOOT

has made a LARGE ADDITION to his Stock of Groceries, Butter, and Eggs.

CENTRE ST., next to NOBLE'S DRUG STORE.

Full Line. Finest Quality.

GEO. E. HUSE & CO.,

—DEALERS IN—

Meats and Provisions.

White's Block, Centre St.,

NEWTON CENTRE,

GEO. E. HUSE. LEWIS MURPHY.

NEWTON HEIGHTS

Boulevard Lands. Prices 10 cents per foot, up.

GEORGE A. WARD,

Real Estate, Mortgages, Insurance

178 Devonshire Street, Boston.

Local Office: Newton Heights, Commonwealth and Grant Avenues. Hours 3 to 5.

A. H. ROFFE,

—DEALER IN—

Hay and Grain.

LIME, CEMENT AND DRAIN PIPE.

CYPRESS ST., near Centre, N. CENTRE.

Telephone (Q) 1372193

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXVI.—NO 7.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1895.

TERMS—$2.00 A YEAR

Stylish Jackets, Capes and Furs.

Ladies desiring a just equivalent for their money, and Outside Garments of the very latest style and finish, should call at and examine their NEW JACKETS. Handsome, genteel and as satisfactory in price as can be found in Boston. Central location. Well lighted salesrooms, and courteous attendants.

SPRINGER BROTHERS,

500 Washington St., Cor. Bedford St., Boston.

WALTER C. BROOKS & Co.

..... Importing
.. Tailors ..

15 MILK ST., BOSTON.

1 RTHPLACE OF FRANKLIN
OPP. OLD SOUTH CHURCH.

Goods Delivered Free in the Newtons.

503 Washington Street,
BOSTON.

FINE DRESS SUITS A SPECIALTY.

Shirts

MADE TO ORDER.

A Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Best Material.
First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2.00.
Will call on customers at such time and place
as will suit their convenience.
Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands, 15c.; Collars, 25c.; Centre
Plats, 25c.
Badly fitting Shirt made to fit well.

E. B. BLACKWELL,

43 Thornton St., Newton, Mass.

PROF. BACHMONT, Ph. D.,

Of the University of Paris,
Is now forming classes in French in Newton.
Gouin method, a psychological system enabling
students to speak fluently in the shortest time.
Trial lesson free. Address, 62 Blystone Street,
Boston.

Fruits & Vegetables

AT
Stalls 108-110.

Fanuel Hall Market,
Boston.

Boston Market Celery, Hot House
Tomatoes, Hot House Cucumbers, Malaga Grapes, Florida Oranges, Jamaica
Grape Fruit.
All the delicacies of the season.

E. H. Kingman & Co.,

Telephone, Haymarket 677.

MISS EDITH C. PERRY, TEACHER OF PIANO,

Pupil of Edward Baxter Perry of Boston, and Junius W. Hill of Wellesley College. Miss Perry receives pupils at Riverside School, Auburndale, on Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Terms $1.50 per lesson.

C. W. BUNTING,
Fish Market.

FISH, OYSTERS, FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.

Telephone Connection.

COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON, MASS.

Beautiful Sunland,

An illustrated and intensely interesting lecture

NEW MEXICO.

Its climate, scenery, adobe, natives and its value as a refuge for consumptives will be given with stereoscopic views at

Elliot Lower Hall, Wednesday, Nov. 20th.
At 8 o'clock P. M.,
BY DR. WM. D. GENTRY, of Las Vegas, N.
M.

ADMISSION, 25 CTS. CHILDREN 15 CTS.
For twenty minutes beginning at 7.15 all who attend on the outside may hear an address through an instrument which may be heard more than a mile here and more than three miles in New Mexico, showing the difference in density of atmosphere.

Broiled Live Lobster

AND
English Mutton Chops

Are specialties at the

Crawford House, Boston.

Oysters in every style. Ladies Cafe, 17 Brattle Street.

AT HALF PRICE.

BOULEVARD

BUILDING LOTS,

FOR IMMEDIATE IMPROVEMENT.

I will sell a few choice lots on the LAWRENCE and BENNETT FARMS, Newton Heights, near Commonwealth Avenue, overlooking Chestnut Hill Reservoirs, at 20 to 30 cents per foot (worth for investment 40 to 60 cents), to parties who will build for occupancy. Finest suburban views on earth. High land without a climb. Commonwealth Avenue electric road nearby. Ready. This is a chance of a lifetime, to be taken now or never. Money advanced to build.

DANA ESTES, Prop.,

196 Summer St., Boston.

Plans mailed to interested applicants.

H. P. GAMBLE,

Late of Hollander's,

274 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON.

Reception, Tailor and Evening
Gowns. Top Coats and Riding Habits.

$15 AND UPWARDS.

NEWTON.

—Planos, Farley, 433 Washington St., N.
—Mr. A. B. Atkins who has been very ill, is improving.

—Secretary Parker of the Y. M. C. A. left Wednesday night for Portland, Me.

—Mr. Edward Pike and family are occupying Mr. H. F. Bent's house on Washington street.

—The Garden City Improvement Society held an enthusiastic meeting in Eliot hall, Saturday evening.

—The Bugby house on Washington street, opposite Thornton, has been sold to Jeremiah Mack, at private sale.

—Mrs. Lincoln R. Stone gives an "at home" on Saturday, Nov. 23, from 4 to 6, at her residence on Vernon street.

—Mr. W. C. Taylor of Worcester is the buyer of the Hyde property on the corner of Washington and Centre streets, and he is to take possession today.

—The game of foot ball between Cutler's school eleven and the Natick Y. M. C. A., which was to have been played last Saturday, has been postponed.

—Rev. E. H. Byington read a paper
Tuesday evening before the Rhode Island
Historical Society on "The Early Puritan Ministers of New England."

—Lawrence Burgher, son of Mr. Charles Burgher of Maple Avenue, superintendent of the Fire Alarm Telegraph Company of Boston, is ill with diphtheria.

—Mrs. Alvin R. Bailey of Richardson street has returned from Springfield, where she has been staying with her sister, who has been seriously ill, but who is now convalescent.

—The Social Science Club will meet at Mrs. Wm. P. Ellison's, Vernon street, Wednesday, Nov. 20, at 10 a. m. Mrs. De Forest will speak on Japan. Guests may be invited.

—It is now stated that the B. & A. will build a stone wall from Centre to Washington streets on the south side of the tracks, owing to the great cost of the land that would be needed for a slope. Possibly another wall will be built on the north side also.

—A battalion has been organized at the Nonantum Boys' Club. The boys are drilled one evening of each week by Mr.
H. C. Wellman of Newtonville. A company of Harvard students will give the Boys' Club an entertainment on Friday evening, Nov. 15.

—At the auction sale of the four Washington street houses, Friday afternoon, the Sweeney house was sold to Mr. Sullivan of Crafts street for $20. The Shaw house to John Leahy for $60, Fiske house to J.
Murray for $150 and the barn adjoining for $30. No bid was received on the Toomey estate.

—As previously announced the music at Eliot church on Sunday evening will consist of the St. Cecilia service by Charles Gunnod. The regular choir will be augmented for the occasion and will also be assisted by Mr. Heinrich Schuecker, Harvard, in addition to the New England Conservatory String Quartet.

—The boom in Newton business property was a long time in coming, but it appears to have arrived at last, and the $75,000 block of real estate on the corner of Centre street and Centre place will be a great addition to the city, and as the buyers are noted for their enterprise, they will probably have the new stores ready by the time the railroad begins operations.

—Hospital Sunday is appointed for Nov.
24th, and those who do not go to church on that day can send their contributions direct to Mr. Geo. S. Bullens, the treasurer.
The Hospital is such an absolute necessity now, and the number of patients is so large, that it is hoped that the contributions will be more generous than ever, as more money is needed.

—The astonishing fact has been discovered in the past few years that only three in a thousand of all the natives in New Mexico are subject to pulmonary disease, and that from fifty to sixty per cent. of all consumptives who go there from the states get well. Dr. Gentry, an eloquent and intensely interesting speaker, will tell all about Cent beautiful Sunland in his lecture next Wednesday evening. Let all of our citizens who can obtain admittance, attend. See adv.

—Mrs. E. W. Redpath has returned home from the South.

—Freshly prepared Homoeopathic medicines at Hahn's.

—Mr. Edward A. Pope has been elected a member of the Appalachian Mountain Club.

—Mrs. R. H. Joy of Pearl street has been visiting friends in the western part of the state.

—The Monday Evening Club met this week with Mr. George T. Coppins of Centre street.

—The regular business meeting of the Eliot church committee was held Monday evening.

—The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Eliot church held a meeting, Tuesday.

—Dr. Gentry will deliver a stereoscopic lecture in Eliot hall, Wednesday evening on "New Mexico."

—Mrs. J. W. French gave a luncheon and whist party to twelve ladies, on Wednesday, at her residence on Hunnewell Hill.

—Councilman Mudge refused to run again, and Councilman Wing, who has been elected into Ward Seven, was chosen in his place.

—A delegation from the Y. M. C. A. congress attended the Convention of the Massachusetts Eastern Massachusetts at Boston, Friday night.

—The Y. M. C. A. have been holding a week of prayer every evening of the week, in the association rooms, conducted by Mr.
E. C. Lewis.

—Dr. Shinn is to lecture at Nonantum some time this month on "The Causes of Intemperance. The time and place will be made known later.

—The Choir Guild of Grace church invited the Sunday school to participate with them in their entertainment on Thursday night.

—Dr. Abbott's excellent sermon on Sunday nights in Grace church continue to interest large congregations. The topic the coming Sunday is "Nature."

—To-night a grand concert and subscription party will be held in Armory Hall, under the auspices of the Ladies' Charity Club.

—The Misses Parker, who have taken the store in Brackett's block, will continue the sale of goods at the old store in Warner's block until December first.

—The double house near Channing tunnel, Nos. 356 and 358 Washington street, has been sold to James McMahon, who will remove it to the Mudge lot on Emerson street.

—The GRAPHIC telephone has not yet been removed, as it takes longer to move a telephone than a brick block. Meanwhile, attendants are kindly taking messages for the GRAPHIC office.

—Mrs. L. J. Burgess, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. A. M. Ferris, has joined her daughter, Mrs. William Jennings, of Salt Lake City, formerly of Beacon street, Boston.

—The Boston Bronson will preach at the Eliot church on Sunday evening, Nov. 24th.
Evening topic "Our Father's Kingdom." Evening, "Saul the Self-Willed." Strangers welcome.

—Rev. Mr. Bronson delivered his lecture on "Japan and the Recent War," in aid of Methodist church, at Highlandville, Wednesday evening, and is engaged for same lecture at Natick Methodist church, next Wednesday.

—Another chorus from the Oratorio of the Creation is to be sung by the choir of Grace church Sunday night. Those who have heard them sing "The heavens are telling" will want to hear "The marvellous work."

—The Garden City Foot Ball Club defeated the Waltham H. S. on the latter's grounds Wednesday afternoon by a score of 32-0. The features of the game was the play of E. S. Wilson and C. E. Raymond. The home team seemed principally weak in the centre.

—The tenth anniversary celebration by the Girls' Friendly Society of Grace church was a great success last week. The sermon by Rev. Van Buren was excellent, and the social gathering which followed the religious service was one of the best ever held. The chapel was filled with the members and invited guests.

—Music in Grace church, Sunday evening:
Processional, "Onward Christian Soldiers."
Magnificat, H. B. Day
Nunc Dimittis, H. B. Day
Antiphon, "The Lord is my Shepherd," Ger-nish
The "Marvellous work be-hinde," Haydn Recessional, "Hark! Hark! my Soul!"
Seats free.

—Convention of Boston North District
Epworth League at the Methodist church,
Nov. 21, beginning at 2 p. m. Revs. C. A.
Littell, Dillie, Bronson and C. E. Rice,
Mr. C. K. Fletcher, Rev. W. N. Bradbeck,
Miss Bertha Clarke, F. C. Switzer, Mrs. R.
L. Greene and Miss E. A. Chapman are some of the afternoon speakers. At the evening session special music will precede addresses by Revs. F. E. E. Hamilton and E. M. Taylor. A very interesting occasion is anticipated. Come.

—The house of Mrs. A. W. Rice, Church street, was entered by burglars on Tuesday evening, during the absence of the family.
Entrance was effected by prying open a back piazza window. Fortunately all valuables had been removed from the house at the time of Mr. Rice's death, a few months since. But the upper part was ransacked generally, every bureau drawer rummaged and everything left in the greatest disorder. This is the second time the family have been visited by burglars, having lost about $500 worth of jewelry a few years ago. It has been understood the house is unoccupied at present, but such is not the fact.

Dr. Winslow has an article in this week's issue of the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal entitled, "Diphtheria Antitoxin at the Newton Hospital," in which is described the results of 24 cases of diphtheria occurring during the last three months at the above mentioned institution. There was not a single fatal case among those treated by Dr. Winslow with antitoxin, while the mortality in Newton, in cases of diphtheria not treated with antitoxin, has been about one fatal case in every three, as stated by Dr. Curtis, chairman of the Newton board of health. Another successful feature of the report was the recovery of one case in which the wind pipe was opened in order to prevent suffocation, which was being caused by the obstruction of the diphtheritic membrane in the throat. This is the first case of recovery out of six such operations previously done at the hospital in these cases, and the result was attributed largely to the antitoxin as well as to the operation. In none of these patients were there any serious ill effects produced by the antitoxin treatment. Notwithstanding what may be said to the contrary the antitoxin treatment yields simply marvelous results, and it is not strange that one hears so much in its disparagement, when even to this day, there are many who pretend to deny the value of vaccination when it has obliterated the most dreadful scourge of mankind. The results quoted above are most flattering to the Newton Hospital as they are the best yet reported.

Women's Clubs at Newton Centre.

The Federation of Newton Women's Clubs held the first meeting since the formation of the organization in Bray's Hall, Wednesday afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock. Every club was represented, and there were about 300 women present.

Mrs. E. N. L. Walton, president, presided. The speakers of the afternoon were City Solicitor Winfield S. Slocum, who spoke on "The City as a Municipi-pality," Rev. Mr. Gordon of Boston, who addressed the women on "Good Citizenship," and Mrs. Laura Ormiston Chant, who took for her subject "The Civic Duties of Women." Mr. Hackett, who is to accompany Dr. Gordon on his evangelistic tour across the continent was present, and sang several solos. At the conclusion of the speaking a reception was tendered Mrs. Chant.

Mr. Slocum compared the city government with that of a town. "In a city," he said, "the power is vested in a mayor and a council, whereas in a town each man has a voice in governing,—in the town meeting. The complexity of the city government, he went on to say, compels much vigilance to keep it in perfect running order. The work that Dr.
Parkhurst is accomplishing in bringing to the surface and exposing to the public gaze, the vice and corruption, as illustrated in New York, is sufficient to cause the heads of true Americans to hang with their shoulders wearily, entering the incompetency of city officials. Men seem to feel that a city is a corporation, and believing that a corporation has neither soul nor conscience, man in becoming a corrupt official of a corporation minus soul and conscience, soon loses his individuality and his soul. In conclusion, Mr. Slocum spoke one immigration and the numbers who come here without any idea of self-government, to whom, he added, are almost immediately granted the right of suffrage.

Dr. Gordon began with the Euphrates, and coming down to Europe, England and America, he averred that landing on these shores was practically entering the gate to a new world, in which was typified the highest type of advanced civilization in the American citizen. He spoke for the purification of the young men growing up, believing that the best method of producing good citizens was to begin at the beginning when the man is young, and so teach him in his morals and in his duty to his fellow man, and to his country, and to his God, that arriving at the age of manhood he could not fail to be a good citizen. Taking Jesus Christ of Nazareth, who died on the cross, as an example, he said, our young men if guided by the story of his life, and his teachings, and his example, while upon earth, cannot fail to attain that high degree of perfect citizenship which is America's own and the pride of the nation.

Hand organs abound in the city, and while Mr. Slocum was speaking one located in front of the hall and played
"My Pearl is a Bowery Girl." He was driven away. While Mr. Hackett sang another organ grinder arrived and ground out "Sweet Marie." Strange as it seems, when Mrs. Chant arose to speak another organ man located at the hall and played "My Sweetheart from Over the Sea."

Mrs. Chant in opening her address said that the first civic duty of women would be to frame such laws as would prohibit these outcasts from the dirtiest nation on earth coming to this country, and harassing people's lives with their noxious excuses for music. This statement brought forth a round of applause. Continuing she chided the women for their apparent lack of appreciation, their slowness in warming up to the subject as treated by Mr. Slocum, and said for herself she could scarce prevent giving vent to her feelings by stamping her feet on the floor and clapping her hands.

"More applause, I am ashamed of you." More applause. She advocated making friends with every one who is deserving of friendship, spoke for sociability, a more thorough universal spirit of brotherhood, claiming that such a course would tend to make better citizens. She referred to her love letters from her dear husband, 3000 miles across the sea, and to her children, particularly to "her dear, bonny girl," who will be proud to be good citizens and to make the men, who will be their husbands, as good citizens as they are themselves.

"One of the causes," she said, "of corruption in the close life of great municipalities is the ignorance and stupidity of the great masses, which could be speedily eliminated by the pure and wholesome example that would be set them by pure, good female citizens." She dwelt on the temperance question and said
"it is the duty of every well meaning citizen, either man or woman, to do all in his or her power to suppress this greatest evil of the 19th century. Duty knows no limit other than our capacity for filling it.
Teach the boys and girls in the school room that they are first of all human beings and let the question of sex take care of itself."

Mrs. Chant suggested that the audience join in singing "America," which was done. Then Mrs. Chant was requested to sing "God Save the Queen." She, however, suggested that she should sing "God Save the People," written during the corn famine by an English blacksmith, and recently set to music by a blind organist of London.

Lasell Notes.

On Saturday evening the usual party to the Symphony concert, Miss Plummer accompanying.

Mr. Bragdon took a small party to Eliot church Sunday evening.

On Monday evening Mr. Bragdon took several to hear Mr. Geo. Riddle, the accomplished reader, render Romeo and Juliet.
The Philharmonic Club also aided in making this one of the Star Course entertainments especially attractive.

Miss Evans and the members of the Lasell Christian Endeavor Society attended the reception tendered on Monday evening, to the Rev. Mr. Southgate by the members of the Congregational church. The reception was held in the church parlors.

On Wednesday evening a considerable number, with Mr. Bragdon, attended the installation service in the same church.
Mr. Southgate being this year formally installed as pastor of this church.

Miss Barrows' classes on Nov. 2nd and 16th, studied the subjects, "Fish, Frying, Sauces," and "Meats and Soups" respectively.

On Nov. 9th a dinner was prepared in the presence and by the assistance of the Second Year Cooking Class.

SEELYE-BLODGETT.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING IN ELIOT CHURCH

Miss Grace Allen Blodgett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blodgett, and Dr.
Ralph Holland Seelye, son of President Seelye of Smith College, were married at the Eliot Congregational church, Newton, last evening, President Seelye conducting the ceremony.

It was a 6 o'clock wedding, and one of the most notable in Newton for many months. The auditorium was crowded with representative people of the Newtons, Brookline and surrounding places, beside many from Springfield and elsewhere.

The decorations at the church were very elaborate. The chancel was filled with a huge bank of pure white chrysanthemums, relieved at either end and centre by tall palms and ferns.

The organist was Prof. B. C. Blodgett, and at the appointed hour, while he rendered the prelude to the "Lohengrin" wedding march, the bride party entered the church, led by the six ushers, followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Harriet Seelye, sister of the groom, and the bride, escorted by her father. The groom, attended by the best man, Mr.
Walter C. Seelye, met the bride at the chancel.

The ushers were Dr. J. J. Thomas of Boston, Dr. A. C. Jelly of Boston, Prof.
E. B. Delabarre of Brown University,
Mr. W. Ernest Blodgett, the bride's brother, Dr. E. A. Bates of Springfield and Mr. G. Hay of Boston.

The bride was gowned in white faille francaise, cut en traine, with garniture of point lace. She wore the customary long tulle veil, and carried a bunch of bride roses.

The maid of honor wore white crepon and carried a bunch of violets.

A wedding supper followed the ceremony at the residence of the bride's parents on Centre street. Only about 125 guests, members of the immediate families, were present, and the affair was entirely informal. The tables were garnished with pink chrysanthemums.

After the supper Mr. and Mrs. Seelye left on a short tour. On their return they will reside on Chestnut street, Springfield. They will be at home Tuesdays after Jan. 1.

Winter Board for Horses.

Those who send their horses away for the winter will be glad to know of a place that is highly recommended by many Newton people. This is the Hos-mer farm in Concord, owned for the last ten years by Mr. Geo. M. Baker, who has had twenty years of experience in the business. His buildings are model ones, fitted up with stalls for a hundred horses,
and box stalls can be had if desired.

There are sheltered yards for exercise and running water in the stable. The price is $2.50 to $3 per week, and the horses are grained twice a day, and will be returned ready for immediate use if given two weeks' notice. Carriages and harnesses are stored in a separate building, and horses are called for and returned free of expense. Horses sent to the farm receive the best of care, as the many old patrons will testify. Mr. Baker looks after everything personally.

Among his many Newton patrons are Messrs. F. H. Nichols, Daniel Dewey,
Arthur Brackett, A. F. Adams, L. L.
Brooks of Newton Centre; S. W. Jones and E. H. Tarbell of the Highlands; C.
S. Keene and C. E. Roberts of Newton-ville. Those who patronize him will find that their horses will be returned in the best of condition in the spring.

A Special Opportunity.

There happens to be just now the need of a new laundry apparatus at the Hospital, to cost about $1500. Perhaps some person in Newton may be willing to put a check to cover the cost, in the Hospital Sunday offerings. It would be a very acceptable Thanksgiving offering.

Rubber Tires.

The most reliable rubber tire, and also
the cheapest, is represented and the tires furnished by P. A. Murray. They are made by the Rubber Tire Wheel Co.,
who have a branch house in Boston.
There is no comfort in carriage riding
without rubber tires.

Nothing so distressing as a hacking
cough. Nothing so foolish as to suffer from
it. Nothing so dangerous if allowed to continue. One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief. Arthur H. Henson, Newton; Walter Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

Parisian
Fire Screens

We desire to invite attention to the large and varied assortment of these beautiful goods which we are now displaying. They exceed in artistic design and finish anything before shown. Our line
of

Specialties in Fine FIREPLACE
FURNISHINGS

was never so complete as at present. It includes ANDIRONS

(In WROUGHT IRON, BRASS AND ONYX.)
Fenders, Screens,
Grates and Fire Sets.

R. Hollings & Co.,

CITY GOVERNMENT.

President Degen occupied the chair at the absence of Mayor Bothfield at the special meeting of the board of aldermen, Tuesday evening. All the members were present.

The final order for the widening of Washington street from Germain street to Lincoln Park, West Newton, was adopted and the attention of the board was also occupied by the report of the special committee in the garbage crematory.

A communication was received from the Garden City Improvement Society, and placed on file, recommending that no further permits for the erection of factory buildings be granted in the line of the proposed Charles river boulevard of the Metropolitan Park Commission.

A communication from Nora Daley, claiming damages on account of a fall on a defective sidewalk on Eliot street, Upper Falls, Oct. 11, was received and referred to the claims committee.

On petition the board voted to appropriate the sewer assessment of Timothy Cole. Papers were received from the common council and disposed of in concurrence.

John A. Potter of West Newton was granted an auctioneer's license and John P. Desmond was granted permission to move a building from Walnut to Lowell street under the usual restrictions. James P. Segreves was referred to the license committee on petition for an express license.

A hearing was ordered Dec. 3, on petition of the New England Telephone Company for permission to attach wires to the poles of the Newton & Watertown Gas Company on Hawthorne, Laurel and Glen avenues.

Alderman Green presented a petition signed by A. H. Soden and others, for a hearing in regard to the abatement of an alleged nuisance, caused by a stable on Cabot street, Ward 2. He explained that these citizens felt that they had not received due consideration from the board of health. There was no appeal from the board of health and the petitioners believed that the alleged nuisance should be remedied.

On his motion a hearing was granted on the petition for Dec. 3.

On motion of Alderman Plummer Charles A. Miner was granted permission to move a building from Severns street to Auburndale avenue. Frank Joyal was referred to the highway committee on petition for concrete sidewalks on Crafts street.

The report of the special committee on garbage crematory, which was presented by Alderman White, called forth some rather personal remarks.

The report stated that when the Thackeray incineration in Montreal was visited by the city government committee, Oct. 13, it was not in operation. Its construction was thoroughly examined, however, and an opinion on its utility was obtained from unbiased persons.

So much of the recommendation of the board of health as related to the advisability of the crematory, but in as much as the system of the incineration of garbage was still in its experimental stage the committee did not believe that such a plant should at present be established, and recommended that the whole matter be referred to the next city government.

He stated that the Thackeray people had since offered to furnish bonds that they would construct a trial plant in Newton without cost to the city in case it was not adopted.

For the benefit of the board of health he stated that W. H. Magne had agreed to remove the swill at the figures next year as hitherto, although the city was in no way bound to him.

Alderman Bullard took issue with the committee on the statement that the cremation of garbage was still an experiment. There were plants in successful operation. He did not think the committee had sufficient evidence on which to base such a statement.

Alderman White said that he well knew that Alderman Bullard was represented at Montreal on the occasion of the committee's visit to the Thackeray plant. A gentleman who stood very close to Alderman Bullard, and who was greatly interested in garbage incinerators, had been posted by some unknown person in regard to the committee's visit, and was there before.

Alderman Green suggested that although the plant might be a success in Montreal, conditions in that city and Newton were widely different. The system was still an experiment and the Thackeray plant in Montreal was the only one in the country.

Alderman Bullard said the chairman of the committee had intimated that he was represented by proxy at Montreal. It was true that he had been interested in the question of the cremation of garbage for several years. He had hoped Newton would adopt some system and that the best. He thought the Thackeray system an impracticable one for many reasons. The cremation of garbage was not impracticable, however. A gentleman, who was interested in a system, which was nearly perfect, had asked him for information in regard to the committee's visit to Montreal, which he had supplied, and the gentleman had gone to Montreal on his own authority.

Alderman Tolman asked if the alderman from Ward 3 had any financial interest in any incinerator. Alderman Bullard replied, "not the slightest."

Alderman Green stated that the Committee's report had been made on such information as was obtainable. Its visit to Montreal had been justified by its report and the city had been saved a doubtful expenditure. The report was then adopted.

On motion of Alderman Tolman the mayor was authorized to purchase 4,490 square feet of land of Caroline J. Barker for $6,743 for the widening of Washington street.

A petition of the Hingham Mutual Fire Insurance Company and others for the laying out of a new street between Grove and Maple streets, Ward 4, was received and referred to the highway committee. Orders were adopted for the laying of a sewer in Birch hill road and for the construction of concrete sidewalks on Edinboro street, Ward 2.

Orders were presented by Alderman Plummer and adopted, discontinuing portions of Washington street at West Newton and Commonwealth avenue near Rowe street. An order was adopted, providing for the widening of Commonwealth avenue near Severns street, Ward 4.

The highway committee reported in favor of widening Washington street from Lincoln Park to Germain street, West Newton, to a width of 80 feet in accordance with the plans originally adopted by the city council and before the plan presented by Henry L. King was considered. An order in accordance with this report and for providing for the seizure of land was adopted. Alderman Bullard voting in the negative. At 10 o'clock no other business being presented the board adjourned to next Monday night.

Say, why don't you try Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers? These little pills cure head, ache, indigestion and constipation. They're small, but do the work. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

COMMON COUNCIL.

SEVERAL HEARINGS GIVEN AND CONSIDERABLE CONCURRENT BUSINESS DISPOSED OF.

At the meeting of the common council, Monday evening, hearings were given on orders providing for the taking of land for sewer purposes, on Birch Hill and Edinboro street, for the widening of a portion of Commonwealth avenue, and for the relocation of Appleton street. No remonstrants appeared except in the case of the proposed relocation of Appleton street. Mr. Curtis Abbott appeared for Dr. Chase and objected to the line of the street as laid out. He said that it would be an injury to the estate owned by Dr. Chase, and suggested locating the street farther west. By following out that plan, he claimed that the cost to the city on account of land damages would be decreased.

Mr. W. H. Chapman also appeared in opposition. He said that the location of the street farther west would result in a saving to the city and remove cause for objection to the improvement by those whose property would be damaged if the line as originally mapped out was adhered to.

Mrs. D. C. Heath advocated the line of the street as provided for in the city engineer's survey, and opposed the carrying out of the suggestions made by Messrs. Abbott and Chapman. The hearing was closed.

A large amount of concurrent business was disposed of. It was expected that the finance committee would report the annual appropriation order, but as it had only been able to get it in readiness for the printer a few moments before the board convened, action upon it was necessarily delayed. It was voted, therefore, that when the council adjourned it be to meet again this Friday evening, for deliberation upon the appropriation budget being especially assigned for this date.

Orders were adopted in concurrence, appropriating $500 for settlement of damages on account of the Cheesecake brook boulevard and $510 for new water mains in River and other streets.

How's This!

We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligation he may enter into with respect to Wholesale Druggists.

WALTER & THURAX, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. W. L. KINNAID & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

NEWTON CLUB TEAM CHAMPION.

RESULT OF THE FALL TOURNAMENT OF THE NEW ENGLAND WHIST ASSOCIATION.

The fall tournaments of the New England Whist Association were held at Worcester, beginning last Friday evening and closing Saturday evening. Of the thirty-five clubs in the association, over twenty were represented either by pairs or fours, and three States were represented. The great contest was between teams of fours for the vice president's trophy. The play for this trophy began Friday evening and concluded Saturday afternoon. The result of the play was that the Newton Club team (composed of F. M. Copeland, George W. Morse, Dr. H. P. Perkins and Arthur H. Terrell) was the winner, as it also was at the last annual tournament of the association.

The following named clubs met in the contest for the vice president's prize in teams of four, in the order of their rank. The figures represent the number of teams defeated, each team playing matches with eleven other teams. Where there were ties they count one-half: Newton, 9; American, 8 1/2; Providence Whist, 7 1/2; Pastimes of Newton, 6; Narragansetts of Providence, 6; Boston Duplicate, 5 1/2; Providence Athletic, 5; Leominster, 0; Highlands of Lowell, 0; Milford, (N. H.), 0; Commonwealth of Worcester, 0; O. O. Colony of Fall River, 0.

In the duplicate contest between pairs, there were seventeen tables or thirty-two pairs. Total play was 1712 points, an average of 101. Colonel A. M. Bennett of Boston, and V. D. Morse of Providence, won first prize for the North and South. On the East and West side Mr. Becken of the American Whist Club of Boston, and G. W. Morse of the Newton Club, tied with Walter H. Barney of Providence and partner and Stratton and Baker. It was decided, as there was no time to play off these ties, that prizes should be awarded to each pair in the tie.

How to Cure a Cold.

The old way was to drug the patient with narcotics, in fact the principle ingredient in all the old time cough syrups was morphine, chloroform, codeine or opium. The effect was to stop the cough by artificial means and trust to nature to cure. All this has been changed by the introduction of Dr. Livioli's syrup of turpentine. Its strong point is that it contains no narcotics, or any drug that can injure the system, and from the first dose attacks the cause of the malady; it assimilates with the blood, removes uric acid from the system and speedily effects a cure. It is now having an enormous sale and those who have used it speak very highly of its effects. It is most palatable and the children cry for it.

The healing properties of Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers are well known. They cure eye, ear, skin affections and are simply a perfect remedy for piles. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

GOLF IN NEWTON.

TWO ORGANIZATIONS NOW PROMOTING THE SPORT IN THIS SECTION.

First to introduce the game of golf in the Newtons was the Newton Golf Club, which now has a membership of over 50, and a waiting list. The club's links are located upon the Gardner Colby estate of 38 acres, which is located on Centre street, and is considered to be the finest in Newton. The lay of the land is well adapted to the game, and the course is kept in fine condition, although as yet no green keeper has been appointed. The committee on green, consisting of Messrs. Fred H. Hovey, William Rice and Miss Florence Andrews, has that matter in charge, as well as that of naming the holes, which has not been done as yet.

The membership of the club is made up of the representative social lights of the Newtons, as may be judged by a perusal of the following names:

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Walworth, Mr. J. J. Walworth, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew B. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Mathews, Dr. and Mrs. William E. Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Walker, Prof. Rush Rhees, Mr. Fred H. Hovey, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Green, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hunter, Mrs. Dickerson, Miss Grace Dickerson, Mrs. Sanborn, Miss Florence Andrews, Miss Dora Thomas, Miss Ruth Lippincott, Miss Sarah Sanborn, Miss Alice Sylvester, Miss Grace Rowe, Miss Adelaide LeCompt, Miss Elizabeth Conforth, Miss Carrie Coppins, Miss Angie Parker, Mr. Edwin Reed, Mr. William Rice, Mr. Arthur Fowle, Mr. A. W. Smith, Mr. Walter Sanborn, Mr. Ralph Thomas, Mr. Fred Risling, Mr. Walter LeCompt, Mr. Harry J. Carlsberg.

As yet no playing "fixtures" have been made, but the club intends to occupy a prominent position in golf circles ere long and will make every effort to interest its members with handicap club tournaments, and later on may select a team to compete against those of other clubs.

One of the younger of the Newton organizations is the Newton Centre Golf Club, which was formed Oct. 5, and now has over a score of members, most of whom are enthusiastic players of the fascinating game. The course is laid upon 30 acres of land on the easterly slope of Institute Hill, between Langley road and Cypress street, and is a mile and 200 yards around. It is well adapted for the development of expert play, as it has many natural hazards. Members of the County and Essex County Clubs who have played upon the links pronounce them equal, if not superior, to the others.

Mr. Herbert D. Ward, husband of Elizabeth Stuart Puels, is president of the club, and is considered its most proficient player. He holds the club record for nine holes at 52. Treasurer Fred H. Hovey comes next with 57, while Secretary A. E. Alvord and Mr. Clinton Hunter are rated very good.

The holes, named by President Ward, with distance between, are as follows:

No. Yds. No. Yds.
1-Hummocks.....172 6-Druids.....217
2-Knoll.....201 7-Orchard.....222
3-Gravel.....221 8-Comfort.....224
4-Hollow.....231 9-Horne.....245
5-Agony.....251
"Agony" is the most difficult hole, as the course to it is all up hill and over a stone wall. The "Druids" are a collection of upright stones. There was some talk of holding a tournament this fall, but being so late in the season none will be held until spring. The putting greens are complete and in fine order, and everything will be in early readiness for a lively season next year. Everything which is not the natural green is considered a "hazard."

A. G. Bartley of Mazie, Pa., writes: I feel the duty of mine to inform you and the public that Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers cured me of a very bad case of eczema. It also cured my boy of a running sore on his leg. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

NEWTON VS HYDE PARK

NEITHER SIDE ABLE TO SCORE AND THE CHAMPIONSHIP STILL UNSETTLED.

The first championship game between the Hyde Park and Newton Athletic Association eleven for the silver cup of the Suburban league was played at Newton Centre Saturday afternoon, and resulted in a tie, neither side being able to score. The Newton men had anticipated an easy victory.

Hyde Park's line, as a whole, showed unexpected strength, and more than held its more experienced opponent, the Newton backs being seldom able to gain through it. Hyde Park's interference was poor, due to the fact that the team, as a whole, had never played before.

Newton exhibited fine interference at times in around the end plays, and behind Nichols and Sears made several long gains.

The grounds were wet and slippery, which fact interfered greatly with the work of both teams. Newton made several costly fumbles, and nearly every time a Hyde Park player dropped on the ball.

Legate played a strong game at centre for Hyde Park, and was ably supported by the two guards, Worcester and McLean. Worcester smashed up interference in great style and tackled well. Gallagher put up an excellent game at left end, and dropped the man with the ball several times for a loss.

For Newton, Smith interfered for his backs splendidly, and kept the team on the move all the time. Teale and Nash were in every play. Nichols made several star runs, and Sears hit the line for good gains. Paul stopped all plays directed at him and tackled well.

No game did not begin until late, and only 10 minutes of the second half could be played.

The eleven will play off the tie game at Newton Centre next Saturday.

In the first half time was called on account of an injury to one of the players, and during the interval the captains of both teams agreed that it was too dark to continue playing.

HYDE PARK. NEWTON
Gallagher, J. E. F. E. Johnson (Sears)
Worcester, J. E. F. E. Johnson (Teale)
Leahy, C. F. E. Johnson (Teale)
Miles, F. F. E. Johnson (Teale)
Nichols, F. F. E. Johnson (Teale)
Paul, F. F. E. Johnson (Teale)
Sears, F. F. E. Johnson (Teale)
Smith, F. F. E. Johnson (Teale)
Teale, F. F. E. Johnson (Teale)
Trotter, F. F. E. Johnson (Teale)
Worcester, F. F. E. Johnson (Teale)
Yarnall, F. F. E. Johnson (Teale)
Zachary, F. F. E. Johnson (Teale)

Removal . . .
After
November 8th,

Newton Graphic

will be located in its own building, at

16 Centre Place,
just above the NEWTON
RAILROAD STATION

Centre Place connects with Washington street through the tunnel, which will be convenient for passengers coming by the electric cars, and its nearness to the Railroad Station, will be handy for the people who patronize the steam cars.

The new building will give nearly 600 square feet additional floor space which is needed for our large

JOB PRINTING

Department. It has been conveniently arranged for work, and will be fitted up with all the modern improvements. Patrons will bear in mind the change of location after Nov. 15th, to 16 CENTRE PLACE.

TEETH
EXTRACTED
WITHOUT PAIN

By our new method. A simple application to the gum. You don't lose consciousness. Is not dangerous to those having heart trouble.

FULL SET
OF TEETH, $6

Best quality. Extraction Painless. Warranted 5 years.

All kinds of Fillings. 75c. up
Solid Gold Crowns or teeth without plates. $5.00

All work warranted and kept in repair free of charge.
Largest and finest Dental Parlors in New England.

Hundreds of teeth extracted daily by our painless process; no bad results, some mouths improved.

BOSTON DENTAL
PARLORS Under Entirely
New Management.

681 Washington St., Boston.
Cor. Lagrange st., opp. Cobb, Bates & Yerxa.

HOURS, 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. SUNDAYS 10 to 2.

FRANCIS MURDOCK.

INSURANCE AGENT,
Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT
placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies
Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord Mass

Member of the Master Builders' Association,
166 Devonshire Street.
(Established 1846.) (Incorporated 1894.)
(Connected by Telephone.)

JOHN FARQUHAR'S SONS,

INCORPORATED.

Roofers, Metal Workers,

Slate, Copper, Tin, Tile, and Composition Roofing. Galvanized Iron Work. Dealers in all Roofing Materials.

20 and 22 East Street, Boston.

Special attention given to repairs of all kinds of Roofing.

Samuel Farquhar, Pres.; David Farquhar, Sec. and Treas.; Joseph Farquhar, Sup't.; John Farquhar, Frank C. Farquhar, Directors.

PURE MILK

SUPPLIED DAILY FROM

Prospect Valley Farm

One cow's milk supplied when desired

H. COLDWELL & SON,

Waltham, Mass.

Livery Stables.

DANIEL'S

Nonantum Stables.

HENRY C. DANIELS, Proprietor.

Patrons will find at these Stable the best of Horses and Carriages for hire. Landaus and Hack, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Sa and reliable horses for lads to drive.

BOARDING

Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses. Clean and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt attention.

Telephone 271-3.

GEO. W. BUSH,

Livery, Hack & Boarding

STABLE.

Particular attention paid to Boarding Horses. Hacks at depot or the conveyance of passengers to any part of the city. Horses and carriages to let for business or pleasure.

ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.

Telephone Connection.

Livery, Hack,

Established 61.

Barges, City of Newton Garden City.

Boat Sleigh, Snow Bird.

F. CATE

W. Newton.

Boarding Stable.

Ranges, Furnaces,

Water Heaters,

Steam Boilers,

AT FACTORY STORE OF

Walker & Pratt Mfg. Co.,

GALEN STREET, WATERTOWN, MASS.

Telephone No. 130, Newton.

Furnaces, Ranges Cleaned and Repaired

L. H. CRANITCH,

House, Sign, and Ornamental

PAINTER.

Paper Hangings in great variety and work promptly done.

Walnut St., - Newtonville.

2nd door from Central Block.

Howard Ice Co.,

Successors to Howard Bros.

ORDERS FOR

ICE

RECEIVED AT

T. L. MASON'S, 390 Centre Street

P. O. Address, Box 65, Newton.

A. L. HOWARD. E. E. HOWARD.

Telephone 13-3, Newton.

Newton and Watertown

Gas Light Company

All orders for Gas or Electric Lighting left at their office 421 Centre St., will receive prompt attention.

C. A. HARRINGTON

LUMBER,

Lime, Cement, Plaster, &c.

Crafts St., Newtonville, Mass.

Telephone 449, Newton

J. H. LOOKER,

French Cleansing and Dyeing

Particular attention paid to

Blankets, Lace Curtains, Fine

Linens and Hand Laundry

Work of all kinds.

No. 21 Carleton Street.

NEWTON, MASS.

Dry Cleansing and Repairing a Specialty.

Particular attention paid to

Blankets, Lace Curtains, Fine

Linens and Hand Laundry

Work of all kinds.

No. 21 Carleton Street.

NEWTON, MASS.

Dry Cleansing and Repairing a Specialty.

BOOK

—AND—

JOB PRINTING

Of Every Description

Promptly Executed at

the

Newton Graphic

OFFICE

285 Washington Street,

NEWTON.

Plumbers.

HEWITT & THOMAS,

Practical Plumbers.

And Sanitary Engineers.

247 WASHINGTON ST.,

Nonantum Block, Newton.

M. C. HIGGINS,

Practical Plumber

—AND—

SANITARY ENGINEER.

Plumbing Work in all its branches.

Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city, perfect satisfaction is guaranteed.

Sumner's Block, Newton.

THE LIGHTNING BUG.

On a pleasant, bright June evening they were walking hand and hand in the park. Both were young and beautiful. The girl was leaning her head on his shoulder, he stooping from time to time for the purpose of pressing his warm lips to her light hair, plainly combed above her forehead. Around and above them the branches formed dark walls and thick arches, through which penetrated the rays of the golden eyes of the stars or a light breeze of the evening, bringing with it the sweet aroma of jasmine and lilies.

They were walking silent, with the slow and lazy step of the enamored, who would like to have the promenade in the pleasant summer night prolonged infinitely. Each of them was thinking for himself, and their thoughts, without words, met each other involuntarily, accomplished by warm pressing of hands.

Suddenly in the thickets, among the fragrant jasmynes, a vibrating light appeared, followed by another, then by a third, still clearer, and finally winged, greenish swarms of sparks surrounded them.

"Look, the lightning bugs!"

"How pretty, mysterious and light."

"They are vibrating as an inexpressible word of love, and they are burning as passion breaking its ties."

"Look, this one is hanging upon your forehead; that one is as your guiding star."

"And the other above shines greenish, like your eyes when you are cross. I would like, my only one, to make of these stars an aureole above your light head."

A silver laugh spread itself in the secluded path.

"And it seems to me that it is the third act of 'Robert the Devil.' The pentecost souls are burning; we are walking in the cemetery."

"No, this is not a cemetery. It is the summer of life and earthly happiness. I love you!" And she stopped, in order that in the dark he might read from the light of her shining eyes a cordial answer.

They were much in love with each other, faithfully and sincerely. The young heart and the dreaming months were joined together, not merely by momentary excitement of passion or by hallucination of feverish imagination. She, in order to come down to him, overcame a great many prejudices and the judgment of caste; he captured her by a strong and persevering will; she enticed his ideal; he made known to her all his beliefs; and while she from his eyes and mouth guessed and became acquainted with the truth of life, he, following on her face the effects and emotions, became closely united to her in thought and feeling, and gently whispered, "You are mine."

Both were young, yet had gone through a fierce trial of separation and pain, she so long with that full, sweet humility of a woman who would bury herself in ashes under the feet of her lover; he with heart overflowing with manly pride, that in this passionately desired beauty he found himself and soul entirely in sympathy with his own.

They went farther, silently, in the mysterious shadows of the walk, but involuntarily the memory of the cemetery, as it were, caused between them a shadow of sorrow and thought, the cloud which, even under the melting influence of the words "I love you" did not want to disappear. Death is stronger than love, and loneliness deeper than happiness. They went further, looking at the phosphorescent sparks.

The girl suddenly lifted her head and whispered softly:

"Do you know that this moment the reminiscence of a woman whom you have loved once stands between us. Is it not true?"

She divined. She was accustomed to thinking and feeling in harmony with him. At once, by intuition, she came upon the face of a person unknown to her, a stranger of rival thought. He shivered, embraced her more tightly and stood still for a while.

"Let's go farther," said she.

"Listen, I will tell you all."

"Why, I love you, believe me."

"Listen, among us there is this one last secret, troubling, annoying my mind, as a nightmare, and I shall not rid myself of this pale ghost of the far-away past unless I tell you all."

"Did you love her?" she asked with a nervous vibration of voice.

"She was handsome as a Greek cameo, and always smiling, as a goddess of happiness; she was curious, proud, passionate, of an artistic nature; she fascinated me, drew me to her, intoxicated me. When she took in her white, cold hands my hand, my temples burned, and when she sat in the voice of a siren I felt that my will and strength were failing."

"Did you love her?" asked the girl nervously.

"It seemed to me that her love must be the greatest happiness on earth, and that I would then give my life to give the consummation of her deep black eyes."

"Look," said he, after a while, as if gathering his thoughts, and showing her the lighted, shining and moving mass in the thicket, "and listen to the reminiscences of the long-gone years of my childhood. I was for the first time, in the country, and for the first time, on a warm evening, I saw lightning bugs shining with a sharp, greenish light, in the dark thicket of the park. Child of the city, excited by the unaccustomed sight, I chased the moving light and wished to possess such a star, to look at while it was new, and to take it for my own. A chase was made and one of the handsomest bugs was tightly shut up in a glass. Charmed, I took my treasure, placed it in my room, near my bed, and in the night I dreamt of a gigantic sun, throwing light on all the paths and thickets of the garden."

"In the morning I was awakened by the first rays of dawn. I looked at once in the direction of the glass palace, where lived my queen of light, but instead of the imprisoned star, there appeared to me, only a miserable, black bug. 'But she, the woman whom you loved?' asked the girl impatiently.

"She was an enchantress, with the voice of a siren, an artist by blood and flesh, a dark-eyed and tempting problem, but only in the twilight of our mysterious love, in the overheated, sick and languid imagination of mind. Her Greek profile and smile of a sphinx needed an unnatural light and sparkling animation, an artificial spur; in the usual surroundings, in the light of day and truth of life, strong and sincere sentiments, sacrifices and pity, she was only a black bug."

He leaned over, and in dumb and warm homage he pressed both her hands to his lips.

"You are crying, my dear, why? Indeed, you love and believe?"

She was silent awhile, then answered with a hearty vibration of pity in her voice:

"I pity the dark bug. Perhaps—perhaps it also has a soul!"

S. C. DE SOISSONS.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed." A friend advised me to try Ely's Cream Balm and after using it six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrh. It is a most valuable remedy.—Joseph Stewart, 624 Grand Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

My son was afflicted with catarrh. I induced him to try Ely's Cream Balm and the disagreeable catarrhal smell all left him. He appears as well as any one.—J. O. Olmstead, Arcola, Ill.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

Truths Seen by Contrast.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stowe Twitchell of Wollaston Heights gave an address on Monday evening at the home of Mr. C. B. Fillebrown, on the subject "Truths Seen by Contrast," to an enthusiastic audience.

A most spirited discussion followed the address and almost every hand was raised to come again in two weeks to continue it.

Mrs. Twitchell began her lecture by speaking of the confusion of thought which surrounds almost every social question today. In this, slowly, surely, truth is emerging from error. By giving a patient and unprejudiced hearing to every theory and then judging it for one's self, each is helping onward the progress of truth, of civilization. Sixteen years ago, after years of exhaustive study of political economy, after long and prayerful wrestling with the problem—why, amid all our industrial and scientific progress, and this advancing, increasing wealth, do we not outrun poverty? After long wrestling with the problem Henry George made a vow to himself that if the solution could be found he would seek for it. He tells us that this problem haunted him night and day and would not let him rest. "At last I found the answer!" It came to me clear as the stars at midnight, and I knew I had found the truth. In seeking for this solution he discovered some remarkable economic laws which as truly run through and influence our social body as the laws of gravitation do our physical body. To understand these laws with the intellect requires not only some previous knowledge of economic terms, but a peculiar cast of thought, a mind capable of pure abstract reasoning, but to understand these laws and their workings by means of the moral instincts is easy and simple, for they are questions of human relations. In seeking these laws Henry George also discovered some of the fallacies of the present doctrines taught in our schools.

Mrs. Twitchell then proceeded to hold up before the audience some of the fallacies of the schools and showed the effect of these false theories upon society, upon our attitude toward our fellow men, and our feelings toward God. "These doctrines have led to skepticism and selfish repose, and also blinding us to the solemn responsibility that lies across the pathway of each, that personal, social responsibility for present cruel, hard conditions. She then held up in contrast the new theories taught by Henry George and said that the latter brought back again our faith in a loving heavenly Father, who truly cares for mankind, how these awakened us to a keen sense of the sacredness of all human relations. These truths are not socialistic, they teach that there is a moral, a stronger than a legal foundation for the rights of property, but that property is the free gift of God, it is different in essence from property in the things produced by man's labor, that the gifts of God as bestowed upon men through the bounties of nature should be enjoyed by all equally, since we are all equally his children, we are all equally dependent on his bounty. She then described how unequal are these conditions today. 50,000 families own 50 per cent. of the land value of this country. Here is a gigantic monopoly which, because it displays itself under different forms, in different localities, we do not recognize as such. The foundation of it is one vast monopoly of land values or ground rents. In one locality it appears as an oil monopoly, another a coal, copper, silver, iron, and even our railroad, telegraph, telephone, gas, etc., are all indirectly land value monopolies. This ever increasing wealth in the hands of a few is a dangerous power which corrupts our politics by bribing the machines to vote away the people's rights. Which will you have, a government by the corporations, of the corporations, and for the corporations, or remain apathetic to these growing doctrines of socialism, which teach that interest is robbery, trade theft, property but a creation of law and the easy and comfortable solution of all our trouble, to let government furnish work for the idle, and run all our industries? Or will you accept our doctrines of less government instead of more, of conforming our laws as nearly as possible to the highest moral and Christian principles, that all men are brothers, and therefore we believe in equal rights and equal opportunities. That the poor do not need governmental nursing, but rather that monopoly get their backs. One of these three doctrines will yet obtain in this country. It is either of the first two the blame will be with those who today neglect the grave and solemn responsibility of studying these great questions while there is yet time, and throwing their influence upon the side of truth.

No more Headaches.

"I am greatly pleased with the paper dolls which were sent for one trade mark from Hood's Pills and ten cents in stamps. I was tired and never felt like working and often had headaches, but since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I do not have these feelings." Edward Richie, Shirley Village, Mass.

Hood's Pills cure biliousness, indigestion.

That Vermont Minister.

(Boston Herald.)

The parishioners of the Vermont clergyman who was threatened with dismissal from his church, have discovered that he voted for Cleveland, have not only voted to retain his services, but they have gone out of their way to express their confidence in him as a pastor and as a citizen. The good sense of the Vermont Yankees has not deserted them yet.

It's just as easy to try One Minute Cough Cure as any thing else. It's easier to cure a severe cough or cold with it. Let your next purchase for a cough be One Minute Cough Cure. Better medicine; better results; better try it. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

FOR CHARLES RIVER.

THE GARDEN CITY IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY CONSIDER PLANS FOR ITS IMPROVEMENT.

The Garden City Improvement Society met in Elliot Lower Hall, Saturday evening, with Vice-President James T. Allen in the chair. Dr. Stearns read a report on the work of the Metropolitan Park Commission and remarks on the necessity of preventing further pollution of the waters and banks of the Charles River were made by Messrs. Langford, Ballou, Chadwick, Lawson, E. W. Gay and Rev. Dr. Shinn.

The following resolutions presented by Mr. Langford were unanimously passed:

Resolved: That the contemplated improvements along the Charles River as set forth in the report of the joint commission, consisting of the Metropolitan Park Commission and the State Board of Health, presented to the Legislature of 1894 should be carried forward and that all lands recommended by said commission to be required for parks and boulevards, as shown upon the plans accompanying said report, should be seized and held for the future development of this grand water parkway in the center of the Metropolitan district.

Resolved: That the Legislature by accepting the report of said commission and appropriating the sum of $200,000 for the purchase of lands along the Charles River from "Essex street bridge at Cottage Farm towards the source of the river" has shown its intention of carrying out the recommendations of said commission, therefore the granting of permits to erect manufacturing factories within the territory set forth, must result in increasing the cost of such lands when seizure is made without corresponding benefit to the municipality, and that the granting of such permits should be discontinued.

Resolved: That the Legislature should empower the Metropolitan Park Commission to make immediate seizure of all lands lying between Essex street bridge at Cottage Farm and the Waltham line as set forth in the report and shown upon plans of the joint commission and make necessary appropriations to cover the cost of such action.

Resolved: That the City of Newton should extend the proposed system of parks and boulevards to the banks of the Charles River from the Waltham line to Mother Brook at Dedham, and earnestly desire that all lands necessary to fully complete the proposed water parkway be seized and held for public purposes.

Resolved: That our Senator and Representatives to the General Court be requested to take such action as may be necessary to secure for the public use, all lands along the Charles River recommended by the joint commission, to be taken for that purpose and to carry forward the general plan of improvements along the Charles as set forth by said joint commission.

Resolved: That a committee of seven be appointed to represent this society at any and all hearings that may be held upon this subject, and to consider the expediency of filing the Metropolitan Park Commission and State Board of Health.

Resolved: That since the City of Newton has so large an interest in the work of the Metropolitan Park Commission, it is desirable that one of its citizens be selected to fill the vacancy now existing upon that board, and we respectfully request His Excellency, the Governor, to consider the expediency of filling the vacancy by appointing thereon a resident of the City of Newton.

A motion was passed to have a committee of seven appointed by President Francis A. Dawson, to take charge of the matter and represent the society at the meetings of the Metropolitan Park Commission and at legislative hearings.

The following resolutions furnished by Rev. Dr. Shinn were also passed:

Resolved: That the authorities of Newton and Woburn be respectfully requested to grant no more permits for the erection of factories or other buildings along the Charles River, by which that waterway will be polluted and the plans of the Metropolitan Park Commission be thwarted or interfered with.

FOR CHARLES RIVER.

THE GARDEN CITY IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY CONSIDER PLANS FOR ITS IMPROVEMENT.

The Garden City Improvement Society met in Elliot Lower Hall, Saturday evening, with Vice-President James T. Allen in the chair. Dr. Stearns read a report on the work of the Metropolitan Park Commission and remarks on the necessity of preventing further pollution of the waters and banks of the Charles River were made by Messrs. Langford, Ballou, Chadwick, Lawson, E. W. Gay and Rev. Dr. Shinn.

The following resolutions presented by Mr. Langford were unanimously passed:

Resolved: That the contemplated improvements along the Charles River as set forth in the report of the joint commission, consisting of the Metropolitan Park Commission and the State Board of Health, presented to the Legislature of 1894 should be carried forward and that all lands recommended by said commission to be required for parks and boulevards, as shown upon the plans accompanying said report, should be seized and held for the future development of this grand water parkway in the center of the Metropolitan district.

Resolved: That the Legislature by accepting the report of said commission and appropriating the sum of $200,000 for the purchase of lands along the Charles River from "Essex street bridge at Cottage Farm towards the source of the river" has shown its intention of carrying out the recommendations of said commission, therefore the granting of permits to erect manufacturing factories within the territory set forth, must result in increasing the cost of such lands when seizure is made without corresponding benefit to the municipality, and that the granting of such permits should be discontinued.

Resolved: That the Legislature should empower the Metropolitan Park Commission to make immediate seizure of all lands lying between Essex street bridge at Cottage Farm and the Waltham line as set forth in the report and shown upon plans of the joint commission and make necessary appropriations to cover the cost of such action.

Resolved: That the City of Newton should extend the proposed system of parks and boulevards to the banks of the Charles River from the Waltham line to Mother Brook at Dedham, and earnestly desire that all lands necessary to fully complete the proposed water parkway be seized and held for public purposes.

Resolved: That our Senator and Representatives to the General Court be requested to take such action as may be necessary to secure for the public use, all lands along the Charles River recommended by the joint commission, to be taken for that purpose and to carry forward the general plan of improvements along the Charles as set forth by said joint commission.

Resolved: That a committee of seven be appointed to represent this society at any and all hearings that may be held upon this subject, and to consider the expediency of filing the Metropolitan Park Commission and State Board of Health.

Resolved: That since the City of Newton has so large an interest in the work of the Metropolitan Park Commission, it is desirable that one of its citizens be selected to fill the vacancy now existing upon that board, and we respectfully request His Excellency, the Governor, to consider the expediency of filling the vacancy by appointing thereon a resident of the City of Newton.

A motion was passed to have a committee of seven appointed by President Francis A. Dawson, to take charge of the matter and represent the society at the meetings of the Metropolitan Park Commission and at legislative hearings.

The following resolutions furnished by Rev. Dr. Shinn were also passed:

Resolved: That the authorities of Newton and Woburn be respectfully requested to grant no more permits for the erection of factories or other buildings along the Charles River, by which that waterway will be polluted and the plans of the Metropolitan Park Commission be thwarted or interfered with.

Resolved: That the City of Newton should extend the proposed system of parks and boulevards to the banks of the Charles River from the Waltham line to Mother Brook at Dedham, and earnestly desire that all lands necessary to fully complete the proposed water parkway be seized and held for public purposes.

Resolved: That our Senator and Representatives to the General Court be requested to take such action as may be necessary to secure for the public use, all lands along the Charles River recommended by the joint commission, to be taken for that purpose and to carry forward the general plan of improvements along the Charles as set forth by said joint commission.

Resolved: That a committee of seven be appointed to represent this society at any and all hearings that may be held upon this subject, and to consider the expediency of filing the Metropolitan Park Commission and State Board of Health.

Resolved: That since the City of Newton has so large an interest in the work of the Metropolitan Park Commission, it is desirable that one of its citizens be selected to fill the vacancy now existing upon that board, and we respectfully request His Excellency, the Governor, to consider the expediency of filling the vacancy by appointing thereon a resident of the City of Newton.

A motion was passed to have a committee of seven appointed by President Francis A. Dawson, to take charge of the matter and represent the society at the meetings of the Metropolitan Park Commission and at legislative hearings.

The following resolutions furnished by Rev. Dr. Shinn were also passed:

Resolved: That the authorities of Newton and Woburn be respectfully requested to grant no more permits for the erection of factories or other buildings along the Charles River, by which that waterway will be polluted and the plans of the Metropolitan Park Commission be thwarted or interfered with.

Resolved: That the City of Newton should extend the proposed system of parks and boulevards to the banks of the Charles River from the Waltham line to Mother Brook at Dedham, and earnestly desire that all lands necessary to fully complete the proposed water parkway be seized and held for public purposes.

Resolved: That our Senator and Representatives to the General Court be requested to take such action as may be necessary to secure for the public use, all lands along the Charles River recommended by the joint commission, to be taken for that purpose and to carry forward the general plan of improvements along the Charles as set forth by said joint commission.

Resolved: That a committee of seven be appointed to represent this society at any and all hearings that may be held upon this subject, and to consider the expediency of filing the Metropolitan Park Commission and State Board of Health.

Resolved: That since the City of Newton has so large an interest in the work of the Metropolitan Park Commission, it is desirable that one of its citizens be selected to fill the vacancy now existing upon that board, and we respectfully request His Excellency, the Governor, to consider the expediency of filling the vacancy by appointing thereon a resident of the City of Newton.

A motion was passed to have a committee of seven appointed by President Francis A. Dawson, to take charge of the matter and represent the society at the meetings of the Metropolitan Park Commission and at legislative hearings.

The following resolutions furnished by Rev. Dr. Shinn were also passed:

Resolved: That the authorities of Newton and Woburn be respectfully requested to grant no more permits for the erection of factories or other buildings along the Charles River, by which that waterway will be polluted and the plans of the Metropolitan Park Commission be thwarted or interfered with.

Resolved: That the City of Newton should extend the proposed system of parks and boulevards to the banks of the Charles River from the Waltham line to Mother Brook at Dedham, and earnestly desire that all lands necessary to fully complete the proposed water parkway be seized and held for public purposes.

Resolved: That our Senator and Representatives to the General Court be requested to take such action as may be necessary to secure for the public use, all lands along the Charles River recommended by the joint commission, to be taken for that purpose and to carry forward the general plan of improvements along the Charles as set forth by said joint commission.

Resolved: That a committee of seven be appointed to represent this society at any and all hearings that may be held upon this subject, and to consider the expediency of filing the Metropolitan Park Commission and State Board of Health.

Resolved: That since the City of Newton has so large an interest in the work of the Metropolitan Park Commission, it is desirable that one of its citizens be selected to fill the vacancy now existing upon that board, and we respectfully request His Excellency, the Governor, to consider the expediency of filling the vacancy by appointing thereon a resident of the City of Newton.

A motion was passed to have a committee of seven appointed by President Francis A. Dawson, to take charge of the matter and represent the society at the meetings of the Metropolitan Park Commission and at legislative hearings.

The following resolutions furnished by Rev. Dr. Shinn were also passed:

Resolved: That the authorities of Newton and Woburn be respectfully requested to grant no more permits for the erection of factories or other buildings along the Charles River, by which that waterway will be polluted and the plans of the Metropolitan Park Commission be thwarted or interfered with.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

WHAT IT IS AND WHAT IT IS NOT EXPLAINED BY REV. GEORGE W. SHINN.

In St. James' Episcopal church, North Cambridge, Sunday evening, Rev. Geo. W. Shinn, D. D., of Newton told what Christian Science was and what it was not, and termed the growth of this science, "one of the most remarkable movements of modern times."

Many persons, he thought, were led to accept Mrs. Eddy's philosophy through ignorance as to what that philosophy was. Christian Science, said the speaker, was not faith cure or mind cure, or hypnotism or spiritualism. It differed radically from all of these, but it is the science of metaphysical healing. According to Mrs. Eddy's philosophy, matter does not exist, and hence disease and death are not real, but imaginary. Evidently the belief in matter and there can be no sickness; destroy belief in death and there will be no dying. People die now only because they have become so used to the idea of death that this error cannot be banished from their mind. Death will be no more when the principles of Christian Science are further developed and understood, according to Mrs. Eddy.

This modern philosophy antagonizes all learning and religion. It denies all personality, human and divine, and declares God to be but a principle—not the intelligent cause of the universe, but merely the sum of all good things. Christian Science declares the Trinity to be a heathen idea, the Holy Ghost a divine myth, miracles impossible. It denies the doctrines of the atonement and final judgment, and asserts Jesus Christ to be imperfect. Such a philosophy only leads to atheism, despair or the madhouse.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

Physicians endorse and use Hall's Hair Renewer to cure gray and faded hair.

HEROIC WOMEN.

Their Struggle Against a Common and Merciless Enemy.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS)

Woman's heroism is not evinced by fearlessness or enterprise in time of danger, but her courage and fortitude are unquestionable in time of suffering.

Think of the woman who smiles and tries to make those around her cheerful, while she is racked with the excruciating tortures of womb trouble.

Think of one who, day by day, begs her physician to help her, while the torture of tortures could not add to her misery.

Does she yield? No! She endures her agonies, and meets her friends with cheerfulness.

This is woman's heroism, and few men realize how prevalent they are. Physicians rarely render relief in such cases.

After twenty years of success, with ever-increasing popularity, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is, to-day, woman's only sure and safe refuge from inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement of the womb, ovarian trouble, leucorrhoea, painful and suppressed menstruations, kidney trouble, nervous prostration, and all manner of distressing and life-sapping female diseases.

O my sisters, believe what is told you of this wonderful medicine! Before I took it I had falling of the womb and leucorrhoea. My womb came down so badly I could not walk across the floor; the pain was excruciating; now all is so changed, and I am so happy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved me from a life of misery. Don't, don't suffer, I say, when a cure is so easily obtained."

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

235 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable toEDWARD D. BALDWIN,
Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.WHAT IS TO BE DONE ABOUT THE CHARLES RIVER?

A while ago there was considerable interest shown in our city in favor of preserving the beauty and preventing the pollution of the Charles River. Apart from any question of whether or not we should have any new dam constructed further down, all who considered the future of the river came to the conclusion that something must be done to keep its water pure and to forbid the construction of any more factories along the banks. Largely through the efforts of Newton gentlemen the State Legislature appropriated $300,000 for the taking of lands along the Charles. Un-happily for us the money has not been used up, and our line has not been reached. The long strip from the Boston line to Waltham remains to be acquired. It is again necessary for Newton people to urge action upon the Legislature. More money must be had, for it will never do to let the most beautiful part of the river because, as it will, the site of soap factories or other malodorous establishments. There is plenty of space for all such works without having them become eye sores on the river banks and sources of pollution of its waters.

The natural beauty of the river must be preserved by having control of its banks and the health of our citizens must be protected by keeping out of the waters all sources of contamination.

It is greatly to be hoped that at the next session of the General Court some sufficient appropriation may be made to enable the commissioners to buy the necessary land on both banks.

In the mean time if our citizens want to protect the river from encroachments they must protest against the construction of factories and all other objectionable buildings along its banks.

THE MAYORALTY.

Judging from what is said of the Citizens' caucus, there will be no serious opposition in that party to Mr. Henry E.
Cobb. The delegates are so divided that the Citizens are evidently not contemplating making a separate nomination for mayor, and many of the leaders of the Citizens' movement are openly advocating Mr. Cobb's nomination, so that would not be surprising if the Citizens' convention nominated Mr. Cobb.

The delegates to the Republican convention, elected last night, are reported to be unanimous for Mr. Cobb, and the general feeling seems to be that when a citizen of Mr. Cobb's character and standing is willing to accept office, he should be given a unanimous nomination.

Both conventions next week will be watched with interest, not only as regards the mayoralty candidate, but for the nominations for aldermen, which are of great importance, as the mayor next year ought to have a strong body of men behind him, and a draft should be resorted to, if good candidates can be secured in no other way. All the details of the grade crossing abolition will have to be carried out, and the railroad will have their best men on hand to watch over their interests, and the city should be equally careful to be represented by the best talent it has. As much depends on the aldermen as upon the mayor, and in the contest over the former the latter should not be lost sight of.

CHRISTIAN UNITY.

One of the most remarkable features of the day in which we live is the interest taken by persons of all shades of religious belief in Christian unity.

Although there has not been thus far the acceptance of any one scheme upon which there can be brought about the reunion of the various portions of the now divided Christian church, there is a very steady growth in the direction of some kind of unity.

This is shown in the decline of prejudices against those who hold different views, and in the disposition to seek points of agreement rather than points of difference.

A very prominent Roman Catholic recently said, "Religion is a bond of union between men. It must not be made a wall of separation." Strange that it has been so often a high wall to keep apart those whose aims were so much alike.

It is very gratifying to notice here in Newton the decline of the controversial spirit, and the increase of mutual respect and good will between Christian people.
Perhaps this pleasant state of affairs may lead on eventually to some important steps towards solving the problem of closer union.

HOSPITAL SUNDAY.

Nov. 24th is the day on which all the churches in Newton are asked to contribute towards the support of the Newton Hospital. The collections have grown larger year by year, but the steady growth of the Hospital makes it necessary to spend more money each year. It was considered that the Hospital was admitting a large number when, awhile ago, the admission averaged one patient a day. The average is now fast becoming two a day.

No one can estimate the amount of good that is done by this noble institution. Its usefulness is not simply in relieving those admitted as patients, but in preventing the spread of disease through the city. Thus every resident of Newton has a personal reason for aiding the Hospital, and should help roll up a good round sum on the 24th.

THE Republican city convention was called to meet the day after the last date for filling nominations, and the date has had to be changed. The election laws are now so complicated that it is hardly safe to take any steps without consulting City Clerk Kingsbury, or some other reliable authority.

It is said that a strong effort is being made in behalf of Alderman Degen as a candidate for Mayor, and that his friends will present his name to the Republican convention. Mr. Henry E. Cobb's friends are very enthusiastic, and are talking confidently of having a clear majority on the formal ballot.

SINCE the GRAPHIC called attention to the violation of law by the burning of leaves in the streets, the nuisance has been entirely remedied and even the fires in the back yards have nearly ceased, so that the pall of smoke which hung over the city has disappeared.

COLONEL D. W. FARQUHAR at his own request, has received an honorable discharge from the governor's staff. It is expected that Colonel Benjamin S.
Lovell, who has been elected councillor,
will also resign shortly.

BOSTON will have two good candidates for mayor, in Mayor Curtis and Josiah Quincy. It will be a hot campaign and the best man ought to win.

NONANTUM.

—Mrs. J. W. Hillan of California street, is recovering from a recent illness.

—Mrs. Hall of Rustic street, who has been quite ill, is now much improved.

—Patrolman Kiley has returned from his vacation spent in Chelsea.

—Mrs. Sawyer of Bridge street is quite ill, suffering from a severe cold.

—Mrs. Shorten of California street, who was stricken with paralysis last week, has been removed to the Newton Hospital.

—Nicholas McMullen and Joseph Broughan will spend the winter in Virginia.

—Frank Boughan has purchased a new horse and wagon to be used in his grocery business.

—J. Murray purchased two houses at the recent sale on Washington street, necessitated by the Washington street widening, and will remove to his land on West street.

—Mr. Rueben Forknall, for some time an acting agent for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, has been promoted to the position of assistant superintendent of the same company.

—Rev. Edwin A. Capen of Watertown will address the meeting at Buelah mission in St. Elmo hall next Sunday afternoon.
A special musical program will be arranged by the Misses Melutsky of Waltham.

—The Y. P. S. C. E. of the North Evangelical church held an election of officers Tuesday night when the following were chosen: Chas. Bacon, president;
Miss Lottie Frye, vice president; Mrs.
Forknall, secretary; Miss Florence Butterfield, treasurer.

—Early Monday morning when Joseph Turnbull, six years old, was riding on one of Contractor Stuart's teams, he suddenly slipped and fell under the wheels breaking his leg and arm. He was taken to his home, and afterwards removed to the hospital.

—Two ladies were driving in a carryall on Adams street, when the horse became frightened at the breaking of the transom bolt and ran away taking the front axle with him. The ladies were not hurt and the horse afterwards captured.

—Louis Jassett left his bicycle standing outside his house on Crescent street, Friday afternoon when some one came along and appropriated it. Officer Lucy recovered the wheel the same day and would have played the thief in court had not the owner of the wheel refused to make a complaint.

—Wednesday evening, Miss Jennie Brooks and Mr. Alfred Hasty were married at the bride's home on Watertown street by the Rev. Geo. W. Shinn.
Miss Ida Johnson was bridesmaid and Mr.
Howard Skinner acted as best man. After their wedding tour the couple will reside on Watertown street.

—Friday evening the St. Elmo division, Sons of Temperance, will hold an initiation in their hall on Bridge street, when five new members will be received into the order. Fraternal visits are expected from Grand Worthy Scribe Charles Dennett of Malden and Deputy Grand Worthy Patriarch Dawson of Highland-ville.

—Rev. Dr. Shinn gave an interesting address on "What is Socialism?" at Pleasant
Sunday afternoon service at the North Evangelical church last Sunday. Master Flood sang and A. H. Handley played a brilliant solo. Next Sunday Rev. Dr.
Twombly will preach on "Harvest."
There will be an overture by the orchestra and solo singing.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Largest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

HOSPITAL SUNDAY.

NOVEMBER 24TH THE DAY FOR THE CON-TRIBUTION.

The Finance Committee of the Newton Hospital respectfully appeal to the citizens of Newton for a generous contribution towards the financial needs on the approaching Hospital Sunday.

It is one of the most gratifying features of this most worthy institution that it has received so generous financial support from our own people, and now that its increased labors call for more funds to properly meet those needs, we trust that the wants of the Hospital will be fully met.

It is a matter of congratulation that it has done so noble a work in the past few years, and that its field of usefulness is increasing.

The record of the past year shows an increase of 27 per cent. in the number of weeks treatment of patients over the preceding year, and the indications point to a further demand on our resources.

It will be also gratifying to our citizens to learn that in the very important department of contagious diseases, which have increased so largely the past year, showing an increase of 50 per cent.
over 1894 the death rate has been very largely reduced. The records of the successful treatment by anti-toxins of the 74 cases of diphtheria, showing a death rate of only 5 per cent. against 40 per cent. in former years.

With such a showing, and with the demands likely to be made during the coming year, may we not confidently appeal for a generous response from all our citizens?

LUCIUS G. PRATT
A. LAWRENCE EDMUNDS
WARREN P. TYLER
WILLIAM P. ELLISON
EDW. H. HASKELL

Finance Committee.

NEWTON Y. M. C. A.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT THE 18TH ANNI-VERSARY EXERCISES.

The 18th anniversary of the Newton Y.
M. C. A. was observed in the Eliot Congregational church, Sunday evening.
Nearly 1500 persons from the various Newton churches attended the exercises, and the pastors of the churches of Newton and Newtonville occupied seats on the platform and assisted in the services.

The president's report was read by President J. R. W. Shapleigh. It called attention to the gifts of a gymnasium and its equipment, which the association had received during the year, and the membership now numbers 103 men and boys, and 40 ladies, and the number is constantly growing.

The amount of money received during the year was $2,406.48, of which all but 13 cents had been expended, although the actual cash is $83.43.

The association prospects are very encouraging and Mr. Shapleigh called attention to the need of a Y. M. C. A. building, where all the departments could be gathered under one roof. The work of the Secretary, Mr. Pitt F. Parker has been very satisfactory, and the past year has been a prosperous one.

The contribution that was taken up,
amounted to about $800.

The anniversary sermon was preached by Rev. Reuben Thomas of Harvard church, Brookline, who spoke to the young men of the congregation on the temptations of modern civilization and the qualities of mind required to meet them.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Liver Uls, Biliousness, Indigestion, Headache.
A pleasant laxative. All Druggists.

Wedding Decorations,
ARTISTIC DESIGNS
Cut Flowers and Plants.

E. T. MOREY,

Washington and Tremont Sts., near Newton Line.

MARRIED.

MALENEY-TIGHE—At Newton, Nov. 12, by Rev. J. F. Giffether, John F. Maleney and Honora Tighe.

CRADY-COALY—At Newtonville, Nov. 12, Theodore George Crady and Catherine Agnes Coaly.

PRATT-PEDLOW—At Hartford, Nov. 6, by Rev. Henry H. Kelley, Austin Jay Pratt of Newton and Susan Pedlow of Hartford.

ARSENANT-LANDRY—At Newton, Nov. 16,
by the Rev. James F. Giffether, Isidor Arsenault and Mary Judith Landry.

FORSYTH-HARVEY—At Newton, Oct. 20, by Rev. W. A. Lamb, Frederick Augustus Forsyth and Gillian Harvey.

McDONALD-BRUNLE—At Newton, Nov. 12,
by Rev. James F. Giffether, John Mc-Donald and Sarah Brunle.

LECK-SHAW—At Springfield, Nov. 9, by Wm. Hart Dexter, Francis Hollis Leck of Newton and Lottie May Shaw of Springfield.

GREEN-ROSE—At Natick, Oct. 25, by Rev. F.
E. Shogren, Jacob Hubert Green of Newton and Mary Ella Rose of Natick.

FOLKINS-ROSS—At Newton, Nov. 6, by Rev.
Dillon Brown, Guy Norman Folkins and Miss Jennie Brooks.

HASTIE-BROOKS—Nov. 13, at the residence of the bride's parents, Newton, by the Rev. Dr.
G. W. Shinn, Mr. Alfred George Hastie and Miss Jennie Brooks.

DIED.

CRANDALL—At Newton Upper Falls, Nov. 7,
Orson T. Crandall, 29 years old.

MULRANEY—At Newton, Nov. 9, Margaret
Mulrane, 9 mos. 36 days.

MALIKIE—At Newton, Nov. 8, Owen Maguire,
67 years.

DUVAL—At Newton, Nov. 9, Esther Duval, 72
years.

SAWYER—At Newton Centre, Nov. 12, Annie
M. Sawyer, 46 years, 8 mos.

HASKELL—At Newton Centre, Nov. 12, Francis
S. Haskell, 56 years, 2 mos.

WALSH—At Newton, Nov. 12, Margaret Walsh, 71 years.

WABAN.

Master Elliot Robinson is confined to the house with a severe cold.

—Many people climbed the hill last Sunday afternoon, attracted by the gorgeous sunset.

—The home team was defeated last Wednesday, on the 7.28 train. Score for week stands 4 to 1 in our favor.

—Mr. E. Y. Graham of San Francisco, Cal., was the guest of Mr. L. K. Harlow last Sunday.

—Now we will get a little funny. Why is a certain gentleman resident of Waban like a snow clad mountain?

—Don't forget the Ladies Matinee Whist given by the Benevolent Society in the hall next Monday. It is for a good cause and should be well attended.

—Two birthday parties since last writing have quite turned the heads of the little folks of this town. Miss Myrtle Morse entertained her friends, on Saturday, and Master Irving Heymer celebrated his 4th birthday on Monday last. It is needless to say that an elegant time was had at both affairs.

—Waban must be represented in this paper every week. The other towns expect it and we haven't a doubt would feel really bad if they didn't see something from us. Now then, make up a few items and help us out. If you can't think of any go out and do something to stir things up.
We shall have to quote Shakespeare if we can't find anything better (?) to fill space.

The Tree of Blood.

The most wonderful optical experiment known to the eye experts is that which produces the "blood tree," or "the arborescent figure of Parkinje." It is a very simple and entertaining experiment and one from which no possible harm to the eye can result. The experiment is an optical illusion in which the retina of the eye and all the blood vessels connected therewith appear to stand out in the air in such a manner that the experimenter has a splendid view of them.

Parkinje, the great optician, accidentally made this discovery of the "blood tree," or "arborescent figure" which bears his name several years ago, and since his time it has been used in thousands of curious test experiments.
The projected image is called the "arborescent figure" because of its resemblance to a many branched tree and is produced in the following manner:
Shut yourself up in a dark room at night and move a candle or lighted lamp back and forth very rapidly before the eyes. After a few seconds the air surrounding the candle will assume a deep pink or reddish color, which rapidly takes upon itself the appearance of a sea of blood. Over this red background ramifying in all directions may be seen the veins and blood vessels standing out in bold relief, while toward the center of the figure there appears a dark trunk-like line which serves as a "body" for your "tree of blood," the trunk being most plainly visible where the optic nerves enter the eye.

This experiment is chiefly interesting because it proves that the parts of the retina which actually receive impressions and produce sensations must lie behind the blood vessels, since these cast their shadow upon it and enable the experimenter to see them as plainly as he does any other external object.—
St. Louis Republic.

Versatile Sailor Men.

The versatility of the man who has been educated on a sailing vessel will bear investigation. He has not only to be a sailor and a rigger, but is something of a carpenter, a sailmaker, a cook, a tailor, a barber and a blacksmith and has a speaking acquaintance with several other trades. A thoroughbred sailor can, in fact, turn his hand to almost anything that comes up and do it as well as, if not a little better than the average, and he would find himself in a pickle lots of times if it were not for that same versatility.—New York Tribune.

Hopeless.

"I have half a notion to give up trying to be a man," sighed the new woman.

"What!" shrieked the others.

"There is no use trying. I have made the most strenuous efforts possible to feel half scared to death when I go into a dry goods store, and I just can't do it."—Indianapolis Journal.

Every man deems that he has precisely the trials and temptations which are the hardest of all others for him to bear, but they are so simply because they are the very ones he most needs.—Mrs. L.
M. Childs.

To keep a race horse in even moderate condition in England, with proper attendants, costs £335 a year.

Perfect Digestion

Is secured by taking Hood's Pills after dinner, or if digestion is impeded by change of diet, overeating or chills and congestion in changeable weather. They break up a cold,
prevent a fever,
and restore healthy action of the liver and bowels. At home or abroad
Hood's Pills are a safeguard and a friend.

Real Estate,
Mortgages,
InsuranceSpecial Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.

Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.

—OFFICES—

J. C. FULLER, Newtonville. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington St., Boston.

HOWARD B. COFFIN,

DEALER IN

Fine Teas, Best Coffees.

AND NEWTON AGENT FOR

Deerfoot Farm Products.

363, 361 CENTRE ST., 4, 6 HALL ST
Cole's Block, Newton.

BLUE BOOK

OF

NEWTON.

For 1896 and 1897.

Alphabetical and Street Lists of the Principal residents.Street Directory, Map, Societies, Clubs, etc.Bound in Cloth, Gold Edge, will soon be ready for subscribers.

PRICE $1.00.

E. A. Jones, 115 Congress St., Boston.Publishers of all Suburban Blue Books, Directories, etc.

Beware of Drugs

To Take Your Doctor's Advice is a good rule to follow. His advice however, and the prescription
he gives are worthless unless pure drugs are taken.
There is no doubt about the quality of ours or the care with which they are compounded at—

ARTHUR HUDSON,

380 Centre Street,

NEWTON, - MASS.

Try the Lord Roseberry Cigar.

STOVES

and every variety
of .

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

—AT—

BENT'S FURNITURE ROOMS,

64 Main St., Watertown.

Brackett's Market Company.

Established 1851. Incorporated 1892.

Telephone No. 10-3.

Commencing Oct. 1st we will sell

Sirloin Roasts at 25 cts. per lb.

"Steak at - 25 "

Rump " at - 25 "

LARGE STOCK TO SELECT FROM.

7 and 8 Cole's Block,

WASHINGTON near CENTRE ST., NEWTON.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gowdy Baker.

Water Colors.

Classes for Children and older People

Studio Opp Public Library.

ACCIDENT

cases and claims of all kinds investigated and adjusted promptly if placed with READ'S REGULAR AGENCY, 20 Devonshire

St.

Newton.

Newtonville.

West Newton.

Auburndale

BUSINESS NOTICES

RATES—50 cents first insertion for not exceeding 5 lines, and 35 cents each time
thereafter, in advance.

Wanted.

WANTED—Girl for general housework.
Apply to Mrs. R. Marshall, Willard St.,
Newton. 1t

WANTED—Work solicited by a reliable dressmaker by the day. References given.
Please address, Miss Lewis, 402 Columbus avenue,
Boston.

NEWTONVILLE.

—Pianos rented and tuned, Farley, Newton.

—Mrs. E. W. Redpath has returned home from the South.

—Newton lodge, Knights of Pythias, will meet hereafter on the first and third Mondays of the month.

—Mrs. E. H. Pierce and Miss Blanche Pierce of Walnut street have gone to New York.

—Miss Winnifred Pulsifer of Walnut street has returned from Manchester, N. H.

—The Parker block, corner of Walnut street and Newtonville avenue, will be a three-story structure.

—Councilmen Cranford and Roberts were both endorsed by the Citizens' movement, both gentlemen receiving a re-nomination.

—Mrs. A. Fred Brown and her sister, Mrs. John Tift, of Buffalo, are in New York attending the horse show and are stopping at The Waldorf.

—Frank Hyslop has removed from the house, formerly occupied by him on Washington street, to the Tewksbury house on Walnut street.

—The pulpit of the Methodist church was occupied on Sunday morning last by Rev. Luther Freeman, pastor of the Asbury Temple, Waltham.

—At the last meeting of the Newton Co-operative bank, about $12,000 was disposed of at 5 cents premium. On Jan. 1, the first four series of shares will be retired.

—Rev. F. E. Hamilton of the M. E. church, and Rev. J. M. Dutton of the Congregational church will exchange pulpits on Sunday morning next, Nov. 17th.

—There are letters in the postoffice for W. H. Babcock, J. H. Britton, J. H. Keating, Miss Josie McLaughlin, E. McKean, Miss Mary Oliver, Miss Grace Turner and Sarah Alden Tupper.

—The Neighborhood Whist Club met Tuesday evening with Mr. Wm. Price of Cabot street. The next meeting will be at the residence of Mr. Edwin H. Rogers, Edinboro street.

—In last week's number we mentioned the removal to Boston for the winter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Q. Cole of Otis street, stating that Ashburton place, would be their future address. We were misinformed. Mr. and Mrs. Cole have taken apartments at No. 25 Blagden street.

—The Epworth Leagues of the North Boston district will hold a convention at the M. E. church at Newton, on Thursday afternoon and evening next, Nov. 21st, with an interesting program of speaking and music. All interested are invited to attend.

—At the Universalist church fair, Nov. 21st and 22nd there will be two valuable prizes given for the best marksmanship in the shooting gallery. First prize will be a fine silver gold lined cup. Second prize will be a fine silver gold lined shaving mug.

—Dalhousie lodge, F. & A. M., held its regular convocation in Masonic hall, Tuesday evening. The first degree was conferred upon three candidates. After the ceremonies, a banquet was served. There were a large number of visiting Masons present.

—Gen. Hull lodge, United Order of Workmen, has leased the hall which the new block on the Dennison lot will occupy. It will be occupied also for lodge purposes by Mt. Ida Council, Royal Arcanum. The hall will be a spacious one and will be available, probably, for entertainments.

—The Masons will leave their present quarters in Tremont hall, as soon as their lease is up. The matter of providing suitable quarters in the near future has been left to a committee and the plan is seriously contemplated of putting up a suitable building, one which will furnish every necessary requirement for lodge and ante room and modern conveniences.

—There will be an organ concert next Tuesday evening, Nov. 19th, at eight o'clock in the Central Congregational church, given by Mr. Fred H. Young, organist, interspersed with every male quartets, solos, etc., by the regular church choir. Admission free, this will be a fine opportunity to hear the new organ. All are invited.

—Charles Beno, residing on Pembroke street, Chelsea, a driver for the Jewel Lumber Company, fell from his wagon near the Truck House, yesterday afternoon and was run over. His right leg was fractured. Beno was taken to the central police station, where he will be kept until later removed in a carriage to his place of residence.

—The Newton Co-operative bank will be located here long in new quarters in the Associates building, corner of Austin and Walnut streets. The offices will be on the second floor and fitted up similarly to those where the bank now transacts its business. C. H. Talbot, the news dealer, who sells more Graphics than any local paper, will occupy the store underneath. It's a corner stand and a good location.

—"Alderman" O'Leary says that ex-Mayor Kimball will surely be Mayor Bothfeld's successor. The laboring men, according to Mr. O'Leary, are solid for the man who beat all comers for five years in the various contests for the position of chief executive of the city. There were side-issues in those five years, however, that materially aided Mr. Kimball. They are not in evidence, seemingly, at the present writing.

—Where shall you spend the evenings of Thursday and Friday, Nov. 21 and 22? The ladies of the Universalist church hope to see you at their "stores" both afternoons and evenings, where they will do their best to show you their goods. Turkey supper, Thursday, at 6:30 p. m. for 35c. Old fashioned supper with "maydens in costume" on Friday at 6:30 for twenty-five cents.

—A fair in the Universalist church parlors will open next Wednesday and close Thursday evening. In "a new block of stores" manifold attractions will be offered suitable for the holidays. A visit to the establishment in Universalist Shop Row will offer one of the best chances in the world for sightseeing. Kimball, Keene & Co. and Curtis & Ross are among firms whose displays will doubtless be unique and worthy of patronage.

—M. E. church. Preaching at 10:45 a. m. by Rev. J. M. Dutton of the Congregational church. In the evening at 7:30 the pastor, Rev. Franklin Hamilton, will discuss "The Great Catholic Question of Canada." It is a new book. The club of the Little White Kirk with the Roman Cathedral. The church is being crowded at these evening services, and those who desire seats are invited to come early. Singing led by organ.

—A concert will be given in the Methodist church next Tuesday evening, Nov. 19th, by the Boston Ideal Banjo, Guitar and Mandolin Club. Mr. A. D. Grover's trick banjo solo, and Mr. Lansing's humorous songs will be features. The club will be assisted by Mrs. Winnifred Woodside Metcalf, reader, a graduate of the Emerson College of Oratory.

—Nov. 25 will be the occasion of quite a large assembling of brethren of the Royal Arcanum. Mt. Ida council will be the host and will entertain the grand officers and delegations representing the various councils of the jurisdiction. The committee in charge of the affair is mapping out an extensive program, and the arrangements promise to provide for features that cannot fail to please and entertain the visitors. Mt. Ida council is alive and its preparations for an event of the character, it is needless to add, will be in keeping with the record of the past.

WEST NEWTON.

—Miller pianos, Farley, Newton.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ayer returned this week from a short trip.

—A water motor has been connected with the organ in the Baptist church.

—Dr. F. E. Crockett is in Maine for a few days.

—Mr. Edward Thornton of Boston was the guest of friends here for a few days.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dana Libby are occupying their new home on Eliot avenue.

—Mr. A. L. Barbour is at home, having returned from a trip to New York.

—Mr. M. Frank Lucas has engaged Mr. N. F. Lucas as collector.

—Brown and Nichols of Cambridge defeated Allen foot ball eleven, Saturday afternoon, by a score of 14 to 0.

—At Natick last Friday an all day teachers institute was held under the direction of Mr. George A. Walton.

—Miss Elizabeth D. Besse of Lincoln Park has been confined to her home by illness.

—The boys social club will give a whist party, preceded by a supper, at their club room on Crescent street this evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Travelli of Chestnut street are passing the week in New York.

—Mr. George Haywood, who has been in Brazil, South America, for some time, has returned.

—The dates for Mrs. Bird's concerts are Nov. 23 and 30 and Dec. 7. The time is 2:30.

—The first social of the season will be held in the Unitarian church parlors this evening.

—A fraternal visit was made by Loyalty Lodge of Good Templars on the lodge at Weston, Thursday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Prince are at home, having returned from Duluth where they were the guests of friends.

—A house on Lenox street, owned by Mr. Lane, has been leased by Mr. Remick and family.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bennett returned Sunday from Europe, where they enjoyed a trip through the principal cities.

—Rev. Jacob Burt preached his farewell sermon as pastor of the Myrtle Baptist church, last Sunday, at the close of fourteen years of faithful service.

—Mr. B. P. Cheney is to take an important part in the dramatic performance of the Cadets in the near future. Mr. Cheney is well known in amateur theatricals.

—The Misses Richmond will pass the winter in Florida. They have been with Mr. and Mrs. Katielle on Prince street for some months.

—A lecture, illustrated with stereopticon views, will be given in the Congregational church on Sunday evening by Rev. T. B. House.

—Monday night a thief entered the stable of Rev. L. J. O'Toole on Prospect street, and stole the wheels of a bicycle owned by Rev. T. J. McCarthy.

—A large delegation attended the meeting of the Ladies' Alliance in the First Unitarian church, Roxbury, Wednesday forenoon.

—Mr. W. H. French and Mrs. E. W. French returned this week from Fall River where they passed several days with Mr. French's mother.

—Resolutions of sympathy were adopted and sent to Mrs. Marshall Wood by the West Newton Women's Educational Club of which Mrs. Wood is a member.

—Many ladies from here attended the first regular meeting of the Newton Federated clubs at Newton Centre, Wednesday afternoon.

—A baked bean supper and entertainment was given by the ladies of Boynton Lodge in Knights of Honor Hall, last Tuesday evening. A pleasing musical and literary program was presented.

—The duplicate whist match, between the Newton and the American Club teams, was played at the latter club, Tuesday evening, was umpired by Mr. Fisher Ames of Temple street.

—Mr. George E. Mason won the prize in the needle threading contest at the sociable held by the Loyalty Lodge, last Saturday evening. The prize for ward guessing was won by Miss Bertha Chapman.

—A Temperance Story of City Life, illustrated by stereopticon, will be given by Rev. T. J. B. House in the Congregational church, Sunday evening at 7:30. Everybody welcome.

—The art class connected with the Educational Club was reorganized this week, and will hold their first meeting, Monday, Dec. 2, under the direction of Mrs. L. G. Pratt.

—The class in current events will meet this afternoon with Mrs. E. N. L. Walton at her home on Chestnut street. The meetings will be held the first and third Fridays of every month during the season.

—Miss Marianna Porter will deliver a paper on Browning at the meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club, next Friday afternoon. Selections from that author's writings will be read by members of the club.

—The Ladies' Alliance connected with the Unitarian society will hold their regular meeting, next Thursday forenoon, in the church parlors. The subject for discussion will be, "How shall we interest the young people in the work of the church?"

—Mrs. Jennie B., wife of Mr. E. A. Simonds, died Sunday at her home in Syracuse, N. Y. The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the residence of her sister, Mrs. F. E. Crockett. Rev. J. C. Jaynes officiated. Interment was in the family burial place at Norway, Maine.

—The marriage of Miss Nellie P. Seaman and Mr. C. B. Abbey took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Seaman, on Henshaw street, last Sunday morning. Rev. E. P. Burt officiated at the ceremony. After a brief tour Mr. and Mrs. Abbey will reside on Parsons street.

—Owing to the illness of several ladies who were to give papers at the Educational Club, last Friday, and the enforced absence of others, it was decided to postpone the "Summer Outing" until a later date. Mrs. James R. Dunbar of Brookline delivered an interesting paper on "Symbolism in Christian Art" with illustrations on the blackboard.

—In the police court at West Newton Monday morning, August Valentine was fined $15 for discharging firearms on a public street. He was passing through Chestnut street on Saturday and saw three gray squirrels on the estate of C. L. Travelli. He could not resist the temptation, and fired, killing all three. Complaint was at once lodged with the police and he was arrested and locked up. Gray squirrels are plentiful about West Newton on the large estates, where they are encouraged to make their homes.

Piper, Mrs. M. E. Renick, Miss Harriet Voe, Miss Helen Wilson, Miss W. Wendell.

—The Paint and Oil Club of New England, at a recent special meeting adopted resolutions on the death of Martial F. H. Wood, expressing their appreciation of his high character, and their sympathy for his family.

—"The Social Life of the Church" will be the topic at the meeting of the Newton Congregational Club next Monday evening. Different divisions of the subject will be presented, as follows: "The power and value of it," by Prof. James B. Taylor; "How can it be made efficient?" by the Hon. Albert L. Harwood; "Who are responsible for promoting it?" by Mr. Raymond L. Bridgman.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burgess celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage, Tuesday evening, at their home on Eden avenue. About fifty guests were present, with few exceptions it being the same party who attended the ceremony ten years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess were the recipients of numerous gifts, both useful and ornamental. The house was prettily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. A collation was served in the dining room.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

—Mrs. Waldo Richards will give a Dramatic and Dialect Recital at the Unitarian church parlors on Monday evening, Nov. 25, under the patronage of many of the prominent residents of West Newton and other parts of the city. Mrs. Richards has recently returned from Europe where she had the most distinguished patronage, and met with brilliant success. Dec. 5, she gives a recital at Pleres Hall, Conley square, Boston, and it is a rare treat to hear her. Tickets can be obtained of any of the patronesses.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUSES.

ALL THE DELEGATES FOR HENRY E. COBB FOR MAYOR.

The Republican caucuses were held last evening and all the delegates favor Henry E. Cobb for mayor, and in Wards One, Four, Six and Seven, the delegates are pledged. No other candidate was suggested in any of the wards.

In Ward One, H. D. Downs is favored for alderman, in Ward Two, Alderman Green; Ward Three, James T. Allen; Ward Four, Alderman Plummer; Ward Five, Alderman White; Ward Six, Alderman Dezen; Ward Seven, Alderman Tolman.

Ward Five, Alderman Plummer; Ward Five, Alderman White; Ward Six, Alderman Dezen; Ward Seven, Alderman Tolman.

Ward Five, Alderman Plummer; Ward Five, Alderman White; Ward Six, Alderman Dezen; Ward Seven, Alderman Tolman.

Ward Five, Alderman Plummer; Ward Five, Alderman White; Ward Six, Alderman Dezen; Ward Seven, Alderman Tolman.

Ward Five, Alderman Plummer; Ward Five, Alderman White; Ward Six, Alderman Dezen; Ward Seven, Alderman Tolman.

Ward Five, Alderman Plummer; Ward Five, Alderman White; Ward Six, Alderman Dezen; Ward Seven, Alderman Tolman.

Ward Five, Alderman Plummer; Ward Five, Alderman White; Ward Six, Alderman Dezen; Ward Seven, Alderman Tolman.

Ward Five, Alderman Plummer; Ward Five, Alderman White; Ward Six, Alderman Dezen; Ward Seven, Alderman Tolman.

Ward Five, Alderman Plummer; Ward Five, Alderman White; Ward Six, Alderman Dezen; Ward Seven, Alderman Tolman.

Ward Five, Alderman Plummer; Ward Five, Alderman White; Ward Six, Alderman Dezen; Ward Seven, Alderman Tolman.

Ward Five, Alderman Plummer; Ward Five, Alderman White; Ward Six, Alderman Dezen; Ward Seven, Alderman Tolman.

W

MY LOVERS TWIN.

My lovers twin, my lovers twin
I pray you let me be,
To wed you both I would be fain,
Only that may not be.

One lover is like music sweet
That steals my heart away,
And one is like the trumpet blast
Which calls me to the fray.

One is of gentle, courteous mind
To low and high degree,
And one is stern and harsh of mood
And meeth but to me.

One is so strangely lovable
That but to touch his hand
Do women kneel. Before the one Do men uncover stand.

And if I this one do not wed,
He never will seek,
And if that one I do not wed,
He sorroweth a week.

My lovers twin, my lovers twin,
Ye should have let me be,
I love the one with all my heart,
The other loveth me.

—New York Tribune.

TRAPPED BY WIRE.

In 1873, when but a girl of 18, I left my home in Omaha and came out to fill the lonesome position of night operator at a small station on the Pacific railway, in this territory. It was a dreary, desolate spot in the midst of a desert. The only buildings at the station, aside from the depot, were a section house, occupied by a track foreman and a few Chinese laborers, a water tank and a coal shed. The day operator and agent, a mere boy, slept at the section house, 200 yards distant, so that during the long and dreary nights I was alone in the depot.

No. 4 express train, bound west, was due at 2:15 in the morning, but it never stopped unless signaled, and as this was the only train during the latter portion of the night you can imagine my lonely situation upon the desert wild. I had my books and guitar for companions and passed much of the time reading, and when the doleful howling of the wolves was borne to my ears from the distant sand hills I would pick up my guitar and endeavor to drown their cries with music and song.

The superintendent of the division, a buoyant, light spirited, young gentleman, came over the road at frequent intervals and cheered me up with promise of a better position when a vacancy should occur. He often found me on the very brink of despair, almost on the point of resigning my position and returning to my humble home and the mother who depended on my salary for the necessities of life, but his promises, his genial conversation and words of encouragement drove away the gloom, and I came to look for his visits with a sense of the keenest pleasure. I began to regard him with a sisterly affection, he was so kind and tender and so solicitous for my welfare and comfort.

One night shortly after midnight, as I sat at my table reading a late novel, I thought I heard a shuffling footstep on the depot platform, but as it was not repeated I concluded it was but a wolf more daring than his cowardly fellows and resumed my book. A few moments later I heard a loud knocking at the door, which I always kept locked, and a strange feeling came over me. During my several weeks' stay at the station I had never had a visitor, and the sudden knock, so low, yet so startlingly clear in the stillness of the night, caused my form to tremble and my cheek to blanch.

My first thought was of Indians, and then I reasoned that it might be some tramp desiring shelter. While I sat there in affright the knock was repeated louder than before, and, mustering all my courage, I approached the other door and asked:

"Who's there?"

A gruff voice replied:

"A traveler who desires to take the east bound train."

It was my plain, unmistakable duty to admit him, and, with trembling fingers, I drew the bolt.

Instantly the door was pushed violently open, and I sprang back to the table and sank into my chair in terror, when seven burly men, wearing cloth masks on their faces and armed to the teeth, entered the office. One of them, evidently the leader, walked up to me, and pointing a large revolver at my head said in a low, firm voice:

"Gee, we don't want to hurt you, but if you make a suspicious move or scream or give any alarm, so that any of the men in the section house kin hear you I'll spile the looks of 'at party face with a bullet. Be quiet and sensible and behave yourself, and yer shan't be hurt. What's yer red signal lamp?"

"What would you do?" I gasped.

"None of yer business. We don't want to hear any unnecessary back talk nor no impertinent questions. What's the red lamp?"

A chill of horror swept over me when the truth burst upon me that I was in the hands of a band of desperate train robbers, whose evident intention was to signal the train and rob the express car at my station. What could I do? It was yet three hours until the train was due, but I could not elude my captors to rouse the section men, and I knew by the ugly gleam in the leader's eyes, through the holes in his mask, that if I made the least outcry he would not hesitate to carry out his threat and murder me. I knew they could find the lamp easily by searching for it, and in a trembling voice I told them it was hanging just inside the door of the freightroom. One of the men got it, and after examining it to see that it was in order the rough hand took seats to await the incoming train.

The leader lit a pipe, and looking at me steadily for a few moments said:

"Young gal, when that 'ar train toots her whistle, we've got some work for you, an official duty, as you might call it. You must get out thar on the platform and signal the train to stop and take on some first class passengers. And, lookie here, if you make a suspicious move or don't swing the red lamp in the proper way, we'll just ventilate that graceful body with bullets and jump on our horses and git. Do you understand?"

A desperate resolve had been taking shape in my bewildered brain. I replied that I fully understood him, and with a piteous cry, "Oh, you will make a murderer of me!" I threw my arms and head down on the table and began to cry as if my heart was breaking. Had he seen my face he might have noticed a total absence of tears. I was crying for a purpose.

When my arms dropped upon the table, I allowed my hand to fall upon the armature of the telegraph instrument, so that I could hold it to prevent it from ticking, while my right hand rested upon the key. Sobbing, so that any slight clicking the key might make would not reach the robbers, I opened it and slowly made the telegraphic characters:

H E L P

These I repeated several times, hoping they might reach the ears of some operator on the line. I slowly and distinctly wrote these words, still sobbing violently:

"Who—hears—this—for—heaven's—sake—report—to—train—dispatcher—at—Laramie—quick—that—I—am—in—the—hands—of—seven—robbers—who—will—compel—me—to—flag—No.—4.—Send—help—quick."

Then I signed name and office call. I released the armature and the instrument clicked out:

"Brace—up—little—girl—I—hear—you.—H."

It was the train dispatcher's call. With a fierce shout the leader sprang forward and rudely snatched me away from the table and asked:

"Gal, what's that?"

"Only a distant office asking for orders for a freight train," I responded.

"None o' yer lyin, you little imp," he roared. "Yer up to some trick."

"No," I replied, "I am not. If I was doing that, my fingers would be on the instrument. Don't you see I am not touching it, and yet it works. It is only an order to a freight train away down at Medicine Bow."

"Keep away from that table," he said savagely. "And if I catch you at any tricks I'll choke the life out o' you."

Oh, how eagerly my ears drank in every word the instrument clicked out! I heard a telegram to the sheriff at Green River, 20 miles west, asking him to arm a posse of men at once and get on board a special train which would be ready for him. Then another to the young superintendent, who was at Green River, telling how my slowly written words had been heard by the dispatcher and asking him to supervise the preparations to fly to my relief. Then a third dispatch to the master mechanic, instructing him to fire up his fastest passenger engine and couple on to a car engine and await the superintendent's orders. My heart beat so violently that it almost took my breath away. It seemed an age ere I heard the Green River operator call the dispatcher and say:

"The superintendent, with sheriff and 20 armed men, is aboard, and train ready for orders."

The order came flying. It told the engineer he had a clear track and to run at his very highest speed to within half a mile of my station and with his party to alight. Then came the welcome report from the Green River office:

"Special east departed 1:15."

Oh, how my poor heart beat, and how my every nerve tingled with excitement! One fifteen! I mentally figured that the train on such a desperate errand should make nearly a mile a minute and reach the stopping point about 1:35.

The robber chief gave his men their instructions. I was to be sent out alone to signal the train, and when it halted the band would make a rush and board it.

The order came flying. It told the engineer he had a clear track and to run at his very highest speed to within half a mile of my station and with his party to alight. Then came the welcome report from the Green River office:

"Special east departed 1:15."

Oh, how my poor heart beat, and how my every nerve tingled with excitement! One fifteen! I mentally figured that the train on such a desperate errand should make nearly a mile a minute and reach the stopping point about 1:35.

The robber chief gave his men their instructions. I was to be sent out alone to signal the train, and when it halted the band would make a rush and board it.

The order came flying. It told the engineer he had a clear track and to run at his very highest speed to within half a mile of my station and with his party to alight. Then came the welcome report from the Green River office:

"Special east departed 1:15."

Oh, how my poor heart beat, and how my every nerve tingled with excitement! One fifteen! I mentally figured that the train on such a desperate errand should make nearly a mile a minute and reach the stopping point about 1:35.

The robber chief gave his men their instructions. I was to be sent out alone to signal the train, and when it halted the band would make a rush and board it.

The order came flying. It told the engineer he had a clear track and to run at his very highest speed to within half a mile of my station and with his party to alight. Then came the welcome report from the Green River office:

"Special east departed 1:15."

Oh, how my poor heart beat, and how my every nerve tingled with excitement! One fifteen! I mentally figured that the train on such a desperate errand should make nearly a mile a minute and reach the stopping point about 1:35.

The robber chief gave his men their instructions. I was to be sent out alone to signal the train, and when it halted the band would make a rush and board it.

The order came flying. It told the engineer he had a clear track and to run at his very highest speed to within half a mile of my station and with his party to alight. Then came the welcome report from the Green River office:

"Special east departed 1:15."

Oh, how my poor heart beat, and how my every nerve tingled with excitement! One fifteen! I mentally figured that the train on such a desperate errand should make nearly a mile a minute and reach the stopping point about 1:35.

The robber chief gave his men their instructions. I was to be sent out alone to signal the train, and when it halted the band would make a rush and board it.

The order came flying. It told the engineer he had a clear track and to run at his very highest speed to within half a mile of my station and with his party to alight. Then came the welcome report from the Green River office:

"Special east departed 1:15."

Oh, how my poor heart beat, and how my every nerve tingled with excitement! One fifteen! I mentally figured that the train on such a desperate errand should make nearly a mile a minute and reach the stopping point about 1:35.

The robber chief gave his men their instructions. I was to be sent out alone to signal the train, and when it halted the band would make a rush and board it.

The order came flying. It told the engineer he had a clear track and to run at his very highest speed to within half a mile of my station and with his party to alight. Then came the welcome report from the Green River office:

"Special east departed 1:15."

Oh, how my poor heart beat, and how my every nerve tingled with excitement! One fifteen! I mentally figured that the train on such a desperate errand should make nearly a mile a minute and reach the stopping point about 1:35.

The robber chief gave his men their instructions. I was to be sent out alone to signal the train, and when it halted the band would make a rush and board it.

The order came flying. It told the engineer he had a clear track and to run at his very highest speed to within half a mile of my station and with his party to alight. Then came the welcome report from the Green River office:

"Special east departed 1:15."

BASEBALL.

Upon the level field behold
A gathering of pleasure's court
To emulate the Greeks of old
In friendly rivalry and sport.

Swift from the pitcher's hands the ball
Flies till it meets the bat, and then Upward it soars the sky's blue wall,
Frenzies and drops to earth again.

Then lifts a long and lusty shout
That seems to shake the very sun.
Who knows the score? Is it an "out,"
Or did the player make a "run?"

So every afternoon their play
Makes tougher muscles, redder cheeks,
And keeps our sturdy boys today
The rivals of the ancient Greeks.

—F. D. Sherman in Youth's Companion.

SERGEANT STONE.

Sergeant Stone was a mystery to the rest of the garrison. He had been at the fort for nearly a year, having been sent from one of the recruiting stations in the north, and further than that no one knew. That he was a gentleman by birth and breeding was evident. He was rather tall, and had a fine head set well upon a pair of square, manly shoulders. From under an overhanging brow his eyes, big black ones, shone, sometimes with a baleful light that betrayed an devil incarnate in his soul. Again they were dreamy, and had a faraway look in them, but always an expression of mute suffering. His mouth was finely chiseled, and his teeth were small and even. But his chin denoted weakness. He might have been anywhere between 25 and 30 years of age.

He took his place in the ranks, and by strict attention to duty was promoted to corporal. The one time the troop was in the field since he was with them he fought with such a savage delight that his comrades wondered if he had a private grudge against the Apaches. Two of the redskins were in the act of scalping Private Finnerty when a well directed bullet from Stone's carbine sent one of them to the happy hunting grounds, and a chance shot from his revolver disabled the other. For this he was made sergeant. In response to Finnerty's profuse expressions of gratitude he merely growled:

"I wish that it had been me instead of you, and no one had interfered."

Seldom did he enter into conversation with the other soldiers. He was quiet and very morose. He had been moping all summer. He performed his duties in a mechanical sort of way, and when they were finished he sought solitude again. The advances of his comrades were met with a chilly demeanor that very effectively checked them, and Sergeant Stone became very unpopular and was left severely alone.

"I'll tell you what I think," said Private Wilkins, who was from "down east" somewhere. "I think he is 'one of these'—fine southern gentlemen who has joined the army and got sick of it. I'm sorry we ain't good enough for his nibs to associate with."

"You kape that hole in yer face shut, will you?" remarked Finnerty in a threatening tone. "O' no! hov anybody run 'im down behind 'is back. Th' by'e ain't stuck up. He's in trouble, an' O'll lick th' mon that says he is stuck up."

And Private Finnerty stalked off with great dignity to the post canteen. But Wilkins had unconsciously spoken the truth partly.

And so matters went on from day to day. The dreary monotony of scenery, the unchanging sameness of each day, the other and the routine of garrison life seemed to bear hardly upon Sergeant Stone. He became more restless, more sullen and morose. No letters came to him, and he wrote none. He was a complete mystery.

Three years before he had left his home in a southern state with the intention of making something of himself. And this was the outcome—a sergeant under an assumed name in the regular army with $15 a month pay!

And Adele! What if she knew? The last time they met it was a moonlight night. They sat on the wide gallery surrounding her home. The harvest moon poured a flood of silver light about them as they talked long and earnestly of the future. They had been sweethearts ever since they were children. The two places were adjoining, and they used to go to school together. He would carry her books for her and protect her from other boys when they attempted to tease her. And they had always said that when they grew up they would be married. But he fell into bad ways. Idleness, money to spend and bad associates had nearly ruined him, and now he was 25 years of age and had never worked a day in his life.

She promised to marry him if he would go away and make something of himself. She despised an idle man, she said, and she gave him two years to do it. And he was not to write to her unless he achieved success.

"Will you be true, dearest?" he asked.

"As true as steel. It is my love for you that makes me impose these conditions on you. I want the man I marry to be something more than a mere drone. I want you, my love, to be looked up to and respected. I want you to go out in the world and wrest from it the living it owes you, and to make your own way alone and unaided, for the man who cannot take care of himself is not worthy to have a wife to care for."

"Well, so be it," answered he. "I leave tomorrow, and I won't come back until I have achieved something—until I have the respect of my fellow men and your confidence. I will succeed or die trying. And you will wait for me?"

"I have promised," she answered.

"Won't you sing just one more song for me before I go?" he asked.

"Yes, I will. Listen," she said, and she picked up a guitar, and touching the strings softly, caressingly, sang in a sweet, clear voice:

Say "an revoir," but not "goodby"—
Love liveth still; Love cannot die.

He drew nearer, and the voice went on:

Twere better far we had not met;
I loved you then—I love you yet.

Stone stood as one suddenly bereft of his senses. In the moonlight he saw a face he had not laid eyes upon for three long, dreary years—a face that he had hoped to see soon. And this was the end of it all! Still the voice went on with the lying words of that song.

"Adele, dear, I wish you would sing something else. I never liked that song," and the major smiled at his wife.

A figure in a dark blue uniform stood and listened as if spellbound. When the song was finished, Stone slunk, staggering, across the parade ground until he came to the barracks. He entered and climbed wearily up the steps.

A few moments later the clear notes of "taps" rang across the sandy waste.

"Lights out," it meant.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

He who feels contempt for any living thing hath faculties that he hath never used, and thought with him is in its infancy.—Wordsworth.

melody from the recesses of a moss hung live oak.

"That is a bad omen, the negroes say—to hear a mocking bird sing at night," said Adele.

He took no notice of the remark, but asked slowly:

"Will you be true?"

She looked at him a moment and answered:

"Love cannot die."

And again the mocking bird sang from the moss hung tree.

And that was three years ago. He, true to the agreement, had struggled manfully for awhile to make his way and earn his reward. But he was weak in perseverance. He tried almost everything and gradually sank lower and lower. At last, half crazed with drink, he enlisted in the army and was sent to the plains of New Mexico.

As he sat with his chin in his hands he looked across the waste of sand and pondered over his past. Too proud to go back and acknowledge himself whipped in the battle of life, he did not know what to do. An intense yearning to see Adele once more took possession of him.

"I'll write to her tomorrow," he thought, "and I'll get a furlough and go home for awhile. My God, but I must see her! I'll go crazy in this devil's country if I don't!"

The garrison had never seemed so hot and stuffy to him before. The hot yellow sand had never seemed so monotonous and blank, and life in the garrison had never been so abhorrent as it was then. He dreamily looked out the window and whistled softly:

Say "an revoir," but not "goodby."

Not a doubt entered his mind but that Adele was true.

"I can talk her over if she is still obstinate," thought he, "and I can buy my discharge. Then we will get married and live at the old place. She will at least give me credit for having done my best. Yes, I think I will go home."

His reveries were rudely disturbed by the sound of Private Finnerty's voice right under his window saying:

"Shure, an th' new major hov come ter take command iv us. He's been at a posht down south, hovin a foine, aisy toime av. He fetched his voice vid 'im too. Dom me, but she's as pretty as a spotted pup. An she's got th' prettiest pair iv blue eyes that Oiver saw. Oh, she's swate, sure."

Sergeant Stone moved away from the window still whistling softly. He was thinking of Adele—of home. He could see her sitting in the moonlight playing and singing. He could almost hear the wind as it rushed softly through the magnolia leaves or murmured sadly through the long gray festoons of Spanish moss. He thought of all the haunts of his boyish days and of his mother sleeping peacefully beneath the cedars in the lonely little burying ground on the hill. He remembered the path that he and Adele followed when they were children and went to school together.

He wondered if she had changed and if she loved him as much as ever. The idea that she would cease loving him never entered his mind. She had said that she would always care for him, and that left not a doubt for him.

He spoke pleasantly to one of the soldiers who passed by, and that individual was so surprised that he could only stare.

"Something's a-going to happen," he said to the gang loafing about the canteen a few minutes later. "Stone's got civil all of a sudden." And they marveled greatly thereat.

Stone wrote out his application for a furlough and got it indorsed by his captain, and then by the post commander, and late that afternoon he was informed that his leave was granted.

He was happy. He went about whistling and singing. He was going home and to Adele. After supper he had another attack of despondency. His soul was filled with doubts and fears and a horrible dread was gnawing at his heart.

"Suppose she—?" But his heart would never allow him to finish the question. "She will be true," it said.

The moon rose in its full grandeur, and the mellow radiance silvered everything, toning down the rough prospect, until it seemed as though the path to an enchanted land was opened to him.

"Three years ago tonight since I saw Adele," he murmured to himself. "Well, it won't be long till I see her again."

It was growing late, and "taps" would soon sound. He went out for one last walk around the parade ground, and as he neared the major's house the distant tinkle of a guitar attracted his attention.

"The major's wife must be musical," he mused. Then he remembered that he had been told that the major had been married only a few months. He drew nearer to the house and listened. The player began to sing in a fresh girlish voice:

Say "an revoir," but not "goodby"—
Love liveth still; Love cannot die.

He drew nearer, and the voice went on:

Twere better far we had not met;
I loved you then—I love you yet.

Stone stood as one suddenly bereft of his senses. In the moonlight he saw a face he had not laid eyes upon for three long, dreary years—a face that he had hoped to see soon. And this was the end of it all! Still the voice went on with the lying words of that song.

"Adele, dear, I wish you would sing something else. I never liked that song," and the major smiled at his wife.

A figure in a dark blue uniform stood and listened as if spellbound. When the song was finished, Stone slunk, staggering, across the parade ground until he came to the barracks. He entered and climbed wearily up the steps.

A few moments later the clear notes of "taps" rang across the sandy waste.

"Lights out," it meant.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

He who feels contempt for any living thing hath faculties that he hath never used, and thought with him is in its infancy.—Wordsworth.

Expressmen.

CHAMBERLAIN'S NEWTONVILLE AND BOSTON EXPRESS.

Newtonville Office: Talbot's, 286 Walnut St., Boston Office: 105 Arch. 48 Chatham St., Leave Newtonville 9:30 A. M., Boston 2:30 P. M.

HOLMES' Baggage Express.

You can always find one of Holmes' Express men at their stand, Newton Baggage Room, from 6:30 A. M., to 8 P. M., where a call may be left, or leave orders at G. P. Atkins Grocer, or by Telephone Call at Hubbard & Proctor's Apothecary.

Furniture and Piano Moving, also Crochery and Pictures carefully packed for transportation.

General Jobbing: every description promptly attended to.
Residence: 15 Adams Street, Newton, Mass.

PEARSON'S Newton and Boston Express.

Boston Office: 91 Kilby St., 105 Arch St., 33 Court St.; Order Box, 91 Fanueil Hall Market.
Newton Office: H. B. Coffin's; Order Boxes: Post Office and Blanchard & Atkins.
Leave Newton, 9:30 A. M. Leave Boston, 3 P. M.

NEWCOMB & SNYDER, Newton and Boston Express.

Leave Newton, 7:30 and 9:00 a.m.; Leave Boston, 12 m. and 3 p.m. Newton Office: 334 Centre St., Order Box: Newton City Market. Boston Office: 15 Devonshire St., 174 Washington St., 34 Court St., 25 Merchants Row, 67 Franklin St., 11 Harrison Ave., Extension. P. O. Box 429, Newton. Personal attention given all orders. Tel. 273-2.

Photographers.

GEORGE S. BRAZER, (Successor to Olin Fritz.) PHOTOGRAPHY.

Also Portraits in Oil, Water Color and Pastel.
368 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON, MASS.

Veterinary Surgeon.

MADISON BUNKER, D. V. S. Veterinary Surgeon.

Residence, 4 Baldwin St., cor. Elmwood Newton Telephone Connection.

Upholsterers.

H. W. CALDER, UPHOLSTERER.

Cabinet Maker and House Furnisher.
ARTISTIC PICTURE FRAMING.
A complete stock always on hand.
NEWTONVILLE, MASS.

Tailors.

C. S. Decker Custom Tailor.

64 Elmwood St., Newton, Mass.

City Election.

December 3, 1895.

NOMINATIONS.

Certificates of nominations for candidates for the Common Council, made in caucus, and certificates of nominations made in delegate convention for Mayor, Aldermen and School Committee, must be filed in the office of the city clerk on or before 5 o'clock P. M.,

Wednesday, Nov. 20.

Nomination papers must be filed at the same office on or before 5 o'clock P. M., Friday, November 22.

ISAAC F. KINGBURY, City Clerk.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts MIDDLESEX SS. PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of William H. Kingbury, deceased: Whereas, William H. Kingbury, deceased, has left a will, and the same has been presented to said Court, for probate, by the executor named therein, and the same has been found to be a true and correct copy of the original, and the executor named therein has taken the oath of office, and the same has been admitted to probate, and the same has been found to be a true and correct copy of the original, and the executor named therein has taken the oath of office, and the same has been admitted to probate, and the same has been found to be a true and correct copy of the original, and the executor named therein has taken the oath of office, and the same has been admitted to probate, and the same has been found to be a true and correct copy of the original, and the executor named therein has taken the oath of office, and the same has been admitted to probate, and the same has been found to be a true and correct copy of the original, and the executor named therein

Newton Centre.
Agents of the GRAPHIC, and receive subscriptions and make collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand-bills and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Ivers & Pond pianos, rare, Newton.
—Mr. A. J. Carswell has removed to 213 Huntington avenue, Boston.
—The dates for Mrs. Bird's concerts are Nov. 23 and 30, Dec. 7. The time is 2.30.
—Mr. and Mrs. S. V. A. Hunter returned Monday from a visit in the West.
—Miss Elliot of Oak Hill has returned from a visit to Sydney, Cape Breton.
—Mrs. Frances Hewitt of Worcester is spending a few weeks here.
—A cellar is being dug for a new house on Hillboro road.
—Robert W. English of Centre street is seriously ill.
—Mrs. C. W. Brown of Institution avenue is confined to the house owing to a fracture of the knee cap.
—Mr. M. O. Rice of Centre street, who has been seriously ill, is convalescing.
—Mrs. A. Vachon and Miss Grace Davidson of Quebec are the guests of James Vachon of Centre street.
—Dr. Dowling is in New York City this week looking after some business matters.
—Miss G. L. Williams of Fitchburg succeeds Miss Sherman at the postoffice.
—Miss Ruth Davis is at Duxbury for a short stay.
—Dr. Cleveland of Connecticut is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Root, of Glenwood avenue.
—George Newton left here this week for Montreal. He will pass the winter there with relatives.
—Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Thayer of Beacon street have returned from their stay in New York City.

—Miss Hattie Sherman, who has filled a position here in the post office, has entered the employ of R. H. White & Co.
—Rev. Mr. Hughes was called out of town last Sunday, owing to the illness of his brother. The pulpit in the Methodist church was filled by Rev. Dr. Thomas.
—Three men were hurt in the foot ball game here between Hyatt Park and the N. A. A. last Saturday. They were not, however, seriously injured.
—Unitarian Society, Sunday, Nov. 17. Service at 10.30 conducted by Rev. A. B. Vorse of Wellesley. Sunday school at 12. Classes for children of all ages.
—The Rev. Mr. Hughes preached in his brother's church last Sunday in Portland, Maine. It was the 4th anniversary of the settlement of his brother.

—The Ladies' Exchange, connected with the Unitarian church, will hold its annual sale of pre-erres, jellies, cake, etc. in the church parlors, Tuesday p. m., and all day Monday, Nov. 19 and 20.
—Mr. J. S. Brooks of Pleasant street returned Monday from a hunting trip in northern Maine. Partridges were very plenty. He shot one deer which he brought home.
—At the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday the pastor, Rev. E. H. Hughes, will preach morning and evening. The evening solo will be by Mrs. Lewis R. Spear.

—Mr. T. R. Frost, contractor, has fitted up his new stable on Cypress street with electrical automatic feeders which feed 21 horses in four seconds. At the time the clock is set no one need go to the stable until ready to hitch up.
—Miss May Rogers of Chestnut Hill is receiving condolences on the death of her niece, Mr. Ross of New York. Miss Rogers met Mr. Ross last year with her family en route for Europe. The gentleman accompanied them to Cannes, and the engagement was announced a few months later. It was owing to his severe illness that the wedding of another daughter, Miss Jessie Rogers, was observed so privately a few weeks ago.

—Mr. Richard Saltostall and Mrs. Louis A. Shaw of Chestnut Hill visited the display of stolen goods at Boston, Wednesday, and recognized a large amount of property which was stolen from Mrs. Shaw's house in November, 1889. The first article that they picked out was a living cup that had been presented to Mr. Shaw some years ago, as the winner in a tennis tournament. The cup is a handsome affair worth at least $100, and ever since the articles have been on exhibition has attracted a good deal of attention. After looking at the cup, Mrs. Shaw picked out three silver creamers, silver vases, two silver salt cellars, silver coffee pot, silver berry spoon, silver fluted silver cream pitcher, silver table spoon, silver mustard pot, two silver salters, silver tongs, silver sugar bowl, silver salt shaker and two berry spoons that were taken from her home on that night in November, 1889. The property is valued in dollars and cents at $582.20, but its value for other associations is much more.

—The Newton Centre Improvement Association invite the residents of Newton to be present at a meeting to be held Thursday, Nov. 21st, at 7.45 p. m., in Associates Hall, to consider the subject of improved service on the Boston & Albany Circuit, especially in connection with the electrical equipment of the road. Experts from electric companies, New York, New Haven & Hartford, and the Boston & Albany Railroad, will be present. Officials of the Boston & Albany Railroad, the Newton city government, and the other improvement associations of the city have been invited to attend. Representative gentlemen from Newton will address the meeting. The following petition will be submitted for signatures: To the Boston & Albany Railroad—We the undersigned, regular patrons of the Boston & Albany Circuit, respectfully petition for an improved train service, to consist of more frequent trains run at regular intervals in each hour, and shorter trains to insure quicker and prompt service. To this end we urge the substitution of electricity for steam as a motive power.

—Another new street railway is projected, with Samuel Jackson as the Newton representative, although Judge Lowell is also said to be interested with a number of Brookline and Boston capitalists. The proposed road will start from the quarry, near the railroad station, and run down Cypress street directly past the Theological seminary, Jackson to Boylston street, through the town of Brookline to Cypress street, Brookline, where it will have its terminus for the present. Eventually it is the intention of the company to extend the tracks down Cypress street across Washington street, down School street, across Harvard street to Aspinwall avenue, down Aspinwall avenue to Brookline avenue, down Brookline avenue to the new part of Boylston street, thence to Newbury street, thence to Arlington street, where it will enter the subway. The necessary land for stations, power house, stables, etc., has been bought, and arrangements have already been made with the Newton & Boston street railway company to furnish power until the power house is built and equipped. The power house, stables and office will be at the Brookline end. The trolley system will be used and the double track equipment will be of the most durable and improved pattern. The cars will contain all the modern appliances in the way of heating, electrical buttons for signaling the conductor, fenders and life-saving devices, and will be large and roomy. It opens up a large tract of Newton Centre and Brookline land.

—George Newton departed this week for Montreal where he will pass the winter months.

—Mr. W. O. Knapp has a new steppier and the animal makes an excellent appearance and appears to be a good rooster.

—Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Thayer of Beacon street are in New York City for a few weeks' stay.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Greene gave a winter party at their residence on Chase street last Saturday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Doherty of Centre street are receiving congratulations over the advent of a son.

—A card party proved an enjoyable diversion for quite a company of ladies and gentlemen at the residence of Mrs. L. A. Foster, Lake avenue, Tuesday evening.

—The prevalence of scarlet fever in Thompsonville district has resulted in the temporary closing of the Sunday school connected with the Baptist church.

—Councilman Joseph W. Parker has been renominated by the citizens' party. He was the choice, also, of the Republican caucus. Ex-Alderman Roffe will receive the support of the Ward 5 and 6 delegations in the Citizens' convention for mayor.

—The social in the First church, Wednesday, was a pleasant, informal affair, furnishing entertainment and social enjoyment for a large company of ladies and gentlemen.

—H. T. Hesse and Engineer Webb are much gratified over the performance of their carrier pigeons who made quick passage to Woonsocket, R. I. Tuesday. The journey was made by one of the birds inside of an hour.

—A bit of over confidence, it is said, is the correct explanation of the result, or rather lack of result of the N. A. A.—Hyde Park game last Saturday afternoon. The Newton men fully expected to score. They did not, however.

—A coffee party and festival, under the auspices of the Church of the Sacred Heart, is announced for Thursday evening next. The grand march occurs at 8 o'clock.

—There are letters at the postoffice for Miss Nora Lane, P. O. No. 1, Miss A. E. Crane, Miss Beckman, Mrs. Jane Connolly, Mrs. John Daley, Mr. J. M. Newhall and Willard Wing.

—C. O. Tucker & Co. have a very attractive Thanksgiving display and the artistic and tempting arrangement of goods in their show windows, affords much pleasure to local sightseers who appreciate tasteful effects, whether in the matter of dress or in those more material things which form a necessary part, perhaps not of environment, but manifestly of comfort.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—Miss Haskell, a sister of Mrs. Sylvester, possessed rare traits of character, which won the hearts of all who knew her, and her extensive acquaintance with affairs acquired by association with active, progressive life in different parts of the world, rendered her a most desirable companion to any circle of friends. Miss Sawyer, a niece of Mrs. Sylvester, resided in Fitchburg until within about two years, since which time she has been a member of the doctor's family, and by her gentle, refined nature and unselfish devotion to the comfort and happiness of those with whom she met in her duties to friends and patients, she illustrated an ideal life, the influence of which will continue as an inspiration. And these two closely connected in life and in death, leave behind memories that prompt the highest and noblest aspirations.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—The next meeting of the Monday Club will be with Mrs. Shaw.
—The mother of Mr. F. B. Bancroft died at Groton on Tuesday.
—Mrs. Luitwieler is visiting among friends at Springfield.
—The West End Literary Club will meet Nov. 18th with Mrs. E. H. Farbell, Lincoln street.
—Mrs. D. Cobb has purchased the estate which has been occupied by the family for many years on Eliot street.
—Mrs. A. Hobart of Hartford street, who has been ill with a fever, for the past two weeks, is now better.
—The "Eliot Whist Club" has been organized at Eliot, and the first meeting was held with Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard.
—The C. L. S. C. will hold their next meeting on Monday with Mrs. E. P. Ritchie.
—The first of the entertainments to be given under the auspices of the Highland Club, will be a "Winter concert" on Wednesday evening, Nov. 20th.
—Mrs. Appleton of Centre street, the widow of Mr. G. W. Appleton, who died a few months since, has died at Worcester, where she had been for some time.
—Mr. Arthur E. Hartwell has gone to Minneapolis for the winter, by the advice of his physician, for the benefit of his health.
—Mr. G. F. Higgins is having two cellars made ready for houses on Thurston road, running from Circuit avenue, near Eliot station.
—There are letters in the postoffice for Mrs. F. Costella, Miss Annie Knox (care of Dr. Ring), Mrs. Nora Marden, Helen C. Sutherland, 3 (care of Miss Arnold).

—Mr. J. H. Green, the druggist, and his wife, have returned from their wedding trip to Atlanta, and are now occupying their handsome new house on Lincoln street at Eliot.
—Unitarian services are held regularly in Steven's Hall every Sunday morning at 12. Last Sunday Mr. Elberfeld conducted the services. Next Sunday Mr. Woodway will preach. Both men are from Harvard Divinity school.
—At the regular meeting of the Ladies' Society of the M. E. church plans for the fair were brought well toward completion. There will be many unique features never before having been used in any fair in town. Send in orders for special articles you would like to buy at the fair.
—The hour for holding the morning service at the Methodist Episcopal church has been changed from 10.30 as heretofore, to 10.15. The pastor will preach morning and evening on the coming Sunday. Morning subject, "The Conciliatory Attitude of God." Evening subject, "Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard."

—Mr. L. A. Ross has sold his house on Saxon Road, occupied by Mr. Cutler, and one just raised on Hyde street, and purchased seven lots of land on Rockledge on a street now being built, starting opposite the Peckows green houses, on Centre street, and running to Boylston street.

Mr. Ross has a cellar started for a house on one of the lots. Mr. T. D. Sullivan has the contract for the cellar.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Waterhouse are taking a Southern trip and will visit the fair. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Dr. Hildreth has purchased a new driving horse.

—Miss Bertha Phillips has returned from New Jersey, much improved in health.

—Daniel Shea is improving his estate on Webster street by means of carpenter's craft and painter's art.

—There are letters in the post office for Sarah Hastings, John Corcoran, James A. Daly and A. E. Leigh.

—Hose 7 was called out Tuesday evening by an alarm from box 8. The alarm was for a fire in a house at Chestnut Hill.

—Miss Susan Hoyt of Hooksett, N. H., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Warren of Chestnut street.

—Mr. John Mullen has returned from a business trip to New York and resumed his duties at the Newton Rubber Works.

—Messrs. Frank and George Chamberlain, who were in Hopkinton, Friday and Saturday on a hunting expedition, have returned with an abundance of game.

—The machinery from the old paper mill which is being torn down by the workmen of the H. H. H. Paper Co., is being removed to Middleton by Contractor Cahill.

—A grand musical harlequin minstrelsy and concert will be held in the church hall of St. John's parish at Lower Falls, Nov. 11. The numbers on the program will include some excellent talent from this place.

—Again a deep shadow has fallen on the home of Mr. Joel R. Crandall. In April last the only daughter, a bright loving girl, was taken from the family circle and on Thursday morning, Nov. 7, a son, Orest T., aged 20 years and 6 months was released from all suffering. For some months his condition has been the occasion of great anxiety and all arrangements had been made for his removal to Florida, in the hope that the climate there would prove beneficial, but as the time approached for the journey there was a decided change for the worse and the project was abandoned.

—A young man of great promise has been taken from the world when he was but a few hours before his death he spoke hopefully to his mother, who was to accompany him to Florida, of the going, but it was not to be, and he sank to rest in his own home. A young man of great promise has been taken from the family circle and on Thursday morning, Nov. 7, a son, Orest T., aged 20 years and 6 months was released from all suffering. For some months his condition has been the occasion of great anxiety and all arrangements had been made for his removal to Florida, in the hope that the climate there would prove beneficial, but as the time approached for the journey there was a decided change for the worse and the project was abandoned.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—Miss Haskell, a sister of Mrs. Sylvester, possessed rare traits of character, which won the hearts of all who knew her, and her extensive acquaintance with affairs acquired by association with active, progressive life in different parts of the world, rendered her a most desirable companion to any circle of friends. Miss Sawyer, a niece of Mrs. Sylvester, resided in Fitchburg until within about two years, since which time she has been a member of the doctor's family, and by her gentle, refined nature and unselfish devotion to the comfort and happiness of those with whom she met in her duties to friends and patients, she illustrated an ideal life, the influence of which will continue as an inspiration. And these two closely connected in life and in death, leave behind memories that prompt the highest and noblest aspirations.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—Miss Haskell, a sister of Mrs. Sylvester, possessed rare traits of character, which won the hearts of all who knew her, and her extensive acquaintance with affairs acquired by association with active, progressive life in different parts of the world, rendered her a most desirable companion to any circle of friends. Miss Sawyer, a niece of Mrs. Sylvester, resided in Fitchburg until within about two years, since which time she has been a member of the doctor's family, and by her gentle, refined nature and unselfish devotion to the comfort and happiness of those with whom she met in her duties to friends and patients, she illustrated an ideal life, the influence of which will continue as an inspiration. And these two closely connected in life and in death, leave behind memories that prompt the highest and noblest aspirations.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—Miss Haskell, a sister of Mrs. Sylvester, possessed rare traits of character, which won the hearts of all who knew her, and her extensive acquaintance with affairs acquired by association with active, progressive life in different parts of the world, rendered her a most desirable companion to any circle of friends. Miss Sawyer, a niece of Mrs. Sylvester, resided in Fitchburg until within about two years, since which time she has been a member of the doctor's family, and by her gentle, refined nature and unselfish devotion to the comfort and happiness of those with whom she met in her duties to friends and patients, she illustrated an ideal life, the influence of which will continue as an inspiration. And these two closely connected in life and in death, leave behind memories that prompt the highest and noblest aspirations.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

—The death of Miss Haskell and Miss Sawyer, which occurred in the family of Dr. Sylvester on Tuesday, the twelfth, was a sad surprise to all who knew them. On Saturday, the 2nd inst, Miss Sawyer was severely ill with influenza, developing into a malignant state, a chronic disease to which she was subject, resulting in septic peritonitis. Miss Haskell, unfortunately, contracted the disease from Miss Sawyer, becoming ill on Thursday, the 10th, and rapidly failed and died on Tuesday, the 12th. The suddenness of the attack, the similarity and severity of the symptoms, the rapid progress of the disease to its fatal termination notwithstanding the constant efforts of local physicians, aided by able counsel from Boston, stamped the cases as quite unusual. The autopsy confirmed the nature and conditions as diagnosed in the course of the disease. The funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. Sylvester on Thursday and at Fitchburg on Friday, where both were interred in the same family plot, having formerly resided there.

to carry the improvement to South street before property increases much more in value.

A tract of vacant land situated on Boylston street, Chestnut Hill, containing about 600,000 square feet, has been sold to Anson M. Lyman and Dr. Joseph Hubbard, trustees, the consideration paid being $200,000, or about 10 cents per square foot. The new owners buy for improvement and investment.

A large transfer in which Mr. Geiger is interested is that of a tract of vacant land situated on Beacon street, Chestnut Hill, having a total area of about 400,000 square feet. This property was purchased by Mr. Geiger some time ago from Sylvester B. Hinckley, and he now resells it to H. B. Allen and James N. Thompson, the price paid being about $200,000, or about 65 cents per square foot. The purchase of the property was in November.

In Newton Centre an estate situated on the corner of Jackson and Boylston streets, belonging to Margaret Baldes, has been sold for $8000. The property comprises a large frame house and a lot of land containing about 43,350 square feet. The buyer was Jas. T. McGuire, for improvement.

Lym in A. Ross has sold through Bowker & Willis a frame dwelling of 11 rooms and about 8000 feet of land, situated on Hyde street, Newton Highlands, to a Boston party, for investment.

The auction sales of the house and 7,000 feet of land at the corner of River and Henshaw streets, and the 22,000 foot lot at the corner of Chestnut and Berkeley streets, both of West Newton, have been postponed one week, to 3.00 and 3.45 p. m., November 16. Auction takes place on the premises.

A large parcel of land on the corner of Beacon and Harvard streets, Chestnut Hill, Newton, has been purchased by Mr. Arnold from Mr. Geiger. It contains about 400,000 square feet, opposite the Slade estate, and having large frontages on the two streets named, and on South street. It is a part of the old Lawrence farm, that piece of high land rising from the westerly edge of the Chestnut Hill reservoir, and a few years ago purchased by Sylvester B. Hinckley, in new Commonwealth avenue extension, runs through to the other end of the old Lawrence property.

Wiley S. and Frank Edmonds have recently sold. The S. E. Bowker estate on Waban park, Newton, consisting of a house, stable and 21,500 feet of land, to a Boston party for investment. Five lots, aggregating 36,000 feet, on Plymouth road and Endicott street, Newton Highlands, to a Newton gentleman, who will erect high-class dwellings. Three lots of about 7000 feet each on Everett street, opposite Chesley road, Newton Centre, from the Garey estate to D. W. Spooner, who will at once build for customers, one of the houses being already engaged. The new house and 5000 feet of land for H. H. Reed on Glenwood avenue, near Park street, Newton Centre. The same gentleman has sold to A. L. Rand, one of his lots of 11,000 feet on Allerton road, Newton Centre, on which the buyers will at once build for a customer a 10-room dwelling.

The twentieth century is bound to improve on the nineteenth in the way it lays out and builds new towns. A noted industrial town of Depew near Buffalo was projected in the interests of the New York Central R. R., and other extensive manufacturers of railroad supplies, the town was not left to shape itself, while the railway and other corporations built only their immense factories. Our own Frederick Law Olmstead developed the plan of street, and laid out with an eye to its great future, a fine system of sewerage, and a water system adequate to the needs of a city of 100,000 inhabitants are provided; two handsome brick and stone $10,000 school buildings were erected; a library of hundreds of carefully selected volumes, soon to be increased, was established. From a single house in the spring of 1888, the town has already grown large enough to have its own fire department, various business men's associations and an extraordinary number of fraternal organizations. It is a town of the future, and it is well that natural gas for fuel from its own gas wells.

Lyman A. Ross has sold to E. P. Burnham of Newton a lot of land containing 11,200 feet, in "Rockledge," and he will at once commence the erection of a fine house for his own occupancy. This property has taken on quite a movement since Mr. Ross became interested in it.

Nine lots of land in Wetherell Park, Newton Highlands, belonging to M. E. Hyde, have been sold by Hyde's real estate agency to various persons, on private terms. The total area is about 40,626 square feet. The same agency has sold to M. E. Hyde, a tract and one-half acres of land in Auburndale, comprising the Riverside school property, taxed for $10,500. This purchase will increase Mr. Hyde's large acreage between Wetherell Park and the Blake bridge.

E. J. Young of Waltham has sold through

CITY GOVERNMENT.

A MIDNIGHT SESSION—MANY STREET RAILROAD HEARINGS—ASH ALLEY ALIAS MADISON AVENUE—CITY LABORERS WANT TWO DOLLARS A DAY—THE CROWD FILLS EVEN THE HALLWAYS—THE APPROPRIATION BILL.

The board of aldermen met Monday night, with all the members present except Alderman Hamilton. President Degen presided, and the crowd was so great that late comers could not even find standing room in the council chamber. The hearings on the petition for the increase of the pay of city laborers, and on giving the Newton & Waltham Street Railway a location on Lexington street were the two exciting features, and it was almost impossible to preserve order, although some of the events amused the audience, and called out repeated encores and applause. The hearings dragged along until after 12 o'clock, when the aldermen had a lunch, and then settled down to the appropriation bill.

THE LABORERS' PAY.

The hearing on the petition of ex-Mayor Kimball and others for the increase of the pay of city laborers from $1.75 to $2 a day was the first business, and some 300 interested workmen were present.

Mr. John B. Goodrich presented the case of the petitioners, stating in response to Alderman White that the petition was a copy of the original petitions. He said there were 140 men on the list of the Highway, Water and Sewer departments, under civil service rules, all citizens of Newton, and many of them tax-payers. The representations of the men themselves was the strongest argument in favor of the petition, as they could not make both ends meet on the wages they received. They were not employed every day, and they did not average $1.35 a day. If they got $1.75 every day, they would be more than satisfied, but they did not, and they wanted a chance to earn a living. Other cities paid $2, such as Boston, Cambridge, Marlboro, Natick, Chelsea, Fall River, Holyoke, Malden, Woburn, Lawrence, and most of the neighboring towns, Woburn, Brookline, Weston, Newton ought not to be behind others in the march of progress. It has been said that this increase would be very expensive and cost the city $50,000 a year, but this is figured on the assumption that the increase would affect other employees, which is not the case, and the increase would not be over $8,000 or $10,000, and the city would get a return in more and better work. These men are citizens, live in their own houses, all their money is spent in Newton, they have to educate their children, and they need the increase to make both ends meet. The city would not be likely to employ contract labor more than at present, and it should be remembered that for contract labor most of the money goes out of the city.

Ex-Mayor Kimball said the petition was brought to him after being signed, and he told the committee he would sign it with great pleasure, as he had always favored paying fair wages, and would have made the petition stronger still, if he had drawn it up. These men are call men, and are different from other employees. Every man of them would be glad to take $9 a week for 50 weeks in the year, and that would be more than they get now, and would be a certainty. When their petition was handed me, I had no wish or expectation of an office, and haven't now, and my only interest is to see that these men are properly paid. Mr. Goodrich said more than half the 140 men pay a tax on property.

Timothy M. Adams said he was a citizen and a tax-payer, and why should he not have voice? Even if his son was on the list. If the rule was applied to him it ought to be applied to all, and then there would not be so many of one family at City Hall. His remarks were so personal that the president had to call him to order.

John J. Taylor, who represented the laborers, was called on and said he did not see as he could add anything to what had been so well said by Mr. Goodrich and Mr. Kimball.

M. C. O'Hare, of the executive committee of the Knights of Labor, also spoke in favor of the petition, which closed the hearing.

A hearing on taking private land for sewer, easterly of Lundy brook, followed out attracted no interest.

MADISON AVENUE ALIAS SPRUCE STREET.

A hearing on taking land for the laying out and acceptance of Madison avenue, alias Spruce street, alias Ash alley, followed and aroused great interest among Newtonville people, nearly all the parties affected being represented and some of them getting quite excited over some of the testimony.

Alderman Green read a letter from Dr. Ois E. Hunt, withdrawing his name from the agreement that had been signed.

Mrs. Florence E. Curtis, by Fayette Shaw, protested against any of her land being taken.

Ex-Mayor Kimball said the street had been called Ash alley and the matter had been before the city government for many years. It was parallel to Newtonville avenue and Washington Park, was only 20 feet wide, and was used as the receptacle for all kinds of rubbish and garbage, and its condition right to the heart of Ward Two was disgraceful. It was only 1000 feet long, and by being widened and properly laid out would bring 3200 feet of front land for house lots into the market, right in the centre of the village. Of course there were objections, there always were to everything, but when it was done, they would be glad as any one.

Dr. O. E. Hunt said he was not present to oppose the building of the street, he was willing to have it done, and to abide by the opinion of the highway committee as to benefits and damages, but he did object to a plan that put 10 cent land on a par with 40 cent land, and asked to have the work done in an equitable manner.

Mr. Moore said he was a newcomer, and owned a lot on the corner of Walnut and Spruce street, which was worth 40 cents a foot. The widening would be no special benefit to him, as it would give the owners further down the alley, but he was willing to give his fair proportion towards building the street, but not to be put on the same footing with the owners of 14 cent land.

Mr. W. F. Slocum appeared for Mrs.

Curtis, and said the street had been curved to take in her land, and if laid out straight it would not touch it. As for the widening of the street within 10 feet of her back door, and she would ask for damages for land and also to the house, if the present plan was followed.

Mr. W. H. Mendell said his land was about in the middle of the street, and got no particular benefit, but he wanted the work done. He had brought many people to Newton and boasted of the Garden city, and when they saw this alley, they would ask him if he did not spell it Garbage city. Put the street through on any ground you please, and the sewer, which would have to be laid, would pay for the cost of grading.

Robert C. Bridgman said the matter had been agitated for 15 years, and the petition had the names of 75 well-known tax-payers. It would be a benefit to Ward Two and to the city.

Herbert M. Chase appeared as the attorney for Mrs. E. J. Simpson, who owned 50,000 feet of land on the street. On the one end of the street, and didn't want the widening, and the largest owner of the other was opposed. Mrs. Simpson would be more damaged than benefited. Her lot was at the bend of the street and the line went through her carriage house and stable. Her husband is now dangerously ill, and on account of other complications, she could not afford to go now. There was no good reason why the street should have been laid out before, and if there was any now, he had not heard of it. It should be done least of all this year, on account of the large sums voted for laying out other streets, and the damages asked for on this would be heavy.

Mr. Kimball said Mr. Simpson had favored the widening when he was well. Mr. Bridgman said he had called on Mrs. Simpson and she had said she was trying to sell the property and she did not see as this would help.

Mr. Moore said the aldermen ought to build the street and give it to the city.

Mr. Slocum said the street would be no advantage for travel, as Newtonville avenue and Washington Park were near and more convenient. If the land owners desire to develop their land, they should build the road.

Mr. Mendell said they would wait a long time if they waited for that. The aldermen would never agree on a plan and the alley was now a blot on the city. The aldermen alone could do it.

Mr. Kimball said the road was now a good deal travelled. Newtonville people were fond of each other, but they never could agree on any plan.

Mr. Chase said the travel on the alley was principally to the 10 stables on it, one of which was occupied by a grocer and provision dealer. If the surroundings were not clean, the owners could hardly expect the city to clean out their back yards. Who would want to live on a street that was occupied principally by stables?

Mr. Bridgman said that all but one of the stables were occupied by the owner, and the owners did not ask the city to clean out their back yards, but people from Highland avenue and elsewhere brought their rubbish there and dumped it.

Mr. Chase said he could give the names of the owners and occupants of the ten stables, which were occupied or had been until recently. If garbage was dumped there, complaint should be made to the board of health.

After other desultory remarks the hearing was closed.

TELEPHONE POLES.

The telephone company asked for location for poles on Boylston, Cook and Crafts street.

Mr. W. R. Chester, trustee, protested against any more overhead wires.

Alderman Green asked why any more poles were needed on Crafts street.

Supt. Albee said the West Newton exchange had been divided and part below Walnut street connected with Newton. On account of the changes on Washington street, a cable was needed on Crafts street, and some additional poles.

Mr. Jenkins protested against any more poles and wanted wires put under ground.

The next hearing was on attaching wires to electric poles on Highland, Franklin, Temple, West and Hall streets and Oxford street.

Charles E. Eddy sent in a letter, stating that he desired a telephone and was in favor of the petition as regards Franklin street.

Wilder M. Bush protested against any more wires on Temple street.

Supt. Albee said the wires were needed to enable the company to receive subscribers. The gas company had granted leave to attach the wires and the addition would hardly be noticed.

LEXINGTON STREET.

The hearing on the petition of the Newton Street Railway for a location on Lexington, Auburn and Charles streets, to the Newton Boat Clubhouse was a good deal of circus and one irrepressible advocate of the petition caused much amusement and confusion by his interruption.

Mrs. Ellen A. Plummer sent in a protest, as Lexington street in front of her house was only 25 feet wide and two narrow for electric cars.

Jacob Childs also protested, as it would spoil the street for business.

Mr. Geo. L. Johnson protested, on account of the narrow street and some places being only 20 feet wide, and people would have to drive on the sidewalk. The street would have to be widened and this would destroy his shade trees. He had suggested to the agent of the street railway to go by Pine and Moore streets, where they would reach more patrons. A street railway on Lexington street would spoil it for driving.

Welles E. Holmes appeared for the Newton Gas Company which did not want any interference with their poles.

Mr. Farley said he did not live on the street, but had been told that the street was to be widened. He protested any location being granted till the street was widened. Only one wide street led to Auburndale which was cut off by narrow streets from the rest of the city. A street railway on Lexington street would be a great source of danger, especially in winter, and he hoped the legislature would pass a law forbidding an electric road on any street less than 50 feet wide.

W. F. Hadlock, a resident of the street, protested against the railway.

P. A. McVicar objected to the road, on account of the narrow street, and if the street had to be widened the road pay part of the cost. It would absorb the whole road bed as the street was now.

The road would spoil the street and the square in Auburndale, and would only serve to bring in a Waltham crowd on Sunday.

Thomas Hogan was an enthusiastic advocate of the road, and said 50 feet of land for it. He said a large number of girls working in Waltham had to wade through the mud and snow to get there, and he kept interrupting the other speakers.

Chas. A. Miner protested on behalf of H. W. Robinson, who said the railway in such a narrow street would ruin his property, and if the road was built he would sell it for $5,000 less than its present value.

D. J. O'Donnell protested against the railway.

Mr. Chandler thought on such a narrow street an electric railway would be dangerous.

C. A. Brown said now Auburndale people had to walk to River street to get to Waltham, or else go by way of West Newton. Auburndale had been on the shelf for many years, and needed electric in every direction.

Mr. Chase presented a petition signed by 201 people, in favor of the location, but admitted that none of them lived on the street.

Mr. Chandler said he understood that most people signed the petition, thinking the street was to be widened first.

Mr. Mayo, as one of the signers, said he was told that if the location was granted, the city would widen the street.

Ex-Alderman Frederick Johnson said there seemed to be a number of mis understandings, and the people on the petition had been deceived. Several had told him they thought it was the Newton & Boston road, and if they had known it was the Waltham road they never would have signed it. It was about time the city stopped granting locations on narrow streets.

President Winthrop Coffin said he had formerly lived in Auburndale, and had been asked many times why his road did not go to Auburndale street, a service the place was to stop at the tunnel on Auburn street for the present, and he told about the plans for the road. Lexington street was 41 feet wide by the city engineers' plans.

Alderman Plummer and others said the actual measurements showed it was only 34 feet 10 in many places.

Mr. Geo. W. Morse said all these objections were only the usual ones, heard every time a road was talked of, and after the road was built the objectors were the most enthusiastic in favor of it. Auburndale wanted a street railway and Lexington street was as wide as many other streets which had railway tracks.

Mr. McVicar thought it was presumptuous and impertinent in the last speaker to pretend to know so much more about what Auburndale wanted than the residents. Here are fifty or more citizens all protesting, and not one Auburndale man in favor of it except a real estate agent, who hopes to make something out of it. The petitions were got by misrepresentation, and why don't they have some of the signers here to speak for themselves?

Mr. Coffin said no misrepresentation had been used.

Mr. A. D. Claffin said the Commonwealth street railway would soon connect Auburndale with the other Newtons.

Mr. Fletcher said as one of the signers, that if the cars were to go no farther than the tunnel, none of those from Riverside would care for it.

There were a number of other protests, after which the hearing closed.

NEEDHAM RAILWAY.

The hearing on the Needham and Newton Centre Street Railway's petition for a location in Winchester, Centre, Paul and Cypress streets and Institution avenue, also brought out a large number of protests, chiefly against its location in Union, Cypress and Paul streets, and Institution avenue.

Frank Edmunds protested against Institution avenue and Union street as not being wide enough for the travel upon them at present.

J. H. Daniels and a dozen more protested against a location in any of the four streets named.

Mr. Cogswell of Paul street objected on account of the narrowness of Paul street and thought the Centre street crossing would have to be abolished and the road might go that way.

Claxton Bray said there was no need of the street railway, the board had been built with a reservation for street railways, and other streets were too narrow for electric cars and the traffic, and there was no public demand for the street railway.

W. B. Young objected as far as Paul street was concerned.

Edward H. Mann said it was understood the board did not favor street railways unless streets were 80 feet wide. Newton Centre streets were too narrow for street railway tracks and if locations were granted, they ought to be for reserved spaces on the side of the street, as by that means a car might be kept out of the street.

The chief of the fire department told him that one of the steamers was damaged $40 by having to cross the street railway tracks on one street so many times.

Mr. Paul spoke in favor of granting the location.

Ex-Alderman Roffe said he had signed a petition for the road, but had changed his position, as the streets were too narrow, the road was not needed, and the sharp turns to be made would disturb the whole village, just as the one did at the corner of Beacon and Willow streets.

HEARINGS.

were giving on the petitions of Kendall & Stevens for a license to erect a stable on Centre street, no one appearing the petition was granted; on the petition of the Gas Company for permission to attach its wires to poles of the Telephone Company on Suffolk road and Kingsbury street; no one appearing the petition was granted.

PAPERS.

from the common council were received and passed in concurrence.

ALDERMAN BULLARD.

then arose and called the attention to the proposed reduction of the appropriation for schools. He said he understood that the appropriation would be reduced to $135,000 which would be some $6,700 less than they had received last year. Unless $140,500 was obtained the school board would be obliged to dismiss a number of teachers which would greatly interfere with the efficiency of the department.

MR. SMITH.

of the school board appeared and said that the appropriation called for had already been reduced to the lowest possible figures on which the work could be carried on. Any further reduction would prevent the proper maintenance of the schools. They must have $135,000 with the interest on the debt tax or they would be obliged to cut out the typewriter department, where they intend to give a business education equal to that given in any commercial college. The cut down would mean the dismissal of four grammar school teachers, and prevent the opening of any more kindergartens.

AN APPLICATION.

was received from the industrial school at Newton Highlands for a fire alarm box and was referred to the fire committee.

A COMMUNICATION.

was received from the Newton Centre Improvement Association requesting the presence of the board at a hearing to be held Nov. 21, and was accepted.

ACTION.

was taken on the death of Dr. Smith and a committee of three was chosen to attend the funeral services. Aldermen White and Bullard and Col Kingsbury were those chosen to attend.

REPORTS.

were received from the committee on street lights on the petition of Kimball recommending that the petitioner be granted leave to withdraw.

PETITIONS.

were received from Mary Horrigan for permission to move a building across Washington street from the south side to the north side, granted; from the Newton & Watertown Street Railway for permission to attach its wires to two fire alarm poles on Forest street, hearing set for Dec. 16; from E. C. Butler for one electric light on Linwood avenue, referred to the committee on street lights; from W. S. Smith that Ash street be widened to its full width, referred to the highway committee; from W. C. Darusha for a license to move a building from Morton street to Walnut street, granted; from W. B. H. Dowse and others that the city petition the general court for a statute allowing the city of Newton the right to divide the assessment of betterments for the period of ten years, referred to the legislative committee; from William Claffin and others as directors of the Commonwealth avenue street railroad company, asking that the said company be granted the right to lay its tracks on Centre street, hearing set for Dec. 16; from P. A. McVicar for permission to move buildings from Lexington street across the land of Fred Johnson to Waltham, also to move a building across Lexington street, granted.

ORDERS.

were adopted as follows: that the committee on street lights place one incandescent light in Surrey road, one in Kirkland and one in Woodside avenue; that the clerk notify C. W. Kinder of Watertown street to appear before the board Dec. 3 and answer why his sixth class liquor license should not be taken away; that the water board lay water pipes as follows: 170 feet on Crescent Park at $1,250; 234 feet on Hillsboro road at $400 and 1350 feet on Parker street at $1,600, total $3,250; that the mayor petition the general court for a statute allowing the city to collect the assessments on all boulevards, streets and ways; that petition 19,000 of the Newton & Watertown Street Railway be referred to the committee on street railways; that the petition of the Gas Company for locations on Woodland road be taken from the table and granted; that the petition 19,350 of the Gas Company for locations on Suffolk road and Kingsbury road be removed from the table and granted.

A recess was here taken and the hour being 1 o'clock the session of the board was continued till 3.30 Wednesday afternoon.

Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock the board of aldermen resumed its session continued on from the evening before.

A LICENSE.

was granted to James Sgraves of Newton on his petition for an express wagon license.

RESOLUTIONS.

on the death of Dr. Smith were passed as follows: Whereas the members of the city council of Newton have heard with sorrow of the death of our distinguished fellow citizen, Rev. Samuel F. Smith, D. D., therefore

Resolved: That in this sad event our city loses one of its most valued citizens and the state and nation an earnest patriot.

Resolved: That in the inspiring hymn that he has given to his native land, he has erected a monument more enduring than brass, and by his sweet and vigorous patriotism has embalmed his memory in the hearts of the people.

Resolved: That we tender his family our heartfelt sympathy in their affliction and that these resolutions be placed upon the record of the board of aldermen and common council.

THE APPROPRIATION BILL.

brought up from the common council and after some discussion was passed in concurrence. There being no further business the board adjourned.

A False Diagnosis.

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resemble the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the forehead, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of nasal passages, and in fact, are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal affections. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief.

High School Notes.

Newton High and Hyde Park High played a game in the junior interscholastic series last Friday afternoon. Newton won, 14 to 4.

The teams were more evenly matched than the score shows. Hyde Park made Newton hustle for every point, and the victory was not secured until the third touchdown was made in the second half. The boys played good football. Both teams were in good condition.

The players on each eleven got into the game together, and the victory was because of superior team play.

Newton has only one more championship game to play, that with Somerville High today. If Somerville beats Newton this game but eleven will win the championship by a clean string of victories, but if Newton wins, the result will be a tie.

The summary of the game is as follows:

NEWTON HIGH HYDE PARK HIGH
Johnson, E. E. Katzman
Worces, J. F. Sabor
Page, I. G. G. Sawtelle
Saver, C. W. Norris
Lester, F. J. E. Rich
Dane, E. E. Eaton
Foreman, J. B. J. B. Blake
Bardon, J. H. J. H. Harmon
Cotting, R. H. J. H. Whittemore
Bryson, Newton High. J. Thompson
Sears, Newton High. J. Thompson
Downs, Bardon, 2. Cotting, Harmon; goal from touchdown, Lester, umpire, A. L. Wakefield; referee, Judge, Hyde Park; time, 15m. halves; attendance, 500; linesman, W. C. Johnson.

It's just as easy to try One Minute Cough Cure as any other. It's easier to cure a severe cough or cold with it. Let your next purchase for a cough be One Minute Cough Cure. Better medicine, better results, better try it. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

Livery Stables.

DANIEL'S Nonantum Stables.
HENRY C. DANIELS, Proprietor.
Patrons will find at these Stables the best of Horses and Carriages for hire. Landaus and Hack, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. S. A. and reliable horses for ladies to drive.

BOARDING.
Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses. Clean and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt attention.
Telephone 271-3.

GEO. W. BUSH, Livery, Hack & Boarding STABLE.
Particular attention paid to Boarding Horses. Hacks at depot or the conveyance of passengers to any part of the city. Horses and carriages to let for business or pleasure.

ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.
Telephone Connection.

Livery, Hack, & Boarding STABLE.
Barges, City of Newton, Garden City. Boat Sleigh, Snow Bird.

F. CATE Boarding Stable.
W. Newton.

Ranges, Furnaces, Water Heaters, Steam Boilers, AT FACTORY STORE OF

Walker & Pratt Mfg. Co.,
GALEN STREET, WATERTOWN, MASS.
Telephone No. 30, Newton.

Furnaces, Ranges Cleaned and Repaired.

L. H. GRANITCH, House, Sign, and Ornamental PAINTER.
Paper Hangings in great variety and work promptly done.

Walnut St., - Newtonville.
2nd door from Central Block.

Howard Ice Co.,
Successors to Howard Bros.

ICE
RECEIVED AT

T. L. MASON'S, 390 Centre Street
P. O. Address, Box 65, Newton.

A. L. HOWARD, E. E. HOWARD.
Telephone 13-3, Newton.

Newton and Watertown Gas Light Company
All orders for Gas or Electric Lighting left at their office, 421 Centre St., will receive prompt attention.

C. A. HARRINGTON LUMBER,
Lime, Cement, Plaster, &c.
Crafts St., Newtonville, Mass.
Telephone 5/48-7 Newton

J. H. LOOKER, French Cleansing and Dyeing
Dry Cleansing and Repairing a Specialty.
Particular attention paid to

Blankets, Lace Curtains, Fine Linens and Hand Laundry Work of all kinds.

No. 21 Carleton Street, NEWTON, MASS.

BOOK
—AND—

JOB PRINTING
Of Every Description Promptly Executed at the

Newton Graphic
OFFICE

285 Washington Street, NEWTON.

Plumbers.

HEWITT & THOMAS, Practical Plumbers.
And Sanitary Engineers.
247 WASHINGTON ST., Nonantum Block, Newton.

M. C. HIGGINS, Practical Plumber
—AND—

SANITARY ENGINEER.
Plumbing Work in all its branches.

Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city; perfect satisfaction is guaranteed.

Sumner's Block, Newton.

ESTABLISHED IN 1896.

T. J. HARTNETT, Plumber and Sanitary Engineer.

IRON DRAINAGE & VENTILATION A SPECIALTY.

JOBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO 375 Centre Street, - Newton.

Carpenters and Builders.

S. K. MacLEOD, Carpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed. Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumbers' Work a Specialty.

SHOP: CENTRE PL., Opp. PUBLIC LIBRARY.
Residence: Boyd Street, near Jewett.

Mrs. E. A.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

HENRY COBB NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION AND A HARMONIOUS CONVENTION.

Monday evening, at City Hall, was called the Republican convention for the nomination of a mayor, seven aldermen and five members for the school committee, i. e. two from Ward 5; two from Ward 6 and one from Ward 7. The call was read by Edward Sands, chairman of the Republican ward and city committee. Following the reading of the call, William H. Furber was chosen to act as chairman of the convention, and George H. Bourne secretary.

After the reading of the call for the meeting, on motion of Mr. Sheppard, a committee of three were chosen to examine the credentials of the members of the convention. This office was filled by Mr. Sheppard of Ward 7; ex-Mayor Fenno of Ward 2, and Mellen Bray of Ward 6. The results of their examination showed 31 credentials. Four members who had mislaid their credentials were voted, bringing the number up to 35, the full committee chosen by the caucuses.

Following the amendment a motion by Mr. Geo. A. Blauy, that the temporary organization of the convention be made permanent, was passed.

NOMINATION FOR MAYOR.

The first nomination for mayor was made by Dr. Frisbie of Ward 1, who said, that with the many improvements now under way the coming year, the city would have its hands full. Its chief magistrate should therefore be a man of careful and sterling business qualities, and fitted in every way to hold the reins of government. He wished to nominate for mayor Mr. H. E. Cobb, whom he felt possessed all these qualities, and would fill the position to the best of his ability.

MR. SAMUEL L. POWERS

rose and said that it gave him great pleasure to second the motion of Dr. Frisbie. It was a well known fact, he said, that Newton was and always had been one of the best governed cities of the Commonwealth, and that it had always had honest and faithful men to fill its various branches.

Here he touched on the various recent public improvements in different parts of the city, and went on to say that they were greatly needed in a city like Newton. While these were under way the citizens learned with regret that the mayor would be obliged to resign. He thought it but right that something be said of the administration of Mr. Bothfeld. There was no question but that his retirement would be greatly regretted. Mr. Cobb had been a resident of Newton for over half a century. He had begun at the bottom of the ladder and had climbed to the top. He had by his own efforts been successful in his business life, and all would agree that his views were broad, moderate and public spirited. He believed that if he was elected he would give the city a most faithful and earnest administration.

MR. JOSEPH R. LEESON

here spoke a word for the south side of the city. He said, as he had not heard any motion, he could not let the opportunity slip by to assure the convention of the hearty support of the south side of the city for Mr. Cobb. The nominating of Mr. Cobb should be the cause of congratulation to every taxpayer in the city of Newton, and of having a man at the head of affairs of such good business ability and stern integrity. It would be a great pleasure for them to support the nomination of Mr. Cobb. On motion of ex-Mayor Fenno the secretary was authorized to cast one vote for Mr. Cobb.

THE NOMINATION OF ALDERMEN

followed. Capt. Henry W. Downs was nominated from Ward 1 by Dr. Frisbie, who stated that Mr. Downs not only possessed all the sterling qualities of the gentleman whom he had nominated for mayor, but in addition he held a reminder from the U. S. government, testifying to his bravery on the field of battle.

CAPT. HOWARD

also spoke. He stated that both Mr. Downs and himself had shed blood for the same cause, and that he had the honor to see the act which won him the medal for bravery. He wished to say that he both appreciated and approved of the wisdom of the nomination, and that the candidate was in every way fitted to fill the position of alderman.

Mr. Leeson was here appointed to act as a committee of one to wait upon Mr. Cobb and request his presence at the convention.

FURTHER NOMINATIONS

followed and Louis E. G. Green was nominated from Ward 2 by Chas. S. Avery; James T. Allen from Ward 3 by Geo. A. Blauy; Albert F. Noyes from Ward 4 by Frank A. Childs; Thomas White from Ward 5 by Seward W. Jones; Henry D. Deane from Ward 6 by E. H. Mason, and Henry Tolman from Ward 7 by S. A. D. Sheppard.

On motion of Mr. E. B. Wilson one ballot was cast by the secretary for each ward.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

nominations were as follows: For Ward 5, J. R. Smith and F. J. Hale; Ward 6, W. E. Huntington and Samuel Ward; Ward 7, J. Edward Hollis. These were nominated by one vote cast by the secretary.

On motion of Mr. Farquhar a recess was called to await the arrival of Mr. Cobb.

MR. SAMUEL L. POWERS

during this interval delivered a short speech in which he touched on the desirability of the office seeking the man rather than the man seeking the office. He said Mr. Cobb had not sought after the office of mayor, but would have declined the nomination altogether had he not felt that it was a duty which he could not refuse.

MR. EDDY,

the business partner of Mr. Cobb, followed and made a few remarks on the business qualities of the latter. He assured them that if Mr. Cobb was elected he would serve the city faithfully and to the best of his ability.

MR. HENRY E. COBB

arrived at this juncture and at once took the platform, amid applause from all quarters of the hall. In his speech, which was very brief, he said that he highly esteemed the honor which had been conferred upon him. He would much rather that the young magistrate should continue in office, but as Mayor Bothfeld had declined the re-nomination

he had accepted it. If elected, he would use the best abilities he had and try his best to fill the office. He would put forth his best endeavors to carry out the plans of the city. He had lived in Newton as man and boy for over fifty years and he loved it, and he hoped that when he left public office he would carry with him as much respect and honor as the man who had been his predecessor. There now being no further business on hand the convention was adjourned.

How's This!

We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and know him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him. Wm. A. TRUAX, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. W. L. KINMAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

N. A. A. Notes.

Newton A. A. and Hyde Park A. A. lined up Saturday afternoon on Newton's gridiron at Newton Centre to play off the tie of the week before. Newton won by a score of 12 to 0. Hyde Park lost by lack of team playing.

There were some extra fine individual playing by the men of both teams. Sears, Fennessey and Paul of Newton, and House of Hyde Park.

Sears was seriously injured in the latter part of the second half, and had to be carried off the field.

As he was being carried off the Newton supporters gave him three rousing cheers. His place was ably filled by Cozzens, who gained every time he was called on, with one exception, and who figured prominently in the interference. The game ended with the ball in Newton's possession on Hyde Park's 25-yard line. The line up:

NEWTON. Hyde Park. Crane, I. E. ... F. E. Howard ... Nash, I. G. ... F. E. Lemoine ... Eddy, G. ... F. E. McLean ... Paul, G. ... F. E. Worcester ... Penrose, T. ... F. E. Ware ... Rant, H. ... F. E. Gallagher ... Rant, H. ... F. E. Devick ... Nichols (captain), Sears, Cozzens, H. B. ...

The game will decide the championship of the Suburban League, which, until this season, has been made up of the strongest amateur teams in the eastern part of the state.

Hyde Park has two legs on the silver trophy, which was offered to the team winning the championship for three successive years. She won in 1888 and 1894, and the two contests with Newton were to decide the possession of the trophy. If Hyde Park won either, the cup was to be her property, but the first game was a tie, and the second Newton won.

In the New England A. A. U. clubs, the Newton A. A. stands third with 151 1-2 points. The Newton A. A. is a younger club in the association, but this season it has advanced athletically, with rapid strides. It whipped the elderly Suffolk at the New England championship meeting, to the surprise of not a few. Next season it is likely to top the list.

A. G. Bartley of Magie, Pa., writes: I feel it a duty of mine to inform you and the public that Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of a very bad case of eczema. It also cured my boy of a running sore on his leg. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Edward Billings, Newton; Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Anthony Lucas is reported ill at his home.

—Newell Tucker has taken a position in Boston.

—Matthew E. Sullivan sustained a severe injury to his hand, Tuesday.

—Mrs. C. W. Billings has returned from an extended visit to Medford.

—Stephen Morgan of Rose 7 has been ill at his home in Mystic, Connecticut.

—A number of lots of the old Wetherell estate were sold at auction Saturday.

—The highway department has been at work laying gravel on some of the streets. Some residents say they consider it quite a "surprise party."

—The Echo Bridge Council, Royal Arcanum, held an enthusiastic meeting, Wednesday evening. Three applications for membership were received.

—A large party of young people met at the residence of Miss Jennie Billings on High street and formed a whist club, Thursday evening.

—A party of twenty-six from this place gave a party in a large hall Monday evening and participated in a dance given at the People's Hall, by the Sons of St. George.

—The alarm from box 615 Saturday night was for a fire in the house of Michael O'Drury on Elliot street, caused by an overturned lamp. Damage slight.

—Thomas R. Coughlin has purchased part of the old Wetherell estate near the Pettie machine works and will soon commence the erection of a coal elevator.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Mrs. J. P. Darling, Lena Fisher, Margaret Harding, Catherine O'Connell, Miss M. Wilcox, Nicholas Hanson, Edw. F. Shea and E. A. Paulding.

—Tuesday, Officer Fuller captured two runaway youths from the Pine Farm school and sent them "home" in the patrol wagon. The boys had not been away long and they were going to Boston. Had it not been for the officer's prompt action, the boys might have given a great deal more trouble before they returned.

Hood's in Middlesex County.

"I suffered with malaria last summer and was obliged to give up work. I was treated by several different doctors without benefit and finally procured a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It did me so much good that I have taken three bottles, together with Hood's Pills, and am feeling like another man. My son was left in poor health by the grip and he began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and he thinks it is a grand medicine." M. T. Stuart, Newton Upper Falls, Mass.

"I had no appetite. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and after using four bottles I had a good appetite and felt strong." May L. Strath, 381 Putnam Ave., Cambridgeport, Mass.

"I have used Hood's Pills for some time and find them just as recommended." Mrs. J. T. Drake, 148 Cambridge St., Winchester, Mass.

GOLD EATING WATER

SPARKLING LIQUID CHARGED WITH CYANIDE OF POTASSIUM.

Millions In the Yellow Metal Recovered by Percolation—A Simple but Interesting Process, With Results Which Are Nothing Less Than Marvelous.

It is not generally known, even in California, that millions of dollars in glittering gold are annually taken from rude heaps of base looking quartz by the gentle flowing of crystal water over huge piles of broken rocks that contain the precious metal, but such is the fact. "The process of robbing the earth of its gold has now been reduced to such a fine point," said Professor Price, "that the gentle flowing of water over the ore cleans it of its golden treasures, and this works well in cases where the old chloride and other methods are not so useful."

But the water of which Professor Price spoke is not so pure as it looks, though the eye could never distinguish it from that which is dipped by the old oaken bucket from a well in the deep tangled woodland. The water used by miners in bringing gold from piles of mineral bearing quartz is charged with a simple chemical which has the potency to dissolve gold and hold it in solution. In truth, the sparkling liquid which flows over hundreds of tons of quartz, trickles through the mines and seeks its level, laden with gold, is charged with a deadly poison, cyanide of potassium, a drug which ferrets out the minutest particles of the yellow metal, dissolves them and brings the precious burden to the vats for conversion into refined gold again.

The cyanide process is as noiseless and unerring as the laws of gravitation, doing its work as quietly as "the majestic dance of the hours," unhindered by darkness or weather, by disasters of field or flood.

The state mining bureau of California was one of the first in the United States to investigate the merits of the cyanide process, and since the earliest investigations the method has found extensive application. It is so interesting that its results are nothing less than marvelous. This method of extracting both gold and silver from ores is based on the fact that even a very weak solution of cyanide of potassium dissolves gold and silver, forming respectively "auro-potassic cyanide" and "argento-potassic cyanide," in the language of the chemists.

This interesting process consists of treating the ores with a weak solution of potassium cyanide, usually by allowing the solution to percolate through the ore, or by agitating a mixture of the ore and solution. When this part of the operation is completed, the solution is separated from the solid material, and the gold and silver are precipitated in a metallic form. The process is modern in its application, though it has long been known that cyanide of potassium would "eat gold." During the last five years, however, the process has been introduced into almost every goldfield in California and elsewhere, and more than $20,000,000 have been recovered by the gentle flowing of waters charged with the magical chemical over heaps of ore. Aside from the thoroughness of the permeating water method, its economy is a marked feature in mining. It is in great favor with the gold mining companies of New Zealand and at Johannesburg, Africa, as well as in California.

One of the most advantageous features of the cyanide method is that it can be applied to many gold and silver ores generally called "refractory" or "refractory." The rebellious ore is placed in a vat for percolation, and the solution is run preferably from the bottom by a pipe, rising slowly through the ore. The solution containing gold is carried through precipitating appliances into the final reservoir, where, robbed of its wealth of metal, it may be repumped into ore vats and again used for searching out the coveted metal.

One of the curious things about the solution is that a total percentage not stronger than an eighth of 1 per cent will carry away the gold almost as well as fluid of greater strength.

Precipitation is effected by the use of fine pieces of zinc, so arranged that when the rich waters flow over them the fine gold clusters in rich deposits over the zinc, for which it has an affinity. The gold which thus deserts the waters of cyanide deposits itself in the form of fine dust on the plates of zinc. The percentage of gold extracted by this process is very large. A large parcel of fine sulphurets from the Utah mines yielded an average of 93.18 per cent of the gold value under the cyanide treatment, and similar results have been experienced elsewhere in the state. The cyanide plants are being extended, and the noiseless process is everywhere becoming popular. —San Francisco Chronicle.

The Nut Diet.

It is evident by many straws noticed in a general reading of periodical and newspaper literature that the next fad of the dietists is to be nuts. All the scientific cooking and health food authorities are urging with increasing persistence the value of this natural food and giving receipts for various nut flours, from which different varieties of bread cake may be made that are nutritious and of medicinal value in certain ailments. And now we learn that "Miss Ellen S. Atkins, a talented London woman who lost a splendid contralto voice four years ago from an attack of grip, has completely recovered her vocal powers through persisting in a fruit and nut diet for a year and a half." —New York Times.

Dry.

In a volume of sermons by a well known but turgid preacher the following lines were found written upon the flyleaf:

If there should be another flood, For refuge hither fly. Though all the world should be submerged, This book would still be dry.

The Subscription Price REDUCED from $8.00 to $6.00 a year.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

1844 A Weekly Magazine of FOREIGN PERIODICAL LITERATURE. Giving 3,000 Double Column Octavo Pages of Matter Unequaled in Quality and Quantity.

1896 The Thoughtful reader will find in THE LIVING AGE Food to Nourish, Stimulate and Inspire Thought.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST INTELLECTS

Contribute to make this periodical Indispensable

TO EVERY READER OF INTELLIGENCE AND LITERARY TASTE.

It has received the commendations of the highest literary authorities, the most distinguished statesmen, the brightest men and women of the country.

"Extensive Reviews of recent publications, the latest results of Scientific Research, Biographical Sketches of eminent characters, Travel, Exploration, Literary Criticism, and every phase of Culture and Progress in Europe, Africa and Asia. All these make up THE LIVING AGE."—The Bulletin, Philadelphia.

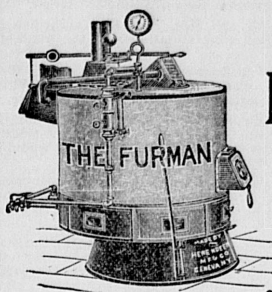

Heretofore the price has been EIGHT DOLLARS a year. With the first issue of 1896, the price will be SIX DOLLARS a year.

"A vast amount of good reading at a merely nominal price."—Boston Advertiser.

To New Subscribers for the year 1896, remitting before January 1st, the numbers of 1895 issued after the receipt of their subscription will be sent gratis.

Club Rates. For $9.00 THE LIVING AGE and any one of the American $1.00 monthlies; or for $8.00 THE LIVING AGE and any one of the $3.00 monthlies will be sent for a year, postpaid. Rates for clubs of THE LIVING AGE with other periodicals will be sent on application. Single copies 15c. each. For sale by all bookstores and newsdealers.

Address, LITTELL & CO., P. O. Box 3206, Boston.

Wolcott & Pratt, Practical Plumbers AND Heating Engineers.

SOLE AGENTS MAGEE FURNACES AND RANGES. NEWTONVILLE.

GENUINE BARGAINS

always to be obtained by those who are in want of

STRICTLY ALL WOOL FABRICS.

Suitable for Ladies', Gents', Youths' or Children's wear, by calling on us, where they may be found in all weights and the latest shades and styles. Full line of

WHITE BED BLANKETS.

All sizes and prices. Also

Horse Blankets for Street and Stable Use!

ALL THE Remnants and Imperfect Goods Made at The Assabet Mills are sold by us and at the lowest prices. Call and examine them.

The People's Dry Goods Company,

MAYNARD, MASS.

The Salesroom is open until 6 p. m., except Saturdays; closes Saturday at 12 o'clock. Positively open as above until further notice in this paper.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 54 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

WILL ADD TEN YEARS TO YOUR LIFE. RUBBER TIRES.

I am prepared to apply Rubber Tires of the most approved pattern to carriages, at the following low prices:

3-4 in. tread, set of 4 wheels	$35.00	Renewed for	$23.00
7-8 " " " "	40.00	" " " "	25.00
1 " " " "	45.00	" " " "	30.00
1 1/4 " " " "	50.00	" " " "	35.00
1 1/2 " " " "	55.00	" " " "	40.00
1 3/4 " " " "	60.00	" " " "	45.00
1 1/2 " " " "	55.00	" " " "	40.00

P. A. MURRAY, CARRIAGE BUILDER 200 to 210 Washington St., Newton.

Water Bugs and Roaches. EXTERMINATOR

CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR EXTERMINATOR

No dust. No trouble to use.

Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you drugist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.

BARNARD & CO., 7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

FOR SALE BY BARNARD BROS., NEWTON.

SIMPSON BROTHERS, CONTRACTORS FOR Concrete Walks, Driveways, Asphalt Floors and Artificial Stone Walks.

We have been awarded the Sidewalk Contract for the City of Newton for 1895, and are ready to receive orders or give estimates for work in private grounds.

P. O. Address, Newton, or Boston Office, Room 58 Telephone 1155 Boston. 166 Devonshire St. REFERS TO 20 YEARS WORK IN NEWTON.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS. WHITE'S NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COM'Y.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters; 8 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Free Carpets made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE,

P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street

Real Estate and Insurance. HYDE'S Real Estate Agency

31 MILK ST., ROOM 205, BOSTON, MASS.

Auctioneer, Mortgages Negotiated.

Newton Office: JOHN A. EVANS, Agent, 67 Elmwood Street, Newton Property a Specialty.

N. Highlands Office: Newhall's Block, Lincoln Street Newton Highlands Property a Specialty.

ELLIOTT J. HYDE.

Established 1857.

F. G. BARNES & SON Real Estate, Mortgage and Insurance BROKERS.

Auctioneers for Real and Personal Property. FOR SALE AND FOR RENT A large line of desirable property throughout Newton and vicinity.

Offices: 27 State St., Boston; Brackett's Bldg. NEWTON.

WILEY S. & FRANK EDMANDS

178 Devonshire St., Boston.

Insurance Agents and Brokers. MORTGAGES WANTED. Newton Real Estate a Specialty.

Houses For Sale, $3000 and upwards. To Let, $25 to $100. Furnished, $25 to $250. Choice Building Lots, 10 cents to 50 cents.

For Buying and Selling

Real Estate

and placing of Mortgages

and

Fire Insurance

in every part of NEWTON apply to

Bowker & Wills,

113 Devonshire St., Boston. Members of Real Estate Exchange. Telephone No. 325.

ALVORD BROS & CO.

113 Devonshire Street, Boston

NEWTON REAL ESTATE, MORTGAGES AND INSURANCE.

Artistic new houses, every modern device for comfort and luxury, generous lots, aristocratic neighborhood, near station, from $5000 up. Extraordinary value for the money. Building lots near new Boulevard and in 11 other localities at lowest prices. Desirable homes for rent. CIRCUIT PROPERTY A SPECIALTY.

Are You Looking For

a first class, new, modern 13 room house, in one of the most convenient, select neighborhoods in town for $15,000? If so, see us. It will please you. How about a house on West Newton Hill, with stable, 16,465 ft. land, magnificent view; $12,000, terms to suit. New modern houses, Hunsell Hill, $10,500, $8,500, $7,000, $5,000, $5,000. Choice house lots, near new Hunsell Hill Club House; others, Mt. Ida, West Newton Hills. Houses to let. Money to loan on mortgage.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,

53 State St., Boston. Elliot Block, Newton.

Newton Land Improvement. A. S. N. ESTES, Landscape Engineer.

Room 303 Sears Building, 199 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON, MASS

BERKELEY SCHOOL

Boylston, cor. Berkeley St., Boston

Co-educational. Certificates of the school received at Smith, Wellesley, Etc. Special student-tuition for Institute, Harvard and Boston University. Law and Medical schools, etc. Catalogue mailed, 51 TAYLOR, DENNETT & HAGER.

WOOD FOR SALE

AT THE

NEWTON CEMETERY.

JOHN J. HORGAN, MONUMENTS

Headstones, Tablets, Posts, Markers and Statues. Fine stock at Manufacturer's Prices

45-53 MAIN STREET, CAMBRIDGEPORT. Newton and Watertown cars stop at the door.

Newton National Bank,

NEWTON, MASS.

BUSINESS HOURS: From 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 4 P. M. On Saturdays, from 9 A. M. to 12 M.

JOSEPH N. BACON, President. RANKLIN BACON, Cashier.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

285 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable toEDWARD D. BALDWIN,
Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO. 438-3.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

THE MAYORALTY CANDIDATES.

Both of the regular conventions have been held, and the result is two candidates for mayor, a contest over the aldermen in Wards Two, Three and Four, and some scattering contests for the common council. Both parties agree on the candidates for the school board.

The Citizens have the advantage of numerous victories in city elections, having elected their candidates with but one or two exceptions in every contest, and perhaps this is the reason there was such a spirited contest in their convention. They have an excellent candidate in ex-Alderman A. H. Roffe, who made a good record in both branches of the city council, and who is familiar with city affairs. But party ties sit very loosely in city politics, and the question is whether those who opposed him in the convention and their followers will feel bound to support him. He will divide the vote in Newton Centre, the strongest Republican ward in the city, as he is one of the most popular citizens, and this may counterbalance what he will lose in other wards.

The Republican candidate has the advantage of having been the unanimous choice of his party, of an extensive acquaintance with prominent men, through his social position and also by reason of having been president of the Newton Club for several years, the club members being enthusiastic in his support. As a business man his record is an admirable one, and his business and executive ability has been demonstrated by the success of the firm of which he is a leading member. He has also had experience in the city council, although it was in the early days of the city's history.

It will be an interesting contest and the result is by no means so certain as to give either party a chance to sit down, with the conviction of having a sure thing. A good deal of work will have to be done, and the next ten days will see some vigorous campaigning. The contest is a distinct advantage to the city, as it will rouse a greater interest in city affairs, bring the voters out, and make them feel they have a personal interest in the city government. People are apt to lose all interest, when there is no contest, and the voters certainly ought to have the privilege of a choice as to who shall be the chief magistrate of the city.

THE ALDERMANIC TICKET.

There is to be a contest over candidates for the board of aldermen in Wards Two, Three and Four, and may the best man win in each case ought to be the wish of all good citizens.

In Ward Two, Alderman Greer, the Republican candidate, has a rival, ex-Councilman Savage, nominated by the Citizens. Many believe that Mr. Savage was untaken crowded out at a past election, and he made an excellent record in the common council, but there is no denying that Alderman Greer has been one of the best members the board has had the present year. He has attended faithfully to business, and could always be relied upon in the questions that came up to take the right side, and to stick to it in spite of any opposition that might come. On his record of the past year alone, he deserves to be elected.

In Ward Three the Republican candidate is Mr. James T. Allen, and the Citizens have named Mr. George P. Whitmore, a prominent resident of the Hill section of West Newton. Mr. Allen has the advantage of being the better known, has always taken a prominent part in city affairs, and would be a valuable addition to the city council. In such an important year as is coming, the best men should be chosen, and as he is better known, Mr. Allen will have a great advantage over his opponent, although the latter is said to be an excellent business man.

In Ward Four there is to be a lively contest between ex-City Engineer Albert F. Noyes, the Republican candidate, and Alderman Plummer, the present incumbent, who has been renominated by the Citizens. Mr. Noyes had a long and valuable experience as city engineer and there is probably no man in Newton so well acquainted with all city affairs which come under that department as he. Such knowledge would be of great value to the board of aldermen, especially in the great amount of street work to be done next year. Alderman Plummer has been a faithful worker, the past year, his position as chairman of the highway committee has been a very difficult one, and naturally has aroused more antagonism and received more criticism than any other position on the board. Everyone can see the work of the highway committee, and there has been great dissatisfaction with the condition of the streets the past year, although the committee has exceeded its appropriations, something the highway committee has not done for several years, and all this will militate against Alderman Plummer. In the other wards there is no contest, all of the present members being renominated in Wards Five, Six and Seven, and in Ward One both parties have united upon Mr. Henry W. Downs, one of the best selections that ward has ever made.

ONE BENEFIT OF THE HOSPITAL.

Newton has been more fortunate than many of its neighboring cities, the past year, in having had no epidemic which required the closing of the schools, and carried off many of the children. This is due in great measure to the contagious wards of the Hospital, where patients could be isolated and tenderly cared for, receiving better nursing than was possible at home, and preventing the exposure of others in the family.

There is no doubt that an epidemic of diphtheria has been spared the city by this means, as there have been a large number of cases, but the prompt action has prevented any general spread of this dread disease. The care has been such, that the great majority of the patients have recovered also, and in this respect alone the Hospital has been worth more than all it has cost since its foundation.

People should remember this on Hospital Sunday, and let this influence the size of their contributions, so that the Hospital will be better prepared than ever to cope with contagious diseases, in whatever form they appear.

The Hospital cannot have too much money, and its good work is now so widely recognized that the demands upon its resources increase largely every year. People have become acquainted with it, and are glad to send their patients there, knowing that it is for the benefit of the patients themselves.

Of the free beds, a certain wealthy gentleman gave money for one last year, and the other day was surprised to learn of the good it had done. One patient, suffering from a painful and dangerous disease, necessitating several surgical operations, was restored to health and strength, and received treatment which in a private hospital would have cost nearly a thousand dollars, and the patient could not have afforded to secure any relief, without this provision. This was only one of the occupants of this bed, and the gentleman was so grateful for the chance of doing so much good that he put his name down for the same amount for next year.

This is only one of many cases which might be told, were those familiar with the hospital to tell of the great help to suffering humanity that has been given the past year.

All who can afford to give, and everyone can give something, should be as liberal as possible this year, so that this great and beneficent institution of Newton, may be well equipped for the coming year. There are many special needs outside of the regular expenses, and it is hoped some generous citizen will look them up and make special donations, although for Hospital Sunday, money for the current expenses is the one thing to be provided.

The boom in Newton proper seems to be increasing in magnitude, and many schemes are in the air. It took an outsider to take hold in Nonantum square, and the magnitude of his undertaking has startled the conservative people of Newton, who have always looked askance at Newton business property, and have been putting their money in Atchison railroad bonds and gilt-edged schemes which have come so grief. There is one advantage in improved real estate, and that is the owner does not discover some gloomy day that his investment is worthless, and the wonder is that people will prefer some far-away venture, instead of seeking safe investments right at home.

THE Auburndale Improvement Society has called attention to the poorly lighted cars of the B & A., and has taken steps to bring the matter to the attention of the railroad officials. Other societies in Newton should follow this example, as the complaint is well-founded. Some of the cars are well lighted, but the majority are not, and passengers have to sit in the gloom between Boston and their homes, as at this time of the year but very few people can come home by daylight. A few years ago, as a result of a great outcry, there was a little improvement, but nothing of any importance was done to remedy the matter.

THE statement that the laborers of surrounding cities and towns are paid $2 a day, is one of the strongest arguments why the petition of our city laborers for an increase should be granted. Newton can afford to pay as much as other cities for the same kind of work, and the laborers who are on the civil list have to be pretty good sort of men to keep their position. They would then not average $500 a year, and it is difficult to see how a man can support his family in a respectable way, and make needed provisions for his old age, even on that sum.

THE State Board of Health and the Metropolitan Park Commission gave a joint hearing, Wednesday, on the preservation of the banks of the Charles River. Among the speakers were Rev. Dr. Shinn and Dr. Stearns of Newton, President Dewson of the Garden City Improvement Society, E. B. Haskell, Francis Blake of Weston, Acting Mayor Degen, City Engineer Woods and others from adjoining towns.

BLOCKTON must be a lively place about election time, as it has four candidates for Mayor this year.

WABAN.

—Why? Oh why don't you take the hint and patronize the 7-28 express?

—Mrs. Wm. H. Gould is suffering with an attack of acute indigestion.

—Among the local improvements is a new platform at the station.

—The Wagners are now occupying the Henshaw house on Woodward street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Knight are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

—The Benevolent Society met on Wednesday of this week with Mrs. A. H. Willis, of Windsor road.

—As yet we have heard of nothing definite in regard to the hall entertainments for this season. Anything would be pretty well patronized at present.

—What a crowd the evening mail brings out! One almost has to use football tactics to secure the letters which have arrived.

—We hesitate about advertising the score this week, for the home team has been defeated several times, but they are happy just the same.

—Mr. Robert N. Dresser sprained his knee quite severely while playing football last Saturday. He is, however, now much improved.

—The Frederic L. Collins estate is undergoing extensive repairs prior to its occupancy as a dormitory by the pupils of "The Waban School."

—We have given up trying to be funny. A reader cornered us one day and asked for the answer to that conundrum. As we didn't know, we couldn't tell him, and—well we have been out of the hospital three days now.

—The Whist Club was very pleasantly entertained last Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fish at their home on Beacon street. The first prizes were captured by Mrs. Dr. L. Sheple and Mr. A. S. Barnes.

—The first meeting of the B. J. C. Whist Club was held at the home of Miss Severance on Friday last. The prize winners were Miss Lara Fish and Mr. Williams. Miss Dresser entertains the club on Friday evening, Nov. 29.

—The ladies of the Benevolent Society gave a Matinee Whist last Monday afternoon in the village hall for the benefit of the Waban improvement. There were eight tables of whist, after which light refreshments were served. Mrs. Heaton presided. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Whitney of Wellesley and Mrs. J. H. Robinson. Quite a unique sum of money was realized, beside proving a most enjoyable affair.

Billiousness
Is caused by torpidity of the liver. This prevents the digestion of food, which ferments and decomposes in the stomach and causes distress, dizziness, headache, insomnia, nervousness. Hood's Pills invigorate the liver, cure billiousness, constipation, jaundice, sick headache, etc. 25c; all druggists.

Hood's
the Best After-Dinner PILLS

Mrs. Elizabeth Gowdy Baker.
Water Colors.

Classes for Children and older People.
Studio Opp Public Library.

Wedding Decorations,
ARTISTIC DESIGNS
Cut Flowers and Plants.
E. T. MOREY,
Washington and Tremont Sts., near Newton Line.

MARRIED.

NICHOLSON-MEEHAN—At the chapel of Grace church, Newton, Nov. 19, by the Rev. W. Shinn, D.D., Mr. Theodore Joseph Nicholson of Newton and Miss Marguerite Elizabeth Meehan of Boston.

O'HANLON-ROCHE—At Arlington, Nov. 14, by Rev. P. M. O'Connor, Maggie A. Roche of Arlington and Edward O'Hanlon of Newton.

MERRIAM-ROBERTSON—At Newton Centre, Nov. 14, by Rev. Alvah Hovey, Christy B. Robertson and Charles D. Merriam, both of Newton.

HASTIE-BROOKS—At Newton, Nov. 13, by Rev. W. Shinn, D.D., Mrs. Brooks and Alfred G. Hastie, both of Newton.

DIED.

FLANDERS—At Newton Centre, Nov. 15, Jackson Flanders, 68 years.

BINNEY—In Newtonville, Nov. 16, Charlotte J., widow of John A. Binney, 61 years.

ALLEN—In West Newton, Nov. 18, Augustus Allen, aged 78 years, 3 months, 19 days.

GAGE—At Newtonville, Nov. 16, Harold Gage, aged 8 years, 7 months, 26 days.

MANNING—At Newton Lower Falls, Nov. 15, Justina Manning, aged 1 month, 8 days.

MCLAUGHLIN—At Newton, Nov. 18, Mary McLaughlin, aged 35 years.

AYLWARD—In West Newton, Nov. 17, Mrs. Mary Aylward, aged 65 years.

SYLVESTER—At Newtonville, Nov. 16, of membranous croup, Harold Gage, only child of Wm. H. and Anna F. Sylvester, 8 years, 7 months, 25 days.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

City Election,

December 3, 1895.

CITY OF NEWTON

ORDERED,

That meetings of the citizens of this City, qualified to vote therein, are hereby called in the several Polling Places designated by this Board on Tuesday, the third day of December, A. D. 1895, for the election of a Mayor and Seven Aldermen, one Alderman being selected from each Ward, and in each Ward from residents therein two members of the Common Council. Also to elect five members of the School Committee, to be selected as follows: Two from Ward Five, two from Ward Six, and one from Ward Seven, to serve each for three years from the first Monday in January next.

Also to give in their ballots "Yes" or "No," in answer to the question, "Shall licenses be granted for the sale of intoxicating liquors in this city?"

All the above officers and the question of licensing the sale of intoxicating liquors, to be voted for on one ballot, except that the votes for School Committee by women will be by a separate ballot.

The polls will be opened at seven o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at twelve minutes past four o'clock in the afternoon.

In the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Nov. 5, 1895.

Read and adopted.

ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, Clerk.
HENRY D. DEGEN, Acting Mayor.

A true copy.
Attest: ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

In accordance with the Acts of the General Court of 1893, Chap. 417, Title V, and the foregoing order,

Notice is hereby given of the meetings to be held for the purpose aforesaid, on the said 3rd day of December, 1895, in the several Polling Places as follows:

Precinct 1, Ward 1, Voting Booth, Waban Street, near Pearl Street.

Precinct 2, Ward 1, Armory Hall, Washington Street.

Precinct 1, Ward 2, Rooms 6 and 8 Central Block, Washington Street.

Precinct 2, Ward 2, Tremont Hall, Washington Street.

Precinct 1, Ward 3, City Hall, Washington street.

Precinct 2, Ward 3, City Hall, Washington street.

Precinct 1, Ward 4, Auburn Hall, Ash Street.

Precinct 2, Ward 4, Freeman Hall, Washington Street.

Precinct 1, Ward 5, Old Prospect School House, Pettaucet Street.

Precinct 2, Ward 5, Stevens Hall, Lincoln Street.

Precinct 1, Ward 6, Associates' Hall, Centre Street.

Precinct 2, Ward 6, Associates' Hall, Centre Street.

Precinct 1, Ward 7, Elliot Lower Hall, Centre Street.

ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

Madame Kennedy,

THE Wonderful Healer,

Heals the sick by the laying on of the hands.

Cures all Chronic Diseases of the Body, as Heart Disease, Indigestion, Kidney Disease, Tumors, and Cancers in the first stages. Neuralgia and Rheumatism, Female Diseases, Dropsy and Craving of Strong Drink, without the use of Medicine, has taken rooms at

NO. 16 BALDWIN ST., NEWTON.

Consultation Free.

Hours: From 1 to 4 P. M.

PROF. BACHMONT, Ph. D.,

Of the University of Paris.

Is now forming classes in French in Newton. Gouin method, a psychological system enabling students to speak fluently in the shortest time. Trial lesson free. Address, 62 Boylston Street, Boston.

Shirts

MADE TO ORDER.

A Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Best Material. First-Class Work. Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2.00. Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience.

Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly. New Bosoms, 50c; Neckbands, 15c; Wristbands, 15c; Collars, 25c; Cuffs, 25c; Centre Plates, 25c.

Badly fitting Shirt made to fit well.

E. B. BLACKWELL,

43 Thornton St., Newton, Mass.

FRED A. HUBBARD,

Pharmacist

P. O. Block, NEWTON.

SUNDAY CLOSING HOURS:

From 10.30 A. M. to 12 M.: 2 P. M. to 4 P. M.

DR. LAVIOLETTE'S SYRUP OF TURPENTINE FOR COUGHS & COLDS.
CURES

CHAMBER SETTS

In Maple, Curly Birch and Antique.

MORE ROOM.

	FORMER PRICE	REDUCED PRICE
Lot No. 1	$20.00	$16.50
Lot No. 2	21.00	17.00
Lot No. 3	26.50	21.50
Lot No. 4	26.50	21.50
Lot No. 5	28.00	22.50
Lot No. 6	30.00	23.50
Lot No. 7	37.00	28.00
Lot No. 8	40.00	35.00
Lot No. 9	40.00	33.50
Lot No. 10	40.00	33.50

SPECIAL NOTICE.

This is not a MARK UP and mark down sale, as the ORIGINAL PRICES WILL be left ON EACH PIECE, together with the above reduced prices.

FURTHERMORE, this is not a clearance sale of old odd lots, as everything in our store is ABSOLUTELY NEW and of the latest designs, having been recently purchased of the best manufacturers.

GEO. P. STAPLES & CO.,

739 Washington St., Boston

CARPETS AND FURNITURE.

Real Estate, Mortgages, Insurance
Special Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.
Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.

—OFFICES—

J. C. FULLER, Newtonville. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington St., Boston.

STOVES

and every variety of

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

—AT—

BENT'S FURNITURE ROOMS,

64 Main St., Watertown.

Brackett's Market Company.

Established 1851. Incorporated 1892.

Telephone No. 10-3.

Commencing Oct. 1st we will sell

Sirloin Roasts at 25 cts. per lb.

"Steak at 25 "

Rump " at 25 "

LARGE STOCK TO SELECT FROM.

7 and 8 Cole's Block, WASHINGTON near CENTRE ST., NEWTON.

An Attractive display of Fruits & Vegetables

AT

Stalls 108-110.

Faniel Hall Market,

Boston.

Boston Market Celery, Hot House

Tomatoes, Hot House Cucumbers, Malaga Grapes, Florida

Oranges, Jamaica Grape Fruit.

All the delicacies of the season.

E. H. Kingman & Co.,

Telephone, Haymarket 671.

BICYCLES!

FOR LIGHTNESS

AND

STRENGTH

None can excel the

NEW MAIL

for 1895.

We shall soon have samples and will take pleasure in showing them. Look here before purchasing a wheel.

BARBER BROS.,

Agents for Newton and Watertown.

BUSINESS NOTICES

RATES—50 cents first insertion for not exceeding 5 lines, and 25 cents each time thereafter, in advance.

Wanted.

WANTED—A Roll top desk, 4 to 4 1/2 feet at 49 Elmwood St., Newton. 8-1t.

WANTED—Aman, Trowbridge & Co. have customers wanting to borrow money on mortgage on new desirable houses. If you have money to loan, see them at once.

A YOUNG MAN wants situation driving milk team, well acquainted with all the Newtons, good experience and references, address, 37 Webster Ave., Somerville. 8-1t.

ALEX. PROCTOR—Metaphysical and Magnetic treatments. Patients treated at their homes or at Office, No. 1 Brookside Ave., Newtonville. 8-2t.

ANY one desiring board and rooms, with all the comforts of a home in a small part of Newtonville, within five minutes walk of the Station, can obtain the same, at reasonable rates upon addressing, Box 119 Newtonville. 8-1t.

WANTED—Work solicited by a reliable dressmaker by day. References given. Please address, Miss Lewis, 402 Columbus avenue, Boston. 7-3t.

DRESSMAKING—Would like few more engagements to go out by the day. Call or address Miss Rooney, 38 Prospect street, Waltham. 4-6t.

HORSES boarded for the winter, best of care and attention given to all horses. An inspection of the premises solicited. Address John Cain, Wellesley Hills, Box 119, 2, 13t.

FOR SALE—A Small Horse weighs about 900 lbs. Kind and gentle, has been used by women and children, not afraid cars, can be seen at stable of owner, corner Ashman and Crescent Sts., Newton Centre. Saddle or carriage horse. Wm. Macomber. 8-1t.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—At Newtonville, near depot and P. O., etc., a nearly new house of 11 rooms, laundry, etc., all modern conveniences in good order. Just vacated. Will be rented to a good tenant on reasonable terms. Apply to J. B. Turner. 1t.

TO Let—Two or three unfurnished rooms, suitable for light housekeeping. Steam heat and bath. Apply to 86 Park St., Newton. 8-1t.

TO LET—Single room without board, near Depot. Table board at several houses close by. Enquire at 25 Wesley St., Newton. 8-1t.

TO LET—A house with all modern improvements, 9 rooms, 1 1/2 mile from station. Rent $22 per month; and one with large stable about same distance out. Newton Centre. W. Thorp. 1t.

FOR RENT, Washington St., between Brookline

NEWTONVILLE.

—Pianos rented and tuned. Farley, Newton.

—Mrs. C. W. Hamilton and children are away for a short trip.

—Mrs. William P. Kirby is ill at her home on Court street.

—Miss Clara Woodward is ill at her home on Newtonville avenue.

—Mrs. C. H. Loomis of Lowell street is the guest of friends in Providence, R. I.

—Mr. and Mrs. Austin R. Mitchell of Walnut street are entertaining guests from Poland Springs.

—Mr. Rawson and family, formerly of Bridgewater, Conn., are occupying a house on Washington street.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Folk of Austin street are entertaining Miss Florence M. Folk of New York.

—Miss Amelia Hall of Boston was the guest of Miss Kate Lockett during the past week.

—Mr. W. H. Dyer and family have moved from Spruce street to the Sidney Stone house on Walnut place.

—Mrs. W. F. Wolfe and family returned this week from New York where they have passed some weeks.

—Mr. E. S. George was a guest at dinner Monday evening, of Mrs. James G. Blaine, at her home in Augusta, Me.

—The new residence on Birch Hill, built by Frank Joyal, for Mr. Albert R. Walker, is nearly ready for the interior finish.

—The Aschly Club will meet at the residence of Mr. F. T. Benner on Trowbridge street next Monday evening.

—Mr. H. A. Bosworth will run a public carriage from the station and will promptly fill all orders sent by mail.

—A handsome copper coping has been placed on the Newton Associates' block, corner of Walnut and Austin streets.

—Mr. W. C. Gaudet has leased the Byers' house on Washington street, recently occupied by Mr. John M. Stickey.

—Mr. J. B. Cornish and family, formerly of Walker street, have removed to Somerville.

—Rev. E. E. Davidson, the evangelist, is conducting a series of revival meetings at Hastings, Minnesota.

—Dr. J. W. Hayden of Colorado Springs is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hayden of Washington park.

—There are friends remaining in the post office for Mrs. Sidney Brooks, Vincentio Giannotti, Mrs. Mary Gill, Ernest Jones and Mrs. Smith.

—The postponed address on "The wheat and chaff in Mr. Ingersoll's straw," will be given in Central church next Sunday evening at 7.30 by the pastor.

—Mr. C. H. Loomis has leased a house in Swallow block on Highland avenue, to Mr. H. B. Chesley, assistant superintendent of the Boston & Albany railroad.

—Mr. John M. Stickey and family are occupying the house corner of Washington and Lowell streets, until their new residence on Highland avenue is completed.

—Mrs. George H. Shapley returned last week from her trip to Savannah and Atlanta, Ga., and her return from the south she attended the horse show in New York.

—It is expected that the new block, corner of Walnut and Austin streets, owned by the Newton Associates, will be ready for occupancy about Dec. 15, as the work is being rapidly pushed forward.

—District Deputy Grand High Priest C. C. Henry and wife made their annual visitation on the Royal Arch Chapter at their convocation, Tuesday evening. Degrees were conferred upon six candidates.

—Mr. and Mrs. Austin R. Mitchell entertained a party of about twenty friends at the clubhouse, Monday evening. The party was enjoyed followed by a supper served in Jackson's best style.

—The History Club met Tuesday evening at the residence of Rev. John M. Dutton. The topic for the evening was "The constitution." Papers were read by Dr. D. E. Baker and Miss Kate Chapman.

—The engagement of Miss Marie Ruddy, daughter of Mr. Ruddy of the Ruddy Thread Works of Worcester, and Mr. Cummings of that city is announced. Miss Ruddy and Mr. Cummings are both well known in this city.

—The public are invited to a sale to be held by the ladies of the New church society, Highland avenue, in their new parlors, Dec. 4, from 3 to 6 and from 7 to 10. An effort is being made to provide useful and fancy articles suitable for Christmas presents.

—Charles Ward Post 62, G. A. R., will visit Comrade Horatio Carter, Austin street, Tuesday evening, Nov. 26th. Comrade Carter is confined to his house by illness and his comrades take this way of showing their remembrance of the "missing."

—The pastor, Rev. Franklin Hamilton, will preach Sunday, both morning and evening, at the M. E. church. Morning topic at 10.45, "The Kind of a Church that Jesus wants Today." Evening topic at 7.30, "The Land of the Miamas Indians, Canada's Dying Race." This will be the last in the Gospel of the Gospels. Singing led by a quartet. All seats free.

—The concert at the Central Congregational church, last Tuesday evening, given by the organist and members of the choir, was much enjoyed by the large and appreciative audience present. The organ selections by Mr. Young and the beautiful singing of Miss Pace and Miss Martin being spoken of on all sides, and the male quartet numbers also being praised.

—At the Bostoniana Club Thanksgiving feast, at its club rooms in Boston, Tuesday evening, Mrs. Chaloner was the hostess and wore a charming colonial costume of delicate dove gray set off with deep frills of lace, a delicate touch of pink and a cluster of pink roses. She wore an immense back comb in her coiffure, as was the old custom, and carried a very dainty little handbag, probably a century old. Mr. Chaloner conducted a telephone talk with Old Boston, England, which was very amusing.

—An organ concert was given at the Congregational church, Tuesday evening. The following program was presented: Organ, "Hallelujah," Mr. Young; "O, Who will o'er the Pines," male quartet; solo, "When the Heart is Young," Miss Martin; organ, "Overture to Wm. Tell," Mr. Young; quartet, "Ave Marie," Miss Page and male quartet; organ, "Ave Marie," Mr. Young; solo, "Unfinished Music," Miss Page; "Sleep thou wilt rise," "Massa's in the cold, cold ground," male quartet; organ, "Ave Marie," Mr. Young; "Too White, Too Who," mixed quartet.

—An audience that completely filled the Methodist church on Tuesday evening, listened to a most enjoyable concert given by the popular Boston Ideal Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar Club. The ideals were at their best, and the hearty applause which followed each number gave full proof of it. An exceptionally fine program was rendered. Mr. Glover's trick banjo solo and Mr. Lausung's humorous songs were features that were especially enjoyed by all. The ideals, as usual, gracefully responded to numerous encores. The club had the able assistance of Mrs. Winifred Woodside Metcalf, reader, a graduate of the Emerson College of Oratory who recited "Virginia of Virginia" and "A Sister's Scheme" in a very pleasing manner which elicited the applause of the audience. She responded with two short, catchy and taking selections.

WEST NEWTON.

—Miller pianos, Farley, Newton.

—Mr. W. H. Rand is away on a business trip for a week.

—The engagement of Miss Jerome and Mr. Charles Cutting is announced.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Church of Lenox street are away from town this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anders of Otis street have returned home from Europe.

—Next Sunday will be Hospital Sunday at the Congregational church.

—This afternoon Miss Marietta C. Porter will give a paper on Browning before the Woman's Educational Club.

—Mr. and Mrs. William E. Jennison of Cambridgeport spent Sunday with relatives in town.

—Mrs. Caroline Barker of Washington street has been spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Sanger of Readville.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Robinson of Exeter street have the sympathy of their many friends in their recent bereavement.

—Several members of Post 62, G. A. R., attended the grand camp fire at Park Theatre, Waltham, Wednesday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown of Webster street are entertaining their son Robert from Fitchburg.

—Mr. C. H. Hall and family of Somerville expect to occupy their new house on Berkeley street about Dec. 1st.

—Contributions will be collected in the various churches next Sunday for the benefit of the Newton Hospital.

—Mr. George Mason has accepted a position with Rice & Evans, Civil Engineers of Boston.

—H. C. Hall of Somerville is intending to soon occupy his new house on Berkeley street.

—Mrs. A. K. Mallon is entertaining friends from Rockland, Mass., at her home on Oak avenue.

—The new house of Mr. W. H. Rand, corner of Greenwood avenue and Austin street, is nearly ready for occupancy.

—Miss Besse, who has been confined to the house for the past two weeks, has resumed her position as bookkeeper at the office of C. F. Eddy.

—The degree staff of Newton Lodge 92, I. O. O. F., worked the 3rd degree for Lafayette Lodge 31, of Watertown, Tuesday evening.

—Miss Pearl Ruggles, who has recently been visiting Miss Gertrude E. Trowbridge of Washington street, has returned to her home at Thomaston, Me.

—A large Bible class was formed last Sunday by the members of the Unitarian society, under the leadership of Mr. E. B. Haskell.

—A delegation from G. A. R. Post 62 attended the inspection of the Gen. Washburn Post 92 of Brighton, last Monday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Leighton of Winthrop street entertained Mr. Conrad Hayes and child from Portland during the past week.

—The foundations of the new school house on Chestnut street are now laid and the erection of the frame has been started.

—A large party from here attended the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Nathan P. Cutler, Jr., at their home in Newton last Monday evening.

—Depositors in the West Newton Savings Bank are requested to bring in their books for comparison and examination during the first two weeks of December. See adv.

—A recital, dramatic and in dialect, will be given in the Unitarian church parlors next Monday evening by Mrs. Waldo Richards who is well known both in this country and in England.

—Mr. E. E. Burdon returned from a successful hunting trip through the woods of Maine. Among other trophies were two buck deer, one of which is on exhibition in Dutch's market.

—Mr. W. F. Lawrence has just returned from Europe by North German Lloyd S. S. Havell, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Mercer, Miss Mercer and maid. They will remain until next summer.

—Mrs. Mary Aylward died last Sunday at the age of 65 years. The funeral services were held at the Catholic church, Tuesday morning, Rev. L. J. O'Toole officiating. The interment was at the Mt. Calvary cemetery, Waltham.

—Wednesday evening a number of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church met with Miss Gertrude E. Trowbridge at her home on Washington street, for the purpose of further advancing the work of the society. Following a short business meeting games were indulged in and a collation was served.

—Rev. Jacob Burrell, pastor of the Myrtle Baptist church, has resigned to accept a position in the auditor's department of the Fitchburg railroad. Mr. Burrell has been with the church fourteen years. He was its founder. A handsome sum of money was raised for him by his parishioners as a parting gift.

—Sunday evening the Congregational church was well filled with temperance workers and those interested in the cause, to listen to "A Temperance Story of City Life" by Rev. T. J. B. Hoste, assistant pastor of the Ruggles Street Baptist church of Boston. The lecturer handled his subject with great power, and with the help of the stereopticon vividly portrayed the awful wretchedness and misery that follows so closely upon the drunkard's heels and at last inculcates him in ruin.

—St. Bernard's aid society held its second annual coffee party in aid of the poor of this city at City Hall, Tuesday evening. Nearly 300 hundred couples were present. The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Linnehan. The floor was under the direction of Mr. Linnehan, who was assisted by Mr. Henry P. Barry and these aid societies. J. R. Conding, Harry McBride, John Connors, E. L. Smith, John Lankin, Stephen Walsh, Thomas B. Hart, John A. Duan, George J. Lyons, W. H. Burns, T. C. Donovan, George M. Cox and James E. Maguire.

—Monday evening at the Congregational church the Newton Congregational Club held its regular meeting. Pres. Harwood in the chair. After the usual prayer several addresses were given on the general subject "Social Life of the Church." This topic was sub-divided, and spoken on as follows: "The Power and Value of It," by Prof. James B. Thayer; "How can it be made effective," by Hon. Albert L. Harwood; and "Who are responsible for maintaining it," by Raymond L. Bridgman. An interesting address was also given by Rev. C. M. Southgate, the recently elected pastor of the Auburndale Congregational church.

—Last week Thursday evening, in Good Templars hall, the Daughters of Veterans, A. E. Cunningham, Tent No. 2, held a very successful and well attended fair, considering the inclemency of the weather. The tables which were handsomely decorated were as follows: Fancy table covered with articles dear to the feminine heart, Mrs. Arthur Kimball; candy table, loaded with sugar goods, Miss Marietta Ramsdell; apron table, covered with aprons of all colors, sizes and descriptions, Miss Lucy Jennison; mystery table, a dead secret, Miss Nellie Osborne. The ice cream table was in charge of Mrs. Ida J. Allen. The committee under whose management the fair was run, was Mrs. Arthur Kimball, Miss Nellie Osborne, and Miss Lucy Jennison. Mr. S. S. Whitney, commander of Post 62, was awarded a handsome sofa pillow, as most popular G. A. R. man present.

—Geo. E. Trowbridge of Washington street has been ill several days this week.

—Next Monday evening in the Unitarian church parlors a reading and musical recital will be given by Mrs. Richards.

—H. A. Packard of Valentine street entertained a number of friends at his home last Tuesday evening.

—On Thanksgiving, in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. E. Trowbridge, of Washington street, were very glad to see any who may call on them.

—Beginning next Sunday the vesper services at the Congregational church will begin at 7 o'clock and the Young People's meeting at 6 o'clock.

—Mrs. E. N. L. Walton will entertain the Book Club at her residence on Chestnut street, Dec. 5. Mr. Edward Drew will give an address on China.

—Wednesday afternoon an interesting lecture was given in the Unitarian church parlors before the Ladies' Alliance Club by Mrs. Putnam of Boston. She took for her topic the Denison House, a charitable institution of Boston.

—Augustus Allen, one of the oldest residents of Newton, died at the family residence on Washington street near Woodland station, Monday morning, after an illness of only a few days. Mr. Allen was born in the Allen homestead, where his father and grandfather were born and passed their lives. The family were among the earliest settlers in Newton.

—Mr. Allen, like his ancestors, passed his entire life in this place, dying in the same room in which he was born, 78 years ago. He was educated in the public schools of this city, and when 20 years old became associated with John Barker in the wholesale and retail provision business. This partnership continued for nearly 40 years. Later Mr. Allen conducted a large slaughter and provision business. He also raised cattle for the market on his large farm in this place. He continued in this business until a few weeks ago. He was a familiar figure here, and was highly esteemed for his business rectitude. He was the owner of a large amount of real estate in Newton, and was interested in all public improvements. He leaves three sons and three daughters.

AUBURNDALE.

—E. R. Fruld has taken the Estabrook house at Riverside.

—Moses Chow has taken the Buss house at Riverside recently.

—Dr. M. H. Clarke will occupy his new English cottage on Grove street next week.

—Mrs. Calvin Hale of New Hampshire is visiting Mrs. H. H. Newell of Vista avenue.

—F. E. Whiting of Ash street is away from home on a two weeks trip to the South.

—Mrs. Frank P. Bates of Seaverns street is entertaining friends from out of town this week.

—Mr. Snow of Lexington street has returned home after a few weeks absence on a business trip.

—Alderman Plummer's house on Lexington street is being repainted by the artists of the brush this week.

—Mrs. J. B. Crossley, after a brief visit to relatives on Auburndale avenue, has returned to her home at Providence, R. I.

—Mr. J. P. Murphy has recently purchased the John Fury estate on Melrose street.

—Captain E. A. Whitten, who has been visiting his son, Dr. Whitten, of this village, has returned to his home at Ossipee, N. H.

—At the Republican convention last Monday evening, held at City Hall, Albany, N. Y., Mr. F. Noyes was nominated for alderman from this ward.

—Nov. 26, an entertainment will be given in Copley Hall, Boston, in aid of the N. E. Peabody Home for Crippled Children in Weston.

—The Review Club will meet with Mrs. Talbot, Belmont street, next Wednesday, Tuesday, Nov. 26, at 10 o'clock. Train leaves Auburndale at 9.30.

—At the Citizens' convention Wednesday evening at City Hall, Alderman Plummer was nominated by P. A. McVicar to run as alderman for this ward for 1896.

—Yesterday afternoon an informal reception was given the ladies of the Review Club at the home of Mrs. Sawyer on Newton road, from 3 to 5 o'clock. Mrs. Sawyer was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Miss Harriet, and Mrs. Curtis of Boston, who afterwards gave an interesting address on Rome.

—Some time ago the residence of B. F. Field of Weston was entered by burglars and several articles of value stolen. This week a visit to police headquarters, Boston, and an inspection of the burglar's treasure resulted in the identification of part of the stolen property. Therefore, putting two and two together, as the saying goes, reveals the fact that burglar Barrett had his finger in the pie in this vicinity.

—We understand that although Miss D. T. Smith has so long had the school property, possession is not to be given until July, '96, after the close of the present school year. In the meantime, Miss Smith is looking for another location for her school. In some part of Newton or in Wellesley or Wellesley Hills. Riverside has come to be so much of a pleasure resort as to be, in some respects, an undesirable site for a young ladies school. In addition to this, the possible seizure of the entire river front by the Metropolitan Park Commission would still further lessen the value of the property for school purposes. In itself the location is one of the most beautiful in the city of Newton. The school is now in its fourteenth year.

—The annual church meeting occurred on Tuesday evening in the Congregational parish house. A large number were seated in the beautiful parlors and the festivities were greatly enjoyed. One gentleman, a recent comer, who has been connected with many churches, remarked that it would be hard to find a similar gathering where such heavy goodwill and generous expression of it prevailed. Rev. Mr. Cutler, being unavoidably late a few minutes, was greeted by a round of applause on his entrance. Rev. Mr. Southgate paid a most graceful and glowing tribute to the pastor emeritus and to the people whose cordial kindness and delicate attentions to him and his family since their coming, words could not describe. The toll was called, the various committees appointed and the usual business accomplished.

—The recent reported outrages at Harpoon, Armenia, another chapter of bloodshed and pillage to go down into history, comes home with special force to the citizens of this place, not only as a missionary centre, but on account of the ties of friendship which link this village to the fortunes of the Harpoon Mission and its inmates. Many of the teachers of the mission are well known here, having been residents from time to time or otherwise connected with the missionary home on Hancock street. Among the best known is Miss Emily M. Barnum, who left this country some time ago to join the American missions in Armenia, and has been in constant communication with friends. The distinction of the mission is a great blow, as for many years, every effort has been made to help along the work, large sums of money, etc., being sent from time to time as well as the prayers and good wishes of all. The buildings within the mission inclosure were destroyed are estimated to have been worth from $75,000 to $100,000. Thus it may be seen that the loss to the American board of missions in buildings alone will be great.

—Miss Sarah Estabrook will soon occupy one of the new houses on Central street and thus the homestead will be left vacant for the first time since its erection, more than forty years ago.

—The Young Women's Missionary Society of the Congregational church will give a Thanksgiving sale of home made cake and candy in the chapel on Tuesday, Nov. 26, from 3 to 5 p. m.

—Mrs. De Forrest delivered an interesting lecture last Wednesday morning at Newton before the Social Science Club, taking for her subject, Japan, where she has been for many years.

—Monday evening there was a large gathering of Auburndale citizens at City Hall to a hearing on the laying of the street car tracks on Lexington street. The citizens did some heavy kicking and cheering, likely that the petition of the company will be refused.

—The rumors of a new brick block near the bridge are rapidly gaining ground, as it is understood Mr. P. A. McVicar has already had plans drawn up for the same. The deed for the land has, however, not yet been completed, but is well under way.

—Mrs. Isabella G. Parker discovered a flute at the collection of stolen articles at Boston headquarters, which was stolen among other things from her house in 1888. It had been made for her husband and is valued at $100.

—Rev. J. W. Hamilton, D. D., secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist church and well known in this vicinity as the former pastor of People's church, Boston, of which he was the founder and builder, will preach next Sunday morning at the Methodist church.

—Miss Edith C. Perry gave a recital in Boston last Friday evening, of which the Boston Times says: "Miss Perry's playing displayed good results from the instruction of her brother, Mr. Edward Baxter Perry, and at the same time gave evidence of a genuine individuality. Her performance was a high degree of art. Miss Perry is at Riverside School to receive pupils, Wednesdays and Saturdays."

—Last Saturday evening a meeting of the Auburndale Improvement Society was held in Auburn Hall, a large number of citizens being present. Plans for the improvement of the Charles river were talked over, also the contemplated widening of Ash street. Resolutions were also passed condemning the B. & A. railway for the poor lighting of their cars which will be found elsewhere.

—Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Coutte of the Methodist Mission, among the Italians at the North End, Boston, gave a very interesting account of their work at the Methodist church last Sunday evening. On Wednesday evening at a Sunday school social Mrs. Coutte and her five little children, in Italian costume, entertained delightfully the company with songs and a d. an address. Her little son, only five years old, played the accompaniment and did it well too.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Liver Ills, Biliousness, Indigestion, Headache. A pleasant laxative. All Druggists.

NOTICE.

Depositors in the West Newton Savings Bank are requested to bring in their books for comparison and examination during the first two weeks of December, in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth.

JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer.

SHEPHERD'S Gems of Foreign Art,

252 BOYLSTON ST., - BOSTON.

Choice Bits in Oil and Water Colors. Sketches by the Old Masters. Old Spectacles and many objects of Artistic merit from the old world. Also an interesting collection of ornaments and weapons from the savage tribes of the World.

Wm T. Shepherd,

252 Boylston Street, - Boston.

HOWARD B. COFFIN,

DEALER IN

Fine Teas, Best Coffees.

AND NEWTON AGENT FOR

Deerfoot Farm Products.

363, 361 CENTRE ST., 4 8 HALL ST

Cole's Block, Newton.

C. W. BUNTING,

Fish Market.

FISH, OYSTERS, FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.

Telephone Connection.

GOLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON, MASS.

Newton

City Market

Fresh and Salt

Meats.

Poultry and Game.

Fish and Oysters.

Wellington Howes, Proprietor

8 Lectures and Entertainments,

—$1.00.—

WEDNESDAY EVENING COURSE

IN THE
Newton Young Men's Christian Association
Gymnasium, Nonantum Hall.

Wellington Putnam, Impersonator and Reader.
Dec. 18. Rev. Dillon Bronson. "Japan. Illustrated with Stereopticon.

Jan. 15. Prof. Waugh. "India." Illustrated with Stereopticon.

Jan. 29. Geo. W. Blodgett. Lecture to be announced.
Feb. 12. Musical and Literary.

Feb. 29. Rev. S. L. B. Spence. "The Holy Land." With Stereopticon.
March 11. Drama.
March 26. To be announced.

Get Particulars and Tickets at the Y. M. C. A.

KEEP OUT THE COLD

Outside or Storm Windows.

—FOR SALE BY—
E. W. BAILEY & CO., 22 and 24 Kneeland St., Boston, Mass.

DEALERS IN
DOORS, WINDOWS AND BLINDS.

SEND FOR PRICES. TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

MINER ROBINSON

ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

12 Pearl St., Room 27, Boston. Order Office, 421 Centre St., Newton.

ELECTRIC LIGHT

Boston, 3311. —TELEPHONES— W. Newton, *234.
NEWTON *255-2.

ATWOOD'S MARKET.

HEADQUARTERS FOR Fine Fruit,
Vegetables,
The Choicest
Fish and Meats.

Mr. Atwood's long experience gives him unusual facilities for securing the best things in the market.

371 CENTRE ST., NEWTON.
Telephone 122-2.

H. P. GAMBLE,

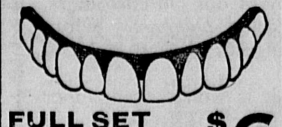

Late of Hollander's,
274 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON.

Reception, Tailor and Evening
Gowns. Top Coats and Riding Habits.

$15 AND UPWARDS.

TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN

By our new method, a simple application to the gums. You don't lose consciousness. Is not dangerous to those having heart trouble.

FULL SET
OF TEETH, $6

Best quality. Extraction Painless. Warranted 5 years.
All kinds of fillings, 75c. up Solid Gold Crowns or teeth without plates, $5.00
All work warranted and kept in repair
free of charge.
Largest and finest Dental Parlors in New England.
Hundreds of teeth extracted daily by our painless process; no bad results, sore mouths or after-effects.

BOSTON DENTAL
PARLORS Under Entirely
New Management.
881 Washington St., Boston.
Cor. Lagrange st., opp. Cobb, Bates & Yerxa.
HOURS, 8 A. M. to 8 P. M. SUNDAYS 10 to 2.

Railroads.

WEST END STREET RAILWAY COMPANY TIME TABLE.

Subject to change without notice.

Newton to Bowdoin Square

Huron Ave. to Bowdoin Square, via
Concord Ave. and Garden St.

Time—First car, 6:00 a. m., and every 20 minutes to 11:00 p. m. Return 35 minutes later.

Sunday—First car, 8:00 a. m., and every 20 minutes to 11:00 p. m., last car.

Mount Auburn to Bowdoin Square.

Time—First car, 5:30 a. m., then 4:03, and 20 minutes to 5:45 p. m. Return 35 minutes later.

Newton and Watertown to Bowdoin Sq.
(Via Mt. Auburn St., and Harvard Sq.)

Time—First car leave Newton 5:37 a. m., 6:12 and every 15 minutes to 12:25, 12:45 and 10 minutes to 9:25, 9:42, 9:57, 10:10 p. m., and 20 minutes to 10:50 p. m., last car.

Return leave Bowdoin Square, 35 minutes later.

First cars from Bowdoin Square at 6:08, 6:28, 6:48 a. m., last car 11:42 p. m.

Sunday—7:27, and 15 minutes to 8:42, 8:55 and every 10 minutes to 7:15, 7:27 and 15 minutes to 9:57, 10:10, 10:30, 10:50 p. m., last car.

First car from Bowdoin Sq., 8:15 a. m., last car 11:41 p. m.

C. S. SERGEANT
General Manager

SPRINGFIELD LINE

BETWEEN

Boston and New York.

Trains leave either city at 9:00 A. M., except Sunday; 11:00 A. M., except Sunday; 3:40 P. M., except Sunday; 5:40 P. M., daily; 11:00 P. M., daily.

Drawing room cars on all day trains and sleeping cars on night trains.

The new train between Boston and New York, leaves either city at 12 noon, and makes the run in five and one half hours.
No excess fare.

A. S. HANSON, Gen. Pass. Agt.
Boston, Mass.

FITCHBURG RAILROAD.

SUPERB EQUIPMENT, EXCELLENT TRAIN SERVICE, FAST TIME, and COURTEOUS EMPLOYEES MAKE THE

HOOSAC TUNNEL ROUTE

THE FAVORITE LINE from Boston to Troy, Albany, Saratoga, Lake George, Adirondack and Catskill Mountains, Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Hamilton, Fort Erie, Cleveland, Detroit, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, and points West, Southwest, and Northwest.

Fast Express Trains

With elegant PALACE PARLOR and SLEEP-ING CARS to and from

BOSTON

CHICAGO

BOSTON

ST. LOUIS

WITHOUT CHANGE.

Lake - Champlain - Route

For all points in Northern New York, Vermont, and Canada.

THE ONLY LINE running through cars, with out change, from Boston to Rutland, Brandon, Middlebury, Vergennes, Burlington, St. Albans, St. Johnsbury, and Montreal.

ELEGANT PALACE PARLOR CARS to and from

BOSTON and MONTREAL,

WITHOUT CHANGE.

For Time-Tables, Parlor and Sleeping Car accommodations, or for further information, apply to any Agent of the Fitchburg Railroad or at

250 Washington Street, or

Fitchburg Railroad Passenger Station

J. R. WATSON, General Pass. Agent

BLUE BOOK

OF

NEWTON

For 1896 and 1897.

Alphabetical and Street Lists of the Principal residents.

Street Directory, Map,
Societies, Clubs, etc.

Bound in Cloth, Gold Edge, will soon be ready for Subscribers.

PRICE $1.00.

E. A. Jones, 115 Congress St.,
Boston.

Publishers of all Suburban Blue Books, Directories, etc.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

Benson, Margaret. Subject to Vanity.	54.989
Miss Benson has made a study of vanity, and gives interesting details relative to the curious habits and characteristics of her domestic pets.
Don, by the author of "Miss Toosey's Mission."	61.986
Drake, Samuel Adams. Decisive Events in American History: the Campaign of Trenton, 1776-77.	71.431
Hoffman, Walter James. The Beginnings of Writing with an Intro. by F. Starr.	104.533
Dr. Hoffman presents the first steps in the development of writing, especially as they are shown among North American tribes.
King, F. H. The Soil, its Nature, Relations, and Fundamental Principles of Management.	101.745
The initial volume of the Rural Science Series, a series purposing to cover ultimately the whole field of agriculture.
King, Horatio. Turning on the Light: a Dispassionate Survey of President Buchanan's Administration, from 1860 to its Close.	96.420
Including a biographical sketch of the author, eight letters from Mr. Buchanan never before published, and numerous miscellaneous articles.
Le Gallienne, Richard. Robert Louis Stevenson, an Elegy, and other Poems, mainly Personal.	55.531
Lincoln, Abraham. Speeches: compiled by L. E. Chittenden.	52.587
A collection intended to comprise the best expressions of a great patriot, selected with a view of showing the stages of intellectual growth in their author.
Potter, Elizabeth Nott. Washington a Model in his Library and Life.	91.841
A lecture delivered last May in New York City.
Pyle, Howard. Jack Ballister's Fortunes; the Adventures of a Young Gentleman, kidnapped in 1719, and carried to Virginia.	66.762
Sharpe, R. Bowdler. A Chapter on Birds; Rare British Visitors.	103.719
Stanley, Hiram M. Studies in the Evolutionary Psychology of Feeling.	103.444
Stedman, Edmund Clarence, ed. Victorian Anthology, 1837-96: Selections illustrating the Editor's Critical Review of British Poetry in the Reign of Victoria.	55.533
Designed to supplement Stedman's "Victorian Poets" (34) by typical examples of the work discussed in that review.
Steel, Flora Annie. Red Romans.	64.1560
Stimson, Henry A. Questions of Modern Inquiry: a Series of Discussions.	91.845
Stoddard, William Osborn. The Partners; the Story of an Every-Day Girl and Boy, and how they Healed along.	64.1559
Thompson, Charles Miner. "The Nimble Dollar; with other Stories.	61.989
Tristram, Henry B. Rambles in Japan; the Land of the Rising Sun.	35.340
A transcript of the Canon of Durham's journal. His object was to learn the position of the missionary in Japan, and to compare practical working of Buddhism as compared with the Buddhism of China and Ceylon.
Van Dyke, Henry. Little Rivers: a Book of Essays in Profitable Idleness.	33.462
Sketches of outdoor life and impressions of travel, especially of idle hours spent in sailing on sixty-five different rivers.
Watson, A. E. How to Build a Fifty-light Dynamo or Four Horse-Power Motor; with Working Drawings.	101.744
E. P. THURSTON, Librarian. Nov. 20, 1895.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

FIFTY TWO DIVIDENDS.

As a general thing investors are pleased to receive only two dividends a year, and if they are paid with regularity are fully satisfied. When one, however, can receive fifty two dividends in a year upon an investment of only three dollars, the matter deserves very serious attention. The Independent of New York for forty-seven years has held the first position among the great religious, literary and family weeklies of the land. It presents features for the coming year far in advance of any heretofore offered. It has the leading contributors of the world, it prints the best poetry, it has twenty-one departments, edited by specialists, devoted to Fine Arts, Science, Insurance, Finance, Biblical Research, Sunday-School, Missions, Health, etc. The Independent is particularly fitted for intelligent people, whether professional men, business men or farmers, and for a week, and gives a great deal for the money. A subscriber receives fifty-two dividends a year. The subscription price of The Independent is only three dollars a year, or at that rate for any part of a year, and a sample copy will be sent to any person free by addressing The Independent, New York City.

Littell's Living Age for 1896. The announcement of a reduction in the price of this famous eclectic from eight dollars to six dollars a year will prove of more than usual interest to lovers of choice literature. Founded in 1844, it will soon enter its fifty-third year of a continuous and successful career seldom equalled. The standard weekly is the oldest, as it is the best, concentration of choice periodical literature printed in this country. Those who desire a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world will be spared the trouble of wading through the sea of reviews and magazines published abroad; for they will find the essence of all compacted and concentrated here. To those whose means are limited it must meet with especial favor, for it offers them what could not otherwise be obtained except by a large outlay. Intelligent readers who want to save time and money will find it invaluable. The prospectus, printed in another column should be examined by all in selecting their periodicals for the new year. For the amount and quality of the reading furnished, the new price makes The Living Age the cheapest as well as the best literary weekly in existence. Reduced clubbing rates with other periodicals offer still greater inducements, and to new subscribers remitting now for the year 1896, the intervening numbers of 1895 will be sent gratis. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

Acts at once, never fails. One Minute Cough Cure. A remedy for asthma, and that feverish condition which accompanies a severe cold. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

Say, why don't you try De Witt's Little Early Risers? These little pills cure head, ache, indigestion and constipation. They're small, but do the work. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

POOR BOBOLINK!

Barbarous Treatment of a Song Bird by the Scraphle Eaters.

Philadelphia is the only city in the world where the redbird can be found in a state of overrunning obesity, and the only place where it can be cooked to perfection. In New York the French cooks conceal its delicate toothsome in rich dressing. There they know as little about redbirds as they do about terrapin, scraphle and pepper pot. There was given in this city one dinner in which redbirds were served in 13 different forms. Among the courses were soup made from redbirds, redbirds stuffed with Blue Point oysters, redbirds placed inside a hollowed potato and roasted, redbirds stuffed with herb filling and baked, redbirds steamed with fresh mushrooms, redbirds split and broiled—an abominable practice, by the way; redbirds saute, and a seeming pie, from which, when the crust was lifted, two dozen redbirds flew forth and around the room.

But, after all, there is only one way to cook and eat the succulent redbird—sante! Select birds which have little clumps of yellow fat on both sides of the part last over the fence. Place them in a saucepan—or, better still, a chafing dish—with plenty of the best butter, salt, black pepper, and a plentiful sprinkling of paprika—the sweet Hungarian pepper which nowadays can be found in any first class grocery. They must not be split and their heads must not be removed. Cook them for five or six minutes, according to the size of the bird and the heat of the fire, but do not allow the yellow fat to become browned. Nothing could be simpler, and yet few, very few, cooks can prepare the redbird without destroying its toothsome.

There is an art also in the eating of his daintiness, but it can only be applied to birds of the character and prepared in the manner described above. Wring off the head and sink your teeth into and absorb the brains. Then hold the little darling aloft by the protruding bones of both legs, and slipping him into a watering mouth crunch your way through his carcass until not a bit of him remains but the leg bones. Then cast your eyes above and say grace. That's eating redbirds, that is.—Philadelphia Times.

JOSEPHINE WAS MERCIFUL.

She Tried to Prevent the Execution of the Duc d'Enghien.

Mme. Bonaparte learned with intense sorrow of the determination taken by her husband. In the main his measures and his convictions had been kept a secret, but she confided both to Mme. De Remusat, and the first consul himself had told them to Joseph. On the 20th the decree for the duke's imprisonment and trial was dictated by the first consul from the Tuileries, and in the early afternoon he returned to Malmaison, where at 3 o'clock Joseph found him strolling in the park, conversing with Talleyrand, who limped along at his side. "I'm afraid of that cripple," was Josephine's greeting to her brother-in-law. "Interrupt this long talk if you can."

The mediation of the elder brother was kindly and skillful, and for a time the first consul seemed softened by the memories of his own and his brother's boyhood, among which came and went the figure of the Prince of Conde. But other feelings prevailed. The brothers had differed about Lucien's marriage and the question of descent if the consular power should become hereditary. The old coolness finally settled down and chilled the last hopes in the tender hearted advocates for clemency. To Josephine's tearful entreaties for mercy her husband replied: "Go away. You're a child. You don't understand public duties." By 5 it was known that the duke had arrived at Vincennes, and at once Savary was dispatched to the city for orders from Murat, the military commandant. On his arrival at Murat's office, from which Talleyrand was in the very act of departing, he was informed that the court martial was already convened, and that it would be his duty to guard the prisoner and execute whatever sentence was passed.—"Life of Napoleon," by Professor William M. Sloane, in Century.

It Worked.

"I beg your pardon, lady," said Travelling Tommy as he stopped at the back door, "but if you will just smile I'll take your picture with this here camera. I am traveling on foot, making a collection of photos of our beautiful American women. Thanks, I have it."

Then the good woman offered him a generous hand out, which he accepted with the grace of a true knight of the road.

"You see," he explained to Willie Althewhile, "it didn't take no work at all to paint that cigar box black and cut a round hole in the end, but it fetches 'em every time. They think it's a photograph taker, and their picture goes in the collection. Make one and cultivate your manners, and you can live like a prince."—Philadelphia Call.

Sand as a Filter.

It is well known that the thickness of the layer of fine sand in filtering beds cannot be reduced beyond a certain point without endangering the quality of the water that filters through. Dr. Kurth of Bremen has found in examining water filtered through a layer not sufficiently thick that the number of bacteria was greatly increased, owing to the presence of a special microbe that could not be found in the water before it entered the filter. These microbes must therefore have existed in the filtering material and have been developed by the passage of water through it.—Exchange.

Nails and Nailings.

When a nailer declared that he "paid cash right on the nail and thereby nailed a great bargain," what kind of a nail did he refer to?

What is meant by a doornail and the expression, "Dead as a doornail?"—Hardware.

Women as an Industry.

It has long been a stock argument against the originality of the feminine mind that, while women are excellent in the imitative arts, they cannot invent. Now the chairman of the committee on women's inventions of the Atlanta exposition says that the number of women's patents she has collected is too large to be accommodated in the space set apart for them. As it is reasonably to be assumed that these selected inventions were good ones the woman of the century has scored another point against her traditional critics.—Baltimore American.

A Child's Logic.

"Look here, Cesarino, your father is right down stingy. He is a shoemaker, and still he lets you go about with your boots all in holes!"

"That's nothing compared with your father. He's a dentist, and your little brother has only got a single tooth."—Carlinio.

There are many good reasons why you should use One Minute Cough Cure. There are no reasons why you should not, if in need of help. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

Auburndale Improvement Society.

Last Friday evening a well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Auburndale Improvement Society was held in Auburn hall, the meeting being called in the interests of the Charles River Improvement scheme. In calling the meeting it is the object of the society to co-operate with the other Newton societies and the Metropolitan Park Commission in the laying out of a system of park ways and boulevards along the banks of the Charles River from Cottage Farm to the Dedham line. There were a number of speakers, among them being Frederick Johnson, E. B. Haskell, Mr. Hardy and many other leading citizens. All urged the taking of land along the river banks from Watertown, and that immediate action should be taken before the valuation of bordering land increased. A committee of three was chosen to act with the other improvement societies, and it was the general expression that Auburndale would make every effort to hold up its end of the matter.

Reports were received from the committee on the widening and lengthening of Central street; also from the committee on the purchasing of the Washburn block and removal of P. A. McVicar's property. In each case the report was favorable, the committees having met with considerable success.

A resolution was adopted after a discussion, relating to the insufficient lighting of the Boston & Albany railroad cars running from Boston to Auburndale. It is as follows:

Resolved, That whereas, as many of the cars on the suburban trains of the B. & A. R. are very poorly lighted, some with oil lamps of old and worn out patterns, and some with three-jet gas burners of insufficient power, merely rendering said cars uncomfortable to the passengers, now therefore, the secretary of the Auburndale Village Improvement Society is hereby instructed to communicate with the officials of the railroad and request them in behalf of the people of this village and of the other parts of Newton to equip the cars with good, first class lights, of sufficient power to enable the passengers to read comfortably in any seat in the car.

It is needless to say the above was unanimously adopted. New members were admitted to the number of twelve, and the records of the society show that it has begun to move up in the world and recover from the gradual fossilization imputed to it.

The healing properties of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve are well known. It cures eczema, skin affections and is simply a perfect remedy for piles. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

Ball of the Newton Ladies' Charity Club.

A social event of more than ordinary importance in Newton, last Friday evening, was a subscription party and concert, under the auspices of the Newton Ladies' Charity Club, which was held in Armory Hall.

The proceeds, which were very large, will be devoted to local charities, and will be expended under the direction of the club.

The affair was one of the most successful social events of the fall, and was very largely attended, many prominent people being present from the Newtons, Boston, Waltham and Cambridge.

The hall was handsomely decorated with palms and ferns, arranged in effective masses about the platform, on which the orchestra was stationed.

An informal reception followed the concert. The reception committee was headed by Mr. P. A. Murray, and the committee of lady managers comprised Miss Josephine Stuart, Miss Dumpley, Miss Mollie Sullivan, Miss Elizabeth Levi and Mrs. T. B. Fitzpatrick.

The ushers were George M. Cranitch, Frank Fitzpatrick, W. F. Grace, F. E. Levi, Fred O'Sullivan, J. H. Vahley, L. J. Maskell, D. F. Warren, Paul Fitzpatrick, J. Brennan, W. J. Hannon, John Morrissey, Thomas Hewitt, John A. Duane, Jas. Hannon, Jos. Cashman, Wm. O'Neil, M. J. Green, D. J. Gallagher.

300 couples on the floor. At midnight supper was served in the banquet hall.

The floor was under the direction of John E. Bristol, assisted by R. A. Hewitt, D. J. Gallagher and the following aids: L. J. Maskell, F. E. P. Levi, J. H. Vahley, Frank Fitzpatrick, Hugh Sennott, Paul Fitzpatrick, H. G. Leland, John Gallagher, T. C. Donovan, T. F. Delaney, M. F. Drury, Frank Kneeland, Dr. P. F. Coady, Frank Hewitt, Dr. T. F. Carroll, Chas. Hewitt, A. T. Stuart, Martin Joyce, F. C. Murray, J. F. Muligan, William Keefe, J. J. Connors, Thos. Maher, W. F. Grace, John Cranitch, J. H. Blount, M. Hartford, D. F. Flanagan, F. H. Stuart, Robert Bishop, Jos. Cashman, W. H. Hannon, Alex. Trudo, Wm. Gallagher, D. W. Hogan, Frank Donahue, D. J. Linnahan, G. M. Cranitch, G. M. Cox, T. K. Coughlin, Jr., J. F. Hennessey, Jas. Farrell, M. J. Green, B. F. Thomas, F. J. McCarthy.

The body must be well nourished now, to prevent sickness. If your appetite is poor take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Why let your hair turn gray when Hall's Hair Renewer will prevent it.

Hood's

Sarsaparilla has over and over again proved itself the best blood purifier medicine science has ever produced. It possesses such positive merit to purify, vitalize

And

Enrich the blood, that it accomplishes remarkable cures where other preparations utterly fail. Its record of cures, not of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Catarrh, Rheumatism, but of Nervous Prostration, Weakness and Debility, is unequalled.

Only

Hood's

Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier.

Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. U. S.

Hood's Pills cure habitual constipation. Price 25 cents.

The Central Dry Goods Co.

107 to 115 Moody Street, Waltham, Mass.

6,500 q. Feet of Floor Space.

Making 5 Complete Stores, containing all things for all people at all times. Our prices always the lowest. Our assortment always the Largest. Special Bargains on Saturdays.

Undertakers.

Funeral and Furnishing

COFFINS, CASKETS, ROBES,

and every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand.

Orders by telephone promptly attended to.

GEO. W. BUSH

Elmwood Street - Newton

S. ALBERT GREGG,

(Successor to A. Gregg.)

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,

No. 14 Galen St., Watertown.

Prompt attention to all calls, night or day.

Telephone, Newton 883.

S. F. CATE

Telephone:—

West Newton Office, 19-5;

House, 19-4;

Also billings' Drug Store, Upper Falls.

Furnishing-Undertaker.

WASHINGTON ST., WEST NEWTON.

S. L. PRATT,

FUNERAL and FURNISHING UNDERTAKER

Newton Centre, Mass.

First-class Appointments and Competent Assistants. To accommodate the people of Upper Falls and vicinity orders may be left at the office of Fanning Printing Co., which will immediately be forwarded to me by telephone.

Also shall continue in the Black, Livery and Boarding Stable. Business at my old stand corner of Beacon and Station Streets.

G. H. GREGG,

FUNERAL DIRECTOR,

UNDERTAKER

AND EMBALMER.

All calls answered promptly

Office, 4 Central Bl'k. Newtonville.

Office Telephone, 613, Newton.

WAITER RECEIVED. Newton Centre
Agent of the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand-bills
and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Ivers & Pond pianos, farley, Newton.
—W. H. Turner of Augusta, Me., has taken a new house on Grant avenue.
—Mr. David S. Farnham of Crystal street has returned home.
—Mr. and Mrs. Phillips of Grant avenue are spending a few days in New York.
—H. W. Pinkham, who has lately been visiting Dr. Bullens, has gone to Indiana.
—Ward Johnson of Beacon street has returned after an eight months' stay in the south.
—Robert English of Centre street is able to be about once more after a two weeks illness.
—Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Thayer of Beacon street have returned home from New York.
—Mrs. Tilney of Sumner street has recently been entertaining relatives from New York.
—John Brown has recently removed from Knowles street to White's block on Langley road.
—Henry S. Williams was called away suddenly Sunday, to attend the funeral of a friend at Baltimore, Md.
—Willard Monroe having recovered from the effects of an attack of typhoid fever, is able to again be about.
—Single tickets for Mrs. Bird's first concert may be had at the door. Price sixty cents.
—Mr. and Mrs. Reed of Montreal have returned after a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Norman George of Grey Cliff road.
—Horace Consens of Beacon street has returned to his orange plantation in California, in which he has been interested for the past two years.
—George Walker of Montvale road, accompanied by Mr. Rice of Brooklyn, are enjoying a hunting trip in the Maine back woods.
—Murphy & Sullivan have in their large Centre street show window a large bronze statue of a Quaker, which is put as an advice for the Quaker Ranges, which they are selling.
—Mr. I. R. Stevens, the well known and popular grocer of the village, after 22 years of business life, has sold out to W. H.
Turner of Augusta, Me., who will continue the business at the corner of Centre and Beacon streets.
—The Boston Post made a number of bad built in the report of the Dr. Smith funeral in their Wednesday morning edition, but the worst one was the putting of a cut of the Rev. Dr. Hyatt Smith of Cambridge, in the column.
—There are letters in the postoffice for Miss M. D. Stone, Julia Buckley, Charles
Bailey, Martha Colton, James Costain, Mary Duggan, Minnie Fletcher, Margaret
Goode, Frank Mathews, G. S. R. Miller,
Patrick McMahon, Grace Nickerson, G. W.
Rawson, Frank W. Simmons and Lydia Webster.
—The citizens of the Centre don't want any more street car tracks, particularly those residing on the line of the proposed route of the Needham & Boston Street R.
R. A strong petition signed by such representative men as G. F. Richardson, Mel-bray, etc., has been sent to the city fathers protesting against the laying of any more tracks.
—A pleasant wedding service took place last week, Thursday evening, at the residence of Prof. Hovey of the Seminary at his home on Sumner street, the contracting parties being Miss Beale Robertson and Chas. Merriam. A large number of friends were present, who witnessed the ceremony.
Mr. and Mrs. Merriam will be at home in Farnham's block, Nov. 23.
—Mr. Jackson Flanders died at his home Friday, aged sixty-seven. He was a native of Maine, and had lived for thirty-five years in this place. He was much interested in improvements, and a prominent member of the Newton Centre Improvement Association. The funeral services were held at his late residence on Institution avenue, on Monday at 2:30, and there was a large attendance.
—Newton Centre depot was an unusually busy place Tuesday, with the hundreds of arrivals from all parts of the country to attend the funeral of Dr. Smith.
Many telegrams of sympathy and condolence were received, and all day the instrument of telegrapher Vachon was kept busy at work. The greatest bustle of business came about noon time and lasted well into the afternoon, the various newspaper men sending their reports to the press steadily from eleven to three o'clock.
During this time the funeral service was held at the residence of Dr. Smith, and his chair, and as for a moment's rest that was not thought of.
—Mr. Hardy, the expressman, had a very interesting experience with his horse last Tuesday evening, which seems worthy of notice. It seems about 8 o'clock on the evening mentioned, Mr. Hardy, while making a call in a house at Newton Highlands, left his horse standing outside. To his surprise when he returned the animal was "out of sight." Mr. Hardy at once led the police thinking that the animal had been borrowed, but in spite of all their hunting, the animal still persisted in keeping out of their way. Wednesday morning while one of the searchers happened to be passing near Cold Spring swamp, he heard the snapping of branches in the bushes near by, and an examination revealed the long lost horse and team in good condition.
—W. O. Knapp paid a visit at police headquarters, Boston, this week, and while looking over Burglar's stock in trade, identified some of his property, which was stolen from his residence some years back. Not contented with robbing his house, Barrett and his pals visited Mr.
Knapp's store, opening the front door with keys they had taken from Mr. Knapp's pocket at his home. The safe was tackled and without even blowing it open the burglars coolly helped themselves to some $900 which was inside. After the work came the feed and they regaled themselves right royally on canned peaches and fancy crackers. Mr. Knapp's safe evidently was a drawing card, for some time later he was again visited by the gang, and this time they bored a hole in his safe and opened it by working the combination with a wire. The zoomer started the gold eggs was exhausted this time for the knights of the jimmy only secured about $50 in change. At the time of the first burglary the residence of a neighbor of Mr.
Knapp's across the way, was also entered.
—There are horses and horses but the pair belonging to Mr. George Walker seem able to out class anything in this village, as far as their abilities for running away are concerned. Their record breaking feat took place Monday, when they got frightened while left standing for a moment at Chestnut Hill, and made a bolt up Beacon street. The square was first visited, then came Grant avenue, next in line the boulevard. Here they stopped for a moment, and it is stated that a "new woman" in bloomers made a bluff at holding them by the reins. After getting their wind, in spite of the "new woman and bloomers," the horses turned about and ran down the boulevard to Devon Road.
Marshall street was next visited and a review of Sumner street was being contemplated, when they came in contact with a tree, one going each side. In the smash that followed, one of the horses was thrown to the ground, the harness was wrecked,

the carriage pole broken, also a whiffletree, next came a carriage lamp, the shattering of the wheels and the springing of both the rear axles.
—Col. E. H. Haskell has been elected one of the directors of the Home Market Club.
—Mrs. Alfred Morse will spend the winter in Brooklyn, N. Y., with her mother.
—The tickets for the N. A. A. minstrel show in Bray's hall, Dec. 18, will go on sale Dec. 1. A fine banjo, guitar and mandolin club has been formed out of home talent, and the rehearsals promise fine music.
—Services at the Unitarian church next Sunday at 10:30 conducted by the pastor,
Sunday school at 12. Hale and Chief Richardson will be the subjects. Chief subject: "The foundation stones of character." Essay and service by the young people.
—The treasure hunters, who have been delving among the rocks in the Lowell meadow at Chestnut Hill in search of Barrett's hidden plunder, may console themselves with the thought that the lonely field was a hiding place for a quantity of ill-gotten wealth a few years ago. It is certain, however, that there is at present no treasure hidden in the spot designated by Barrett. In the fall of 1891, a quantity of silverware and jewelry was discovered under an old stump, which had been stolen from Mr. Nichols' house in 1883. Chief Richardson says the place where the stuff was found is that marked by Barrett on his chart.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Mrs. Walker of Circuit avenue, who has been ill, is now better.
—Mr. Kunhardt and sister from Melrose are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson.
—The next meeting of the Monday Club will be with Mrs. Pennell, Lake avenue.
—The Matinee Jr. Whist Club met on Thursday of this week with Mrs. Logan.
—The next meeting of the C. L. S. C.
will be with Mrs. Logan.
—Mr. Whiting has let a tenement to a Mr. Mitchell who now occupies.
—Chaffee, the famous burglar, used to work for Mr. Moses G. Crane about 14 years ago.
—Unitarian services in Stevens Hall
Sunday morning at 10:45. Mr. Elberfeld from Cambridge will preach.
—Members of St. Paul's parish enjoy a silver sociable this (Friday) evening at the Highland Clubhouse.
—The West End Literary Club will meet next with Mrs. King, Lake avenue, Nov.
25th.
—Mr. and Mrs. McCallum have an addition to their family circle by the birth of a daughter.
—Mr. W. C. Brocklesby, who has had his house on Columbus street remodeled and enlarged, now occupies the same.
—The Italian fruit store in Stevens building has been closed but the one in New-hall's block still flourishes.
—Mrs. Hosmer of Lake avenue is at the Weirs, N. H., for two weeks. Miss May, her daughter, has been there for several weeks.
—Mr. Fred W. Cobb arrived at his home here on Tuesday, after an absence of a year and a half, from a business engagement in Texas.
—Regular services at the Methodist church Sunday morning. Preaching by the pastor. The evening service will be commemorative of Dr. Smith.
—Misses Florence Billings and Amy Bakeman have issued invitations for a dance at the Newton Highlands Clubhouse on Friday evening, Nov. 29.
—Mr. John Linn has given up his position as janitor of Stevens building and Mr. Frank W. Allen, the janitor of Paterson's block, has taken his place.
—Mr. E. P. Burnham of Newton has purchased one of the lots of land belonging to Mr. L. A. Ross on Rockledge road, and will erect a house for his own occupancy.
—The first of the course of entertainment, under the auspices of the Highland Club, was given on Wednesday evening at Lincoln Hall. It was a Euterpe concert and was well received.
—A union Thanksgiving service will be held next Thursday at the Congregational church to commence at 10:30 a. m. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Arthur Bonner.
—Mr. A. F. Hayward, president of the Newton Congregational Club, presided at its meeting held on Monday evening at West Newton, and there was a large attendance of the members of the club from the Highlands church.
—One case of measles at the Highlands, and the patient was taken to the City Hospital. We now have three of our residents at the hospital. Next Sunday is Hospital Sunday and gifts bestowed will be for a most worthy work.
—The following music will be rendered at the Congregational church next Sunday:
"O, Zion that bringest good tidings." Stainer Duet, "Forever with the Lord." Gounod VESPER SONGS, P. M.
"Softly now the light of day," Havens Solo, Largo, "Hear our prayer," Abbott "Crossing the bar," violin obligato, Schuecker
The regular choir consisting of Mrs. Barton, Miss Emerson, Mr. Pennell and Mr. Ayer will be assisted by Miss Kate Manson,
violinist.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Mr. Geo. Hewitt received the Republican nomination for councilman at the caucus held the 14th, receiving 41 votes or more than the other two aspiring candidates for the office. The contest for councilman between the candidates from this precinct will be interesting at the city election next month.
—N. A. A. Notes.
The foot ball game Thanksgiving Day is the third game with Hyde Park this season. It will be Hyde Parks last chance for that much coveted championship bowl. If Newton wins it will become the permanent possessor of the trophy to go among other prizes, already won, in the new club house, which is to be started in the near future.
Both teams will be at their strongest.
Thanksgiving and a fine game is expected. It will be held on the club's grounds on Cedar street, Newton Centre, and the game will be called at 11:30. Hyde Park will be re-enforced by some B. A. A. men, while Newton will call on some of its members now in Harvard, as the foot ball season ends there on Nov. 23d.
Knobs will play quarter, and Fennessy, Cozens and Brown will be found behind the line for one set of backs in addition to the regular Sears, Nichols and Wales.
Newell, Harvard variety end, has recently joined the club and will be with the eleven Thursday. Space has been served for carriages and bicyclists at no extra charge. Admission includes seat on grand stand. Game called at 11:30.
—Rubber Tires.
The most reliable rubber tire, and also
the cheapest, is represented and the tires
furnished by P. A. Murray. They are made by the Rubber Tire Wheel Co.,
who have a branch house in Boston.
There is no comfort in carriage riding without rubber tires. If

ELECTRICITY ON THE B. & A.

NEWTON CENTRE CITIZENS WANT IT ON THE CIRCUIT ROAD.

A meeting of citizens of Newton and adjoining localities interested in the service provided by the Newton circuit branch of the Boston & Albany railroad was held in Associates Hall, Newton Centre, last evening. Many prominent citizens were present, among others Hon.
Alden Spear, ex-mayor of Newton; Acting Mayor Henry D. Degen, ex-Alderman Roffe, the citizens' candidate for mayor;
Hon. J. R. Leeson of the Governor's council, Hon. J. F. C. Hyde, Adam Charl-lin, president of Commonwealth Avenue Street Railway Company, and Mr. Townley of the Westinghouse Electric Company. Before the regular business of the meeting was taken up, Hon. J. R. Leeson spoke very feelingly of the late Rev. Dr.
Smith, and moved that "a committee be appointed to consider the whole subject of a fitting monument to their late honored townsman. The motion was unanimously passed, and the following committee was appointed: Pres. A. L. Rand, Newton Centre Improvement Association; Pres. F. A. Hayward, Newton Highlands Improvement Association; Pres. E. A. Dewson, Garden Street Improvement Association; Pres. W.
U. Lawson, Hunnewell Hill Improvement Association; Pres. Edward E.
Hardy, Abundant Improvement Association.
The committee was empowered to add to its number as it deemed proper.
The meeting then turned to the subject of improved transit facilities on the circuit.
Hon. J. F. C. Hyde was the first speaker. He referred to his efforts several years ago, which resulted in the construction of the circuit road. He spoke in part as follows: "As we obtained the circuit road, we will obtain our present wish. We need better accommodations.
We have outgrown the circuit road.
"We know today that the equipment of this road is feasible with the Nantasket beach road in view. We need a train every 15 minutes each way. More trains and light are needed. We should have at least 60 trains each way a day.
The trolley system should be adopted.
In the middle of the day when travel is light a single car should be run. The running time to Newton Centre should be not more than 15 minutes, and around the circuit not more than one hour.
"Better platform facilities would quicken the running time, and better cars should be provided. Newton is growing faster in both wealth and population than any other city or town in the commonwealth, and should lead in transit facilities as well."
When the Boston & Albany changes its route, the main line he thought would be the best time to make the change to electricity.
Mr. A. S. Townley, an electrical expert, said the only question of the adoption of electricity to the present steam railway systems was simply one of adoption.

Hon. A. C. Walworth said it would be necessary, in order to provide rapid transit by electricity, to run cars at least 60 miles an hour.
Hon. Alden Spear thought one of the greatest benefits that could accrue from the adoption of electricity would be getting rid of the smoke of steam engines.
He presented a set of resolutions, requesting the legislature to enact a law permitting cities and towns to require street railway corporations to pay for locations in the public streets or to tax the cars of such corporations, and requesting the city council of Newton to grant no more locations in the city until the legislature had acted on the matter.
Hon. J. R. Leeson moved the adoption of the resolutions. He suggested that it was an injustice to require a corporation like the Boston & Albany to pay for its location, while street railways were allowed to occupy the public streets free of cost. In other states such legislation had proved a success, and there was no reason that it should not be adopted in Massachusetts.
Mr. Spear said the West End had prevented the adoption of such legislation in the past. He believed that the city of Newton could obtain such legislation.
Acting Mayor Henry D. Degen spoke in approval of the first part of Mr.
Spear's resolutions. He did not think, however, that all franchises should be refused until the legislature acted. The resolutions were adopted unanimously.
Mr. Adam L. Charlton, president of the Commonwealth Avenue Street Railway Company, thought the application of electricity to the circuit entirely feasible.
He was followed by several other speakers, all of whom spoke in favor of the application of the electric system to the circuit.
The following petition was presented to the meeting and approved:
"To the Boston & Albany Railroad.
"We, the undersigned, regular patrons of the Boston & Albany railroad circuit, respectfully petition for an improved train service, to consist of more frequent trains run at regular intervals each hour, and shorter trains to insure quicker and prompter service. To this end we urge the substitution of electricity for steam as a motive power."

This petition, after being circulated in Newton Centre, will be sent to the improvement societies in other parts of the city.

EPWORTH LEAGUES CONVE.

BOSTON NORTH DISTRICT REPRESENTED
BY NEARLY 200 DELEGATES AT NEW-TON.

The fall convention of the Epworth leagues of the Boston north district was held in the Wesley street M. E. church Thursday afternoon and evening.

Nearly 200 delegates, representing societies in the Newtons, Boston, Cambridge, Natick, Wellesley, Needham, Charlestown, Lowell, Lynn, Fitchburg,
Salem and Belmont were present.

The delegates were welcomed to Newton on behalf of the local society by Rev.
Dillon Bronson, and Dr. Rice of Cambridge responded for the visitors.
After the reports had been received the various departments of league work were considered in detail. During the afternoon session short addresses were made.

Addresses on the work of the Epworth league were also delivered by Rev. W. N.
Brookbeck of Charlestown and Rev. W. T.
Peritt of Boston.

At 5:30 a brief business session was held.

The evening session opened at 7:30 with a devotional service, led by Rev. T.
W. Bishop of Abundant.

Addresses were delivered as follows:
The new patriotism, Rev. E. E. Hamilton of Newtonville; "The league
as a spiritual factor to church life," Rev.
W. T. Worth of Lynn.

NONANTUM.

—Burkman Bros., will open a clothing store in Stuart's block.

—Richard F. Mills is recovering from a severe attack of dumb ague.

—The Y. P. S. C. E. meeting Sunday evening, was led by Miss Edith Chapman.

—Howard Skinner is ill at the Newton Hospital with typhoid fever.

—Mrs. Longbottom is reported quite ill at her home on California street.

—A new millinery store has been opened on Watertown street by Miss Mulligan.

—There will be an interesting concert at the North church, Sunday evening at 6:30 given by the Sunday school.

—Miss Emma Fletcher has been visiting her brother, Mr. Irving Fletcher of California street.

—The King's Daughters met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. G. Chapman on California street.

—The Weldon Lyceum Co., which includes some excellent talent from this place, will give a concert in the Watertown town hall, Wednesday, Dec. 18th.

—The day patrolmen have dispensed with their long clubs. The idea is an excellent one and is the same as that adopted by the Boston police some time ago.

—Thursday of last week Michael Flaherty was in court for assault on his daughter and found guilty. His case was continued until Jan. 1st.

—Contractor Joseph Nevins is rapidly pushing the work on Fuller's two blocks on Dalby street, and will have them ready for occupancy early in the spring.

—Mrs. Shorten, who was removed to the Newton Hospital suffering with paralysis, is reported but little better, and grave doubts are entertained as to her recovery.

—The duplicate whist tournament at the Nonantum Club opens this week. The cabbage tourney commences in December.
The prize is a silver cup given by Dr.
Carroll.

—The Pleasant Sunday afternoon service at the North Evangelical church last Sunday was addressed by Dr. Twombly, who took for his subject, "Harvest." Next Sunday Rev. C. A. Capen will lead and Miss Alice Butler will sing.

—At the Beulah mission Sunday, Rev. E.
A. Capen delivered an address. In it he touchingly referred to the death of Dr. S.
F. Smith, who so recently addressed the meeting. The Sunday school scholars expressed their deep sorrow, and the mission will probably frame a set of resolutions.

—St. Elmo lodge, Sons of Temperance held initiation exercises in their hall on Bridge street, Friday evening. Two new members were admitted. Addresses were delivered by Past, Worthy Patriarch Chas.
Dennett, Worthy Patriarch George Hudson and Thomas Tucker.

—The school flags on the Eliot and the Jackson schools were not flying Monday or Tuesday in honor of Dr. Smith, as they should have been, and in fact have flown very little since the beginning of the school year. There is a state law that says they must, and are long the parties responsible will probably hear of it.

THE CITIZENS' CONVENTION.

A. H. ROFFE NOMINATED FOR MAYOR ON 14TH BALLOT—OPPOSITION ALDER-MANIC CANDIDATES IN THREE WARDS.

The Citizens' Convention was called to order Wednesday night by W. J. Follett, chairman of the Ward and City Committee, and Mr. Follett was chosen chairman and Edward P. Hatch secretary.
A committee on credentials was appointed and reported that 34 out of the 35 delegates were present.
An informal ballot was taken for a candidate for mayor, resulting as follows:

James H. Nickerson	13
Albert H. Roffe	11
Henry E. Cobb	7
W. J. Follett	2
Blank	34

Total
Mr. Follett said it was well known to all that the Republicans had nominated an excellent man in Mr. Henry E. Cobb, and he thought the Citizens should endorse him.
He thought it would be ridiculous to put up another candidate, just for the purpose of opposing another party, and by so doing they would lose the respect of many influential men, who had previously acted with them.

Mr. P. A. McVicar believed in an aggressive campaign. He proposed the name of James H. Nickerson of Ward 3, a successful business man and merchant, and he had not heard a better man mentioned. Because Mr. Cobb was a Boston banker did not give him any lien on the Citizens' or any other party, and the best interests of the city would be served by electing Mr.
Nickerson.

The formal ballot resulted in 13 for Mr.
Nickerson, 12 for Mr. Roffe, and 7 for Mr.
Cobb, and there was no choice.

Ballots then followed in quick succession without much change. On the fourth ballot Mr. Cobb had 14, Mr. Roffe 9, and Mr. Nickerson 11. On the sixth Mr. Roffe led with 15. On the 10th, Mr. Nickerson led with 16, Mr. Roffe 10 and Mr. Cobb 8.
Mr. Cobb's delegates stuck to him till the 14th ballot, when seeing that his nomination was impossible, they went over to Mr.
Roffe, the ballot resulting in Roffe 20,
Nickerson 14, and the nomination of Mr.
Roffe was made unanimous.

Nominations for aldermen were then called for.

Councilman John E. Briston said he had been asked to allow his name to be used for alderman from Ward One, but the Republican candidate passed all necessary qualifications, was an upright man and a good citizen, and he took pleasure in proposing the name of Capt. H. W. Downs.
The nomination was made unanimous.

Councilman Cranitch proposed the name of Alderman Green for alderman from Ward Two, and O. F. Clark nominated ex-Councilman A. A. Savage.

Three ballots were taken, the first being a tie, the second Green 18 and Savage 17, and the third Savage 18 and Green 16, and Mr.
Savage was declared the nominee.

H. H. Hunt nominated George P. Whitmore for alderman from Ward 3, and there was no opposition.

P. A. McVicar made a short but strong speech for Alderman Plummer and a ballot being demanded he was nominated by 22 votes to 12 for Albert P. Noves.

In the other wards, Dr. Thompson renominated Alderman White of Ward 5;
A. C. Jewett, Alderman Degen of Ward 6, and Councilman Mudge Alderman Tolman of Ward 7.

All the Republican candidates for school committee were endorsed.

The complete list of nominations is as follows: Alderman H. Roffe, mayor.

Alderman—Ward 1, Henry W. Downs;

Ward 2—Albert A. Savage; Ward 3, George
P. Whitmore; Ward 4, Albert Plummer;

Ward 5, Thomas E. White; Ward 6, Henry
D. Degen; Ward 7, Henry Tolman.

School committee for three years—Ward
5, Joseph R. Smith, Frank J. Hale; ward
6, William E. Huntington, Samuel Ward; ward 7, J. Edward Hollis.

Beecham's pills for constipation 10¢ and 25¢. Get the book at your druggist's and
go by it.

Annual sales more than 6,000,000 boxes.

All purchases delivered FREE at Residences in Newton.

Memo. for Carpet Buyers.

Houses are not carpeted every year.
Naturally, therefore, many of our old customers, who purchased their Carpets and Draperies before we moved to our new building, are still unaware of our change of location.
To avoid complications, it is well to remember that our new store is on Washington Street.

Opposite Boylston Street.

Cut out this advertisement and preserve it till you are in need of Carpets or Draperies.
It will pay you to remember our address.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,

CARPETS AND UPHOLSTERY.

658 Washington St. (opposite Boylston St.), Boston.

Established 1817.

Represented in Newton by Mr. Henry Adams.

Fine Woolens at Moderate Prices.

We Do Not Propose To Be Undersold.

OUR SALES ARE LARGE. . .
WHY? Because sold at Prices that DEFY COMPETITION!
All We Ask—Come and See.

Barnum says people want to be humbugged. We say No. Our motto, "LIVE AND LET LIVE." We believe in fair competition.
Inspection of our large and elegant stock of goods shows that we are the Poor Man's Friend, as well as the rich.

We Beat the World.

Styles, Quality and Prices that we name sell Thousands of Dollars Daily.
Our salesmen are anxious to show goods, whether you buy or not, and it is no trouble to show them.

Positively Fifty Thousand Dollars' Worth to be Sold
Before January 1st, 1896.

CASH OR EASY TERMS.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
We take great pleasure in announcing that we have secured the services of Mr. Joseph P.
Atkinson, late manager for the Atkinson Furnishing Co., of Boston, and he will be pleased to receive calls from any of his customers or friends.

CRESCENT FURNITURE CO.

CRESCENT FURNITURE CO.,

30 and 36 Washington St. Boston.

J. W. WOOD, General Manager.

PEARMAN & BROOKS

Members of..... Boston Stock Exchange

Stock and Bond Brokers.

Orders by Mail Promptly Executed. — { } — Good Bonds and Mortgages on hand
Correspondence Solicited. for immediate delivery.

Stock Exchange Building, 53 State St., Boston.

SUMNER B. PEARMAN. L. LORING BROOKS.

Full Line. Finest Quality.

FRUIT JARS.

GEO. E. HUSE & CO.,

—DEALERS IN—

Meats and Provisions.

White's Block,
Centre St.,

NEWTON CENTRE,

GEO. E. HUSE

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXIV.—NO 9.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1895.

TERMS—$2.00 A YEAR

A Few Reasons Why We Support Albert H. Roffe for Mayor.

Mr. Roffe, the Citizens' candidate for Mayor of the City of Newton, has lived in Newton since 1850, and is now about fifty years of age.

His business life began in Boston, and was later transferred to Newton Centre, where it has gradually and successfully developed until a most satisfactory result has been reached, through patience and perseverance, qualifications which lead to success in business, and all will admit, are just such as are needed in the administration of the affairs of the City at this time.

Mr. Roffe represented Ward 6 four years in the Common Council, the last year as President. He has also served two years in the Board of Aldermen, at each election receiving the nominations of all parties. He was asked to serve again but declined for business reasons. He served in all the important committees, and with the six years' uninterrupted service, became thoroughly familiar with the needs of the entire City.

Mr. Roffe is essentially a man of the people, affable, courteous, and easily approached. He is also a man of firm convictions of right, with the power to say NO should occasion require.

His administration, if elected, would be one which would carefully guard the interests of the City while remembering always the right of the individual.

George F. Richardson
J. W. Hill
Robert P. Loring
Dr. C. H. Fessenden
A. Montgomery
W. B. Young
Prof. J. M. English
G. W. Ulmer
George Pettee
Chas. S. Young
A. M. Kistler
L. G. Paul
L. C. Melcher
W. H. French
F. W. French
Eben Thompson
E. J. Hyde

Thomas A. Rowe
W. O. Knapp
S. A. Sylvester
D. A. White
S. V. A. Hunter
C. Hunter
G. E. Crafts
Henry H. Hunt
James H. Nickerson
E. E. Burdon
Alfred L. Barbour
Robert A. Barbour
E. J. Ethier
H. T. Knight
W. H. Leatherbee
J. R. Deane

CITY OF NEWTON.

List of Candidates nominated to be voted for in Newton, December 3, 1895.

Mayor.	Vote for One.
Henry E. Cobb, Bellevue St., Republican Nom. Paper, Republican
Albert H. Roffe, Cypress St., Citizens Nom. Paper
Alderman, Ward One, Vote for One.
Henry W. Downes, Newtonville Ave., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican Alderman, Ward Two, Vote for One.
Louis E. G. Green, 48 Waterdown St., Republican Nom. Paper, Republican
Albert A. Savage, Walnut St., Citizens Nom. Paper
Alderman, Ward Three, Vote for One.
James T. Allen, Washington St., Republican Nom. Paper, Republican
George P. Whitmore, Winthrop St., Citizens Nom. Paper
Alderman, Ward Four, Vote for One.
Albert F. Noyes, Abundant Ave., Republican Alderman, Ward Five, Vote for One.
Thomas White, Centre St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican Alderman, Ward Six, Vote for One.
Henry D. Degen, Centre St., Republican Nom. Paper, Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican Alderman, Ward Seven, Vote for One.
Henry Tolman, 137 Washington St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican School Committee, Ward Five, Vote for Two.
Frank J. Hale, High St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Joseph B. Smith, Hyde St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
School Committee, Ward Six, Vote for Two.
William E. Huntington, Commonwealth Ave., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Samuel Ward, Crescent Ave., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
School Committee, Ward Seven, Vote for One.
J. Edward Hollis, Washington St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Shall Licenses be Granted for the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors in this City? Yes
The foregoing list is the same in all Wards and Precincts, with nominees for Common Council as follows:
Ward 1, Precincts 1 & 2.
Common Council, Vote for Two.
Alvin R. Baily, 27 Richardson St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
John Flood, Washington St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
D. Waldo Stearns, 281 Watertown St., Republican
Ward 2, Precincts 1 & 2.
Common Council, Vote for Two.
George M. Cranitch, Broadway St., Republican Christopher E. Roberts, Newtonville Ave., Republican
Ward 3, Precincts 1 & 2.
Common Council, Vote for Two.
George D. Davis, Temple St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
John A. Pomeroy, Waltham St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Francis W. Sprague, 2d Temple St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Ward 4, Precincts 1 & 2.
Common Council, Vote for Two.
Willis F. Hadlock, Lexington St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
George A. Hewitt, Grove St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Colon S. Ober, Central St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
George S. Perry, Concord St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Ward 5, Precincts 1 & 2.
Common Council, Vote for Two.
Lewis P. Everett, High St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Frederick Hutchinson, Lincoln St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Ward 6, Precincts 1 & 2.
Common Council, Vote for Two.
Henry Bailey, Beacon St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Frederic H. Butts, Summer St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Joseph W. Parker, Lake Ave., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Ward 7, Precincts 1 & 2.
Common Council, Vote for Two.
Kirk W. Hobart, 123 Sargent St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Mitchell Wing, Hunnewell Ave., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
List of Candidates nominated to be voted for by Women in all Wards and Precincts in Newton, December 3, 1895.
School Committee, Ward Five, Vote for Two.
Frank J. Hale, High St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Joseph B. Smith, Hyde St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
School Committee, Ward Six, Vote for Two.
Wm. E. Huntington, Commonwealth Ave., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
Samuel Ward, Crescent Ave., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican
School Committee, Ward Seven, Vote for One.
J. Edward Hollis, Washington St., Citizens Nom. Paper, Republican

Geo. P. Whitmore

—FOR—

ALDERMAN.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Ward Three, Newton, irrespective of party, heartily endorse the nomination of Geo. P. Whitmore for the office of Alderman, and we recommend all believers in a business-like administration of the affairs of the City to give him their votes at the coming election.

William M. Bullivant.
Chas. P. Hall.
James Richard Carter.
John W. Weeks.
George A. Lincoln.
Geo. L. Lovett.
Fred. L. Follett.
Chas. W. Leatherbee.
L. G. Elkins.
Robert S. Gorham.
Harry L. Ayer.
Geo. E. Peters.
Wilder M. Bush.
Eugene L. Clark.
Herbert E. Burrage.
Chas. F. Howland.
E. A. Adams.
H. B. Day.
E. H. Ferry.
J. W. Stanley.
Benj. S. Palmer.
Edward F. Woods.
John S. Allen.
Edw. S. Merchant.
Edw. C. Johnson.
Wm. E. Elder.
J. W. Estabrook.
F. R. Cutter.
G. P. Howlett.
Walter S. Wait.
E. C. Fletcher.
Frank W. Wyman.
A. C. Thomas.
Richard P. Anders.
John Avery.

AND OTHERS.

To the Voters

OF THE

City Of Newton.

The Republican Ward and City Committee submit to the favorable consideration of the voters of Newton, regardless of National and State party affiliations, the nominees of the Republican City Convention for Mayor and Aldermen. One and all they deserve your suffrage.

HENRY E. COBB, candidate for Mayor, is a member of the well known banking house of Brewster, Cobb & Esterbrook. For more than fifty years he has resided in our city; he was educated in our public schools, has held many positions of honor and trust, has been in various branches of the City Government and has always been interested in all public matters.

His business training and experience will be of great value to the city in making the necessary arrangements with the Boston & Albany Railroad, and in completing the public improvements now being carried forward.

Our candidates for Aldermen are all well known and tried men. In four Wards, One, Five, Six and Seven, there is no contest.

Capt. HENRY W. DOWNS of Ward One is a veteran of the late war, a successful business man and a long time resident of our city.

THOMAS WHITE of Ward Five, HENRY D. DEGEN of Ward Six and HENRY TOLMAN of Ward Seven, all members of our present Board of Aldermen, have rendered the city valuable services in the past, both in public and in private life, and will merit the unanimous re-election they will receive.

LOUIS E. G. GREEN of Ward Two has resided in Newton since 1872. A member of the Common Council in 1892, '93 and '94, he was elected as Alderman last fall. During these four years, devoted to the service of the city, he has served on many of the most important committees, and the last year has been chairman of our committees on street lights and ordinances and a member of the committees on highways and police. His intelligent and faithful devotion to his duties has given him a very extended and thorough knowledge of the affairs of the city, and its needs and resources, and his experience will be of great value.

JAMES T. ALLEN of Ward Three, for thirty years has been connected with the English and Classical school at West Newton, as one of its principals. A public spirited citizen in its broadest and best sense, he has always in public and in private been an advocate of clean politics. He has always been alive to the wisdom of every policy tending toward the advancement and attractiveness of his beloved city. As an Alderman he can be relied upon to take broad and sensible views of all matters that may come before the Board.

ALBERT F. NOYES of Ward Four has resided in Newton since 1867. He was City Engineer of Newton for seventeen years, resigning that office to accept the position of engineer of the Massachusetts State Board of Health, and is at present a member of the Metropolitan Sewerage Commission. He is President of the Boston Society of Civil Engineers and is consulting engineer in the construction of important public works. While engineer for Newton he designed and supervised many of the large public works of this city, and as an Alderman will be of great service in connection with the grade crossing question and other public improvements.

We urge the election of all the above named candidates.

Edward Sands,
Chairman.
Charles E. Hatfield, Secretary.

To the Voters of Newton:—

We, the undersigned, citizens of Newton, heartily endorse the nomination of Henry E. Cobb as a candidate for Mayor at the coming municipal election, believing as we do, that the City of Newton at the present time requires a man of recognized ability and business experience to carry forward successfully the great public improvements already begun, and to complete the important negotiations still pending between our city and the Boston & Albany Railroad Company.

Mr. Cobb is a man of sound judgment, firmness, energy and ability. His business experience and training have been in a line to educate and fit him in a pre-eminent degree for the administration of municipal affairs. His election will insure to our city and its citizens an able, efficient and economical administration.

Do not fail to vote for Henry E. Cobb for Mayor on Tuesday, next.

John Lowell
J. R. Leeson
Alden Spear
Hermes E. Hibbard
John A. Fenno
E. B. Haskell
Wm. K. Griffin
Samuel Shaw
James C. Melvin
Robert H. Gardiner
Edward H. Haskell
John Lowell Jr.
Frank J. Hall
John S. Powers
Luther Adams
J. Edward Hollis
N. H. Chadwick
D. W. Farquhar
Arthur C. Farley
Edward E. Hardy
Arthur W. Pickard
Albert F. Hayward
George M. Fiske
George L. Lovett
Fredk. Johnson
Lucius G. Pratt
Albert Metcalf
George P. Staples
Otis Childs
James Richard Carter
Francis A. Dawson
George A. Blaney
George A. Walton
C. C. Bragdon
Calvin Cutler
John C. Parker
Francis E. Clark
J. W. Dickinson
William Hollings
John T. Langford
John S. Potter
F. W. Stearns
L. D. Kiley
William H. Coolidge
Henry F. Ross
James W. French
Seward W. Jones
A. C. W. Worth
Wm. R. Dresser
Geo. B. Lapham
S. A. Shannon
William E. Webster
S. F. Wilkins
Dwight Chester
Geo. T. Clark
Wm. May
Edward C. Burrage
John P. Eagar
Charles S. Dennison
J. P. Flanagan
George T. Lincoln
Hermion C. Soule
Frank E. Soule
Moses R. Emerson
Edw. Sands
Otis E. Hunt
Robt S. Gorham
John H. Robinson
Thos R. Curtis
Lewis H. Bacon
Wm. T. May
Wm. B. Merrill
Wm. Byers
Walter C. Brooks
Frederic T. Parks
H. W. Taylor
Frederic Hutchinson
J. P. Estabrook
F. A. Hosmer
A. H. Leonard
J. E. Peckham
W. B. Ryder
J. F. Munroe
E. P. Ayer
Frederic F. Cutler
S. Appleton
Albert H. Putney
L. T. Hammond
F. W. Dorr
L. M. Dorr
E. P. Bosson
J. F. Payne
J. F. Loring
C. L. Smith
H. S. Langdon
Geo. S. Smith
E. T. Colburn
John K. Taylor
Chester H. Graves

C. S. Leutwiler
Wm. L. Thompson
Oscar E. Nutter
Chas. R. Brown
John H. Walton
Wm. White
Wm. K. Griffin
Chas. H. Stone
W. Russell Brackett
Fred W. Stone
W. G. Brackett
Gilman Brackett
John N. Suther
Russell Freeman
Luther Adams
H. G. Pratt
Howard B. Coffin
Charles A. Stone
Chas. E. Eddy
Wm. H. Capen
Arthur W. Kelly
Albert F. Hayward
Alonzo R. Weed
Wm. L. Lowell
Hiram E. Barker
E. E. Wakfield
Fred A. Hubbard
Russell Freeman
Otis Childs
F. L. Gross
Edw. H. Hames
Frank C. Potter
Charles W. Emerson
Lewis H. Bailey
Herbert S. Potter
W. H. Walker
George Angier
J. F. Frisbie
William L. Whiting Jr.
S. J. Spear
Thos E. Estes
Herbert A. Boynton
L. D. Kiley
A. R. Andrews
Levi Cooley Jr.
James H. Williams
W. F. Hawley
Austin T. Sylvester
John O. Smith
Charles D. Cabot
C. E. Roberts
Lane B. Schofield
E. W. Bailey
John R. Prescott
Charles F. Avery
Geo. M. Adams
George B. Knapp
George D. Harvey
Charles E. R. Ault
Wm. H. Cooley
Edw. E. Morgan
Geo. W. Biddgeth
Isaac S. Dillingham
J. Walter Davis
J. H. Nutt
C. G. Tinkham
Albert W. Little
Henry A. Hazen
Charles P. Darling
T. W. Bishop
C. S. Roberts
Geo. E. Johnston
Chas. E. Sweet
Elliot W. Keyes
Geo. H. Bourne
C. W. Carter
Edw. Almy
F. Esterbrook
J. S. Hunt
J. Franklin Ryder
Nathan Mosman
J. B. Chapin
J. O. Bishop
Henry A. Priest
Wm. H. Young
H. A. Penberton
T. J. Marble
Walter A. Wait
Chas. A. Wyman
Henry F. King
Francis W. Sprague 2d
E. A. Adams
Chas. P. Hall
R. G. Elkins
H. B. Day
Pierpont Wise
J. Franklin Fuller
Howard P. Bellows
N. Edmonds Paine
Waldo Stearns, M. D.
H. H. Seaver

Henry E. Waite
Richard Anders
Albert T. Thompson
William M. Bullivant
John T. Prince
John E. Lockhart
Wm. L. Felton
Chas. H. Stone
E. Leland
F. H. Sleeper
B. S. Palmer
A. C. Thomas
H. E. Burrage
J. W. Stanley
Geo. A. Frost
Chas. W. Leatherbee
John W. Weeks
John S. Alley
Frank W. Wyman
Chas. F. Howland
J. W. Estabrook
R. G. Clidsey
Geo. H. Phelps
E. H. Terry
P. S. Howe
Fred L. Felton
Geo. P. Howlett
Geo. E. Peters
Albert S. Glover
Heber B. Emery
W. E. Harding
Walter U. Lawson
Reuben Ford
A. D. W. Sampson
S. B. Whittemore
W. H. Walker
B. S. Wetherbee
John S. Sunner
George Livermore
Chas. A. Balcom
Edward H. Cutler
Madison Bunker
George H. Pratt
J. N. Bacon
P. A. Murray
Ephraim S. Hamblin
John D. Barrows
J. G. Coburn
Jos. N. Damon
S. Edward Warren
Geo. N. March
F. A. Leeds
H. M. Bacon
Mitchell Wing
James Macomber
W. O. Walker
Edward D. Conant
Geo. Sawin
A. W. B. Huff
F. E. Eustis
Chas. J. Brown
Fred S. Belding
B. Loring White
F. A. Brown
Chas. G. Fitch
A. Brush
Stephen G. Coolidge
Frank H. Hurt
William B. Rogerson
William C. Delano
Henry Tolman
Benj. Dore
E. B. Rogers
C. C. Allen
Henry C. Daniels
Jas. Stephenson
Justin Whittier
F. N. March
H. W. Crowell Jr.
Winthrop Vaughan
T. W. Trowbridge
John M. Whittemore
James Murphy
Mason E. Stearns
Daniel Stearns
John Shorton
Wm. E. Lowry
John Clayton
James Butterfield
Benj. Kerton
Geo. H. Fisher
John N. Sears
Joseph Hanson
Thomas Kybert
Reuben Forknall
Henry M. Davis
Albert C. Warren
D. H. Andrews
A. R. Cook
W. H. Emerson

AND MANY OTHERS.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

THE COMMON COUNCIL VOTES IN FAVOR OF MORE PAY FOR LABORERS.

Monday evening at City Hall was held the regular meeting of the common council, President Parker presided. After the passing of papers from the board of aldermen in concurrence, the principle business of the evening were a number of hearings.

A HEARING

on the petition for the widening of Spruce street was the first given.

EX MAYOR KIMBALL,

one of the principal signers, spoke in favor of the granting of the petition. He said, Spruce street, for its size, was used to a greater extent than any street in Ward 2. So many teams were daily passing through there that there was no chance for a single blade of grass to grow. The city would not lose any money by putting the street in shape, for if widened, houses would be built and its valuation would greatly increase. The matter of the citizens getting together as abutments and putting the street through was impossible, but the legislature had provided the ways and means, where if the citizens could not agree, the city could go ahead in the matter. Most of the people were willing to pay the calculated assessment and he did not see what more could be asked.

S. E. MOORE

spoke against the widening of the street and stated while at one end a strip of land, 105x10 feet, would be taken, a strip much larger would be taken at the other end. Therefore to get the benefit of a front street instead of an alley at one end it would cost about $187.50 and some $600 at the other. This the citizens had been asked to contribute as it would be the value of the land taken. The statement had been made that a large majority of abutments had signed the petition. If correct in his figures he had found that the land represented on the paper amounted to some 1,175 feet, while that unrepresented amounted to 17,000 feet. He had found that the signers, and those who had not signed, were about even in number and that the value of the land represented on the paper was much less than that not represented.

Dr. Otis E. Hunt gave the same testimony as at the preceding hearing.

Mr. H. M. Chase also spoke strongly against the laying out of the street, appearing as attorney for Mrs. E. J. Simpson and Mrs. R. M. and said a forty foot street was not wanted there. This closed the hearing.

THE LABORER'S PETITION

for increased pay next came up. Ex-Mayor Kimball was the first speaker and he declared that the city laborer was as necessary to the carrying on of the business of the city as the mayor himself. He believed that granting the increase asked for would make better citizens. Every official employed by the city receives a salary, and why, he asked, doesn't the laborer with the "Petition" thought the city had had enough of the contract labor policy, inaugurated by ex-Mayor Hibbard.

Thomas Alvin said the city council got more work done by paying fair wages, and he thought the men deserved to get the advance.

W. H. Maguire said he would like to correct the statement that he was opposed to raising the pay of the men. He was in favor of it, and thought the city would be doing right by giving the men the increased pay.

Councilman Sprague of Ward Three advocated the increase of pay, as did Councilmen Cranitch and Briston. Councilman Briston introduced the following order, which was unanimously passed:

"Resolved: That in the opinion of this board, the petitions of J. Wesley Kimball and others, citizens of Newton, for an increase of the wages of city laborers to $2 a day, and of Thomas Fitzpatrick and 140 other employees of the highway department for the same increase, should be granted, and that the per diem compensation of city laborers should be set at $2."

Several petitions and agreements were filed and referred to the proper committees.

An order authorizing the location of electric lights on Surrey, Langdon and Cabot streets was adopted.

Orders authorizing the mayor to petition the legislature for an act to appropriate street betterment assessments, and appropriating $2,500 for laying certain water mains were passed.

The resolutions on the death of Dr. Smith were unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

The report of Engineer Tudor condemning the sanitary condition of the High school, after a number of tests, was referred to the committee on public property. The report was made at the request of the board of health, who acted in response to a petition from 125 citizens of West Newton. The report was as follows:

SANITARY CONDITION OF THE HIGH SCHOOL.

Dear Sir:—In compliance with your request to make a thorough examination of the condition of the High school house with the view of showing the facts as to its healthful condition, adequacy of ventilation, etc., I herewith submit my report.

On the 23d ult., I inspected the two systems of plumbing and drains now serving the building. The system in the new part (so called) is perfectly designed and constructed, and is perfectly tight under the "Pneumatic Test." That in the old part is badly designed, the fixtures are obsolete in style and unsuitable for use, the construction is as bad as it can be, it will not stand the "Pneumatic Test" and leaks sewer air at almost every joint.

On that date the weather was so mild, that the windows were open more or less in all the class rooms and it did not appear that a test under such conditions would throw much light upon the efficiency of the ventilating apparatus. I judged best to wait for colder weather, but this not appearing, I decided to complete my examination a week later, Wednesday, Oct. 30th.

The observations were taken in such a way as to give the most favorable possible result; to show the rooms at their best.

The chemical examination of the air in the rooms has therefore turned out satisfactory. The result was secured by auspicious weather permitting the windows to be freely resorted to for circulating the air and assisting the regular ventilating apparatus.

The mechanical tests, however, showing what rate of ventilation might be expected under normal winter conditions, are not at all favorable. It is a requirement of a properly designed and efficient heating and ventilating apparatus, that the windows should form no part of it. In this case, however, mere ventilation is almost wholly by the windows.

On the 30th of October the purity of the air in the vicinity of the High school was very unusual; this was favorable in itself and naturally was not without its effect upon the air of the class rooms, this being better than would have been predicted.

The following table explains itself, keeping in mind the two first readings, as standards:

Carbonic Acid Gas	Parts in 10,000
Outside air of open places	3.00
Inside air, bad ventilation more than 6.00
8.30. Open space adjoining the school house	2.73
11.30. Open space between the church and depot	3.12
8.45. Air of building	3.34
9.20. Room No. 10, register and windows open, 23 persons	7.06
Room No. 5, register and windows open, only half full	4.43
10. Room No. 13, register and windows open, only half full	3.97
10.45. Room, register and windows open, only half full, 32 persons	6.94
10.45. Room 18, register and windows open, only half occupied	4.52

*Bad air was perceptible to the senses in this room; the result of the test in this case is manifestly erroneous, although the room was partly occupied.

The results show merely that the ventilation of the building is wholly dependent upon the windows and their proper management, because in every case the windows were open and plenty of fresh air was obtained by means of them to prevent the air becoming positively bad.

Turning to the work done by the ventilating apparatus, we find the following results, which I have arranged in a tabular form:

Entering by Inlet	Escaping by Outlet	Registers	Registers
Volume of air each minute in a normally ventilated class room	1500	1500
Volumes of Room 13 were	0	411
Volumes of Room 19 were	384	164
Volumes of Room 5 were	720	663

Owing to the free use of windows no other observations of the flue capacities were deemed necessary, and also because the flues and ducts are all too small to yield proper results. This is self-evident and it is not necessary to confirm it by tests.

CONCLUSION.

The entire plumbing system of the old part is condemned. Its use should be discontinued and the whole of it should be taken out and replaced.

The ventilating apparatus is entirely inadequate. It is moreover unsuitable, there being seven furnaces in the old part, whose surroundings do not promise immunity from configuration. It is incapable of such degree of alteration and improvement as would raise its efficiency to the required standard. Entire reconstruction is demanded in this case also.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed) FREDERIC TUDOR.

Three hundred dollars was appropriated to pay for clerical assistance in the examination of the city's books.

The mayor was empowered to sell certain parcels of land to Joseph N. Bacon, said Bacon to give the city right of way through another portion of his land.

DAY BEFORE HE DIED.

REV. S. F. SMITH'S WILL WAS WRITTEN BY HIMSELF—LEAVES ENTIRE PROPERTY TO HIS WIFE DURING HER LIFETIME.

The will of the late Rev. S. F. Smith, author of "America," was filed last Friday in the probate court at East Cambridge.

The document is a most remarkable one, inasmuch as it is written by Mr. Smith himself, in his well known nearly feminine hand, and was written one day before he died.

Accompanying the will is the affidavit of the executors to the effect that in their opinion the estate is worth about $45,000, one-third real estate.

The document, written on what is known as foolscap paper, states that "Being in good health, and a sound mind and memory, but sensible of the uncertainties of life, do hereby make this my last will and testament."

The first paragraph provides for the payment of all the testator's just debts, and in the second the entire property is bequeathed to his wife, Mary White Smith, to be used at her pleasure during her lifetime.

After Mrs. Smith's death the following bequests are made: $8000 each to S. F. Smith, Davenport, Ia.; Sarah B. Candee, Bridgeport, Conn.; Rev. D. A. W. Smith, Insein, Burma; Caroline E. Morton, Andover, N. H.; Erving W. Smith, Chicago; and Henry W. Jones, Minneapolis.

In the fourth section S. F. Smith, son of the deceased, is left $2100, and the other son, E. M. Smith, is given the house and lot 7043 Webster avenue, Chicago.

To the treasurer of the American Baptist missionary union, Boston, is left, in trust, $2000, one-half for support of young men, students for ministry in the Karen Theological Seminary in Insein, Burma, and one-half for the support of native preachers connected with the Baptist mission to the Telugus in India.

To the Richmond Baptist Theological Seminary is given $1000 to found the S. F. Smith scholarship, the interest only to be used from year to year for the support of a student at the seminary.

The eighth section leaves $200 to "my dear friend" Benjamin M. Kendry. He will then give the executors, S. F. Smith of Davenport, Ia., and Deacon S. P. Hibbard of Boston, power to dispose of all the property to the best of their judgment.

Should the property prove insufficient to pay all the bequests, or if Mrs. Smith should need to use unexpected amounts during her lifetime, then the bequests are to be made pro rata.

The residue of the estate is left equally to the American Baptist missionary union and the trustees of the Colby University in Waverille, Me., the latter bequests to be used in assisting any needy young men studying for the ministry of the Baptist denomination.

The will is witnessed by Wendell G. Corthell, B. M. Kendry and Edwell W. Simpson, and was written by Mr. Smith himself.

THE SINGLE TAX.

DISCUSSED BY SEVERAL SPEAKERS AT MR. C. B. FILLBROW'S.

Another evening was devoted to the discussion of the Single Tax on Monday at Mr. C. B. Fillbrow's, 230 Bellevue street. Mr. William Lloyd Garrison, Mrs. Eliza Stowe Twitchell and Rev. Samuel Brazier were the invited speakers. In opening, friends were reminded that the continued subject of the evening was the Single Tax, a symmetrical, invulnerable system of religious taxation, impregnable because perfectly just. It is also scientific because self-adjusting. As someone has said "equity is the law of the moral universe as equilibrium is the law of the physical universe." It is not all there is of religion but it is wholly and truly religious, scientific enough, it is hoped, to commend it to the home, to the social science club, to vestry societies, and to lovers of and searchers after truth everywhere.

Those present were urged to listen critically to the brief addresses and let no weak joint in the Single Tax armor escape them. Rev. Samuel Brazier spoke on the Religion of the Single Tax in part as follows:

The Single Tax is a proposition for securing liberty and social justice by means of a just and scientific method of raising the public revenues. Strictly speaking, it is not a tax at all. It is land and it is that value in bare land which exists only where society exists, is made by the whole community and belongs to the whole community, not to landlord or tenant, but to society as a whole, and which increases exactly in proportion to public needs. We regard the present methods of taxation as a blundering system of tyranny and robbery, which causes nearly all the crime that exists. We have no nostrums to offer for social evils, but we have invincible faith in liberty and justice which the Single Tax will secure. To us it is more than a mere fiscal reform, it is the key to solve the threatening social problems of the hour, it is in fact our religion.

Religion is the best man knows, the best one thinks, the best he can do. Go not to the churches for your religion, they never lead, they follow at a safe distance. Today they utterly ignore the Single Tax. In time they will be proclaiming what we teach today, that it is in harmony with every principle of true religion. Ministers as a class know less about the cause and cure of poverty than other men. They are comfortable and blind. A few years ago one of the first methods in Boston suggested for solving the first tramp that appeared on the streets. The Single Taxers have a better remedy for poverty than murder. We see what Isaiah saw, one class building houses and another class inhabiting them, one class planting vineyards and another class eating the fruit thereof, one class producing wealth and another class possessing it, and like him we trace these evils to social injustice, not to Adam's transgression nor to the mysteries of Divine Providence. Like him too we believe they can be remedied and we look for labor for "A new heaven and a new earth wherein dwelleth righteousness."

Is it righteous that one man should demand tribute, rent, from another for permission to live on this earth, or toil on this earth? Jesus would say No! Buddha would say No! Mohammed would say No! We Single Taxers are saying No! When society becomes convinced of the injustice and evils following from private property in land then the time will be near "When all men shall be free and no man shall have a slave, And their falling chains shall be." Mrs. Eliza Stowe Twitchell was the next speaker. She took up point by point some of the questions asked at the last meeting and answered them more fully. To the question "I can see how all this would work in the case of land; but will you kindly tell me how it will help the poor sewing woman?" Mrs. Twitchell replied "by lowering her rents and raising her wages." There is land enough in every city for each family to have a home of its own, but held out of use by the high price asked for it. If we were to collect by taxation the annual rise of these vacant lots the owners would do as they did in New Zealand, hasten to sell, all of which would lower the price decidedly. There are thousands of clerks, book keepers, teachers and merchants who would be glad of houses of their own, but because of now costs nearly as much for the land as to build the house, they cannot afford it, but they would gladly seize this opportunity of obtaining cheap land advantageously situated, and begin building at once. This would empty thousands of tenements in the cities, lowering their rents, and this wave would sweep on until it touched the room of the poor sewing woman, lowering her rents. And again these thousands building houses would start into activity the building industry, next the house furnishing and other allied industries. Here would be created a demand for labor, and this activity of labor and capital would tend to raise wages and increase profits, and if this movement became general, the wave would sweep on until it touched the wages of the poor sewing woman, for many laborers finding employment would soon be enabled to satisfy their desire for more and better clothing. In short it is labor that produces the demand for more labor.

It is natural for us all to regard the farmer as the chief user of land, and the sewing woman as living by sewing, but a little reflection will show that though her room be upon the tenth floor it rests upon land, and her rent, economically speaking, consists of two parts, one paid for the use of the room and the other for the right to sleep upon that spot of earth. Neither does she live by sewing, but by eating as we all do. Food is the first necessity. In other words the farming industry is the foundation of all others; when that is prosperous the country generally is prosperous. The ease and abundance with which food can be produced determines how large will be the number in the community to engage in other industries. This ease and abundance depends upon labor-saving machinery and cheap fertile land. The prosperity of this country has been due largely to our free Western lands.

This condition is now past. The farming industry is today the most depressed of two reasons—first heavy taxation, the millionaire class have shifted their taxes upon the shoulders of the great middle class and the farmers feel the load oppressively. Secondly, the farmers are under a still heavier weight of rents for their farms or interest on land mortgages; one million and a half tenant farmers in this country. Make the farmer prosperous and you will improve general conditions. The Single Tax will do this by taxing ground rents out of the pockets of the Lord Snuffles and foreign land syndicates back into the local public treasury, relieving the farmers of all taxation. We rebelled against a little tax on tea, but think of the tribute these farmers are paying. American citizens paying to Englishmen for the right to live upon American soil. This Single Tax would also throw into the market millions of city lots, millions of farms that are now idle for both labor and capital, and if this land was cheap enough labor and capital would seize these opportunities quickly and business would revive generally. You never heard of men wanting work and not being able to find it in a country of plenty of free fertile land. The demand for more laborers, more capital, and for that reason wages are high and interest is high. In this way the Single Tax will lower rents and raise wages and profits, as well as striking a death blow at some of our greatest monopolies, relieving the great middle class from the present oppressive burden of taxation and abolishing the cause, the incentive for much of our political corruption.

Mr. Garrison spoke of the difficulty of the subject to those unacquainted with our terminology, for instance, we use the word rent much different from its common usage, meaning not the sum paid for the use of houses, or anything labor has produced, but only that paid for the land and its value produced by society as a whole. Our present custom of permitting social value to be appropriated exclusively by those who own land leads to such contrasts as the slums of our great cities and the loneliness of the country, where the first comer takes up all the land in sight, so that the neighboring houses cannot be seen with a telescope.

Here in solitude he and his family live and work, until this land shall come into the market, knowing they can make more by the rise of this land than by all their labor. Every political economist will admit the evils of this, but they say, if we were to deal with primitive society, we could begin right, but now custom and usage have settled these things beyond our control, as if there were no way of changing custom and usage that works so much evil in the world. Supposing the abolitionists had decided that custom and usage made property in man a right too strong to be attacked and overturned.

Some one asked how this reform was to be first introduced, to which he replied, "We already collect some of this ground rent by taxation, i. e. wherever taxes are levied upon land according to its value. We have only to lessen the taxes upon houses, stores, stock, etc., things produced by man's labor, and increase them upon land according to its value. If such a tax was levied in Brooklyn and the land were assessed at its true value and franchises were taxed, the same revenue we now raise could be collected from a two per cent tax upon land values and the annual rise is far more than that. The present system is inequitable, nowhere justly levied or fairly collected. The abolition of the Single Tax will continue Monday evening, Dec. 9th. Mrs. Twitchell or Mr. Garrison, or both to be present.

THE ALLEN SCHOOL.

ITS ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE GIVE A COMPLETE RECORD OF THE SCHOOL.

The catalogue of the West Newton English and Classical school, which has for six years been in preparation by a former pupil, Eugene F. Fay, of Brookline, has just been published and is a remarkable book. Besides the names, it gives a brief history of each pupil, the history of the school from 1854 to 1893, the history of the teachers who have been connected with the school since its beginning, with their photographs, and illustrations of the school buildings, and an account of the reunion Nov. 15, 1871, and June 21, 1893. The catalogue takes up 176 pages, and it is a volume that will be highly prized by all who have been connected with the school. It is safe to say that no other institution has ever had so complete a catalogue, with so much detail, and the book is proof of the untiring industry and energy of the compiler.

Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers is a positive remedy for a gray beard.

"I Can't Eat Oatmeal!"

Of course not, if you mean ordinary oatmeal—the stuff that is full of indigestible starch—for breakfast. Food should follow work, not precede it. If you will persist in asking too much of the stomach, no wonder you feel sluggish and not "up to concert pitch" until digestion has done its work.

H-O "Assists Nature."

With it, the work of digestion is more than half done already. The smallest child and oldest man can eat H-O and be nourished by it.

Veterinary Surgeon

MADISON BUNKER, D. V. S.

Veterinary Surgeon

Residence, 4 Baldwin St., cor. Elmwood Newton.

C. A. HARRINGTON

LUMBER,

Lime, Cement, Plaster, &c

Crafts St., Newtonville, Mass.

Telephone 5248-7 Newton

If your DOOR TRIMMINGS look old and dingy they give a caller a bad impression. Just call at

ARBER BROTHERS

and see some of the New patterns.

Many a boy starts out in life with the firm determination of conquering the world. He means to achieve success and wealth and fame. His intentions are good, and his will is strong. If he has the bodily strength to carry him through his efforts will be crowned with achievement. Bodily strength and health are his greatest capital. Without them he can hope for nothing. How many young men and young women are cut off just when the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. Consumption has been considered incurable, and the medical profession has never made a greater mistake than this. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 95 per cent. of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections. There is no reason why the child of consumptive parents need ever have consumption if its blood and lungs are strengthened by the proper use of the "Discovery." All who have any reason to fear consumption, should read the chapters on that disease in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great medical work of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated, has reached a sale of over 650,000 copies. It will be sent free of charge on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only. World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Newton

City Market

Fresh and Salt

Meats.

Poultry and Game.

Fish

and Oysters.

Wellington Howes, Proprietor

ATWOOD'S MARKET.

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Fine Fruit,

Vegetables,

The Choicest

Fish and Meats.

Mr. Atwood's long experience gives him unusual facilities for securing the best things in the market.

371 CENTRE ST., NEWTON.

Telephone 122-2.

C. W. BUNTING,

Fish Market.

FISH, OYSTERS, FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.

Telephone Connection.

GOLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON, MASS.

WORTH IS DEAD

But his place is still with us. Who shall fill it? Is not of so much importance as what we as Americans are doing along the line of HIGHER CULTURE in the ART OF DRESS DESIGNING and CUTTING.

In looking up and developing lines of usefulness for women, how little has been done along that most natural line, Higher Art in Dress.

An opportunity is now presented for such culture, at Pittcock's

Dress Cutting School,

1 BEACON ST., BOSTON.

J. H. LOOKER,

French Cleansing and Dyeing

Dry Cleansing and Repairing a Specialty.

Particular attention paid to

Blankets, Lace Curtains, Fine

Linens and Hand Laundry

Work of all kinds.

No. 21 Carleton Street.

NEWTON, MASS.

Howard Ice Co.,

Successors to Howard Bros.

ORDERS FOR

ICE

RECEIVED AT

T. L. MASON'S, 390 Centre Street

P. O. Address, Box 65, Newton.

A. L. HOWARD. E. E. HOWARD.

Telephone 13-3 Newton.

Plumbers.

HEWITT & THOMAS,

Practical Plumbers.

And Sanitary Engineers.

247 WASHINGTON ST.,

Nonantum Block, Newton.

M. C. HIGGINS,

Practical Plumber

—AND—

SANITARY ENGINEER.

Plumbing Work in all its branches.

Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city; perfect satisfaction is guaranteed.

Sumner's Block, Newton.

ESTABLISHED IN 1896.

T. J. HARTNETT,

Plumber and Sanitary Engineer.

IRON DRAINAGE & VENTILATION A SPECIALTY.

PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

375 Centre Street, - Newton.

Carpenters and Builders.

S. K. MacLEOD,

Carpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed. Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumbers' Work a Specialty.

SHOP: CENTRE PL., Opp. PUBLIC LIBRARY.

THE POMROY HOME.

DIRECTORS' REPORT OF THE GOOD WORK DONE.

Twenty-three years ago, November 1872 this Home for orphan and destitute girls was established. During this period, of near a quarter century, the population and citizens of Newton have greatly changed; probably not more than one third, of its present inhabitants, were then living in our city. Under these conditions, it is important that certain facts connected with this charity should be stated. It was the first distinctive and the only Newton charity, until the noble City Hospital was founded. We wish the present residents of Newton to know our guiding principles and aims, and the results thus far accomplished through the generous kindness and thoughtful benevolence of our numerous benefactors. Through the influence of the enlightened minds and noble hearts of the late Mrs. Rebecca R. Pomroy, Mary C. Shannon and Mrs. Daniel L. Furbur, this home was opened on Church street, Newton, November 8, 1872, the day previous to the devastating fire in Boston. Its sole outfit consisted of some furniture, donated by the Boston Children's Aid Society, and seventy-five dollars in cash. With four little inmates the Home was inaugurated.

Of rare spirits were these three founders of this home, all of whom have passed to their rest, followed by the blessings of the many recipients of their loving work, and of all who knew them. It was an inspiration to come into the presence of these noble women. Others of like spirit, joined in aid of the Home's support. It must not be omitted to state that the late Hon. J. Wiley Edmonds, and our venerable friend, William Morton, were of invaluable aid during its early years.

Applications rapidly followed and homeless little ones were received until the limits of the home were reached. The Rectory on Hovey street was then secured from Rev. Allston Greene, the first rector of Grace church.

This estate was purchased for the home by a friend, who continues to minister to our needs with her never failing beneficence. Here the Home remained several years at a rental, when, through the generous contributions of its numerous friends, under the lead of the late Geo. S. Harwood and Roy M. Fulmer, a sum of $13,000 was secured, the estate was purchased and donated to the Home, as a memorial to Mrs. Rebecca R. Pomroy, where it has since remained.

When applications have been made by persons outside the city's limits, your board has acted in accord with the principle, "Who is my neighbor?" We remember, too, that a large part of our donations have been from the first, made by non-residents of Newton. Of the $2,872.99 contributed the first year of the Home's life, $679 was from persons outside Newton. No less than practical sympathy ceased to the present time. The largest individual donation to our fund was by Caroline P. Adams of $5,000 in amount. Hence not alone in accord with broad and true charity, but as an act of justice, your directors have not turned a deaf ear to an unfortunate orphan or destitute girl, who knocked at our door, though coming from a town or city not named Newton. It is, however, a rule with us that when only a single vacancy occurs at the Home, it is reserved for a Newton child. The above statement is introduced as some may ask why children are received from other cities and towns.

If there be such, we will refer to the tender admonition of Jesus, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of these little ones ye have done it unto me."

The system as inaugurated and by the inspired trio, and still remains unique among such homes. For more particular information regarding its regulations we refer to the annual report. After graduating from the grammar school, usually by the 15th or 16th year, the girl is placed under special tutorage in kitchen, laundry and chamber work, also in all branches of plain family sewing, that she may be long, usually in two years, be competent to do good service in some family requiring such. We have many more applicants for these graduates than there are girls to leave. We are thus enabled to exercise careful selection of the applicants home and its surroundings. Preference is given to country homes, other things being equal, believing that close contact with nature, its flora and fauna, is a constant incentive to all the virtues. We seek such as receive the girl into their family as a daughter, in kitchen, sitting room and at the family table. Only one of our girls left us the past year, who is enjoying the influences of an ideal country family, with the parents, children and grandmother. The connection is mutually appreciated.

To avoid every semblance of sectarianism, while developing the principles of Christianity with our girls the following arrangement was inaugurated, which has satisfied every candid inquirer in its regard. Each of some thirty churches of the city has one or more members of the board of corporators. This board at its annual meeting in addition to choice of officers, etc., elects from their number, seven, who constitute the board of directors, and who, during the year, have special control of the Home. It is an unwritten law that so far as is feasible, each of the several denominations shall be represented upon this board.

During the twenty-three years of the Home's life, no question of mere denominationalism has arisen, nor would it be referred to here, but that certain of the solicited, seek thus an excuse for not contributing. Scarcely a year has passed when the individual contributions have not exceeded its annual expenses, while the additions to its invested fund have been constant and encouraging. The living expenses of the Home are moderate, but the spirit of the importance, that rigid economy should be inculcated and practiced as being just to its supporters, and just to the girls.

These contributions are made almost exclusively in small sums from the women of Newton. Thus it should be; it is not the amount but the spirit of the given which blesses. The directors are confident that the same spirit will continue, and that this estimable charity will merit and receive the generous support of its friends, the friends of the fatherless. In its brief life of twenty-three years the Home has met with many vicissitudes. Three of its superintendents, Mrs. Pomroy, the Misses Boyden and Robbins have died. Our excellent superintendent, Mrs. Greene, lately resigned through ill health. Though her connection was brief she carries with her the warm regard and entire confidence of every member of the board, as also the love of the girls of the Home. Mrs.

Greene's influence with them was wholly uplifting and good. In Miss Townsend, our assistant, soon to leave, we found a woman, whose grace of manner and spirit was a constant example for good with the girls. The directors are confident that with Mrs. Mary J. Williams, superintendent, and Miss Helen Z. Allen, assistant, each having large and unusually successful experience in similar work, the Home starts upon its twenty-fourth year, under most favorable auspices. The success attending the administration and influences of the Home in the lives and character of its eighty members, with so few failures, is a guarantee for the future. The board invites and urges our citizens to visit, and, by personal inspection, to become more familiar with the admirable care given our charge. We have no fear that the good people of Newton will abate their confidence in the Rebecca Pomroy Newton Home for orphan and destitute girls, or falter in its liberal support.

NATH'L T. ALLEN,
ANDREW S. MARCH,
MRS. J. STURGIS POTTER,
MRS. HENRY M. BATES,
MRS. GEO. S. HARWOOD,
MRS. SARAH L. TOURJEE,
MISS MARY SHANNON.

NEWTON CLUB.

THE CLUB TEAM WINS AGAIN AT WHIST.

CALENDAR.
Saturday, Nov. 30. Mr. W. H. Lewis on Modern Foot Ball. Singing by the Glee Club.
Wednesday, Dec. 4. Assembly.
Saturday, Dec. 7. Gentlemen's Whist Night.

The Newton Club last Saturday night defeated the Brooklyn Whist Club at duplicate whist, and thereby gained for the game in New England a prestige that it has not hitherto possessed. It was the first match of any consequence, outside of the American Whist League annual congress, that has ever been contested between a team from New England and a team from one of the big whist centres elsewhere.

The game took place at the Club house in Newtonville. There were eight players on a side. Brooklyn was represented by Messrs. Robert H. Weems, Albert Josephson, Alfred S. Taylor, Jay Stone, Elwood T. Baker, George A. Lavie, Reginald P. Rowe and Dr. Samuel Wait. The home team was composed of Messrs. George W. Morse, Herbert D. King, Henry Fisher Ames, Dr. Henry P. Perkins, Frank M. Copeland, Arthur H. Terrell, Charles H. Sprague and Edward C. Fletcher.

It was by no means their strongest aggregation of eight that the visitors brought on to Boston. Nevertheless, several of their men have a national reputation, and all are experienced tournament players. The Newton Club, on the other hand, presented eight men who, with the exception of Messrs. Sprague and Fletcher, have fought together in many a hard match, and even Messrs. Sprague and Fletcher have individually contended in several matches, the former for the American Whist Club of Boston, and the latter for the Pastime Club of West Newton.

The odds were in favor of Newton, and fortune did not desert her representatives. Two halves, of 16 deals each, were played. Every deal was played at each of the four tables engaged. In the first half Brooklyn gained two doubles and five single tricks, seven altogether; while Newton scored gains of three, two and one, six in all, finishing the half a trick to the bad.

In the second half the superior team play of the Newtonians displayed itself by gains of three, two and two singles—seven altogether—while the Brooklynites could pick up only a single trick, going to the bad by a loser by six tricks. The Newton Club's majority on the whole match, was, therefore, five tricks, made by gains of 13 to their adversaries' 8.

Between the halves the competing teams, together with the umpire and a few invited guests, sat down to dinner. Mr. Walter H. Barney of Providence, R. I., president of the New England Whist Association, acted as umpire.

The prize for the match is to be a handsome trophy, which has not yet been received from the manufacturers, but in addition to this every member of the victorious team receives as a souvenir a pair of link sleeve buttons, engraved with the date of the contest and the initials of the two clubs.

Mr. Martinus Sieveking, the celebrated pianist, and Max Heinrich, the baritone, are the soloists for the first symphony concert, Dec. 11th.

Members are privileged to bring their sons to the Saturday evening talk, to be given by Mr. W. H. Lewis on Modern Foot Ball.

Somerville and Newton Draw.
Somerville High and Newton High struggled for 35 minutes at the Somerville Y. M. C. A. grounds last Friday, and the game ended without either side scoring a point. The game was to settle the championship of the junior league, as Somerville needed one more game to claim the title. Newton High played the smoother game, and pushed the ball to within one yard of Somerville's goal in the first half, but Somerville held for downs, and captured the ball, placing its goal out of danger in a very short time.

The second half was a case of seeing who could fumble the most. Forcible made a number of costly fumbles, while Somerville had the advantage on the offensive.

Newton's best playing was done by Bendon, Cotting and Johnson. The centre men did not let their opponents gain materially through them. For Somerville, Stone was easily the star. He advanced the ball well, and tackled finely at every opportunity. Pipe and Burton played well behind the line, the former's long runs being features of the game.

NEWTON HIGH. SOMERVILLE HIGH.
Johnson, I. E. Stone
Warden, I. E. Stone
Palmer, I. E. Stone
Seaver, I. E. Stone
Lee, I. E. Stone
Van Vorst, I. E. Stone
Dunne, I. E. Stone
Forsyth, I. E. Stone
Cotting, I. E. Stone
Bryant, I. E. Stone
Scout, I. E. Stone
Johnson, I. E. Stone
Higgins and Moore, I. E. Stone.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—The next meeting of the Monday Club will be with Mrs. E. H. Greenwood.

—At the residence of State Fire Marshal Charles W. Whitcomb, 72 Gardner street, Allston, Monday evening, Miss Cora Locke of Newton Highlands and Mr. Edward Mullen of Cambridge were married. Rev. E. A. Horton officiating. The bride wore a gown of white broad satin, with a tulle veil and diamond ornaments, the latter the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Following the ceremony, a brilliant reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Whitcomb and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Tewksbury assisted the young couple in receiving. The house was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, potted plants and ferns. The ushers were Messrs. Roland Boutwell, Zenas Sears, Jr., Fred Sherman and Walter De Land Came, all of Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Mullen will be at home at the Curtis, Mt. Vernon street, Boston, on Tuesdays in December. Gov. Greenhalge was among the guests present.

Do not take any substitute when you ask for the one true blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Insist upon Hood's and only Hood's.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Mr. E. A. Alexander and family spent Thanksgiving in Foxboro.

—Wm. Furdon has taken a position with Thomas Dale.

—Mr. James Mullen of Albany is visiting his brother, Mr. John Mullen, of Elliot street.

—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Billings, Jr., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

—Rev. Mr. Peterson of Saxonville was in town Monday and called upon many of his former parishioners.

Measles are quite prevalent among the little folks, quite a number of cases being reported.

—The Rev. Luther Freeman of Waltham will preach in the M. E. church of this village at 6.30 p. m., Dec. 1st.

—Contractor Cahill has purchased the band stand and dance hall in the Hemlock gorge reservation, formerly Echo Bridge park.

A large delegation of Echo Bridge Council, Royal Arcanum, attended the banquet given by the Mt. Ida Council at Newtonville, Monday evening.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Chaevia Ankens, Bertha E. Beeke, James Bland, Wm. Breen, J. B. Breen, Wm. Brunt, Morris Bunster, J. W. Cardinal, D. O'Leary.

—Mr. Charles J. McKenna has returned from the Carney Hospital, which he entered in health and expects to leave soon for Duluth, where he will make his future home.

—Richard T. Sullivan, a prominent woolen manufacturer of Newton, died at his home, Tuesday evening, after a brief illness. Heart failure was the immediate cause of his death. He leaves a wife and seven children.

Wife—Here's an account of a man who shot himself rather than suffer the pangs of indigestion. Husband—The fool! Why didn't he take De Witt's Little Early Risers? I used to suffer as bad as he did before I commenced taking these little pills. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter Thorn, Auburndale.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Mr. Riley is succeeded by a new superintendent at Bishop's paper mills.

—R. S. Harrison is having one of his houses, recently purchased, remodelled and fitted for occupancy. The house has been unoccupied for a long period.

—The Dudley mills institutes a new change in time commencing Monday, starting at 7 a. m. and making up the time by working two hours Saturday afternoon instead of having the half holiday.

—The social given at Freeman Hall, Tuesday evening, did not receive the patronage that was looked for. A deformed cat with a generous allowance of heads, tails, etc., was exhibited previous to the dance for which those so inclined could see for the fee of 25 cents charge.

—The hot contest looked for in the coming election, under councilman from this precinct is not forth coming. Mr. Perry being favored by so large a majority that his election is thought to be conceded, as it is understood, if elected, he is pledged to use his influence in having the remains of the burned paper mill removed from its very conspicuous site.

—The entertainment, consisting of minstrels and a concert in the basement of St. John's church, Friday evening, was very successful in every way, in matter of attendance quite a number were standing, being unable to procure seats. The performances rendered by Mr. Swift are worthy of especial recognition as were also the "lone" quartet of Waltham, the latter being repeatedly encored and it is the verdict of the large audience that they surpassed anything in their line witnessed on an amateur stage. The concert netted a good sum of money.

If suffering with piles, it will interest you to know that De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them. This medicine is a specific for all complaints of this character, and if instructions (which are simple) are carried out, a cure will result. We have tested this in numerous cases, and always with like results. It is for sale at the following places: Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

NONANTUM.
—Miss Annie B. Piper has returned to her home in Nova Scotia.

—Miss Maude McKenna has left for Winslow, Vt.

—Mr. Blake has removed from Morse to Faxon street.

—Joseph Nevins has leased his new house on Dalby street.

—Mrs. E. Ticehurst and family of Brighton, England, have been visiting in this place.

—Mr. T. J. O'Sullivan has left his position with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

—Monday night Rev. Dr. George W. Shinn lectured in the North Evangelical church, under the auspices of the Charity Lodge and Sons of Temperance. His subject was "The causes of Intemperance," and a large number listened to the lecture.

—John Boyce, whose mysterious disappearance about a year and a half ago, caused considerable excitement and no little wonderment, has returned, arriving at his home on Rustic street Sunday morning. It is said that he went to sea and has visited many foreign lands. At any rate he is back again and will probably not "wander from his own fireside" for some time.

Let Him Tell His Troubles.
(From the Acheson Globe.)

The secret of popularity is to occasionally give the other fellow a chance to tell what ails him.

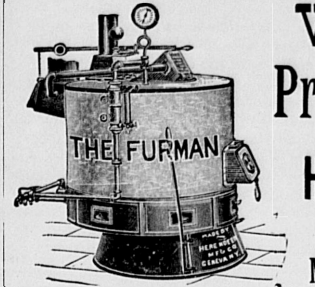

One Minute Cough Cure is a popular remedy for croup. Safe for children and adults. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Bernard Billings, Newton Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

L. H. CRANITCH,
House, Sign, and Ornamental
PAINTER.
Paper Hangings in great variety and work promptly done.
Walnut St., - Newtonville.
2nd door from Central Block.

Newton and Watertown
Gas Light Company
All orders for Gas or Electric Lighting left at their office, 421 Centre St., will receive prompt attention.

PURE MILK
SUPPLIED DAILY FROM
Prospect Valley Farm
One cow's milk supplied when desired

H. COLDWELL & SON,
Waltham, Mass.

GENUINE BARGAINS
always to be obtained by those who are in want of
STRICTLY ALL WOOL FABRICS.

Suitable for Ladies', Gents', Youths' or Children's wear, by calling on us, where they may be found in all weights and the latest shades and styles. Full line of WHITE . . . BED . . . BLANKETS.
All sizes and prices. Also
Horse Blankets for Street and Stable Use!

Remnants and Imperfect Goods Made at The Assabet Mills are sold by us and at the lowest prices. Call and examine them.

The People's Dry Goods Company,
MAYNARD, MASS.

The Salesroom is open until 6 p. m., except Saturdays; closes Saturday at 12 o'clock. Positively open as above until further notice in this paper.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH
THE POSITIVE CURE.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

WILL ADD TEN YEARS TO YOUR LIFE.
RUBBER TIRES.

I am prepared to apply Rubber Tires of the most approved pattern to carriages, at the following low prices:
34 in. tread, set of 4 wheels $35.00 Renewed for $23.00
7 1/2 " " " " 40.00 " " 25.00
1 " " " " 45.00 " " 30.00
1 1/4 " " " " 50.00 " " 35.00
1 1/2 " " " " 55.00 " " 40.00
1 3/4 " " " " 60.00 " " 45.00
1 1/2 " " " " 65.00 " " 50.00

P. A. MURRAY,
CARRIAGE BUILDER
200 to 210 Washington St., Newton.

Water Bugs and Roaches.
CLEAN THEM OUT WITH OUR EXTERMINATOR
No dust. No trouble to use.
Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you drag out for 60c. do not use it, we will mail package on receipt of price.

BARNARD & CO.,
7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.
FOR SALE BY HARRIS BROS., NEWTON.

ESTABLISHED 1899.
SIMPSON BROTHERS,
CONTRACTORS FOR
Concrete Walks, Driveways,
Asphalt Floors and Artificial Stone Walks.

We have been awarded the Sidewalk Contract for the City of Newton for 1895, and are ready to receive orders or give estimates for work in private grounds.

P. O. Address, Newton, or Boston Office, Room 58
Telephone 1155 Boston. 166 Devonshire St.
REFERS TO 20 YEARS WORK IN NEWTON.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY

WHITE'S NEWTON CARPET CLEANING CO. Y.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters; 8 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Matings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. New Carpets made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE,
P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7.
(Factory and Residence, Clinton Street)

BOOK
AND
JOB PRINTING
Of Every Description
Promptly Executed at the Newton Graphic
OFFICE
285 Washington Street,
NEWTON.

Wolcott & Pratt,
Practical Plumbers
Heating Engineers.
SOLE AGENTS
MAGEE FURNACES and RANGES.
NEWTONVILLE.

GENUINE BARGAINS
always to be obtained by those who are in want of
STRICTLY ALL WOOL FABRICS.

Suitable for Ladies', Gents', Youths' or Children's wear, by calling on us, where they may be found in all weights and the latest shades and styles. Full line of WHITE . . . BED . . . BLANKETS.
All sizes and prices. Also
Horse Blankets for Street and Stable Use!

Remnants and Imperfect Goods Made at The Assabet Mills are sold by us and at the lowest prices. Call and examine them.

The People's Dry Goods Company,
MAYNARD, MASS.

The Salesroom is open until 6 p. m., except Saturdays; closes Saturday at 12 o'clock. Positively open as above until further notice in this paper.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH
THE POSITIVE CURE.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

WILL ADD TEN YEARS TO YOUR LIFE.
RUBBER TIRES.

I am prepared to apply Rubber Tires of the most approved pattern to carriages, at the following low prices:
34 in. tread, set of 4 wheels $35.00 Renewed for $23.00
7 1/2 " " " " 40.00 " " 25.00
1 " " " " 45.00 " " 30.00
1 1/4 " " " " 50.00 " " 35.00
1 1/2 " " " " 55.00 " " 40.00
1 3/4 " " " " 60.00 " " 45.00
1 1/2 " " " " 65.00 " " 50.00

P. A. MURRAY,
CARRIAGE BUILDER
200 to 210 Washington St., Newton.

Water Bugs and Roaches.
CLEAN THEM OUT WITH OUR EXTERMINATOR
No dust. No trouble to use.
Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you drag out for 60c. do not use it, we will mail package on receipt of price.

BARNARD & CO.,
7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.
FOR SALE BY HARRIS BROS., NEWTON.

ESTABLISHED 1899.
SIMPSON BROTHERS,
CONTRACTORS FOR
Concrete Walks, Driveways,
Asphalt Floors and Artificial Stone Walks.

We have been awarded the Sidewalk Contract for the City of Newton for 1895, and are ready to receive orders or give estimates for work in private grounds.

P. O. Address, Newton, or Boston Office, Room 58
Telephone 1155 Boston. 166 Devonshire St.
REFERS TO 20 YEARS WORK IN NEWTON.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY

WHITE'S NEWTON CARPET CLEANING CO. Y.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters; 8 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Matings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. New Carpets made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE,
P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7.
(Factory and Residence, Clinton Street)

Real Estate and Insurance.

ESTABLISHED 1850. TELEPHONE 2

HYDE'S
Real Estate Agency
31 MILK ST., ROOM 205,
BOSTON, MASS.

Auctioneer, Mortgages Negotiated.

Newton Office:
JOHN A. EVANS, Agent, 67 Elmwood Street,
Newton Property a Specialty.

N. Highlands Office:
Newhall's Block, - Lincoln Street
Newton Highlands Property a Specialty.

ELLIOTT J. HYDE.

Established 1857.

F. G. BARNES & SON
Real Estate, Mortgage and Insurance
BROKERS.

Auctioneers for Real and Personal Property,
FOR SALE AND FOR RENT
A large line of desirable property throughout Newton and vicinity.

Offices: 27 State St., Boston; Brackett's Bldg.,
NEWTON.

WILEY S. & FRANK EDMANDS

178 Devonshire St., Boston.

Insurance Agents and Brokers.

MORTGAGES WANTED.

Newton Real Estate a Specialty.

Houses For Sale, $3000 and upwards. To Let,
$25 to $100. Furnished, $35 to $250.
Choice Building Lots, 10 cents to 50 cents.

For Buying and Selling

Real Estate
and placing of

Mortgages

and - - -

Fire Insurance

in every part of NEWTON apply to

Bowker & Wills,

113 Devonshire St., Boston.

Members of Real Estate Exchange.

Telephone No. 325.

ALVORD BROS & CO.

113 Devonshire Street, Boston

NEWTON REAL ESTATE, MORTGAGES AND INSURANCE.

Artistic houses, every modern device for comfort and luxury, generous lots, aristocratic neighborhood, near station, from $5000 up. Extraordinary value for the money.

Building lots near new Boulevard and in 11 other localities at lowest price.

Desirable houses to rent.

CIRCUIT PROPERTY A SPECIALTY.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,

Real Estate In All Parts of City.

Mortgages, Insurance,

Notary Public.

75 Exchange Building, Brackett's Block, 53 State Street, Boston, 407 Centre St., Newton.

Newton Land Improvement.

A. S. N. ESTES,

Landscaping Engineer

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

285 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable toEDWARD D. BALDWIN,
Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

CHOOSE THE BEST.

The mayoralty contest has some unusual features, this year, as neither of the candidates is connected with the city government, and nothing can be said against the record or standing of either of them. Many citizens have been in doubt as to which candidate to favor, and have only been able to decide after a thorough consideration of the situation.

The city is right in the midst of the most important enterprise it has ever undertaken, that of widening Washington street, and the abolition of grade crossings, and the coming year the Mayor will have opposed to him the sharpest men in the Boston & Albany corporation, and the interests of the city will suffer if the Mayor is not fitted by character and previous training to cope with them.

There are a host of details to look after, and the amount of money to be provided for and expended will mount up to an immense sum, so that the city will need an expert financier at the head of affairs.

All have seen the result, the past year, of the Mayor trying to carry on his own business and that of the city, in the breaking down of Mayor Bothfield, and until these improvements are completed the Mayor ought to be a man who can give his whole time to the city.

All these furnish unanswerable arguments why voters should throw aside all prejudices, and consider only the best interests of the city by voting for Mr. Henry E. Cobb.

His whole training has been in the line of the work to be done, he is used to great enterprises, and to coping with the keenest minds in the financial world, and he is known as one of the most successful business men in Boston.

If any business man in Newton had the chance to secure such a man to take charge of his business, he would not hesitate a moment, and there should be no hesitation among the voters who are really interested in the welfare of the city. The best talent to be found is none too good for the present crisis in city affairs, and it would show a sad lack of wisdom not to avail ourselves of the opportunity thus offered.

We might mention the fact that as the centre of activity is to be on the north side of the city, the Mayor ought to live in the midst of it, where he can be on hand at any moment to supervise things, and that as the south side has got their boulevard carried through regardless of expense, they ought to join in and help the north side to secure their contemplated improvement, but this is too evident to need comment, and as the south side has as much interest as the rest of the city in this great improvement, they can not fail to see the wisdom of securing the most experienced and capable manager of city affairs.

Every voter should consider the question in all its bearings, and make it a patriotic duty to so mark his ballot that the interests of the city will be most carefully and ably managed, and if he does this he will be sure to vote for Mr. Henry E. Cobb.

ELECTRICITY ON THE CIRCUIT.

The meeting at Newton Centre, last week, in favor of having the Boston & Albany adopt electricity as the motive power for circuit trains, was a very successful demonstration, and showed that the sentiment of Newton is in favor of the change. The prominence of the different speakers, and the advanced ground they took was only what is to be expected of Newton men, who are anxious that the city should be in the van of progress.

There is no doubt as to the feasibility of electric motors, and ex-Mayor Hyde well expressed the needs of Newton, in the way of better railway facilities. With electric motors, half hour trains could be run in the middle of the day, instead of hourly as at present, and this would be a convenience that would be appreciated. Now if one loses a train, he is obliged to wait an hour for another. In the early morning and late afternoon, the trains run frequently enough, but in the middle of the day, and after 7 o'clock in the evening, the infrequency of the trains make it a serious inconvenience to live in Newton.

We may be better off in this respect than other suburbs, but Newton is growing so rapidly, and paying such a large part of the revenues of the Boston & Albany, that the best service that could be given would be none too good.

The railroad directors should not sit quietly by and see other roads adopting improvements, and making efforts to keep up with the times, while they follow old-fashioned methods, and take no step forward that they are not absolutely forced to take. Newton is their best customer, and by some reasonable attention to its needs, in the way of improved facilities for travel, they would be able to retain their hold on public travel, and need not fear the competition of the electric street railways.

As it is now, if the Oak Square cars ran through to Newton and the Chestnut Hill cars to Newton Centre, they would gather in a large portion of the travel, as the street cars run every ten minutes, and every traveller had rather take them, even if they make less rapid time, than to wait around some station for the infrequent trains.

The electric trains on the Nantasket branch of the Old Colony, the past summer, were such a success, that objection can not be raised, and there would seem to be no good reason why electricity should not be adopted now, instead of waiting several years and then adopting it. It is an improvement that has got to come.

THE ALDERMANIC TICKET.

There are only three contests for aldermen, two of them over the present incumbents, and there would seem to be no good reason why they should not both be re-elected. It is a poor time now to make any unnecessary changes in the board, right in the midst of so many important enterprises, when new men would be at a great disadvantage, as it would take them most of their first year to find out what had been done.

In Ward Two, Alderman Greene has well earned a re-election by his excellent record the past year, and in any other ward than Ward Two he would have had no opposition for a second term. He has been one of the best men in the board, reliable, courageous and capable, watchful of the interests of the city, and not to be frightened out of a course he had decided was best. He was one of the men who knew "where he was at," and not afraid of letting every one else know it, and that is saying a good deal.

The contest in Ward Three is rather peculiar as both Mr. Allen and Mr. Whitmore are good men. It has been urged against Mr. Allen that he pays no taxes, on account of the law freeing school property, but this is not the case as he pays over $500 to the city, only a small proportion of the men in the city paying as much, so that he has a special interest in having the city well governed. Mr. Whitmore has a high reputation as a business man, and in any event Ward Three will be well represented.

In Ward Four, Alderman Plummer is opposed by Mr. Albert F. Noyes, formerly City Engineer. Alderman Plummer holds many important positions, and is familiar with the work already done. On the committee on the settlement of the claims on Washington street, for instance, he knows all the details of what has been done, and it does not seem wise to make a change half way in crossing this stream. On several other committees the same state of affairs exists, he is familiar with the situation, and any change would not be for the benefit of the city. His opponent, Mr. Noyes, is on so many state commissions, that it would seem that his duties on those might conflict with his duties to the city. Besides, in the midst of all his other duties, it is difficult to see how he could find time to attend to the arduous duties of an alderman, especially in the coming year. It would seem to be the wisest plan to re-elect Alderman Plummer.

It is of quite as much importance that the best aldermen possible should be chosen, as to get the best man for mayor, as the latter ought to be well supported.

THE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING.

The report of Frederic Tudor, the sanitary engineer who investigated the condition of the High school building, at the request of the board of health, the latter body being incited to action by the petition of some 125 West Newton citizens, is an interesting but not specially important document. Every one knew that the old part of the High school building could not be in a perfect condition, and for that reason the completion of the plans for a new building has been demanded. It is gratifying to learn that the new part stood the tests perfectly, and the report only makes more important the need of going on with the erection of an entire new building. It will not be worth while to go to any great expense in repairs on the old building, although it should certainly be made safe, sanitarially, for the school children.

Good ventilation is imperative, and so is safety from sewer gas, but the air can be frequently changed during the day by means of the windows, and the escape of sewer gas from the plumbing should be remedied. Careful attention to these things would allow of the building being used until the new part is ready.

The question has been asked why the plans that were adopted and paid for when the new part was planned, should not be followed now, in building whatever additions are to be made. These plans were endorsed at the time, and the part that was built seems to answer every purpose, and many citizens can see no reason for not going on with the old plans. Possibly some architect might lose a fee, but otherwise there seems to be no objection, and the old plans provided for a spacious and handsome building, and any change now would mar the symmetry of the whole, and would not serve any very useful purpose.

The supporters of ex-Alderman Roffe for Mayor seem to be conducting a still hunt, as no open evidence of their work has been perceived. They make rather extravagant claims, in their talk, of carrying Wards Three, Five and Six, and have hopes of Wards Two and Four. In other years, when the Citizens' party was united on a candidate, and had an enthusiastic following, they have been able to carry the city by from 25 to 200 majority. This year the Citizens are divided, the leaders of other years are most of them working for Mr. Cobb, both of the newspapers are in favor of the Republican candidate, and it is difficult to see where Mr. Roffe's strength is to come from. The claim that he is to carry the Republican stronghold of Ward Six, even though he is popular there, is almost incredible, to say the least. The majority of the voters there hold it to be a religious duty to vote for the regular Republican candidate, in any election, and they would feel as though the foundation of things had given way, if the ward was to give a majority against any Republican candidate. Mr. Roffe would seem to have more chance of carrying every other ward in the city, then he has of carrying Ward Six. Mr. Cobb is certain to be elected, if the voters turn out, and everybody might as well join in the procession. He is the man needed for the present crisis, and the voters of Newton are too intelligent not to avail themselves of the opportunity to get the best man possible to take charge of city affairs.

The contest that has arisen over the mayoralty will only serve to bring out the voters and arouse a deeper interest in municipal affairs. Contests are a healthy sign, and it is not a good thing for a city to be too unanimous, as then the voters are apt to lose their interest. The appearance of a second candidate has aroused the voters, and it looks as though a very large vote would be polled. It is the duty of every citizen to vote, and to thus do their part towards electing the best men to the city offices.

The contests over the common council are largely local ones, of not very great general importance. The lower branch is regarded as largely a fifth wheel in our city council, whether wrongly or not, but as it is a training ground for the higher branch, the character of the men chosen is of considerable importance.

ALL the Citizens' candidates had to be put in by means of nomination papers, according to the state law, which will account for the affix to their names.

Silent but Certain
There is no discomfort, no disturbance of business or pleasure, no loss of sleep, after taking Hood's Pills. They assist digestion, so that natural, healthy habit is brought about. Hood's Pills are silent but nevertheless certain in their effect. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. 25c. Sold by all druggists.

.. SALE ..

AT GHANNING CHURCH PARLORS,
Thursday Afternoon

AND Evening, December 5.
Admission, 15 Cents.

An attractive feature will be the Doll Show.

Wedding Decorations,
ARTISTIC DESIGNS
Cut Flowers and Plants.
E. T. MOREY,
Washington and Tremont Sts., near Newton Line.

MARRIED.

HURLEY-DUNPHY—At Newton Centre, Nov. 24, Daniel W. Hurley and Bridget Dunphy.

DIED.

FAGAN—At Newton, Nov. 25, James Fagan, 59 years.
JAMESON—At Newton Centre, Nov. 24, Samuel S. Jameson, 54 years.
EGGLESTONE—At Newton, Nov. 25, Thomas Egglestone, 70 days.
FURY—At Newton Hospital, Nov. 25, Mary Fury, 70 years.
THORP—At West Newton, Nov. 22, Elliott G. Thorp, 46 years.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Cards from the Laboring Men.

At the hearing held before the city government of the city of Newton, Nov. 18th last, looking for an increase of pay, we, the interested party, repudiate all that Mr. Mead said concerning the superintendent of streets, Mr. Ross, the aforesaid Mr. Mead being a disinterested party, and therefore had no right to speak for the men in the employ of the city of Newton.

PER CITIZENS OF COMMITTEE.

We would like to express our gratitude by thanking all those gentlemen of the city of Newton for giving us their name or kind word in our behalf, and most especially to Mr. J. Wesley Kimball and Mr. J. B. Goodrich, for their most able and eloquent kindness in support of our petition.

Respectfully the laboring employees of City of Newton,
PER CITIZENS OF COMMITTEE.

Chandler & Co.

We have now open a large and varied assortment of

LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S Fall and Winter
GARMENTS

at prices that we feel confident will meet with the approval of our customers.

Also a complete line of our own special COATS, which we designate as the

CHANDLER COAT,

they being made to order for us from selected materials, lined throughout, and unexcelled in style, workmanship and fit.

Prices $16, $18 and $22.

(All sizes from 34 to 44.)

Chandler & Co.,

WINTER STREET, BOSTON.

STOVES

and every variety of

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

BENT'S FURNITURE ROOMS,

64 Main St., Watertown.

NOTICE.

Depositors in the West Newton Savings Bank are requested to bring in their books for comparison and examination during the first two weeks of December, in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth.

JAMES H. NICKERSON,
Treasurer.

HOWARD B. COFFIN,

DEALER IN

Fine Teas, Best Coffees.

AND NEWTON AGENT FOR

Deerfoot Farm Products.
363, 351 CENTRE ST. 4, 6 HALL ST
Cole's Block, Newton.

Madame Kennedy,

THE Wonderful Healer,

Heals the sick by the laying on of the hands. Cures all Chronic Diseases of the Body, as Heart Disease, Indigestion, Kidney Disease, Tumors, and Cancers in the first stages. Neuralgia and Rheumatism, Female Diseases, Dropsy and Craving of Strong Drink, without the use of Medicine, has taken rooms at

NO. 16 BALDWIN ST., NEWTON.
Consultation Free.

Hours: From 1 to 4 P. M.

FRED A. HUBBARD,

Pharmacist

P. O. Block, NEWTON.

SUNDAY CLOSING HOURS:

From 10.30 A. M. to 12 M.: 2 P. M. to 4 P. M.

CHAMBER SETTS
In Maple, Curly Birch and Antique.

	FORMER PRICE	REDUCED PRICE
Lot No. 1	$20.00	$16.50
Lot No. 2	21.00	17.00
Lot No. 3	26.50	21.50
Lot No. 4	26.50	21.50
Lot No. 5	28.00	22.50
Lot No. 6	30.00	23.50
Lot No. 7	37.00	28.00
Lot No. 8	40.00	35.00
Lot No. 9	40.00	33.50
Lot No. 10	40.00	33.50

More Room.

Having found it absolutely necessary to have more room to conduct our business, we have taken the 5-

CEO. P. STAPLES & CO.,
Carpets and Furniture.

KEEP OUT THE COLD

Outside or Storm Windows.

E. W. BAILEY & CO., 22 and 24 Kneeland St., Boston, Mass.

DEALERS IN DOORS, WINDOWS AND BLINDS.

SEND FOR PRICES.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

Real Estate, Mortgages, Insurance
Special Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.
Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.

—OFFICES—
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington St., Boston.

Brackett's Market Company.

Established 1851. Incorporated 1892.

Telephone No. 10-3.

Commencing Oct. 1st we will sell

Sirloin Roasts at 25 cts. per lb.
"Steak at 25"
Rump "at 25"

LARGE STOCK TO SELECT FROM.
7 and 8 Cole's Block,
WASHINGTON near CENTRE ST., NEWTON.

An Attractive display of Fruits & Vegetables

AT

Stalls 108-110.

Faneuil Hall Market,
Boston.

Boston Market Celery, Hot House
Tomatoes, Hot House Cucum-
bers, Malaga Grapes, Florida
Oranges, Jamaica
Grape Fruit,
All the delicacies of the season.

E. H. Kingman & Co.,

Telephone, Haymarket 677.

BICYCLES!
FOR LIGHTNESS
AND STRENGTH

None can excel the

NEW MAIL

We shall soon have samples and will take pleasure in showing them. Look here before purchasing a wheel.

BARBER BROS.,

Agents for Newton and Watertown

SAFE EFFECTUAL NO NARCOTICS TRY IT 25 & 50c ALL DRUGGISTS

DR. LAVIOLETTE'S SYRUP OF TURPENTINE

FOR COUGHS & COLDS CURES

Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma

story building directly in the rear, on Dix place, thus giving us ONE-THIRD more additional floor room. The acquiring of this building, which will be connected with our present quarters, necessitates the complete rearranging of our entire stock of Furniture and Carpets. To make a long story short, we must either move many heavy pieces of Furniture to a store house during the process of enlargement OR SELL. As it costs us no more to move the same to purchasers' residences, we prefer

TO SELL.

739 Washington St., Boston.

Carpets and Furniture.

—USE—

—FOR SALE BY—

DEALERS IN

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale

Special Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.

Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.

Established 1851. Incorporated 1892.
Telephone No. 10-3.

Commencing Oct. 1st we will sell

Sirloin Roasts at 25 cts. per lb.
"Steak at 25"
Rump "at 25"

LARGE STOCK TO SELECT FROM.
7 and 8 Cole's Block,
WASHINGTON near CENTRE ST., NEWTON.

An Attractive display of Fruits & Vegetables
AT
Stalls 108-110.
Faneuil Hall Market,
Boston.

Boston Market Celery, Hot House
Tomatoes, Hot House Cucum-
bers, Malaga Grapes, Florida
Oranges, Jamaica
Grape Fruit,
All the delicacies of the season.

E. H. Kingman & Co.,
Telephone, Haymarket 677.

BICYCLES!
FOR LIGHTNESS
AND STRENGTH

None can excel the
NEW MAIL

We shall soon have samples and will take pleasure in showing them. Look here before purchasing a wheel.

BARBER BROS.,
Agents for Newton and Watertown

SAFE EFFECTUAL NO NARCOTICS TRY IT 25 & 50c ALL DRUGGISTS

DR. LAVIOLETTE'S SYRUP OF TURPENTINE

FOR COUGHS & COLDS CURES

Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma

Heals the sick by the laying on of the hands. Cures all Chronic Diseases of the Body, as Heart Disease, Indigestion, Kidney Disease, Tumors, and Cancers in the first stages. Neuralgia and Rheumatism, Female Diseases, Dropsy and Craving of Strong Drink, without the use of Medicine, has taken rooms at

NO. 16 BALDWIN ST., NEWTON.
Consultation Free.

Hours: From 1 to 4 P. M.

FRED A. HUBBARD,
Pharmacist

P. O. Block, NEWTON.

SUNDAY CLOSING HOURS:

From 10.30 A. M. to 12 M.: 2 P. M. to 4 P. M.

Shirts

MADE TO ORDER.

A Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Best Material. Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2.00. Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience. Repairing is done neatly and promptly. New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands, 15c.; Cuffs, 25c.; Collars, 25c.; Centre Plates, 25c.

Badly fitting Shirt made to fit well.

E. B. BLACKWELL,
43 Thornton St. Newton, Mass.

NEWTON.

—Pianos, Farley, 433 Washington St., N.
 —Ex-Mayor Burr and family left last week for a European tour.
 —Miss Jellison has moved into the Davis house on Washington street.
 —George B. Blake has leased the Hano cottage, 108 Newtonville avenue.
 —J. S. Young, custom tailor, keeps dress suits to let, at 294 Centre street.
 —Mr. O. N. Howland has removed to Wellesley and offers his house on Waverley avenue for sale or to let.
 —C. D. Kenner and Wellington Howes have been appointed business managers of the Y. M. C. A. Field.
 —Miss Bertha Hamblin of Barber Bros. spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Portland, Me.
 —Mr. H. H. Amherst College is home on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hood of Centre street.
 —Dr. Howard is forming several basketball teams who will practice in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.
 —Sunday afternoon the regular communion service will be held at the Baptist church.
 —Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Harrington and daughter have been spending part of the week at Weymouth.
 —Rev. John H. Dick, the evangelist, will make an address at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, Sunday, Dec. 1st.
 —Next Sunday at Eliot church Rev. D. W. Waldron will present the City Mission Cause.
 —The Friday evening prayer meeting at Eliot church will be led by Rev. S. L. B. Spence.
 —Tuesday afternoon was held the regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Foreign Missionary Society of Eliot church.
 —There will be a Doll Show and a sale at Channing church, Thurs. next Sunday afternoon and evening.
 —Mr. S. A. D. Sheppard and family of Pembroke street spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Maine.
 —Yesterday morning the Grace church choir foot ball club played the Watertown team at Watertown.
 —A number of Co. C. members took part in the shoot yesterday at the rifle range at Riverside, and some very fine scoring was done.
 —The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will be held next week Wednesday, having been postponed from this week.
 —On Thanksgiving eve the illustrated lecture on New Mexico, its climate, scenery, etc., was given in Eliot Hall by Dr. Gentry.
 —The electric light wires on Church street in several places need attending to, as they are hanging so low as to be nearly in reach.
 —Sunday afternoon an interesting chalk talk was given in the Y. M. C. A. rooms by the general secretary, who took as his topic "Going to Tarshish."
 —Usual services at the Methodist church next Sunday. Preaching both morning and evening by the pastor, Holy Communion at close of morning service.
 —Mr. Chas. S. Sumner attended the Stanley show of bicycles in London last week in the interests of the Pope Mfg. Co., the makers of the famous Columbias.
 —Bradshaw's sweet home candy store will be open for business Dec. 9, at its new location, corner of Washington street and Washington terrace, Newtonville.
 —If you want a good umbrella for a little money call at Theo. L. Mason's jewelry store, 330 Centre street, Eliot block, and get one for $1.00 and upwards.
 —It is said that Hubbard's display of flowers, in his window, made of crepe paper is equal to any yet shown in Boston. Do not fail to see them.
 —Rev. Mr. Barton, a former resident of Wesley street, is president of the Harwood College, which has recently been destroyed by the Turks.
 —Arthur H. Bailey of Boyd street was at "The Ardmore," Washington, early in the week, on a business trip, but returned home for Thanksgiving.
 —Mayor Bothfeld is improving, his friends will be glad to learn, and was able to walk down town on Tuesday. He hopes soon to be able to attend to business.
 —The Garden City Wheelmen go to Chelsea this evening to play whist and pool, these being the first games in the Consolidated Cycle League by the Garden City boys.
 —The Garden City Wheelmen played a road match game with the Maverick Wheelmen of South Boston last Tuesday evening at the Boylston alleys, defeating them by a score of 21-0 to 21-3.
 —Next Sunday evening at 7.30 Rev. Francis E. Hornbrook will begin a course of lectures in the chapel of Channing church, on Great Religious Leaders and Characters. The first lecture will be on Confucius. All are welcome.
 —Theo. L. Mason, 330 Centre street, Eliot block, has taken the agency for the Eastman Kodak Company and has a stock of their pocket cameras. Just the thing for a Christmas present. Call and see them.
 —Rev. Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Shinn have issued cards for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Josephine, to Mr. George Canning Stevens, at Grace church, Wednesday evening, Dec. 11, at 8 o'clock. They will reside at Summit, N. J.
 —Last Wednesday evening the Y. M. C. A. congress resumed their discussion on the A. P. A. question. The principal debaters were Representatives Bentley of Maryland, Williams of Vermont, Safford of New Hampshire and Lowe of Delaware.
 —Special course of Advent sermons Sunday nights at Grace church: Dec. 1, "If Christ should come into our homes?" Dec. 8, "Into our politics?" Dec. 15, "Into our business?" Dec. 22, "Into our amusements?"
 —James Fagen, one of the oldest citizens of Newton, and twenty years a resident of Adams street, died last Monday after a short illness. He was buried Wednesday morning from the Church of Our Lady, the interment being at the Mt. Calvary cemetery.
 —At the meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Immanuel Baptist church last Wednesday evening the following officers were chosen: Pres., Harwood Sheppard, 1st. Vice-Pres., Edward Porter, and Vice-Pres., Edwin Barker; Recording Secretary, Malcolm Ivy; Corresponding Secretary, David Nogen; Member, Secretary, Gilbert Townsend.
 —A large parcel of land lying between Washington and Faneuil streets, close to Oak Square, Brighton, has been sold by H. B. Goodenough to John J. Hardy, who in turn conveys to Luther M. Merrill. It is divided into 29 lots, situated on the streets named, and Cephas and Brackett streets, two new streets running from one to the other. The land at one time belonged to Cephas Brackett.
 —The first meeting of the Newton Ministers' Union will be held Dec. 3rd at the Central Congregational church of Newtonville at 8 p. m. The general topic, "The Lord's Day," will be the subject and spoken on as follows: "The Authority for It," by Rev. E. H. Byington, D. D.; "How It is to be Kept," by Rev. E. H. Hughes; "The Desecration of the Day," by Rev.

NEWTONVILLE.

—Edward Halloran has recently taken one of Mrs. C. J. Barker's houses on Washington street.
 —Last Friday evening a social and dance was enjoyed at the Unitarian church under the direction of Miss Mary Elder.
 —Among those from Newton to attend the dedication of the St. Anthony's Catholic church of Allston, last Sunday, was Rev. L. J. O'Toole of St. Bernard's church.
 —The Ladies' Home Circle will hold a fair at the Unitarian church parlors Wednesday, Dec. 4. Supper will be served during the evening.
 —Bradshaw's sweet home candy store will be open for business Dec. 9, at the new location, corner of Washington street and Washington terrace, Newtonville.
 —The engagement is announced of Miss Ella Winnifred Nickerson, daughter of Mr. Theodore Nickerson, of this village, and Mr. Fred Pratt of Newton Centre.
 —The regular monthly business meeting of the Newton Veterans Firemen's Association will be held next Wednesday evening in the engine rooms on Watertown street.
 —Miss Marjorie King is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. King, of Temple street. Miss King is one of the fair students at Smith's College, Northampton, and is home for the holidays.
 —This evening in the Unitarian church parlors a social for the children will be given, when games, etc., followed by a collation will be enjoyed. In the evening a dance will be given for the benefit of the older ones.
 —N. S. Waters of Webster street is away from town on a business trip to Canada. He is travelling in the interests of the firm of Lord & Webster, grain merchants, of Boston.
 —John Exley, captain of the Newton Veterans Firemen's Association, who has lately been confined to the home of his brother at Marlboro by illness, has recovered so far as to be able to be out once more.
 —Next Thursday evening Mrs. George A. Walton will entertain the West Newton Book Club at her home on Chestnut street.
 —It is expected that Mr. Edward Drew will give an address on the "Influence of Christianity in China."
 —Last Friday afternoon before the West Newton Ladies' Educational Club in the Unitarian church parlors, Miss Mariana C. Porter gave an interesting paper on Browning. Music was also enjoyed under the direction of Mrs. Marion Stinson, assisted by Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Jones.
 —The car at the end of the Lower Falls Street Railway, that at last has been changed from an open one to a closed one, greatly to the satisfaction of the patrons of the road who are not fond of waiting in an open car while the temperature is around thirty degrees or less.
 —A coming out reception will be given Miss Grace Felton of Chestnut street, Dec. 5, at the Newton Club. Ushers for the affair have already been selected as follows: Herbert L. Felton, Walter Felton, Porter and J. B. Chase, Jr. Mr. Felton's dancing will be enjoyed from 8 to 12.
 —Monday evening about 10 o'clock Chemical A was called out by a still alarm for a slight blaze in one of Josiah E. Bacon's houses on Washington street. The fire was soon extinguished with but slight damage to the property. Tramps are supposed to have been the cause of the trouble.
 —At the next meeting of the Ladies Foreign Missionary Society of the West Newton Congregational church, Monday, Dec. 2, 2.30 p. m., Miss Louise Manning Hodgkins will give a talk on the subject, "The Field is the World." All the young women are especially and most cordially invited.
 —Monday evening the parlors of the Unitarian church were well filled by society people from all parts of Newton to listen to the readings, dramatic and otherwise by Mrs. Waldo Richards. Mrs. Richards has a world wide reputation as a reader and her readings of Monday evening were listened to with the greatest enthusiasm.
 —The St. Bernard's Aid Society wishes to extend its thanks to its many friends for their past favors; and would say at the same time that any contributions of clothing or other articles, useful during the winter, would be gratefully received. Then, too, some friends might be willing to contribute the small sum of ten cents per month to encourage the good work. This society has for its object the alleviation of the poverty of all need persons, disregarding creed or color. Surely, this is a worthy charity; and one that should meet the approval of the whole community. Donations will be thankfully received by the following named persons: Mrs. John Quitty, West Pine street, Auburndale; Mrs. H. J. O'Neill, Henshaw street, West Newton; Mrs. W. H. Mague, Chestnut street, West Newton.
 —Thanksgiving day, about seventy members of the Jensen family held a reunion at "The Caroline" on Washington street. This family is one of the oldest in Newton, having descended from Elias Jensen who was born in Newton in 1708. He married Elizabeth Lawrence of Weston. There were ten children born to them, eight of whom married and settled in Newton with the exception of the oldest daughter, who settled in Michigan and who came on with her daughter to be present at the reunion. Six of the children are now living: Mrs. Elizabeth J. Currey of Bay City, Mich.; Mrs. Sarah J. Sawyer of Readville, Mass.; Mrs. Caroline J. Barker, Mrs. Lucy T. Sumner, Mrs. Edward B. Trowbridge, and Mr. F. E. Jensen of West Newton. They were all present with their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Dinner was served by Caterer Dill of Waltham. Entertainment was furnished in the shape of music and games, after which the family were photographed.
 —Notice is hereby given that the Commonwealth Avenue Street Railway Company, has applied for leave to extend its route on Centre street, Newton Centre, from the point where its existing location now crosses said Centre street, to Beacon Street, as shown upon plans filed with petition, and for leave to establish and maintain the overhead single trolley electric system of motive power in the operation of its cars on said new track, and to erect, lay, maintain and use the poles, wires, appliances and apparatus, and to make necessary underground and surface alterations for this purpose, and that a Hearing upon said application will be given by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen at City Hall, on Monday, December 16th, 1895, at 8 o'clock P. M. By order of the Board, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

SPRINGER BROTHERS.

Grand Mark Down
 Ladies' Coats, Jackets, Capes, Furs.

Nearly every garment in our stock except those manufactured within the last ten days MARKED DOWN.

SPRINGER BROTHERS,

500 Washington St.,

Headquarters for Fashionable Cloaks.

Don't Miss This Chance

To hear the course of

Lectures and Entertainments,

In Nonantum Hall,

Wednesday Evenings, Dec. 4 and 18, Jan.

15 and 29, Feb. 12 and 26, Mar. 11 and 25.

Under the Auspices of the Newton Y. M. C. A.

This Course will consist of Lectures on Travel and Engineering, by the following well known Authorities and Lecturers: Rev. Dillia Bronson, Dr. Waugh, Prof. G. W. Bidger, Rev. Spence, and Musical, Literary, Humorous and Dramatic Entertainments by recognized entertainers of great merit.

The Course Opens Dec. 4th, with Wellington Putnam, Reader and Impersonator in one of his inimitable entertainments.

Doors open at 7.30 P. M. Commences at 8 P. M.

A Course Ticket for the Eight Evenings, $1.00,
 Single Admission, 25 Cents.

Children under 15 years of age, Course Ticket,
 50 Cents.

Single Admission, 15 Cents.

Tickets for sale at Druggists and members of the Ass'n.

EVERY ONE CAN AFFORD THAT.

MINER ROBINSON
 ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

12 Pearl St., Room 37, Boston. Order Office, 421 Centre St., Newton.

The fitting of private residences for the Electric Light is a specialty. High grade electrical work of every description.

Boston, 3311. — TELEPHONES — W. Newton, *234.
 NEWTON *255-2.

WALTER C. BROOK & Co.

... Importing ...
 Tailors ...

15 MILK ST., BOSTON.

BIRTHPLACE OF FRANKLIN
 OPP. OLD SOUTH CHURCH.

Goods Delivered Free in the Newtons.

HURCHILL AND BEAN
 Tailors
 503 Washington Street,
 BOSTON.
 FINE DRESS SUITS A SPECIALTY.

F. W. WEBBER, M. D.,

Physician and Surgeon.

Cor. Centre and Vernon Sts. Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 7 P. M. Telephone No. 38-4.

Clara D. Whitman Reed, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon.

137 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton.

Hours—Until 9 P. M. 1 to 3 and 7 P. M. Telephone 36-3.

Broiled Live Lobster

AND

English Mutton Chops

Are Specialties at the

Crawford House, Boston.

Oysters in every style. Ladies Cafe, 17 Brattle Street.

Miss Jennie F. O'Donnell,

Formerly with Madame May,

Specialist in Manicuring, Chiropody, Hair Dressing and Facial Treatment. Corns and Bunions removed without pain, for ladies and gentlemen.

Telephone 281, Newton.

PROF. BACHMONT, Ph. D.,

Of the University of Paris,

Is now forming classes in French in Newton. Good method, a psychological system enabling students to speak fluently in the shortest time. Trial lesson free. Address, 62 Boylston Street, Boston.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gowdy Baker.

Water Colors.

Classes for Children and older People

Studio Opp Public Library.

Jones, McDuffee & Stratton's

RECENT IMPORTATIONS.

Dinner Sets, Glass Sets, Dessert Sets,

Vases, Tea Sets, Sorbet Cups,

Toilet Sets, Breakfast Sets, Fish Sets,

Umbrella Holders, Oyster Plates, Chocolate Pots,

Southern Plates, Fine Lamps, Game Sets,

Game Sets, Palm Pots, Hook Glasses, Loving Cups, Camp-wood Chests, Rich Pitchers, Cloisonne Pieces, Cut-glass Pieces, Punch Bowls, Bear Metal, Fish Trays, Deer Liqueur Sets, Baking Dish Covers, Tantalus Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

China Photograph Frames, Amplifiers from

NEWTONVILLE.

—Pianos rented and tuned, Farley, Newton.

—J. B. Cornish of Walker street has removed to Somerville.

—Mrs. C. W. Hamilton and children have returned from a short trip.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Binney will pass the holidays in New York.

—Mrs. W. H. Sylvester of Brooks avenue is seriously ill.

—Miss Alice M. Nelson has returned home from her tour in Europe.

—Mrs. G. H. Talbot of Walnut street has returned home from New York.

—Mr. Frank Javal is building quite an addition to his house on Crafts street.

—Owing to increase of business, Mr. G. E. Thompson has purchased another horse.

—Miss Annie Thomas of Walnut street left Tuesday on a week's visit to Mt. Hope, Mass.

—Mr. C. E. Roberts and family are in Hartford, where they will pass the Thanksgiving holidays.

—Dr. Hunt has leased his house on Spruce street to Conductor Burns of the Newton & Boston Street railway.

—Mrs. Frank Fellows, who was the guest of Mrs. A. Fred Brown, returned home, this week.

—The new school house on Watertown street will probably be ready for occupancy by the middle of the present school year.

—Mr. C. F. Wright, once a business man of this place, now of Westboro, was in town Saturday, visiting friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Chapman of Highland avenue are entertaining friends from New York.

—Mrs. E. H. Pierce and daughter are expected home from New York, where they have passed several pleasant weeks.

—Mr. Henry G. Peabody of Boston gives the second in his series of lectures at the Congregational church next Sunday evening.

—Miss F. N. Folk, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Folk of Austin street, has returned to her home in Brooklyn, New York.

—Augustus Patterson on his way from New York to his home in No. Edgecombe, Me., made a few days visit to his brother, Mr. A. Patterson, Jr., the grocer.

—Mrs. B. R. Brown with her son Benjamin of Wisconsin, Me., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. Patterson, Jr., Cabot street.

—The regular meeting of the Knights of Pythias will be held next Monday evening. The second and third ranks will be worked on two candidates.

—The poles are all in place on the Commonwealth avenue boulevard for the street railway trolley, and it is reported that the road will soon be open for travel.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Heath of Highland avenue are entertaining Miss Helen Bailey of Chicago, Miss Foss of Bangor and Miss Cheney of New York during the Thanksgiving holidays.

—"Remembered Places in and about Jerusalem" will be the subject of the lecture to be given by Rev. J. E. Smith of Roxbury to the New church parlors next Sunday evening.

—The secretary of the Associated Charities will be away next week on a vacation. The office will be open from 9 to 10 each morning, and some member of the society will be in attendance.

—The water, gas, sewer and drain pipes are being placed in the new parts of Washington street and it is hoped that the public will not be inconvenienced in the future by the digging up of those portions of the thoroughfare.

—The stores in the Newton Associates block, corner of Austin and Walnut streets, are being finished in white and yellow pine, and the work is rapidly approaching completion. The second story will be fitted for offices and work rooms.

—Mr. Ida Council, No. 1247, held their regular meeting last Monday evening. A special visitation was made by the Grand Regent and Grand Vice Regent with delegation from the councils in this jurisdiction.

—The first subscription party of the season was given by the Newtonville Cycle Club in Tremont Hall, Wednesday evening. About thirty couples were present. The hall was attractively draped in bunting and hung with Chinese lanterns. The music was furnished by Cole's orchestra.

—At the bazaar of the seasons to be held at the Methodist church next week, Dec. 31, 4th, and 5th, the white apron table will be one of the most attractive and unique. Aprons will be displayed, which have been sent from every State and Territory in the Union, including Canada, and some even from parts of Europe.

—A meeting of gentlemen interested in the sanitary condition of the present high school building in this place, met informally at the residence of James Richards Carter, Mr. Vernon street, Tuesday evening. The old part of the building is in bad condition, and it is expected that a new $125,000 building will be erected next year. The subject was fully discussed last evening, although no action was taken.

—Dr. F. E. Parker has sold his property corner of Newtonville avenue and Walnut street to the Masonic order of this city. It is proposed to build a Masonic Temple on this site, which will be one of the finest buildings in the city. The house which was recently moved from the corner will be sold and removed without delay as it is intended to begin work on the new structure as quickly as possible.

—The tenth annual grand band concert of the Boston Ideal Band, Mungoli, and guitar club will be given in Tremont Hall, Boston, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 31. A program of special excellence will be presented, including Mr. G. L. Lansing's Banjo Orchestra, also Mr. L. Lansing, banjo soloist. The Super Band, Banjo and Guitar Club, organized by Seignor F. Argueso will make their first appearance. Seignor M. Hernandez, the greatest living exponent of the Bandurria will also render solos. The Ariel Ladies Quartet and Mr. Dudley Prescott the "human brass band" are also attractions of the evening.

—At a special meeting of Newton's three Masonic bodies, Newton Royal Arch Chapter, Gettemandere Commandery, K. T., and Dalhousie Lodge, F. and A. M., in Masonic hall, this place, Tuesday evening, the erection of a new Masonic building was considered. The action of the committee in purchasing a lot containing 13,500 square feet at the corner of Walnut street and Newtonville avenue was confirmed, and the final papers were passed. The lease of the present quarters expires in 1896. Plans for a three-story brick building to contain stores, halls and offices were considered. The matter of erecting a building was left in the hands of a committee of five members of every one of the organizations. The committee has organized by the choice of George P. Whitmore for chairman and C. A. Kellogg as secretary. The committee is expected to report in about a month.

"A word to the wise is sufficient."

I suffered terribly from roaring in my head during an attack of earache, and because very deaf, used Ely's Cream Balm and in three weeks could hear as well as ever. —A. E. Newman, Graling, Mich.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from the nose. Physicians prescribed without benefit. After using Ely's Cream Balm a short time the disease was cured. —O. A. Evers, Corning, N. Y.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

WEST NEWTON.

—Miller pianos, Farley, Newton.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hall have returned from a six months trip in Europe.

—Mr. Frank B. Jenkinson and family of Stoneham were in town yesterday.

—The Misses Bertha and Helen Davis are in New York, where they will pass the holidays.

—Mrs. Ellen Perrin and Miss Ethel Perrin are at Shelbourne Falls, where they will pass the holiday season with relatives.

—A fair will be held in the Unitarian church parlors next Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies Home Circle.

—The Auburndale Review Club met Tuesday morning with Mrs. Talbot of Belair road. Papers were read by Mrs. Dyer and Mrs. Kattelle.

—No services were held in the Baptist or Congregational churches on Thanksgiving day, owing to the smallness of the congregations during the past few years.

—A very pleasing social and entertainment was given in the parlors of the Congregational church, Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E.

—Mrs. Crozier of Washington street received a painful injury last week by falling from a bed the floor, breaking her hip. Monday she was removed to the hospital in the ambulance.

—The Ladies Alliance will hold their regular meeting in the Unitarian church parlors next Thursday morning. The subject for discussion will be "The Norwegian System."

—At the Unitarian church last Sunday morning, $1250 was collected for the hospital. Owing to absence of many members of the society it is expected that about $1500 more will be contributed making the amount the same as last year.

—A young people's sociable was held in the Congregational church parlors, Tuesday evening. A pleasing musical and literary program was presented and the usual good time enjoyed, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather.

—A number of ladies interested in the cause of suffrage attended the meeting of the Massachusetts Women's Suffrage Association in the parlors of the Woman's Journal, Tuesday afternoon. Among those to present addresses was Mrs. Abby M. Ellitt.

—Elliott G. Thorpe, the senior member of the Thorpe & Martin Company, stationer at No. 12 Milk street, Boston, died at his home on Waltham street, Friday evening, at 5.20 o'clock. He had been ill about a year. Mr. Thorpe was an unusually successful business man, and one who won the respect of the entire business fraternity. He was born in South West, N. H., and was a graduate of the Ann Arbor College, with the degree of M. D. Later he conducted a pharmacy in Tilton, N. H., leaving that place to come to Boston about 1875. He was at first associated with Nicholas & Hall, a former Bromfield street firm. He later entered the firm of Winkley, Thorpe & Dresser, which firm subsequently merged into the present Thorpe & Martin company. He was 46 years of age, and had lived in this city since last June. He was a Mason, but not actively connected with any lodge. He was one of the most popular of the young business men of Boston, and was considered to be one of the best in his line. The funeral was held Tuesday and was private. The burial was in Mt. Auburn cemetery.

AUBURNDALE.

—Geo. A. Clark was moved into his new house on Owatonna road.

—F. E. Whiting of Ash street is expected home next Monday from the South.

—Mary Troubles of Vista avenue has returned to her home at Nova Scotia.

—Michael McCarthy, of the Adams Express, will resume work next week.

—Thomas Callahan of Lexington street is confined to the house by illness.

—Frank Otterson of Melrose street is out again after a recent illness.

—Mrs. Frank Gifford of Melrose street is visiting friends in New Hampshire.

—Dustin Smith of Auburn street is out after a several days' illness.

—Mr. A. C. Thorne of Lawrence is the guest this week of his son, W. P. Thorne.

—Dr. Brewster and wife of Windsor, Vt., spent Thursday with relatives in town.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Almy of Portsmouth, N. H., spent Thanksgiving with relatives in town.

—C. W. Knapp, formerly of Central street, has moved into his new house on Maple street.

—Miss Sarah Esterbrook has removed from the old Esterbrook house into her new house on Central street.

—Mr. Birdman of Auburndale avenue, who has been ill for several weeks, is able to again be about.

—Mr. Harry Bruce of Roxbury has been visiting G. Fred Pond of Auburndale avenue this week.

—Mr. Geo. E. Johnson is an enthusiastic admirer of football. Saturday afternoon he attended the Harvard-Princeton game at Cambridge.

—Dr. M. H. Clark has taken the new cottage on the old Rice estate on Grove street.

—Willard Mortgage has gone to Castine, Me., where he spent Thanksgiving with his family.

—Mrs. R. B. Baker has closed her house on Central street and gone to Baltimore.

—Mr. Charles E. Kattelle and family of Grove street, spent Thanksgiving day with relatives at Burlington, Vt.

—The Young Women's Missionary Society of the Congregational church held a very successful cake and candy sale in the chapel, Tuesday afternoon.

—Letters remaining in the post office are as follows: Edward B. Drew, G. L. Freeman, M. L. Munroe, George Sweetser, Mary D. Holt and Fannie Richardson.

—C. A. Miner has purchased the barn formerly on the Johnson estate, and moved it to the rear of his property on Auburndale avenue.

—Master Charles Snow of Auburn street cut arm quite badly last week, while playing by thrusting his hand through a window. The wound was dressed at the hospital.

—During the storm of Monday night one of the electric light wires fell in the street near the bridge, two streets away. On huge piece of rock went through the roof of a house on Woodbine street and many of the other houses were struck by smaller particles.

—Sometime during Monday night at the Woodland station on the B. & A. circuit was entered by burglars, by forcing a window into the ticket office. The safe was opened by working the combination, and after being sifted of its contents was relocked. The police are somewhat at sea as to the perpetrators, but think the work to be either that of some very clever crook or an attaché of the road.

For Nervous Fronties.

Westford, Mass., Nov. 4, 1895. I desire to add a word of praise in regard to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I regard it as the best family medicine. I have used it for nervous troubles, and it has never failed me. I recommend it to any one who is suffering from impure blood. —Mrs. J. A. Wallden.

Hood's Pills cure indigestion, biliousness.

Lasell Notes.

The 2nd-year cooking class was fortunate in having, on Saturday last, Mrs. Lincoln as instructor, in the temporary absence of Miss Barrow. The lesson was on the art of carving, and was among the most valuable and instructive of the course, a bona fide object lesson of the most practical sort.

On Sunday a number of the students went with Mr. Bragdon to hear Prof. Heron preach.

The Monday evening entertainment of the Star Course was of exceeding interest, the attractions being the Beethoven Club and Miss Ida Benney of New York city, the dramatic reader and impersonator. Several from the seminary attended, in company with Mr. Bragdon.

The Lasell Missionary Society was addressed on Sunday afternoon, in the chapel, by Miss Margaret Leitch, nine years a missionary in Ceylon. Miss Leitch gave a graphic description of missionary life in Ceylon, and of the manner of life among the natives. The religious situation in the island was clearly stated and the imperious need of missions dwelt upon. A more interesting, earnest, and convincing address one seldom hears. A number of outside friends were present. The school quarter, Misses Baker, Burroughs, Wilson and Cadmus sang several appropriate selections.

About two thirds of the pupils will remain at the Seminary during Thanksgiving, those who live not far away spending the day at home, and some others visiting friends, who live near.

Prof. Geo. D. Herron of Iowa spoke at Lasell Seminary on Tuesday night, taking for his subject, "The Social Value of Individual Failure."

Coughing irritates the delicate organs and aggravates the disease. Instead of waiting, try One Minute Cough Cure. It helps at once, making expectoration easy. Reduces the soreness and inflammation. Everyone likes it. Arthur Hudson, Newton; Howard Willard, New Bedford; Upper Falls; Walter P. Thorn, Auburndale.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Ivers & Pond pianos, Farley, Newton.

—George Ellis and family spent Thanksgiving out of town with friends.

—Mr. T. J. Prince of Boston was in town this week visiting friends.

—A very pleasing whist party was given last Monday evening at the residence of William Flanders of Lake Terrace.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Dean of Woonsocket have been spending the week with Mr. James Vachon of this village.

—Mrs. F. S. Smith of Central street is away from town on a visit to relatives in Chicago.

—Mr. Isaac Dunn of Thompsonville is having a number of alterations, etc., made about his house.

—Mrs. Copeland of Elgin street has friends stopping with her this week from out of town.

—H. B. Egan of Brookline and family have taken a house on Kenwood street, Ashdon Park.

—L. W. Lincoln and family of Manet road spent Thanksgiving out of town with friends.

—E. B. Bowen of Summer street is intending to soon occupy his new house on the boulevard.

—William Bemis and family ate their Thanksgiving dinner with relatives at the Upper Falls.

—W. O. Knapp and family of Warren street spent Thanksgiving with relatives out of town.

—Fred Stanley having recovered from the effects of his recent illness has again entered the employ of Mr. Richardson.

—Thomas Burke, has recovered from his recent illness, and resumed his old position with W. O. Knapp & Co.

—Last week Patrolman Fletcher arrested one Thomas Haley of Thompsonville for non-support of his family, and he was fined $20.

—Quite a number of flocks of geese have been seen this week sailing over the village. The knowing ones say their appearance is a sign of colder weather.

—The time table is soon to be considerably changed and the citizens are anxiously watching for the new time tables. They will be issued by the road, Nov. 30.

—Thanksgiving day the N. A. A. and the Hyde Parks will have their final line up and the question of who is to have the cup will be decided.

—There was a large gathering at the home of Dr. Hovey, yesterday, many friends and relatives being invited to the Thanksgiving dinner.

—There was a large gathering of friends and relatives at the home of Dr. Boynton on Langley road, yesterday, to their Thanksgiving dinner.

—At the meeting of the Baptist Social Union in Boston, Monday evening, Col. E. H. Haskell was called upon to pay a tribute to Dr. S. S. Smith.

—Mr. Edward P. Morse of Boston has purchased a piece of land on Langdon road, near the Newton boulevard, on which he will erect a colonial house for his own occupancy.

—The first of Mrs. Bird's concerts was given last Saturday afternoon at the Unitarian church parlors, and was well attended. The next concert will be given Nov. 30.

—Several of the citizens are mourning the loss of their umbrellas this week. No church fair or any gathering of that sort is accountable for their disappearance according to tradition, but an umbrella man, who secured a number for the purpose of repairing, and then failed to materialize.

—Samuel S. Jameson, aged 53 years, committed suicide Sunday morning by hanging himself at his home, Langley road. He arrived home Saturday afternoon apparently in good health and spirits. About 3 o'clock Sunday morning he arose and left his chamber. As he did not return, his wife went into the entry and found the body of her husband suspended by a rope from a clothes hook. Mr. Jameson had lived but a few years in Newton Centre. He was a wool salesman for a firm on Chauncy street, Boston. He had been in bad health for several weeks and is believed to have been laboring under an attack of temporary insanity.

NAPOLEON,

ONCE ASKED FOR AN OPINION, Gives a Graphic Description of His Ideal Woman. Mothers Please Note.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

In response to a question asked by a lady, the great Napoleon replied,—"My ideal woman is not the beautiful-featured society belle, whose physician tries in vain to keep her in repair, nor the fragile butterfly of fashion, who glides like a butterfly over the case with a forced smile."

"No! my ideal is a woman who has accepted her being as a sacred trust, and who obeys the laws of nature for the preservation of her body and soul."

"Do you know, my knee involuntarily bends in homage when I meet the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation."

"That woman is rendered beautiful by perfect health, and the stalwart children by her side are her reward. That's my ideal woman."

To grow to ideal womanhood the girlhood should be carefully guarded.

Mothers owe a duty to their daughters that in too many cases is neglected.

Nature has provided a time for purification; and if the channels are obstructed the entire system is poisoned, and misery comes.

At a mothers' meeting the wife of a noted New York divine said to her listeners: "Watch carefully your daughters' physical development."

Mothers should see that Nature is assisted, if necessary, to perform its office, and keep their daughters well informed as to matters concerning themselves."

Irregularities, from whatever cause, are sure indications of organic trouble. With irregularities come disturbance of the stomach and kidneys.

Violent headaches often attack the victim; pains shoot everywhere. Extreme irritability follows quickly, and then utter despondency overwhelms the already over-burdened life.

Unless the obstruction is removed at once, your daughter's whole future will be darkened.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

Legal Notices.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
MIDDLESEX SS.

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors and all other persons interested in the estate of John W. Peterson late of Newton in said County, deceased, Inmate.

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Daniel J. G. Gishner of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on his bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the third day of December A. D. 1895, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper published in Newton the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this thirtieth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

73t S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
MIDDLESEX SS.

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors and all other persons interested in the estate of John W. Peterson late of Newton in said County, deceased, Inmate.

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Thomas F. McCarthy of Newton in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on his bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the third day of December A. D. 1895, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper published in Newton the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this thirtieth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

73t S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the subscribers have been duly appointed executors of the will of Elizabeth T. Eldridge late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, estate, and have taken upon themselves that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to:

JOSEPH B. READ
CHARLES M. LEONARD
CHARLES MORTON } Executors.

Oct. 1, 1895. 7

Expressmen.

CHAMBERLAIN'S NEWTONVILLE AND BOSTON EXPRESS

Newtonville Office: Tainter's, 286 Walnut St. Boston Office: 105 Arch, 48 Chamberlain St. Leave Newtonville 9.30 A. M., Boston 2.30 P. M.

HOLMES' Baggage Express.

You can always find one of Holmes' Expressmen at their stand, Newton Baggage Room from 6.30 A. M. to 8 P. M., where a call may be left, or leave orders at C. P. Atkins Grocer, or by Telephone Call at Hubbard & Procter's Apothecary.

General Jobbing
Residence: 15 Ames Street, Newton, Mass. 48PEARSON'S
Newton and Boston Express.

Boston Office: 91 Kilby St., 105 Arch St., 33 Court St.; Order Box, 91 Fanueil Hall Market. Newton Office: H. B. Combs; Order Boxes: Post Office and Blanchard & Atte. Leave Newton, 9.30 A. M. Leave Boston, 3 P. M.

NEWCOMB & SNYDER,
Newton and Boston Express.

Leave Newton, 7.30 and 9.30 A. M.; leave Boston, 12 M. and 3 P. M.; Newton Office: 354 Centre St. Order Box: Newton City Market. Boston Office: 15 Devonshire St., 174 Washington St., 34 Court St., 25 Merchants Row, 67 Franklin St., 11 Harrison Ave., Extension. P. O. Box 420, Newton. Personal attention given all orders. Tel. 272-2.

Photographers.

GEORGE S. BRAZER, (SUCCESSOR TO ODIN FRITZ).

Also Portraits in Oil, Water Color and Pastel.
368 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON, MASS.

Beware of Drugs

To Take Your Doctor's Advice is a good rule to follow. He advises, however, and the prescription he gives are worthless unless pure drugs are taken. There is no doubt about the quality of ours or the care with which they are compounded at—

ARTHUR HUDSON,
380 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

Try the Lord Roseberry Cigar.

FRANCIS MURDOCK.

INSURANCE AGENT,
Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT
placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies
Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord Mass.

Eliot Block, Newton

Weddings
and Receptions
SERVED IN SUPERIOR STYLE.

Eliot Block, Newton

Notices are hereby given, that the subscribers have been duly appointed executors of the will of Sarah Fell late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and has taken upon herself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to:

ELIZABETH FELL, Executors.

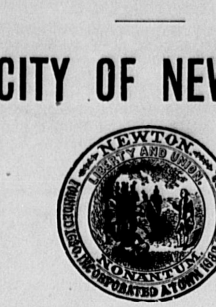

Newton Upper Falls, Nov. 12, 1895. 73t

Legal Notices.

City Electi

December 3, 1895.

CITY OF NEWTON

ORDERED.

That meetings of the citizens of this City, qualified to vote therein, are hereby called in the several Polling Places designated by this Board on Tuesday, the third day of December, A. D. 1895, for the election of a Mayor and Seven Aldermen, one Alderman being selected from each Ward, and in each Ward from residents there, two members of the Common Council. Also to elect five members of the School Committee, to be selected as follows: Two from Ward Five, two from Ward Six, and one from Ward Seven, to serve each for three years from the first Monday in January next.

Also to give in their ballots "Yes" or "No," in answer to the question, "Shall licenses be granted for the sale of intoxicating liquors in this city?" All the above officers and the question of licensing the sale of intoxicating liquors, to be voted for on one ballot, except that the votes for School Committee by women will be by a separate ballot.

The polls will be opened at seven o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at twelve minutes past four o'clock in the afternoon.

In the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Nov. 5, 1895.

Read and adopted.

ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, Clerk.

HENRY D. DEGEN, Acting Mayor.

Attest: ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

In accordance with the Acts of the General Court of 1883, Chap. 417, Title V, and the foregoing order,

Notice is hereby given of the meetings to be held for the purpose aforesaid, on the said 3rd day of December, 1895, in the several Polling Places as follows:—

Precinct 1, Ward 1, Voting Booth, Waban Street, near Pearl Street.
Precinct 2, Ward 1, Armory Hall, Washington Street.
Precinct 1, Ward 2, Rooms 6 and 8 Central Block, Washington Street.
Precinct 2, Ward 2, Tremont Hall, Washington Street.
Precinct 1, Ward 3, City Hall, Washington Street.
Precinct 2, Ward 3, City Hall, Washington Street.
Precinct 1, Ward 4, Auburn Hall, Ash Street.
Precinct 2, Ward 4, Freeman Hall, Washington Street.
Precinct 1, Ward 5, Old Prospect School House, Petee Street.
Precinct 2, Ward 5, Stevens Hall, Lincoln Street.
Precinct 1, Ward 6, Associates' Hall, Centre Street.
Precinct 2, Ward 6, Associates' Hall, Centre Street.
Precinct 1, Ward 7, Elliot Lower Hall, Centre Street.

ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

82t

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a mortgage given by Benjamin B. Newhall to William H. Freewright, dated February 28, 1894, recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 2345, page 368, for breach of condition of said mortgage, which will be sold by public auction on the premises hereinafter described on Monday December 31st 1895 at eleven o'clock in the forenoon all and singular the premises described in said mortgage, namely:

A parcel of land with buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex, Massachusetts bounded Northerly on Tremont Street two hundred and twenty feet, Southeasterly on land of Mary E. Ellison nine and three fourths acres, Southerly on land of said Ellison seventy five feet, Easterly on land of said Ellison one hundred and fifty three feet, Southerly on Vernon Street one hundred and thirty five feet, and Westerly by land of Susan C. Rawson two hundred thirty five feet and 6-10 feet. Said premises will be sold subject to a prior mortgage for twelve thousand dollars and to the restrictions contained in the title deeds so far as the same are now in force and applicable. Terms will be made known at sale.

WM H. Freewright Mortgagee

November 22, 1895
Geo H. Poor, Attorney,
51 Devonshire St Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale
of Real Estate.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Anna M. McQueen to Henry E. Cobb, dated February 28, 1895, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 2367, page 587, for breach of the conditions therein contained, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, and for the purpose of selling the premises hereinafter described by public auction upon the premises hereinafter described on the third day of December, 1895, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises contained in said mortgage, namely:—

A lot of land with buildings and improvements thereon situated in said Newton, being lot number 76 on a certain plan entitled "Plan of Building Lots in Newton Highlands near Elliott Street belonging to Thomas Weston, E. S. Smith & Co., dated June 1894, and bounded and described as follows:—beginning at the southerly corner of the intersection of Endicott Street with Carver Road and running northeasterly one hundred and ten feet to lot numbered 80 on said plan; thence turning at a right angle and running northeasterly sixty feet to lot numbered 77 on said plan; thence turning at a right angle and running southeasterly one hundred and ten feet to Endicott Street, thence turning at a right angle and running southeasterly on said Endicott Street sixty feet to the point of beginning, containing sixty six and one square feet, more or less, and being the same premises conveyed to said Anna M. McQueen by deed of Theodore R. Farmer dated and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 2367, page 587, dated February 28, 1895 and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 2367, page 587, subject to a prior mortgage of Three Thousand Dollars to Harriet A. Brooks, recorded in Middlesex, So. District, Deeds, Book 2360, folio 103. $10.00 at time and place of sale.

HENRY E. COBB, Mortgagee.

Boston, November 13, 1895.
Harry W. Mason, Atty.,
31 Milk St. Boston.

7

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the subscribers have been duly appointed executors of the will of Sarah Fell late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and has taken upon herself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to:

ELIZABETH FELL, Executors.

Newton Upper Falls, Nov. 12, 1895. 73t

NEWTON CENTRE.
 —Ivers & Pond pianos, Parley, Newton.
 —Henry S. Williams has returned home from his recent visit to Baltimore, Md.
 —The new waiting station at the end of the Newton and Boston road will be ready for occupancy next week.
 —Mr. Charles Ward will soon occupy his new house on Ward street.
 —Dea. Forbes has sold the house he formerly occupied on Centre street to Dr. Dutton, examining physician for the Massachusetts Benefit Society.
 —Bradshaw's sweet home candy store will be open for business Dec. 9, at its new location, corner of Washington street and Washington terrace, Newtonville.
 —Unitarian society, Sunday. Service at 10.30, conducted by Rev. Jos. H. Allen, D. D., of Cambridge. Sunday school at 12. Classes for children of all ages.
 —The great question of the day seems to be whether Ward Six will depart from its confirmed habit of giving a great Republican majority.
 —Don't fail to hear Major Ryan deliver one of his stirring patriotic lectures in Lincoln Hall, Newton Highlands, on Dec. 5, at 7.45 p. m. As the Major is one of the greatest orators in this vicinity again this year, come.
 —Miss Lena Mabee will give an exhibition and sale of decorated china, Wednesday, December 4th, from two to nine o'clock, and Thursday, December 5th, from two to five o'clock, at her home, 27 Pelham street.
 —Geo. H. Richardson probably had in stock and sold more turkeys this week than any other provision man in this vicinity. Wednesday when our scribe was at the Centre, Mr. Richardson had just received a shipment of turkeys weighing some 1197 pounds in all.
 —Last Wednesday evening a very pleasant social was enjoyed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Currier at their home on Lincoln avenue, Newton Highlands. A large number of residents of this village attended, Mr. Currier being a former citizen of this place.
 —Jerry Hooley within the last few days again got mixed up with the money in a Thompsonville money keeper's shop and consequently with the police later in the day. He was taken into court and is now away from town on a protracted visit to the state reformatory at Concord. Hooley has only recently finished a sentence for manslaughter and has a very bad name. His last sentence was for the unprovoked shooting of Albert Roach, another young man living at Thompsonville, from the effects of which the latter died.
 —The fair for which the ladies have been working so hard since Oct. 1, in cooperation with the Improvement Association, is going to be one of the most attractive ever held in the city. The departments will be so many and so complete that our Christmas presents can all be bought this year right here at home. This fair deserves the most liberal patronage. Every cent spent there will yield a dividend in the form of a more beautiful playground. The purpose for which it is held should commend it to the whole city. In addition to its practical importance it will also be a great social event. There will be a variety of amusements every afternoon and evening, in which the little folks will be specially remembered. The dates fixed upon are Tuesday evening, Dec. 10, Wednesday afternoon and evening, Dec. 11, and Thursday afternoon and evening, Dec. 12, the closing feature of the last named evening being a grand ball. Watch the papers next week for full particulars.
 —Miss Edith Hassler's friends will undoubtedly be glad to read the following extract from an article in the Chautauque Outlook of last week: "The organ concert last Tuesday evening was certainly an auspicious opening for our musical season. The soprano (soprano of the Chautauque Lake Concert Quartet) whose home is in Newton, has been studying and will continue her studies another year, under a Marchesi pupil in New York, whose praises Miss Hassler never weary of sounding. Miss Hassler is a stranger here and a very welcome one. Her voice is extremely pleasing and her selections were well suited to it. Entirely aside from her voice she has an indefinable charm of personality which is peculiarly individual and refreshing. After the affected and 'taggy' air assumed by so many young debutantes, she is unaffected and modest, has a winning face and a fine presence and carries herself with grace and grace. Her singing with soul and enthusiasm and therefore her future career as a successful artist is almost beyond doubt."

NEWTON CENTRE.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.
 —The next meeting of the C. L. S. C. will be with Mrs. J. F. C. Hyde.
 —Mrs. G. L. Forristall of Bowdoin street is quite ill with pneumonia.
 —Miss Nellie Hyde is in New York for a few days as the guest of her cousin.
 —Unitarian services in Stevens' hall Sunday morning at 10.45. Mr. Woodman from Harvard Divinity school will preach.
 —Mr. John Linn will move to the house in Crafts Square lately vacated by Officer Moulton.
 —Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Waterhouse have returned from their trip to Washington, stopping for a while in New York.
 —The West End Literary Club will meet Dec. 2, with Miss Stuntz, Boylston street, Eliot.
 —The mother of Mr. Geo. May died at her home on Tuesday at the age of 89 years.
 —Bradshaw's sweet home candy store will be open for business Dec. 9, at its new location, corner of Washington street and Washington terrace, Newtonville.
 —At the Methodist Episcopal church the pastor will speak next Sunday morning on the "Function of Conscience." Evening subject, "The Rich Man and Lazarus."
 —Mr. Snow and family now occupy the house at Eliot lately purchased by Miss Chisholm of Mr. H. M. Bond. Mrs. Snow is a sister of Miss Chisholm.
 —The young people who are fond of dancing will be pleased to learn of the prospects of a Hurdy-Gurdy party soon under the auspices of the Unitarian society.
 —Mr. W. B. Page, whose residence is at the corner of Washington and Hume streets, has a cellar staked out for a house near the residence of Mr. Newton Crane, and we hear that it is his intention to erect several houses in the near future.
 —Don't fail to hear Major Ryan deliver one of his stirring patriotic lectures in Lincoln Hall, Dec. 5, at 7.45 p. m. As the Major is one of the greatest orators of the present time and not likely to be in this vicinity again this year, come.
 —The meeting of the Monday Club at the home of Mrs. Pennell on Monday last was one of special pleasure to the members and invited guests present. The program for the afternoon was opened by a piano solo by Miss Stone; after this came a paper by Mrs. Kathleen M. Phelps on "The Marble Faun." Italian songs were given by Mr. Pennell, Miss Emerson, and Miss Barber, with violin obligato by Miss Kate Mansou. At recess tea was served, after which Mr. Pennell gave a talk on the Italian method of singing and rules for pronouncing the language.

—That there are wonderful possibilities in the 'cello will be admitted by all who have had the pleasure of hearing Miss A. Laura Tolman, a member of the Svensen Trio. Her first appearance here last winter in the Highland Club course has been followed this season by a second recital at the same place. The bass aria from Mendelssohn's 'Elijah' was the solo, and was accompanied by 'cello and piano, and an accompaniment was something never to be forgotten, while the Andante from Goltzman's concerto, by Miss Tolman showed to the best possible advantage the merits of the 'cello as a solo instrument, and the great promise of this young artist.

AUBURNDALE.

—Rev. T. W. Bishop will preach at the Methodist church, next Sunday morning.
 —The annual re-union of the class of '92, N. H. S., will be held at the Newton Boat Club.
 —Mr. W. I. Goodrich has been confined to his room by a broken leg for three weeks.
 —Bradshaw's sweet home candy store will be open for business Dec. 9, at its new location, corner of Washington street and Washington terrace, Newtonville.
 —Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Jordan Ranlett have returned from a delightful trip to Europe and are residing for the winter in Boston.
 —Mr. J. Q. Adams and his daughter are spending the winter in Boston.
 —At the evening meeting in the Congregational chapel, Sunday, among many causes of thankfulness, several mentioned residence in Auburndale, as special mercy, saying with King David "The lines are fallen to me in pleasant places."
 —The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a fair in the chapel, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings, Dec. 4 and 5. Useful and fancy articles will be on sale, also refreshments. Admission, 10 cents.
 —The game between the North and South teams on the park, yesterday, resulted in a tie game, neither side scoring. The play on both sides was exceedingly good, the men all showing in good form in spite of hardly any practice.
 —A lively street row on Commonwealth avenue caused considerable excitement yesterday afternoon. A large crowd collected on the street about 4 p. m. and more than a dozen men were involved in a free fight. A citizen notified police headquarters, and the patrol wagon hurried to the scene. Lawrence Lyons and Patrick Lyons, both of this place, were arrested, and warrants are out for half a dozen others. Peter Deleahanty, Edward Shanahan, Timothy Daley and Thomas Foran were all arrested. In court this morning Foran was fined $15, Deleahanty $10, Daley $5, Shanahan $25, Lawrence Lyons $10 and Patrick Lyons $20. On the charge of drunkenness L. Lyons was fined $5 and Patrick Lyons $15.
 —Last evening during a row in a house occupied by Italian laborers on Auburndale avenue, John Marali was stabbed about the head and neck by one Nicolo Delvichio. Serg. Purcell with several officers arrested Delvichio and two other interested parties. Delvichio was sentenced to two years imprisonment.

WABAN.

—Miss Kendrick spent Thanksgiving at Roxbury.
 —Mr. Chas. D. Stone and family passed the holidays in Chelsea.
 —Dr. Twombly conducted service in the hall last Sunday evening.
 —The next meeting of the B. J. C. Whist Club will be held on Friday evening, Dec. 7, and not Nov. 28, as previously stated. Miss Dresser entertains the club.
 —It makes us feel positively ill to think we shall not have an opportunity of swimming from the station to the depot this winter. We think, however, the raised path will be a great improvement.
 —It is regretted extremely that the Hilles and the Poor Farmers are to omit their annual foot ball game on Thanksgiving Day. Like Harvard, the latter cannot bear the blow of another defeat.
 —The many friends of Miss Heaton wish her great success at her exhibition of decorated china, which will be held in the Village Hall on the afternoon of Dec. 2nd to 7th inclusive from 2 to 6 p. m.
 —It is thought to be an oversight on the part of the leaders of the Waban Chautauque to allow service to be held last Sunday evening, as it rained quite heavily during the early part of the day.
 —With houses going up so rapidly in Waban and new families constantly moving in, it is hoped that we may soon be able to support a cab at the station. Beside being a great convenience it will afford some amusement for residents in the line of struggling for first place, or more properly speaking first ride.

Subscription Assembly at the Newton Clubhouse.

The younger society set of the Newtons was well represented at the subscription assembly given at the Newton Clubhouse at Newtonville, Wednesday evening. The affair was patronized by Mrs. John E. Alden, Mrs. George T. Coppins and Mrs. John A. Kenrick, and was attended by nearly 200 young people.
 —Dancing commenced at 8 in the prettily decorated assembly hall of the clubhouse, and continued with a brief intermission for refreshments until midnight.
 —The floor was under the direction of Mr. William T. Coppins, who was assisted by Messrs. John Alden and W. D. K. Taylor.
 —Among those present were: Miss Francis Whittemore, Miss Agnes Merchant, Miss Maud Bixby, Miss May Hollings, Miss Alice E. Davis, Miss Marion Ashley, Miss Carrie Seales, Miss Rose Loring, Miss Carrie Coppins, Miss Florence Jewell, Miss Janie Hobart, Miss Bessie Ginn, Miss Emily Carter, Miss Hattie Severance, Miss Mabel F. Hamford, Miss Alice Hill, Miss Jennie Clark, Miss Clara Farquhar, Miss Jean Kenrick, Messrs. George Kimball, Frank M. Johnson, Allen Emery, Mr. H. T. Jones, Luther T. Seales, Henry Gravatt, T. C. Phelps, Fred Lane, N. P. Simmons, William C. Johnson, Lambert Whitney, George B. Burrage, Dudley J. Donbrook, J. C. Dillingham, George Lane, Edward W. Ritchie, Edward M. Hallett, Francis Prescott, Raymond Brackett, Charles Stevens, Arthur Hollis, E. H. Hammond, Anderson Lord, Chas. Fitz, W. C. Crawley, W. N. Bacon, John Farquhar, and Harry H. Crafts.
 —N. A. A. Wins.
 —The Newton A. A. foot ball team easily defeated Hyde Park, yesterday, 30 to 2, and won the Suburban league championship bowl. It was a fine game for the Newtons. There were two 25 minute halves, and 1,500 people were present.
 —At Waltham the Walthams beat the second N. A. A. eleven, 18 to 0.

Rubber Tires.

The most reliable rubber tire, and also the cheapest, is represented and the tires furnished by P. A. Murray. They are made by the Rubber Tire Wheel Co., who have a branch house in Boston. There is no comfort in carriage riding without rubber tires.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Wednesday evening in their rooms at the old Clafin school was held the regular meeting of the Newton school board, Pres. Hollis in the chair.

The reading of the records being postponed, the first business to be transacted was the nomination and election of Clara G. Bacon as assistant at the Mason school at a salary of $620.

REPORTS.

were received from the various committees as follows: from the finance committee reporting the total expenditures for the month to be $14,885.36; adopted; from the finance committee relative to the appropriation and expenditure for the present fiscal year showing the appropriation to be $132,528.49 and the expenditure $120,057.28; adopted.

ORDERS.

were passed as follows: that the sum of $46.50 be transferred from the appropriation for conveyance of pupils to the general appropriation, also that $125 be taken from the appropriation for incidentals and transferred to the same appropriation; that $14,885.36 be appropriated for expenditures for December; that $846.60 be appropriated for finishing the new addition to the Elce school; that the Christmas holidays commence at noon Tuesday, Dec. 24, and last until Jan. 2d.
 Mr. Smith amended this order so that the vacation should last from Friday, Dec. 20, to Jan. 2nd, on the ground that this week would be badly broken into if adopted. After some further discussion the order was adopted and amended.

NEW BUSINESS.

The order relating to the committee on teachers was taken from the table and amended by Mr. Smith. Substitutions were made in Sec. 4 of Chap. 1 of the rules by inserting the words, "committee on teachers," in Chap. 2, that a section to be numbered 8 relative to the committee on teachers; also that sections 8 to 10 of Chap. 2, be numbered from 9 to 20; also that the words "committee on teachers" be added to the words "local committee" in the order passed by the board, Jan. 1893; that the words "local committee in charge thereof, and of the committee on teachers" be substituted for the words "committee on finance and account;" also that the words "committee on teachers" be substituted for the words "committee on finance and account" in the order passed by the board, Jan. 1894.

AN ORDER.

was passed that part of the superintendent's report as relating to statistics be taken from the table. The report was read by Mr. Conant, as chairman of the committee on statistics and adopted.

A VOTE.

by ballot for a superintendent for the coming year, resulted in the unanimous reelection of Geo. L. Aldrich. Twelve ballots were cast all in his favor.

THE SANITARY CONDITION.

of the High school was touched on by Mr. Howes, who asked of the board what had been done relative to the sanitary condition of the High school.

MR. COFFIN.

stated that he had been informed that the board of health had been giving the matter their attention and finding the conditions to be very bad in the old part of the building had begun to pull the closets, etc., out.

MR. HOLLIS.

said he hoped the delay in this matter would not be attributed to the school board. They had called the attention of the city government to it some two or three years ago. At that time the plumbing, etc., was examined and reported to be in good condition.

ON THE MOTION.

of Mr. Howes it was decided that the report be referred to the committee on other schools, than the High school. There being no further business the board adjourned.

Y. M. C. A. Lecture Course.

The Y. M. C. A. are showing some enterprise in providing such a good series of entertainments at such a reasonable price, and they promise to be both instructive and entertaining. The purchaser of a season ticket will not only get value received but will be aiding an institution doing so much for the young men of Newton and which needs all the pecuniary assistance it can have.
 The course opens on the 4th of December with impersonations and readings by Wellington Patten. The gentleman is connected with the Boston School of Expression. His recitals have been given in many places with great success, and an evening spent with him will be a delight and pleasure to all attending.

Lecture Course.

A course of three lectures, illustrated with the stereopticon, on Egypt and Palestine at the Newtonville New church parlors. Admission 25 cents.
 Sunday, Dec. 1, "Remembered Paths in and about Jerusalem." 8 p.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Liver, Biliousness, Indigestion, Headache. A pleasant laxative. All Druggists.

THE SUPERIORITY OF OUR LAMPS

Consists largely in their ABSOLUTE SAFETY. The burners, embracing several varieties, are of the best European and American manufacture. The oil receptacles are all of brass. Lamps constructed on these principles cannot explode. For beauty of design, quality of material and excellence of workmanship our lamps stand unrivalled. We have them in DRESDEN, and FRENCH CHINA, ENGLISH POTTERY, NEW and OLD DELFT, WROUGHT IRON, SILVER, BRONZE and BRASS. OUR PATTERNS in SHADES are EXCLUSIVE and cannot be obtained elsewhere.
 All lamps of our manufacture are warranted.

Inspection Invited.

R. Hollings & Co.,
 Importers and Manufacturers,
 523-525 Washington St., Boston.

SHEPHERD'S Gems of Foreign Art,

252 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON.

Choice Bits in Oil and Water Colors, Sketches by the Old Masters, Engravings, Old Specimens and many objects of Artistic merit from the old world. Also an interesting collection of ornaments and weapons from the savage tribes of the World.

Wm T. Shepherd,
 252 Boylston Street. - Boston.

FURS! FURS!

Best Quality. Leading Styles. Lowest Prices.

Custom Work a specialty. Furs dyed and made over into the most desirable styles. Perfect fit guaranteed, for which my reputation is a sufficient guarantee.

H. Crine, THE FURRIER.
 15 and 17 Ave. St., Boston.

MONSIEUR DE SOISSONS,
 OF PARIS
 Professor of the
 FRENCH LANGUAGE.
 IS READY TO RECEIVE PUPILS.
 MAPLE CIRCLE, NEWTON.

EMPLOYMENT OFFICE.

Miss N. L. DOHERTY,
 370 Washington St., opp. Thornton,
 NEWTON, MASS.

H. P. GAMBLE,
 Late of Hollander's,
 274 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON.

Reception, Tailor and Evening Gowns. Top Coats and Riding Habits.

$15 AND UPWARDS.

WINTER BOARD FOR HORSES.

Hosmer Farm, - Concord, Mass.
 Terms, $2.50 and $3 per week.
 Newton and Boston references furnished.
 ADDRESS
GEO. M. BAKER, 2d, Proprietor, Telephone, Concord 9-3 CONCORD, MASS.

AYERS' HYGIENIC COFFEE.

A Health Drink, Nerve and Brain Food.
 A vegetable and cereal compound, contains all the elements one's system requires.
 Prepared by H. W. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass.
 A Vegetarian for many years.

Price 20 Cts. per Pound, or by mail 40 Cts.

DIRECTIONS. Prepare the same as Coffee, using not more than two-thirds as much for same amount of water, or one tablespoon to a pint. Follow the directions and you will use no other.

For sale by principal wholesale and retail grocers. Send 2c. stamp for book on "Diet Reform."

M. S. AYER, 209 & 211 STATE ST., BOSTON.

Samuel A. Parsons,
 Interior Decorator

Furniture Specialist,
 7 Park Square, Boston.
 Estimates and Designs Furnished.
 Communications can be addressed to his residence.
 Winthrop St., West Newton. P. O. Box 242.
 Telephone, 28-3.

All purchases delivered FREE at Residences in Newton.

Memo. for Carpet Buyers.

Houses are not carpeted every year. Naturally, therefore, many of our old customers, who purchased their Carpets and Draperies before we moved to our new building, are still unaware of our change of location.

To avoid complications, it is well to remember that our new store is on Washington Street,

Opposite Boylston Street.

Cut out this advertisement and preserve it till you are in need of Carpets or Draperies. It will pay you to remember our address.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
 CARPETS AND UPHOLSTERY,
 658 Washington St. (opposite Boylston St.), Boston.
 Established 1817.

Represented in Newton by Mr. Henry Adams.

Fine Woolens at Moderate Prices.

We Do Not Propose To Be Undersold.

OUR SALES ARE LARGE. . .
 WHY? Because sold at Prices that DEFY COMPETITION!

All We Ask--Come and See.

Barnum says people want to be humbugged. We say No. Our motto, "LIVE AND LET LIVE." We believe in fair competition. Inspection of our large and elegant stock of goods shows that we are the Poor Man's Friend, as well as the rich.

We Beat the World.

Styles, Quality and Prices that we name sell Thousands of Dollars Daily. Our salesmen are anxious to show goods, whether you buy or not, and it is no trouble to show them.

Positively Fifty Thousand Dollars' Worth to be Sold Before January 1st, 1896.

CASH OR EASY TERMS.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
 We take great pleasure in announcing that we have secured the services of Mr. Joseph P. Atkinson, late manager for the Atkinson Furnishing Co., of Boston, and he will be pleased to receive calls from any of his customers or friends.

CRESCENT FURNITURE CO.,
 30 and 36 Washington St., Boston.
 J. W. WOOD, General Manager.

PEARMAIN & BROOKS
 Stock and Bond Brokers.
 Orders by Mail Promptly Executed. Correspondence Solicited.
 Good Bonds and Mortgages on hand for immediate delivery.
Stock Exchange Building, 53 State St., Boston.
 SUMNER B. PEARMAIN. L. LORING BROOKS.

Richardson's Market,
 BRAY'S BLOCK
 Newton Centre, - - Mass.,
 Everything may be found that ought to be in a First Class Market.
Beef, Lamb, Veal, Pork, Turkeys, Chickens, Wild Game, Oysters, Clams, 10 kinds of Fish, Eggs, Butter, Cheese, Fruit, Canned Goods, Telepho glands.

Full Line. Finest Quality.
GEO. E. HUSE & CO.,
 —DEALERS IN—
Meats and Provisions.
White's Block, Centre St., NEWTON CENTRE,
 GEO. E. HUSE. LEWIS MURPHY.

We Call . .

Special attention to our latest importation of Olives, Olive Oils and Macaroni, put up to our Special order. Also Jellies, Tea, Chase and Sanborn's Coffees, etc.

Choice Groceries.
W. O. KNAPP & CO.,
 NEWTON CENTRE.
 Telephone 22-3, N. H.

has made a LARGE ADDITION to his Stock of Groceries, Butter, and Eggs.
GEORGE PROUDFOOT
 CENTRE ST., next to NOBLES'S DRUG STORE.